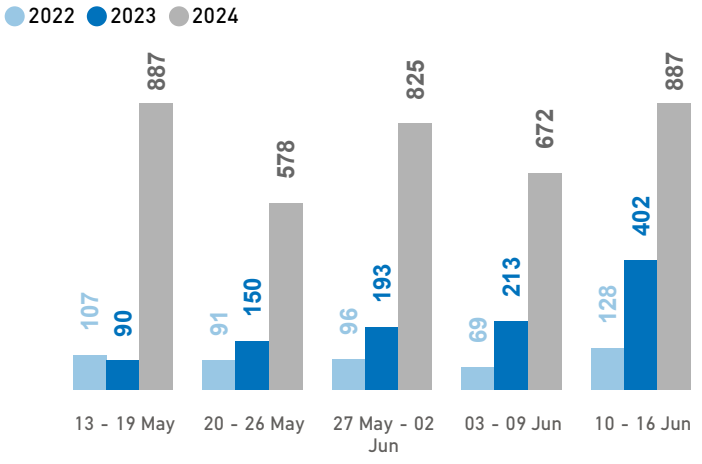
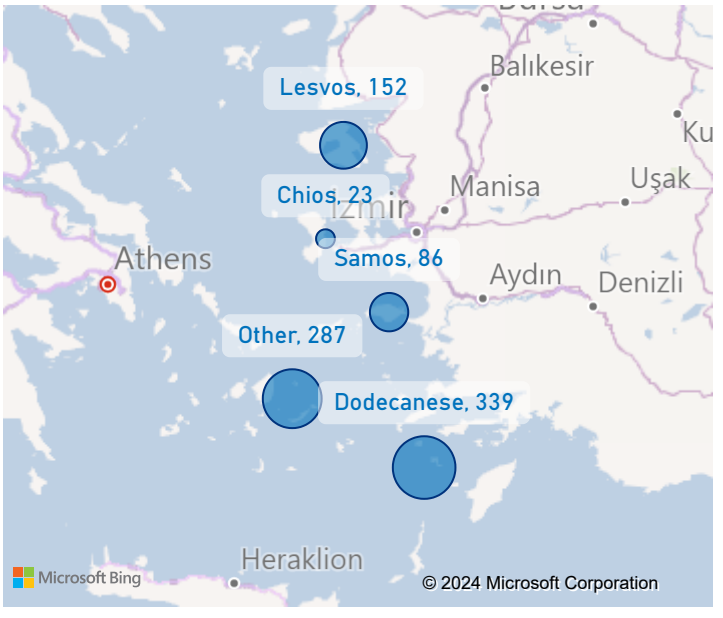
Aegean Islands Weekly Snapshot

Sea arrivals

This week, the Aegean islands saw 887 arrivals, an increase from last week's 672.
The average of the daily arrivals on the Aegean islands for this week is 127.



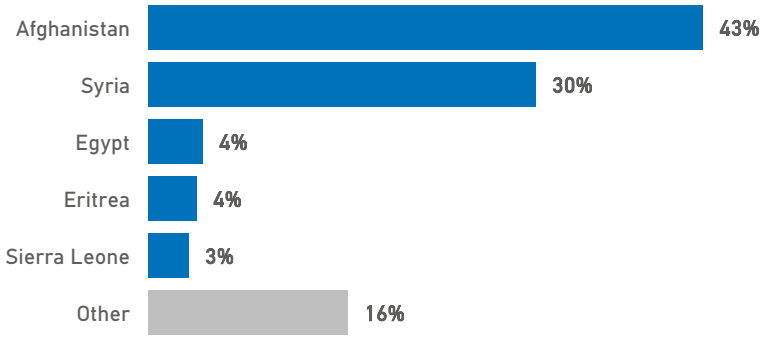
Entry Points

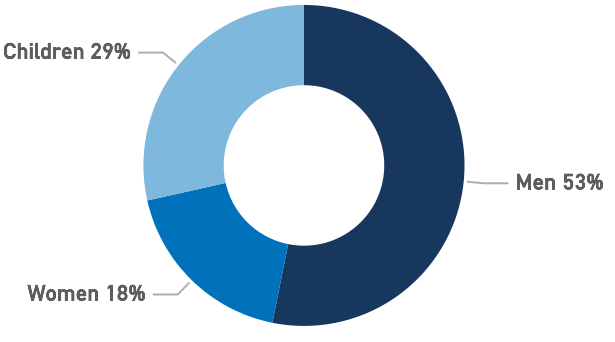


Population in the CCACs

Currently, 7,030 refugees and migrants reside in the Closed Controlled Access Center(s).

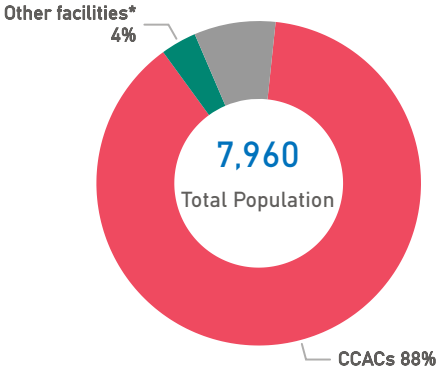
Most of them are from Afghanistan (43%), Syria (30%) and Egypt (4%). Men account for 53% of the population, women for 18% and children for 29%.





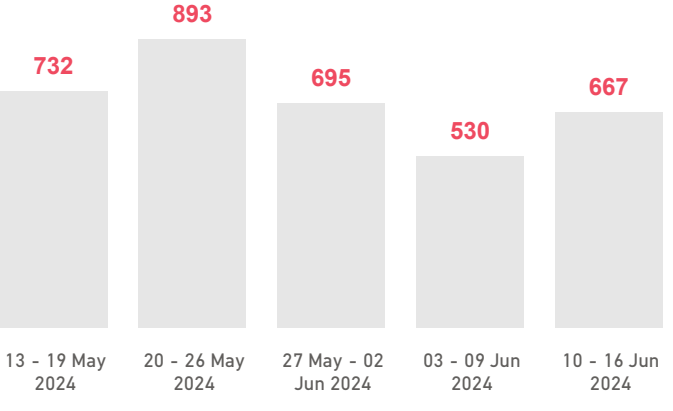
Population on the Islands

There are 7,960 refugees and migrants on the Aegean islands. Out of this total, 7,030 reside at the CCACs and 284 are hosted in other facilities. UNHCR estimates that there are also 646 self-accommodated in the islands.



Departures

This week, 667 refugees and migrants departed from the Aegean islands to the mainland.



Published on 18/06/2024

more information: UNHCR Operational Portal - Greece

Other facilities include shelters for unaccompanied children, detention facilities, etc.

Refugees and migrants includes asylum-seekers, beneficiaries of international protection and people out of the asylum procedure.

Departures to the mainland mainly include: i) transfers in the context of IOM Assisted Voluntary Return and Reintegration programme, ii) transfers of unaccompanied children to State-run facilities, iii) organized transfers supported by the government, including controlled facilities for temporary accommodation of asylum-seekers in the mainland/sites, and iv) those who depart on their own means.

Data Sources: Population data - Partial Data from the Government and other sources; Arrivals/Departures - Hellenic Police, Hellenic Coastguard

Figures are subject to future adjustment based on consolidated figures provided by the authorities. Percentages may not add up to 100 due to rounding and slightly differ between the text and graphs.

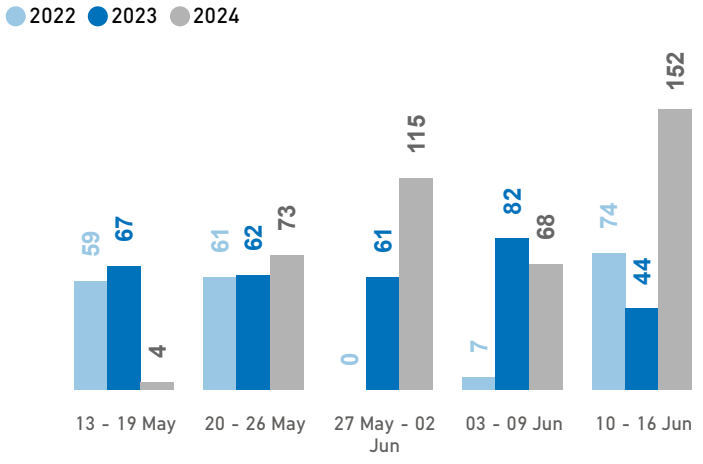
The boundaries, the names shown and the designations used on the map do not imply official endorsement or acceptance by the United Nations.

Lesvos Weekly Snapshot

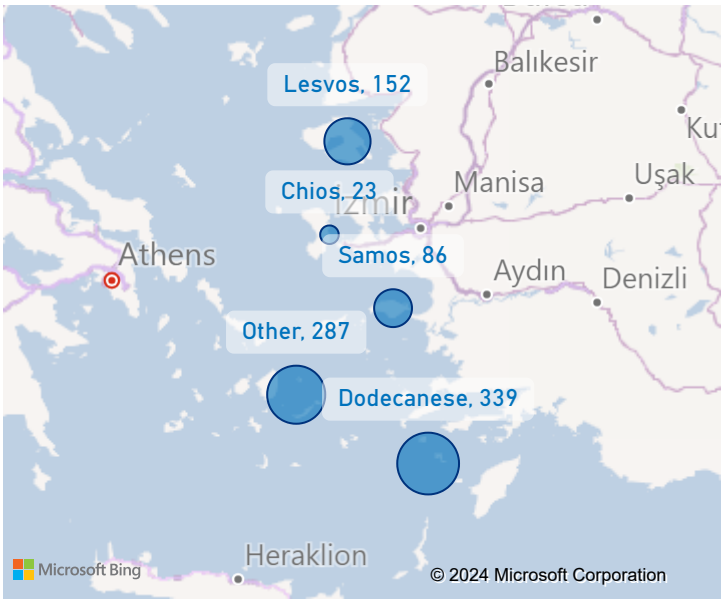
Sea arrivals

This week, Lesvos saw 152 arrivals, an increase from last week's 68.

The average of the daily arrivals on Lesvos for this week is 22.



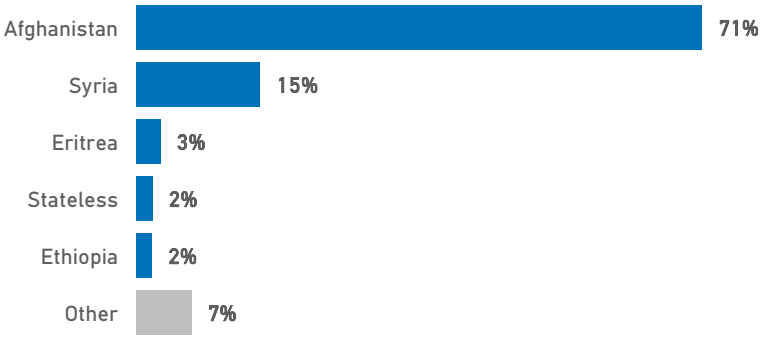
Entry Points

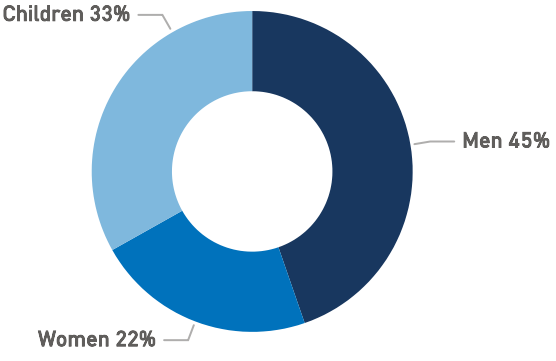


Population in the CCAC

Currently, 1,580 refugees and migrants reside in the Closed Controlled Access Center.

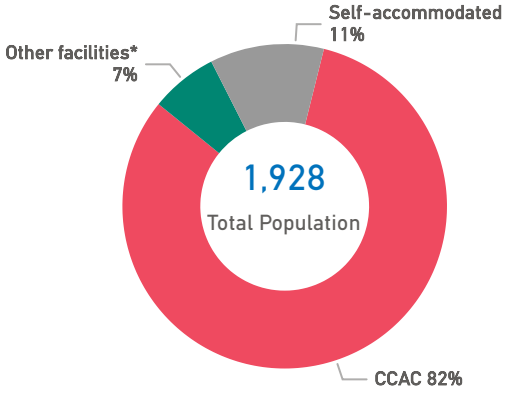
Most of them are from Afghanistan (71%), Syria (15%) and Eritrea (3%). Men account for 45% of the population, women for 22% and children for 33%.





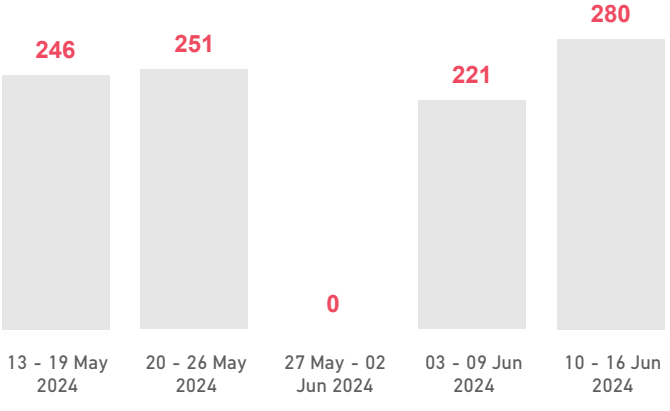
Population on the Island

There are 1,928 refugees and migrants on Lesvos. Out of this total, 1,580 reside at the CCAC and 129 are hosted in other facilities. UNHCR identified 219 self-accommodated refugees in the island up to this date.



Departures

This week, 280 refugees and migrants departed from Lesvos to the mainland.



Published on 18/06/2024

more information: UNHCR Operational Portal - Greece

Other facilities include shelters for unaccompanied children, detention facilities, etc.

Refugees and migrants includes asylum-seekers, beneficiaries of international protection and people out of the asylum procedure.

Departures to the mainland mainly include: i) transfers in the context of IOM Assisted Voluntary Return and Reintegration programme, ii) transfers of unaccompanied children to State-run facilities, iii) organized transfers supported by the government, including controlled facilities for temporary accommodation of asylum-seekers in the mainland/sites, and iv) those who depart on their own means.

Data Sources: Population data - Partial Data from the Government and other sources; Arrivals/Departures - Hellenic Police, Hellenic Coastguard

Figures are subject to future adjustment based on consolidated figures provided by the authorities. Percentages may not add up to 100 due to rounding and slightly differ between the text and graphs.

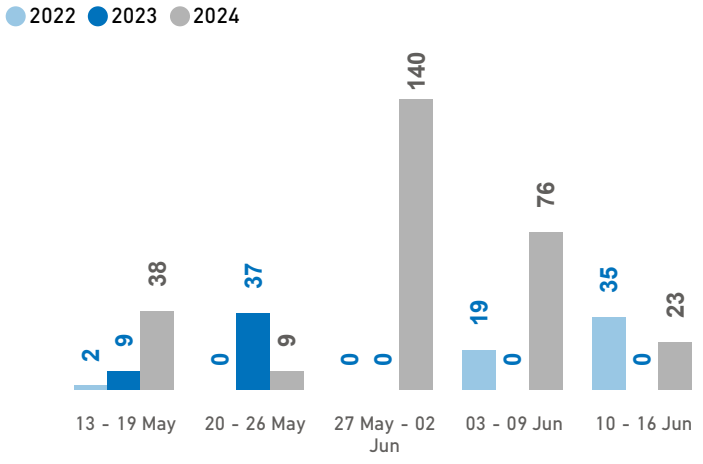
The boundaries, the names shown and the designations used on the map do not imply official endorsement or acceptance by the United Nations.

Chios Island Weekly Snapshot

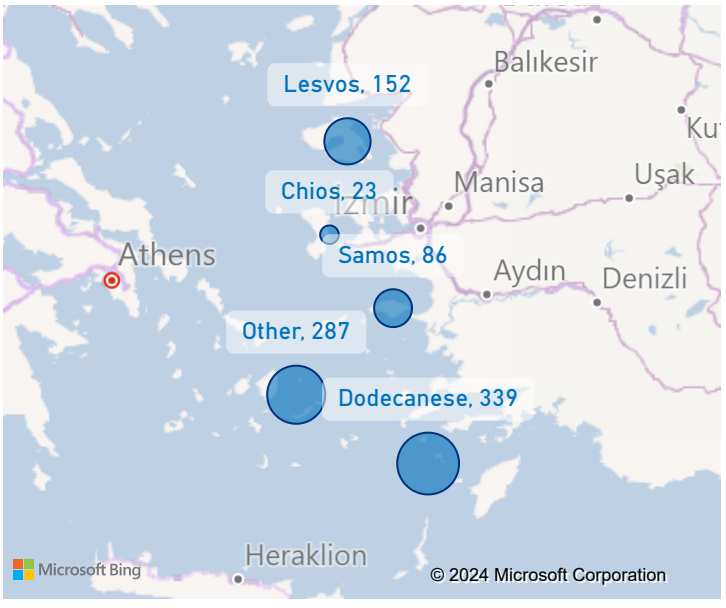
Sea arrivals

This week, Chios island saw 23 arrivals, a decrease from last week's 76.

The average of the daily arrivals on Chios island for this week is 3.



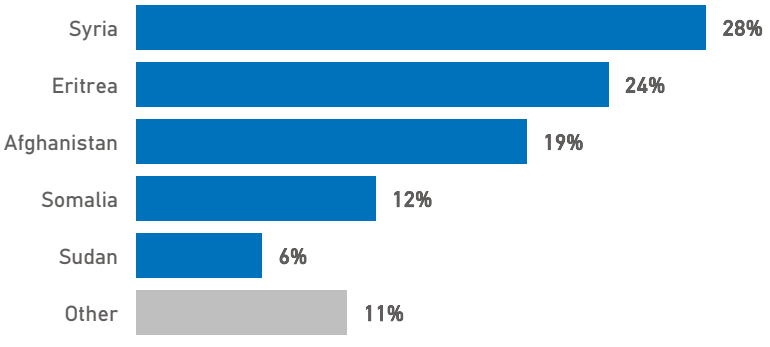
Entry Points

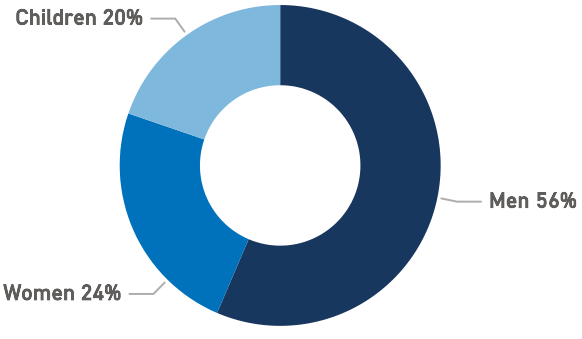


Population in the CCAC

Currently, 666 refugees and migrants reside in the Closed Controlled Access Center.

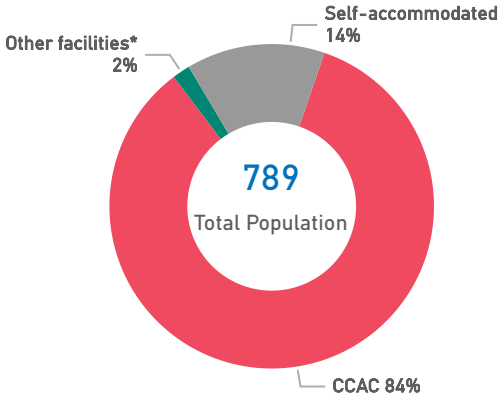
Most of them are from Syria (28%), Eritrea (24%) and Afghanistan (19%). Men account for 56% of the population, women for 24% and children for 20%.





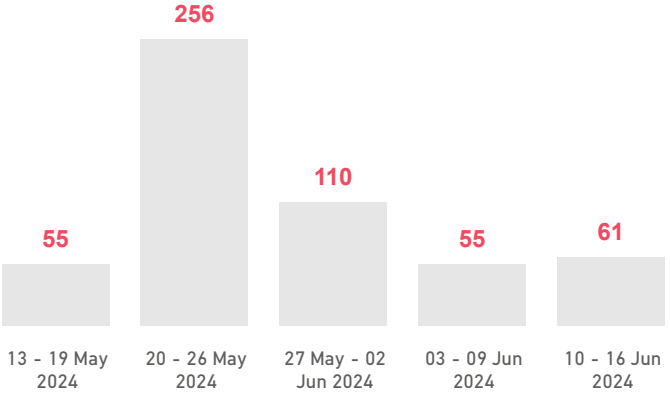
Population on the Island

There are 789 refugees and migrants on Chios island. Out of this total, 666 reside at the CCAC and 14 are hosted in other facilities. UNHCR estimates that there are also 109 self-accommodated in the island.



Departures

This week, 61 refugees and migrants departed from Chios island to the mainland



Published on 18/06/2024

more information: UNHCR Operational Portal - Greece

Other facilities include shelters for unaccompanied children, detention facilities, etc.

Refugees and migrants includes asylum-seekers, beneficiaries of international protection and people out of the asylum procedure.

Departures to the mainland mainly include: i) transfers in the context of IOM Assisted Voluntary Return and Reintegration programme, ii) transfers of unaccompanied children to State-run facilities, iii) organized transfers supported by the government, including controlled facilities for temporary accommodation of asylum-seekers in the mainland/sites, and iv) those who depart on their own means.

Data Sources: Population data - Partial Data from the Government and other sources; Arrivals/Departures - Hellenic Police, Hellenic Coastguard

Figures are subject to future adjustment based on consolidated figures provided by the authorities. Percentages may not add up to 100 due to rounding and slightly differ between the text and graphs.

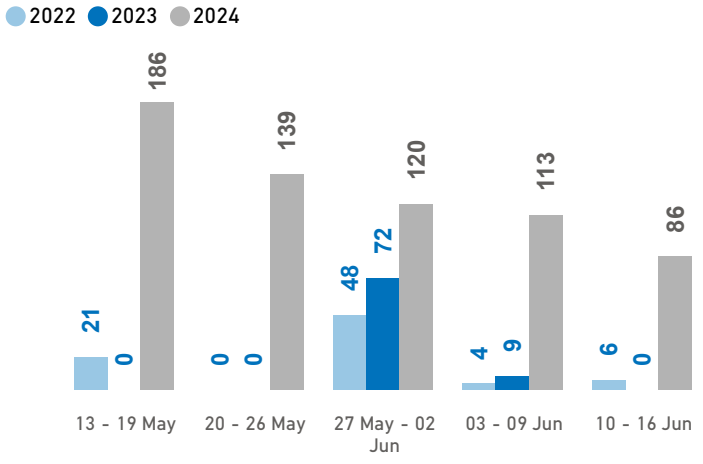
The boundaries, the names shown and the designations used on the map do not imply official endorsement or acceptance by the United Nations.

Samos Island Weekly Snapshot

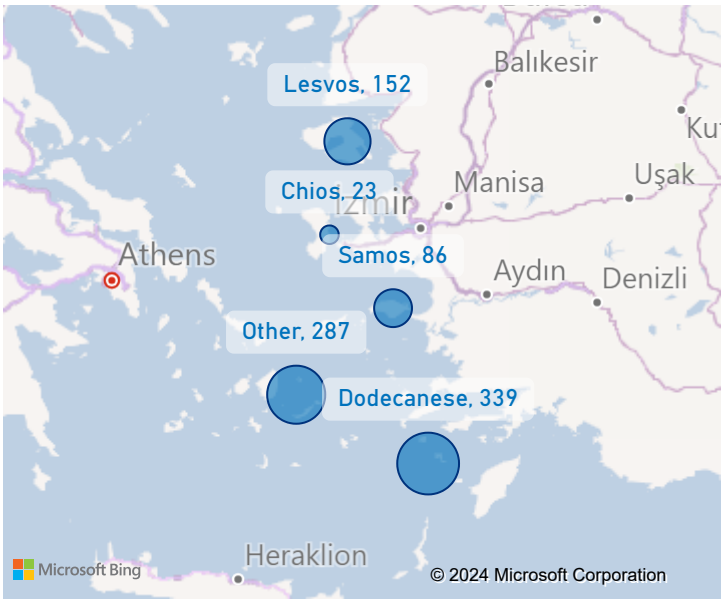
Sea arrivals

This week, Samos island saw 86 arrivals, a decrease from last week's 113.

The average of the daily arrivals on Samos island for this week is 12.



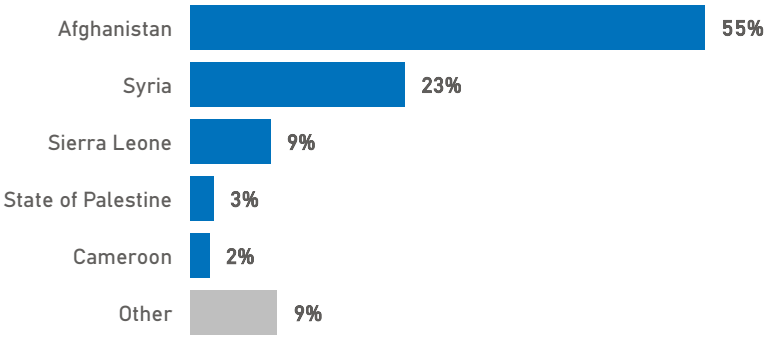
Entry Points

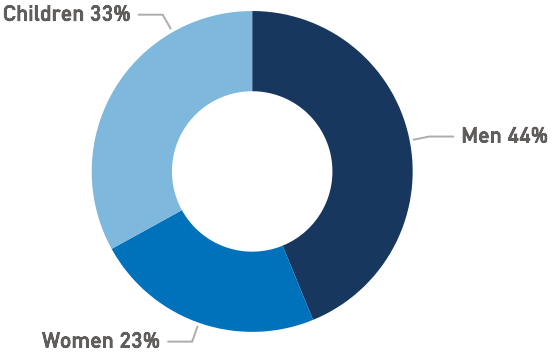


Population in the CCAC

Currently, 2,416 refugees and migrants reside in the Closed Controlled Access Center.

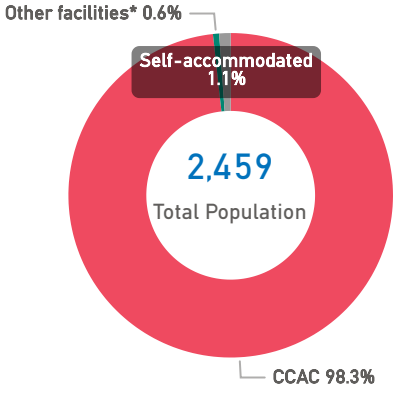
Most of the registered population are from Afghanistan (55%), Syria (23%) and Sierra Leone (9%). Men account for 44% of the population, women for 23% and children for 33%.





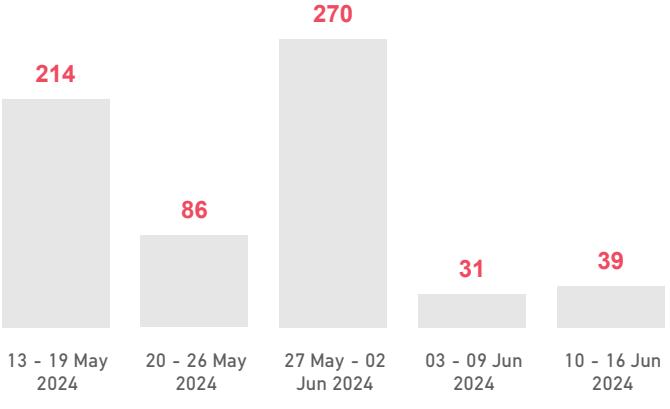
Population on the Island

There are 2,459 refugees and migrants on Samos island. Out of this total, the 2,416 reside at the CCAC and 15 are hosted in other facilities. UNHCR estimates that there are also 28 self-accommodated in the island.



Departures

This week, 39 refugees and migrants departed from Samos island to the mainland.



Published on 18/06/2024

more information: UNHCR Operational Portal - Greece

Other facilities include shelters for unaccompanied children, detention facilities, etc.

Refugees and migrants includes asylum-seekers, beneficiaries of international protection and people out of the asylum procedure.

Departures to the mainland mainly include: i) transfers in the context of IOM Assisted Voluntary Return and Reintegration programme, ii) transfers of unaccompanied children to State-run facilities, iii) organized transfers supported by the government, including controlled facilities for temporary accommodation of asylum-seekers in the mainland/sites, and iv) those who depart on their own means.

Data Sources: Population data - Partial Data from the Government and other sources; Arrivals/Departures - Hellenic Police, Hellenic Coastguard

Figures are subject to future adjustment based on consolidated figures provided by the authorities. Percentages may not add up to 100 due to rounding and slightly differ between the text and graphs.

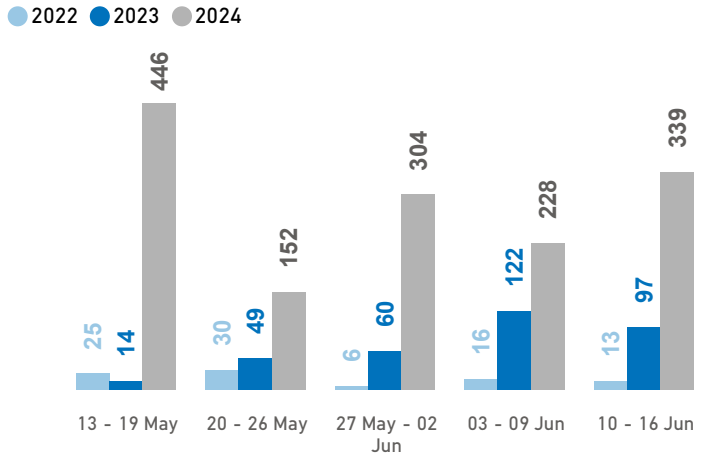
The boundaries, the names shown and the designations used on the map do not imply official endorsement or acceptance by the United Nations.

Dodecanese Islands Weekly Snapshot

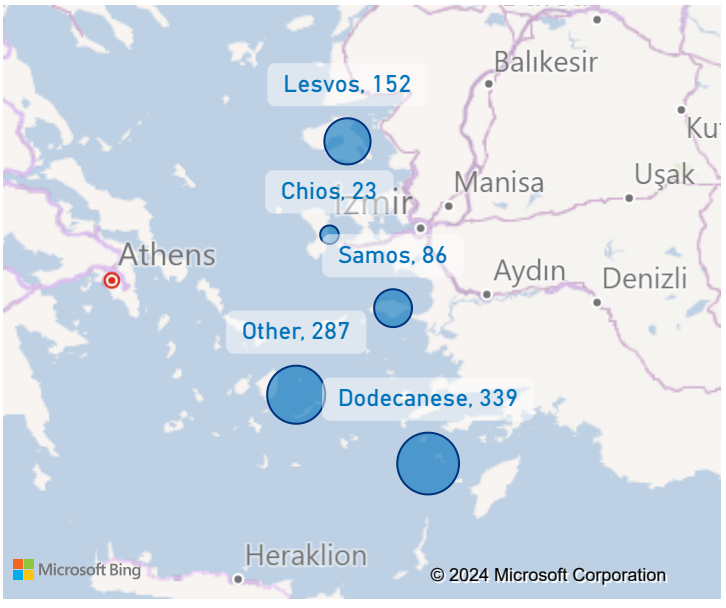
Sea arrivals

This week, the Dodecanese islands saw 339 arrivals, an increase from last week's 228.

The average of the daily arrivals on the Dodecanese islands for this week is 48.



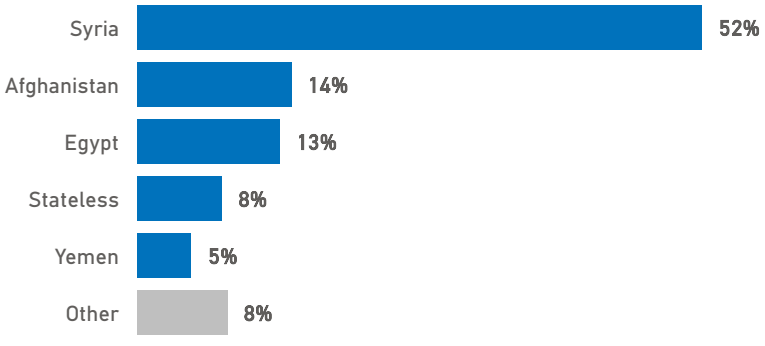
Entry Points

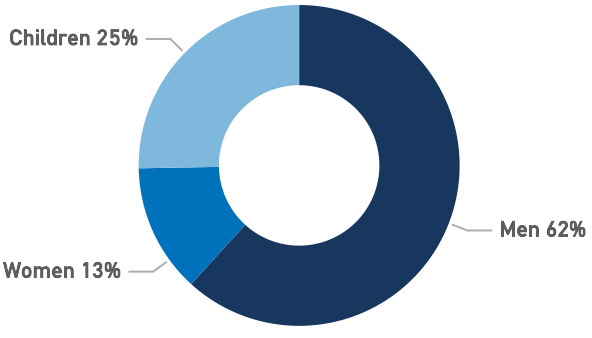


Population in Kos CCAC and Leros CCAC

Currently, 2,368 refugees and migrants reside in Kos CCAC and Leros CCAC.

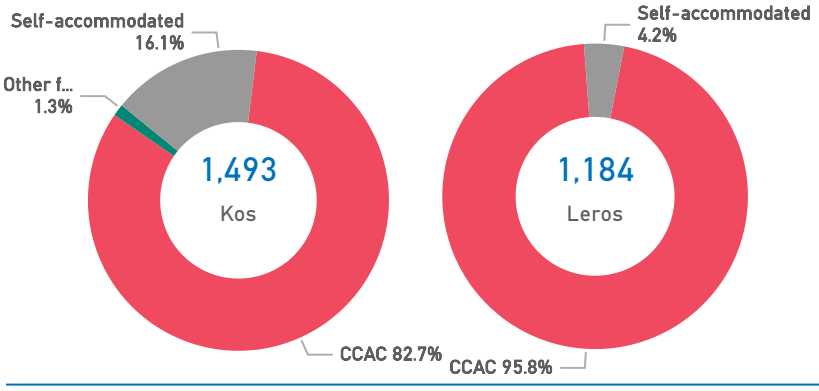
Most of them are from Syria (52%), Afghanistan (14%) and Egypt (13%). Men account for 62% of the population, women for 13% and children for 25%.





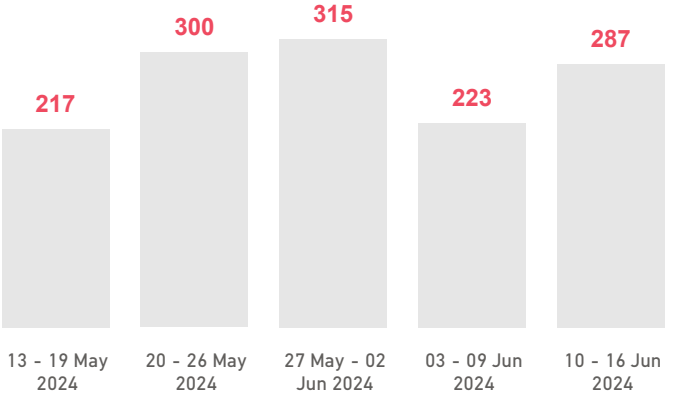
Population on the Dodecanese Islands

There are 2,677 refugees and migrants on the Dodecanese islands. Out of this total, 1,234 reside at the CCAC in Kos, and 1,134 at the CCAC Leros. In Kos, an estimated 240 people are self-accommodated and an additional 19 are hosted in other facilities, while in Leros, an estimated 50 people are self-accommodated, with an additional 0 being hosted in other facilities.



Departures

This week, 287 refugees and migrants departed from the Dodecanese islands to the mainland.



Published on 18/06/2024

more information: UNHCR Operational Portal - Greece

Other facilities include shelters for unaccompanied children, detention facilities, etc.

Refugees and migrants includes asylum-seekers, beneficiaries of international protection and people out of the asylum procedure.

Departures to the mainland mainly include: i) transfers in the context of IOM Assisted Voluntary Return and Reintegration programme, ii) transfers of unaccompanied children to State-run facilities, iii) organized transfers supported by the government, including controlled facilities for temporary accommodation of asylum-seekers in the mainland/sites, and iv) those who depart on their own means.

Data Sources: Population data - Partial Data from the Government and other sources; Arrivals/Departures - Hellenic Police, Hellenic Coastguard

Figures are subject to future adjustment based on consolidated figures provided by the authorities. Percentages may not add up to 100 due to rounding and slightly differ between the text and graphs.

The boundaries, the names shown and the designations used on the map do not imply official endorsement or acceptance by the United Nations.