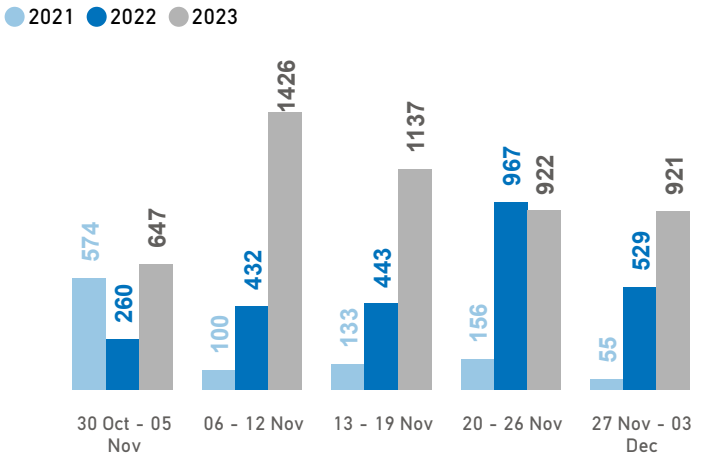
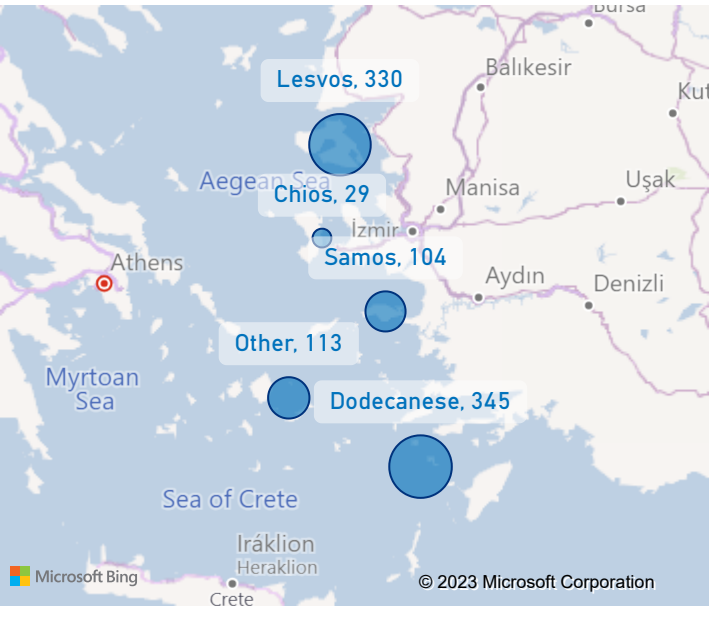
Aegean Islands Weekly Snapshot

Sea arrivals

This week, the Aegean islands saw 921 arrivals, a decrease from last week's 922.
The average of the daily arrivals on the Aegean islands for this week is 132.



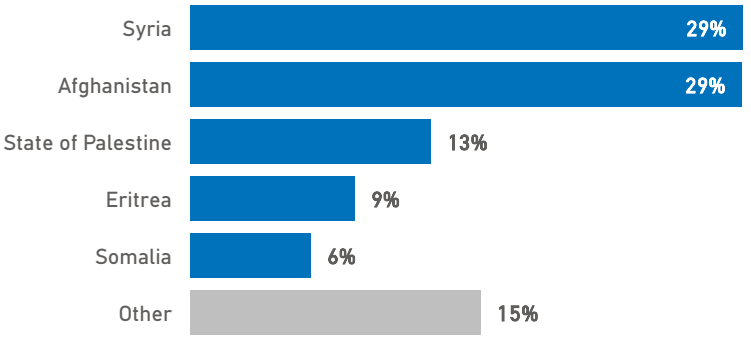
Entry Points

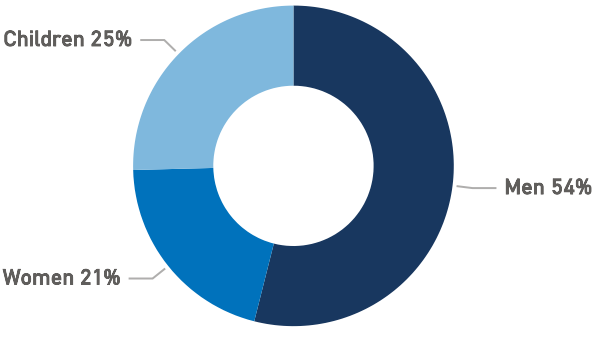


Population in the CCACs

Currently, 15,918 refugees and migrants reside in the Closed Controlled Access Center(s).

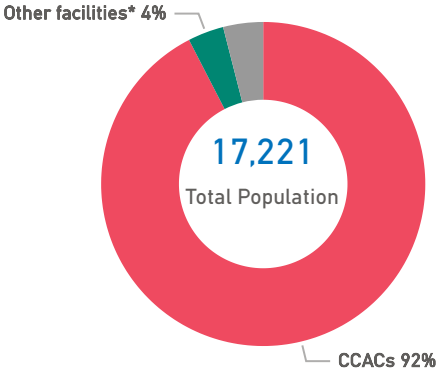
Most of them are from Syria (29%), Afghanistan (29%) and State of Palestine (13%). Men account for 54% of the population, women for 21% and children for 25%.





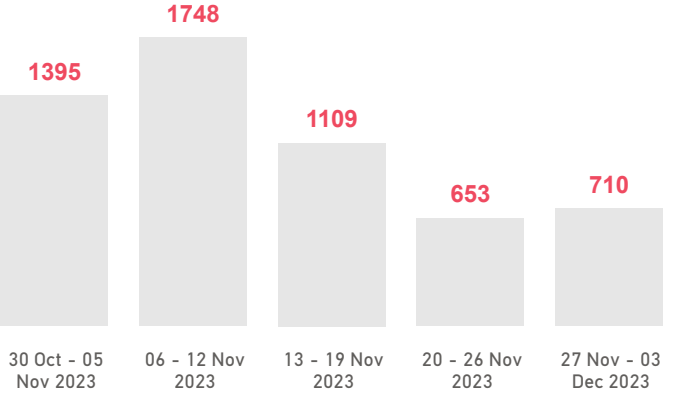
Population on the Islands

There are 17,221 refugees and migrants on the Aegean islands. Out of this total, 15,918 reside at the CCACs and 617 are hosted in other facilities. UNHCR estimates that there are also 686 self-accommodated in the islands.



Departures

This week, 710 refugees and migrants departed from the Aegean islands to the mainland.



Published on 06/12/2023

more information: UNHCR Operational Portal - Greece

Other facilities include shelters for unaccompanied children, detention facilities, etc.

Refugees and migrants includes asylum-seekers, beneficiaries of international protection and people out of the asylum procedure.

Departures to the mainland mainly include: i) transfers in the context of IOM Assisted Voluntary Return and Reintegration programme, ii) transfers of unaccompanied children to State-run facilities, iii) organized transfers supported by the government, including controlled facilities for temporary accommodation of asylum-seekers in the mainland/sites, and iv) those who depart on their own means.

Data Sources: Population data - Partial Data from the Government and other sources; Arrivals/Departures - Hellenic Police, Hellenic Coastguard

Figures are subject to future adjustment based on consolidated figures provided by the authorities. Percentages may not add up to 100 due to rounding and slightly differ between the text and graphs.

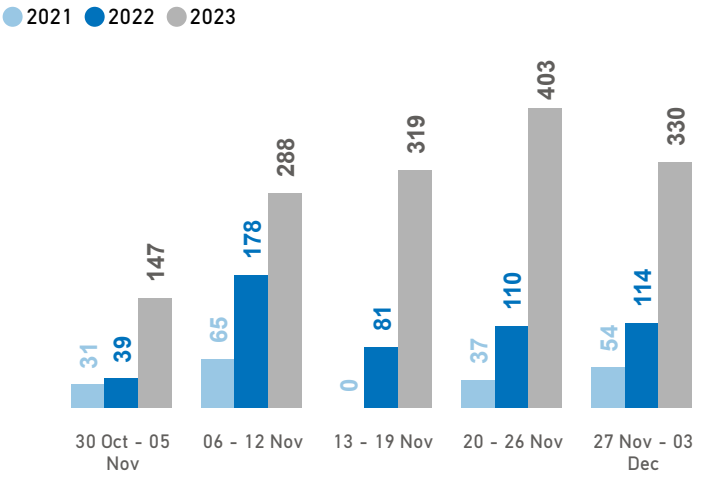
The boundaries, the names shown and the designations used on the map do not imply official endorsement or acceptance by the United Nations.

Lesvos Weekly Snapshot

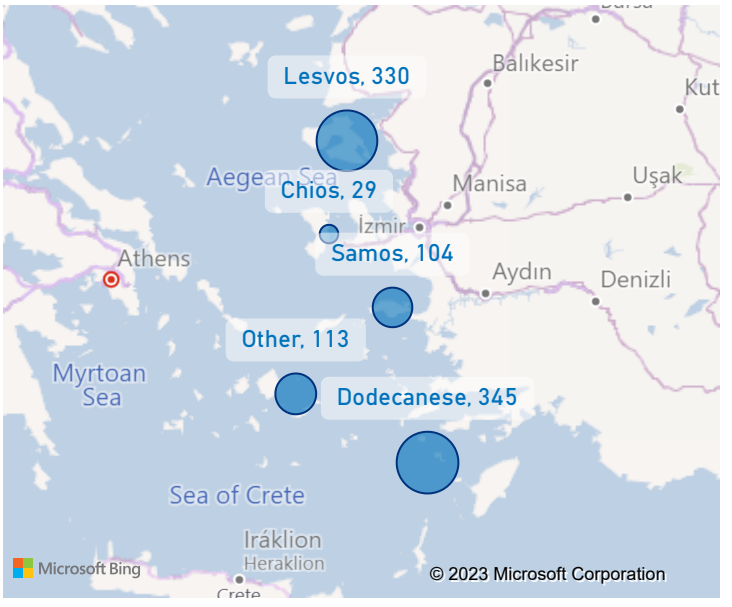
Sea arrivals

This week, Lesvos saw 330 arrivals, a decrease from last week's 403.

The average of the daily arrivals on Lesvos for this week is 47.



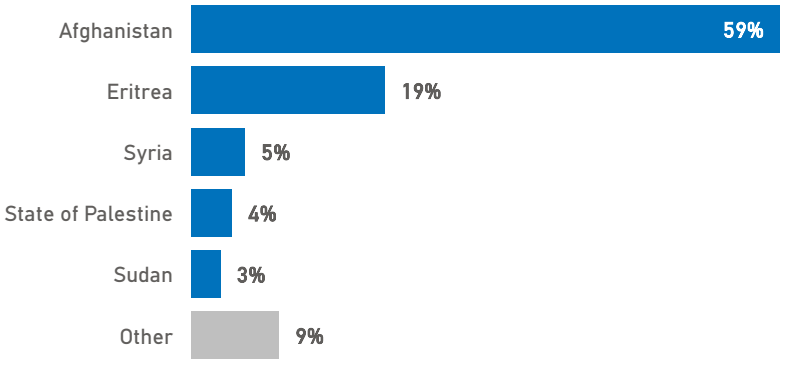
Entry Points

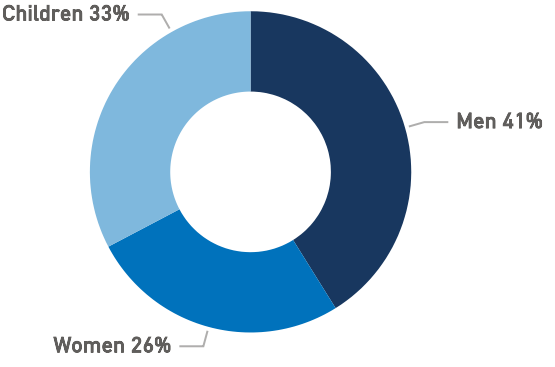


Population in the CCAC

Currently, 4,840 refugees and migrants reside in the Closed Controlled Access Center.

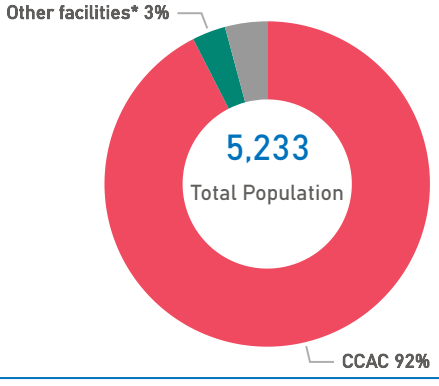
Most of them are from Afghanistan (59%), Eritrea (19%) and Syria (5%). Men account for 41% of the population, women for 26% and children for 33%.





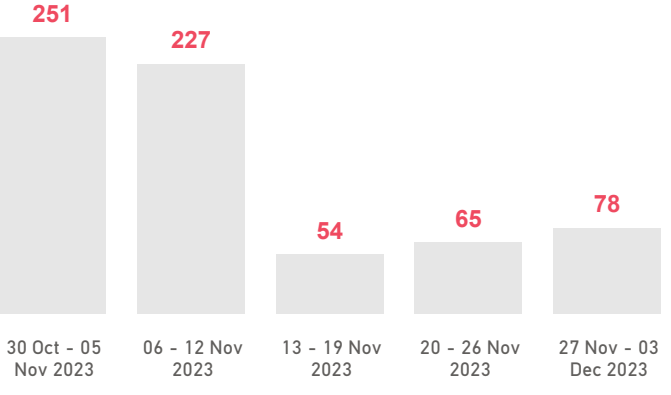
Population on the Island

There are 5,233 refugees and migrants on Lesvos. Out of this total, 4,840 reside at the CCAC and 174 are hosted in other facilities. UNHCR identified 219 self-accommodated refugees in the island up to this date.



Departures

This week, 78 refugees and migrants departed from Lesvos to the mainland.



Published on 06/12/2023

more information: UNHCR Operational Portal - Greece

Other facilities include shelters for unaccompanied children, detention facilities, etc.

Refugees and migrants includes asylum-seekers, beneficiaries of international protection and people out of the asylum procedure.

Departures to the mainland mainly include: i) transfers in the context of IOM Assisted Voluntary Return and Reintegration programme, ii) transfers of unaccompanied children to State-run facilities, iii) organized transfers supported by the government, including controlled facilities for temporary accommodation of asylum-seekers in the mainland/sites, and iv) those who depart on their own means.

Data Sources: Population data - Partial Data from the Government and other sources; Arrivals/Departures - Hellenic Police, Hellenic Coastguard

Figures are subject to future adjustment based on consolidated figures provided by the authorities. Percentages may not add up to 100 due to rounding and slightly differ between the text and graphs.

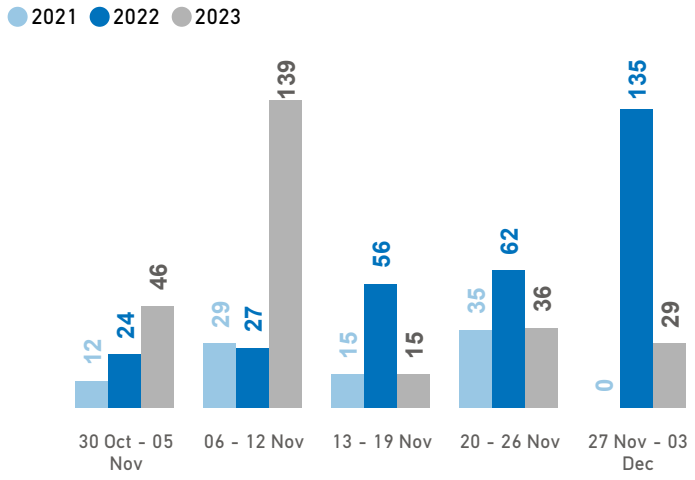
The boundaries, the names shown and the designations used on the map do not imply official endorsement or acceptance by the United Nations.

Chios Island Weekly Snapshot

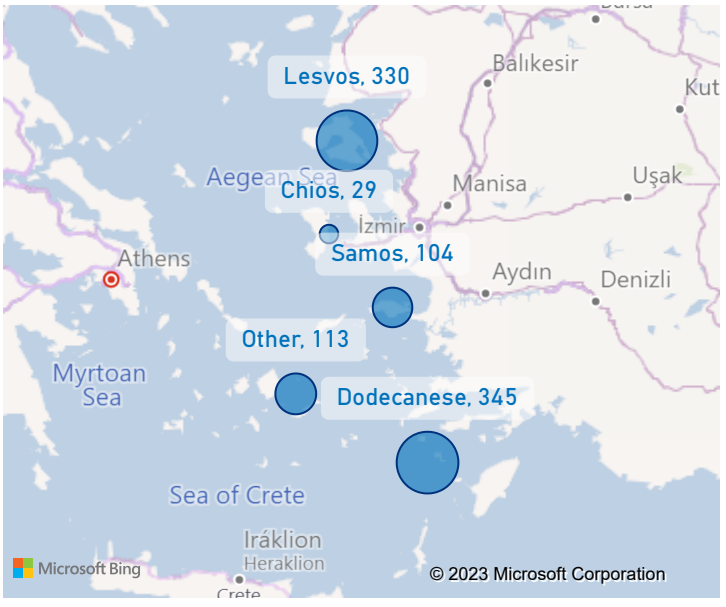
Sea arrivals

This week, Chios island saw 29 arrivals, a decrease from last week's 36.

The average of the daily arrivals on Chios island for this week is 4.



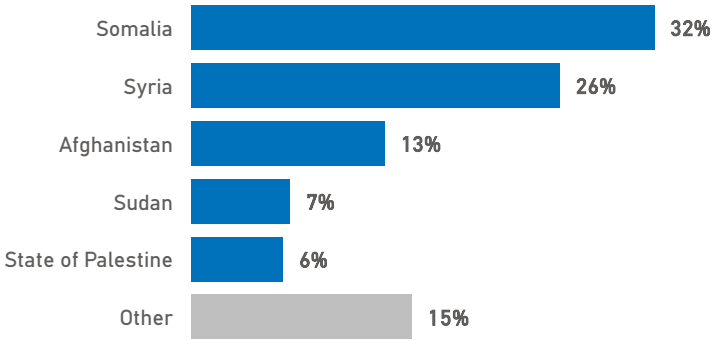
Entry Points

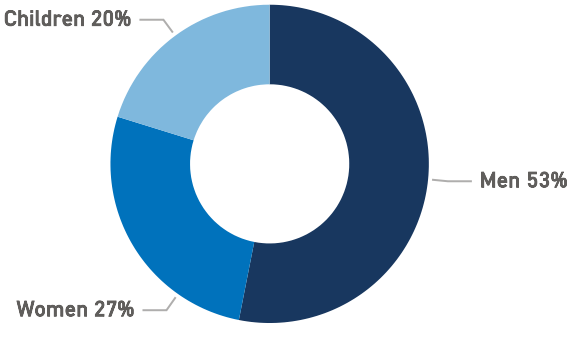


Population in the CCAC

Currently, 1,021 refugees and migrants reside in the Closed Controlled Access Center.

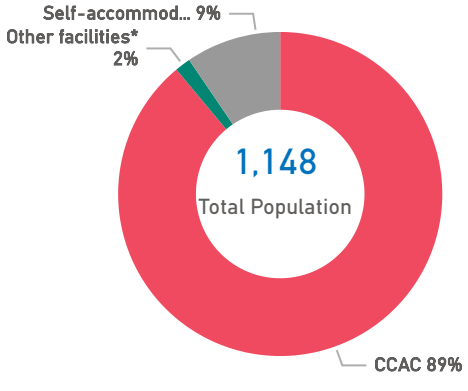
Most of them are from Somalia (32%), Syria (26%) and Afghanistan (13%). Men account for 53% of the population, women for 27% and children for 20%.





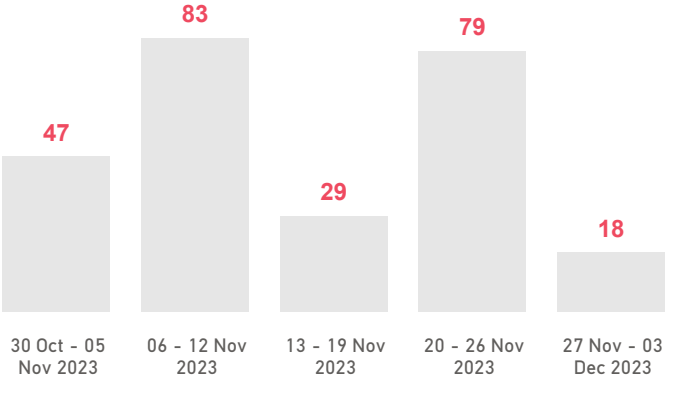
Population on the Island

There are 1,148 refugees and migrants on Chios island. Out of this total, 1,021 reside at the CCAC and 18 are hosted in other facilities. UNHCR estimates that there are also 109 self-accommodated in the island.



Departures

This week, 18 refugees and migrants departed from Chios island to the mainland



Published on 06/12/2023

more information: UNHCR Operational Portal - Greece

Other facilities include shelters for unaccompanied children, detention facilities, etc.

Refugees and migrants includes asylum-seekers, beneficiaries of international protection and people out of the asylum procedure.

Departures to the mainland mainly include: i) transfers in the context of IOM Assisted Voluntary Return and Reintegration programme, ii) transfers of unaccompanied children to State-run facilities, iii) organized transfers supported by the government, including controlled facilities for temporary accommodation of asylum-seekers in the mainland/sites, and iv) those who depart on their own means.

Data Sources: Population data - Partial Data from the Government and other sources; Arrivals/Departures - Hellenic Police, Hellenic Coastguard

Figures are subject to future adjustment based on consolidated figures provided by the authorities. Percentages may not add up to 100 due to rounding and slightly differ between the text and graphs.

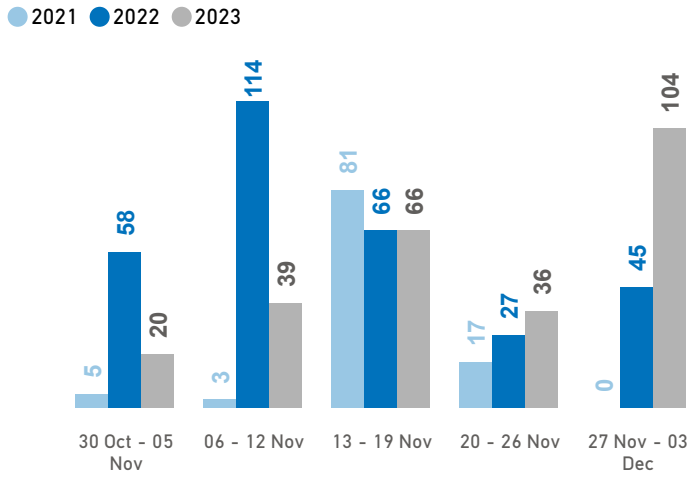
The boundaries, the names shown and the designations used on the map do not imply official endorsement or acceptance by the United Nations.

Samos Island Weekly Snapshot

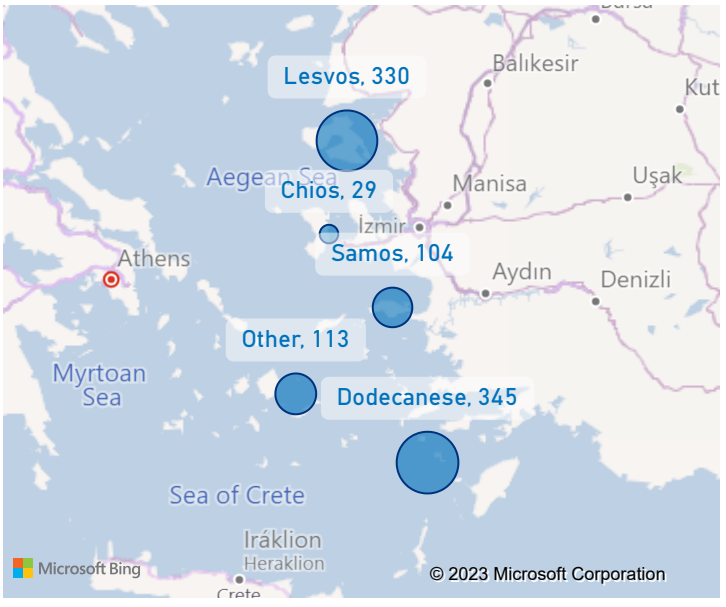
Sea arrivals

This week, Samos island saw 104 arrivals, an increase from last week's 36.

The average of the daily arrivals on Samos island for this week is 15.



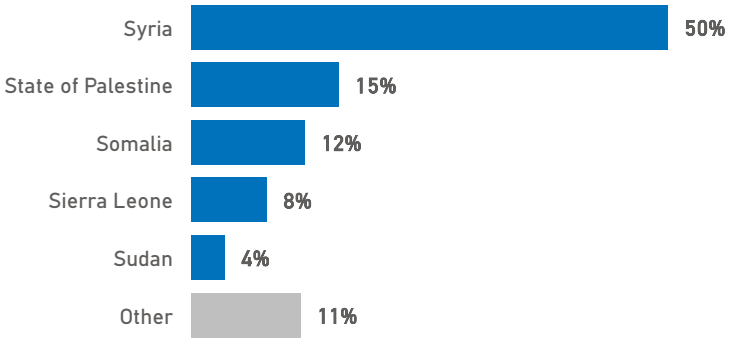
Entry Points

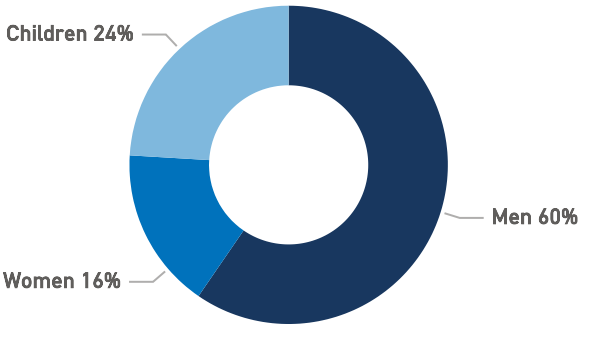


Population in the CCAC

Currently, 3,538 refugees and migrants reside in the Closed Controlled Access Center.

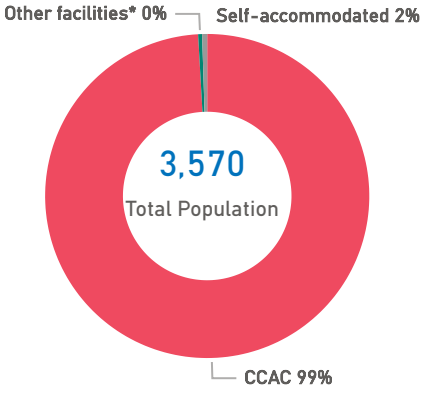
Most of the registered population are from Syria (50%), State of Palestine (15%) and Somalia (12%). Men account for 60% of the population, women for 16% and children for 24%.





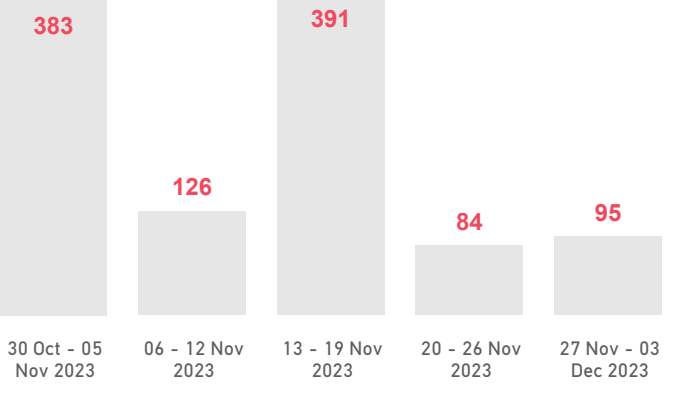
Population on the Island

There are 3,570 refugees and migrants on Samos island. Out of this total, the 3,538 reside at the CCAC and 14 are hosted in other facilities. UNHCR estimates that there are also 18 self-accommodated in the island.



Departures

This week, 95 refugees and migrants departed from Samos island to the mainland.



Published on 06/12/2023

more information: UNHCR Operational Portal - Greece

Other facilities include shelters for unaccompanied children, detention facilities, etc.

Refugees and migrants includes asylum-seekers, beneficiaries of international protection and people out of the asylum procedure.

Departures to the mainland mainly include: i) transfers in the context of IOM Assisted Voluntary Return and Reintegration programme, ii) transfers of unaccompanied children to State-run facilities, iii) organized transfers supported by the government, including controlled facilities for temporary accommodation of asylum-seekers in the mainland/sites, and iv) those who depart on their own means.

Data Sources: Population data - Partial Data from the Government and other sources; Arrivals/Departures - Hellenic Police, Hellenic Coastguard

Figures are subject to future adjustment based on consolidated figures provided by the authorities. Percentages may not add up to 100 due to rounding and slightly differ between the text and graphs.

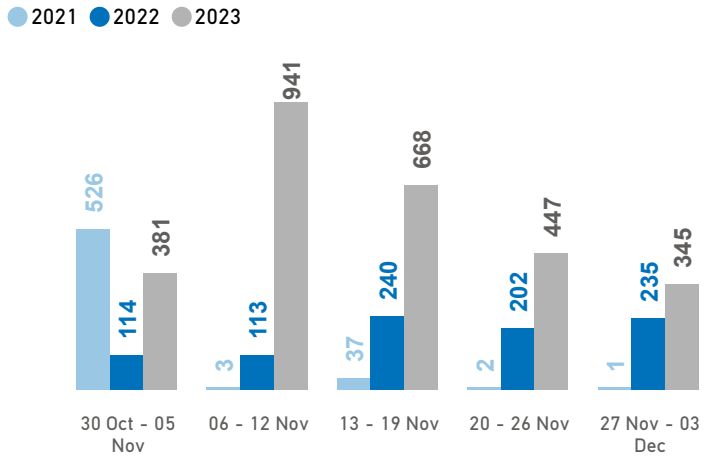
The boundaries, the names shown and the designations used on the map do not imply official endorsement or acceptance by the United Nations.

Dodecanese Islands Weekly Snapshot

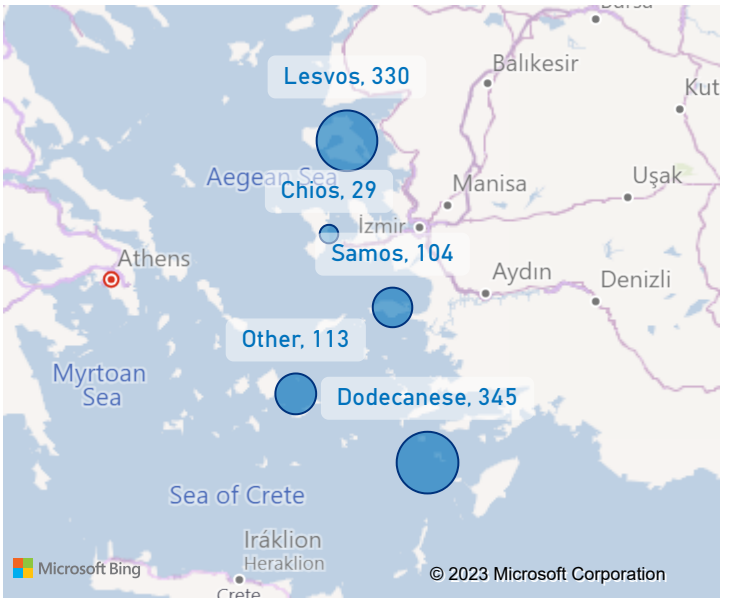
Sea arrivals

This week, the Dodecanese islands saw 345 arrivals, a decrease from last week's 447.

The average of the daily arrivals on the Dodecanese islands for this week is 49.



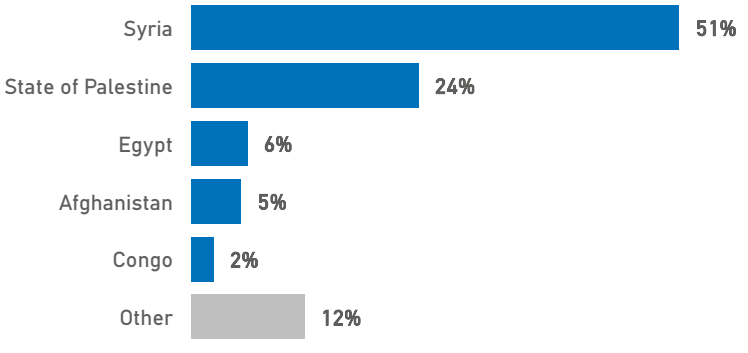
Entry Points

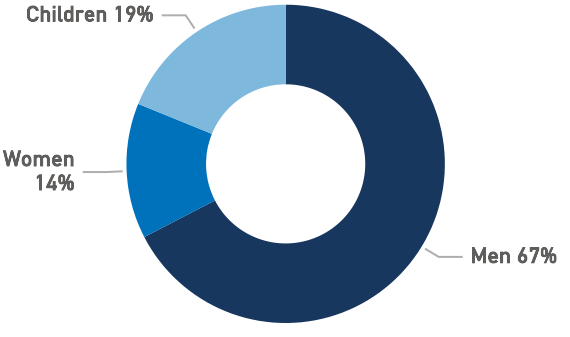


Population in Kos CCAC and Leros CCAC

Currently, 6,519 refugees and migrants reside in Kos CCAC and Leros CCAC.

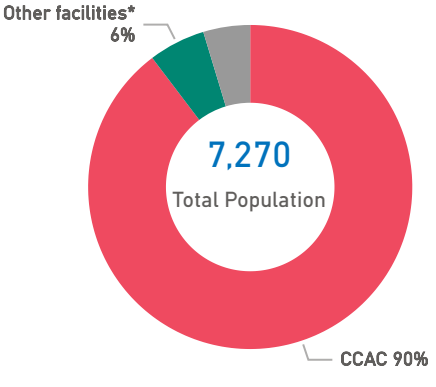
Most of them are from Syria (51%), State of Palestine (24%) and Egypt (6%). Men account for 67% of the population, women for 14% and children for 19%.





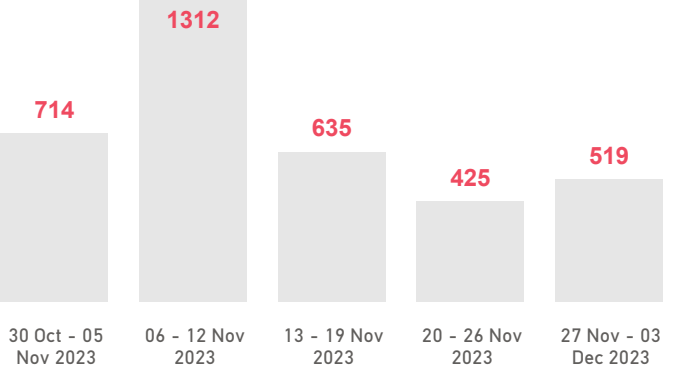
Population on the Dodecanese Islands

There are 7,270 refugees and migrants on the Dodecanese islands. Out of this total, 6,519 reside at Kos CCAC and Leros CCAC and 411 are hosted in other facilities. UNHCR estimates that there are also 340 self-accommodated in the islands.



Departures

This week, 519 refugees and migrants departed from the Dodecanese islands to the mainland.



Published on 06/12/2023

more information: UNHCR Operational Portal - Greece

Other facilities include shelters for unaccompanied children, detention facilities, etc.

Refugees and migrants includes asylum-seekers, beneficiaries of international protection and people out of the asylum procedure.

Departures to the mainland mainly include: i) transfers in the context of IOM Assisted Voluntary Return and Reintegration programme, ii) transfers of unaccompanied children to State-run facilities, iii) organized transfers supported by the government, including controlled facilities for temporary accommodation of asylum-seekers in the mainland/sites, and iv) those who depart on their own means.

Data Sources: Population data - Partial Data from the Government and other sources; Arrivals/Departures - Hellenic Police, Hellenic Coastguard

Figures are subject to future adjustment based on consolidated figures provided by the authorities. Percentages may not add up to 100 due to rounding and slightly differ between the text and graphs.

The boundaries, the names shown and the designations used on the map do not imply official endorsement or acceptance by the United Nations.