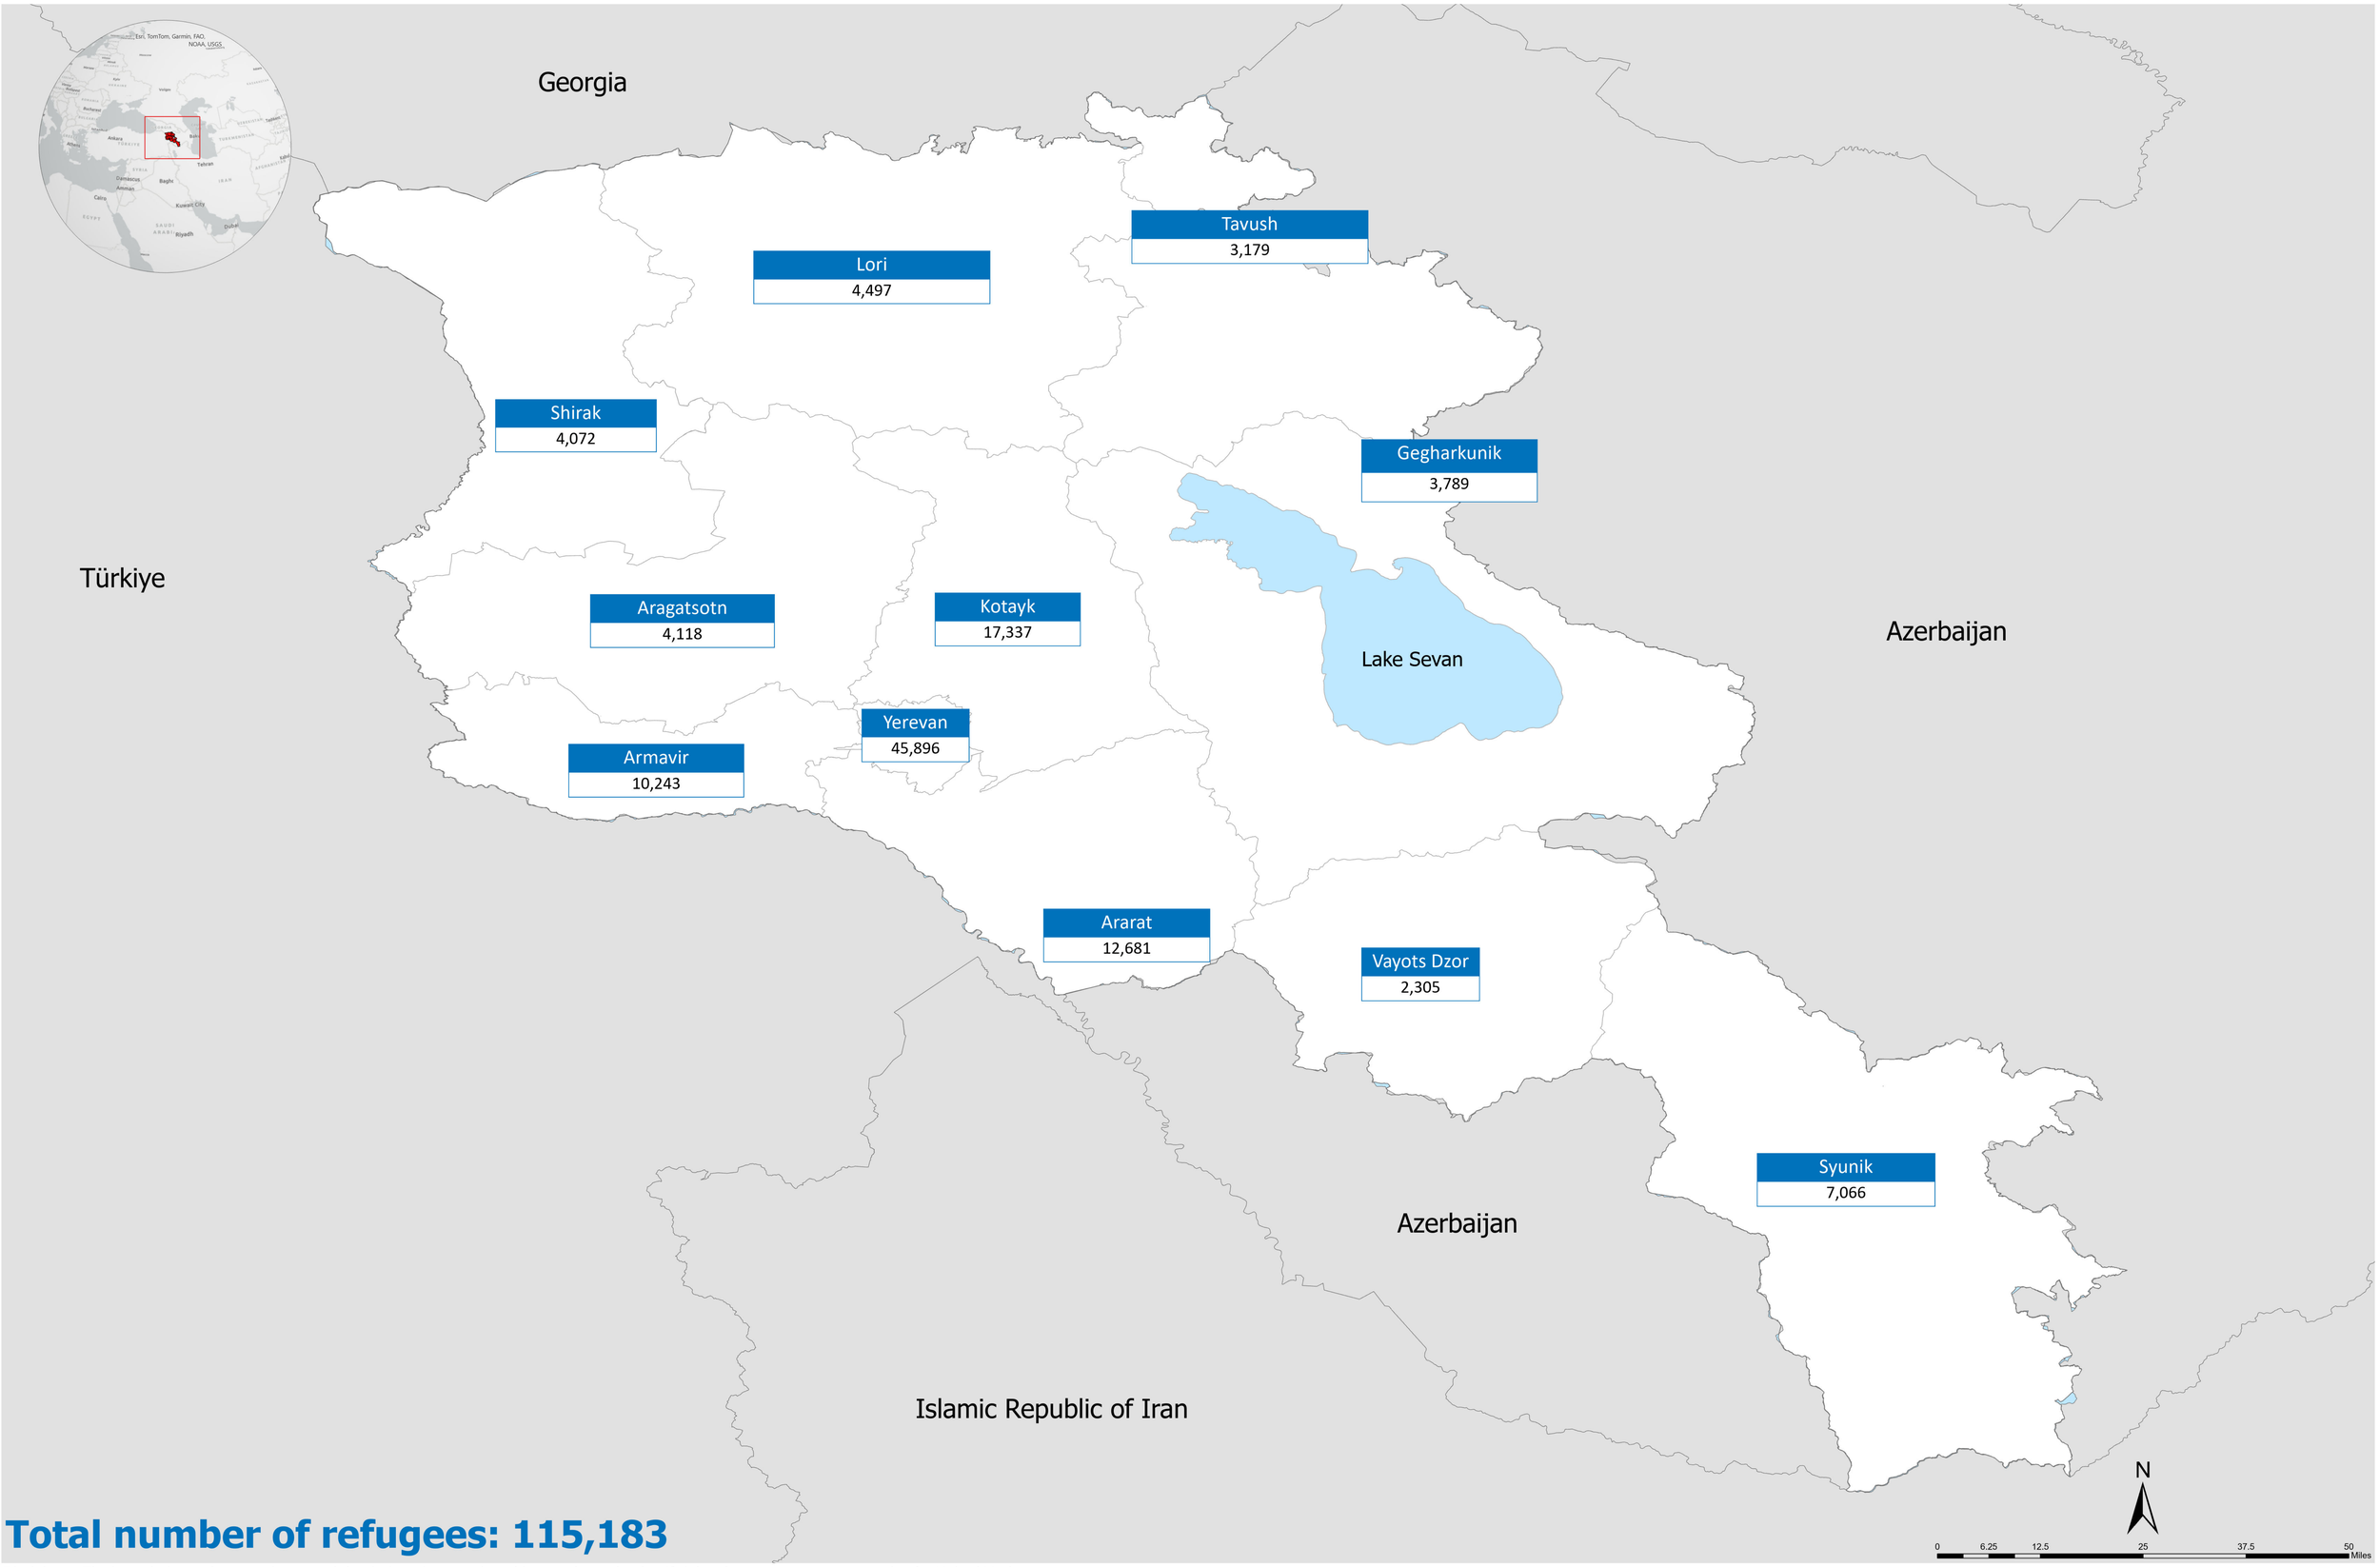
UNHCR
The UN Refugee Agency

ARMENIA EMERGENCY

Overview of Refugee Population

(as of February 2024)



Total number of refugees: 115,183

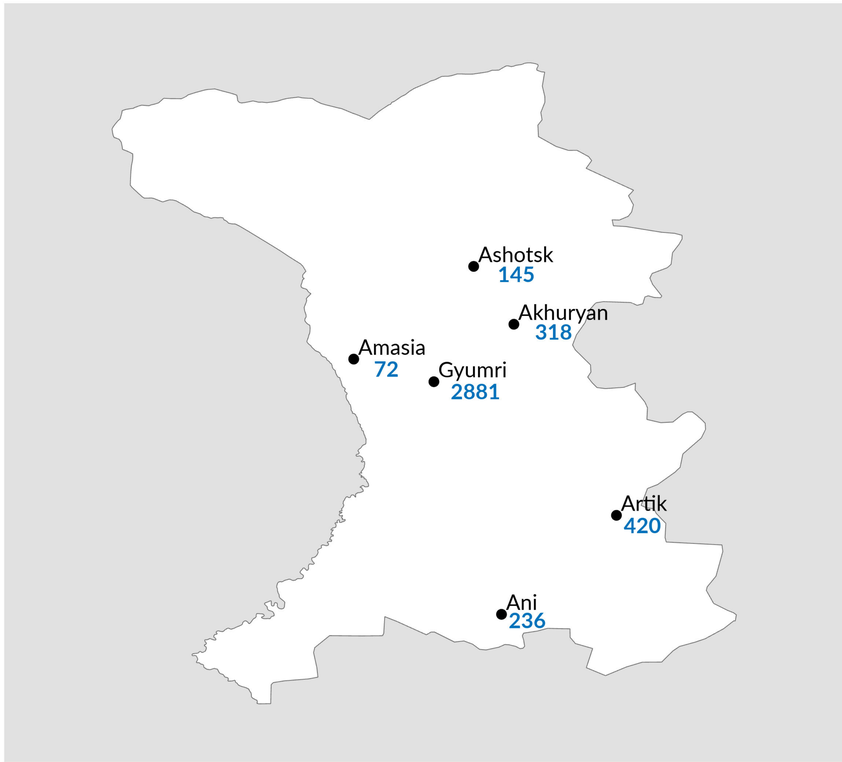
Disclaimer : The boundaries and names shown and the designations used on this map do not imply official endorsement or acceptance by the United Nations.

Source: Migration and Citizenship Service of the Ministry of Internal Affairs of the Republic of Armenia, Registration database of refugees who have arrived in Armenia since September 2023, as of 07 February 2024.

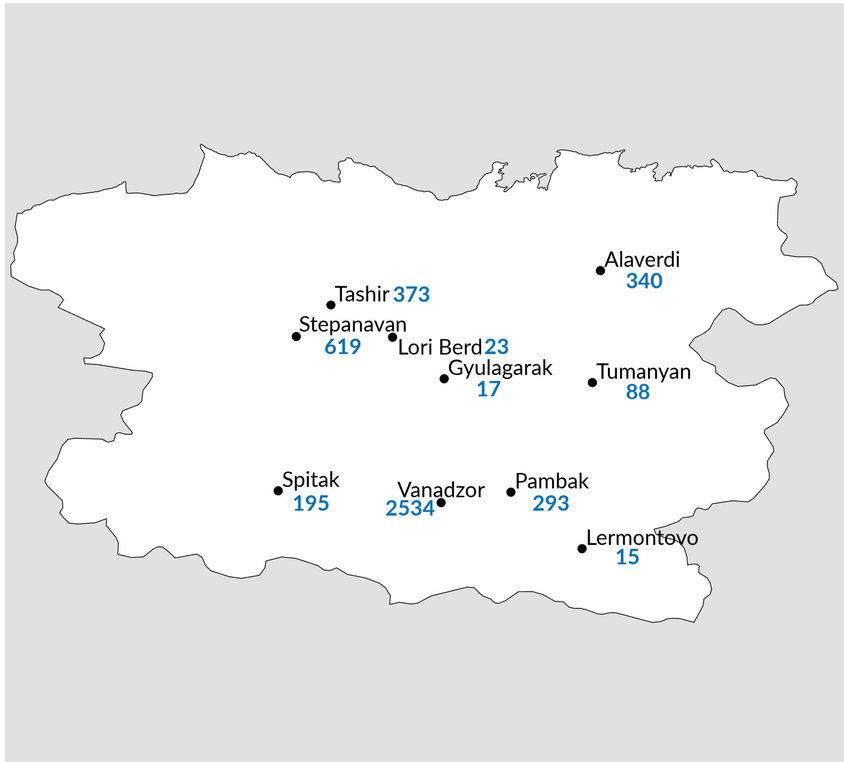
ARMENIA EMERGENCY

Overview of Refugee Population at Community Level

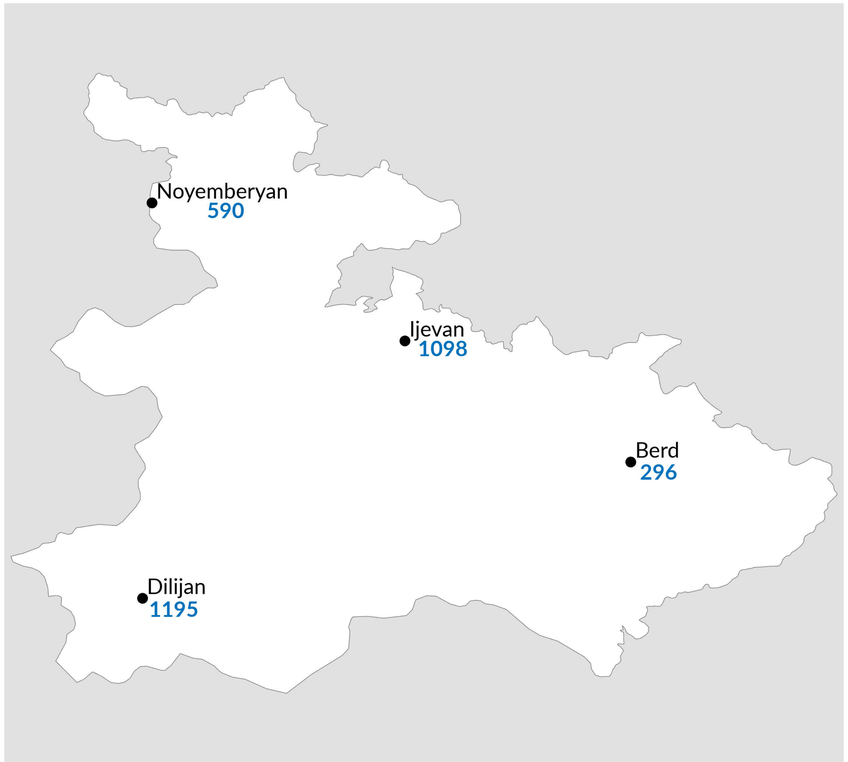
(as of February 2024)



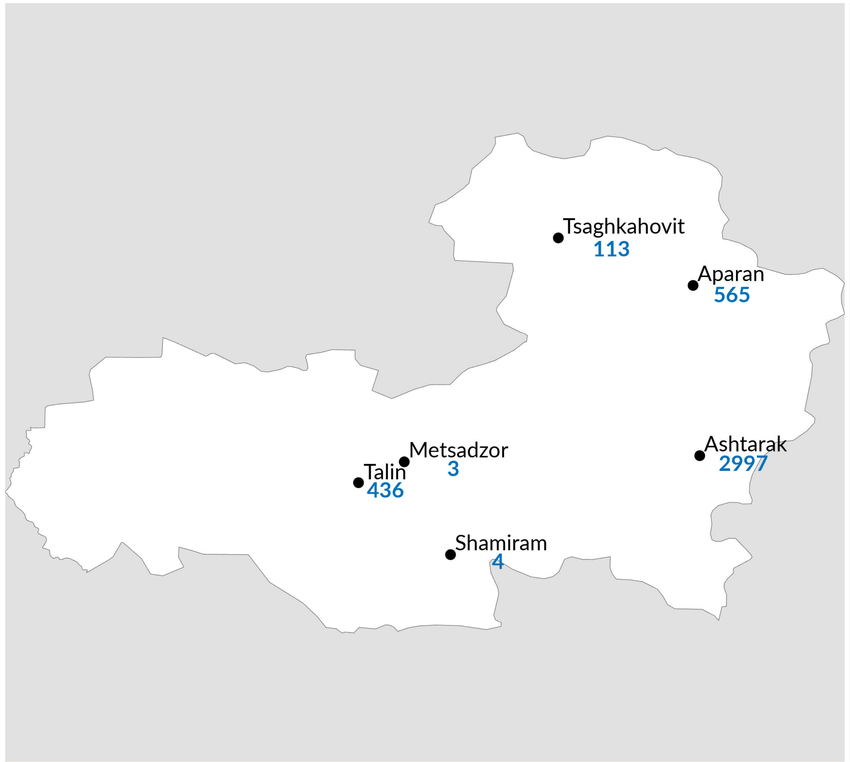
Shirak (4,072 individuals)



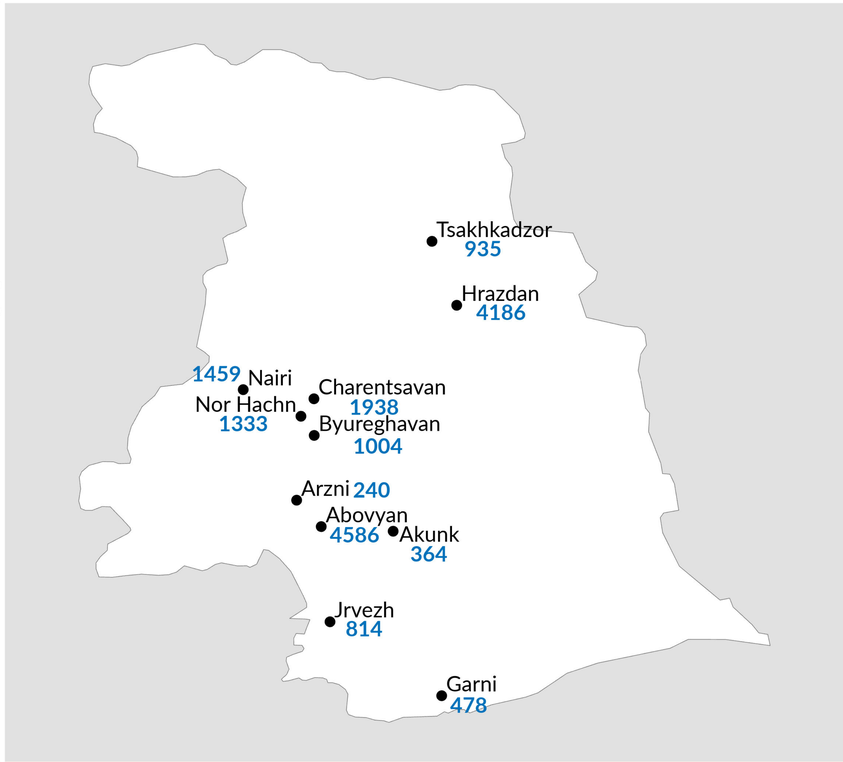
Lori (4,497 individuals)



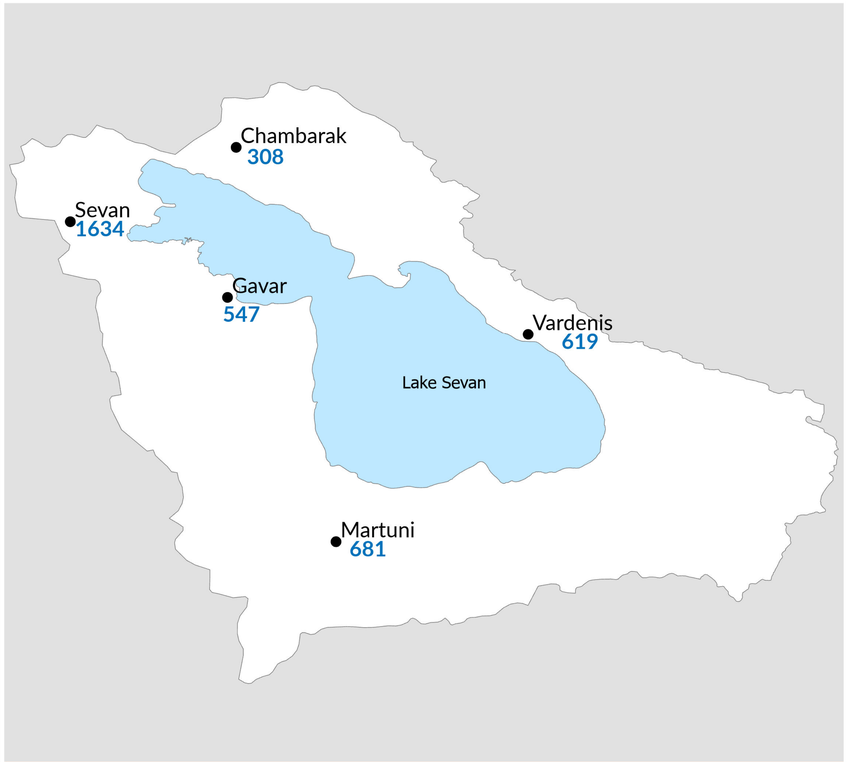
Tavush (3,179 individuals)



Aragatsotn (4,118 individuals)



Kotayk (17,337 individuals)



Gegharkunik (3,789 individuals)

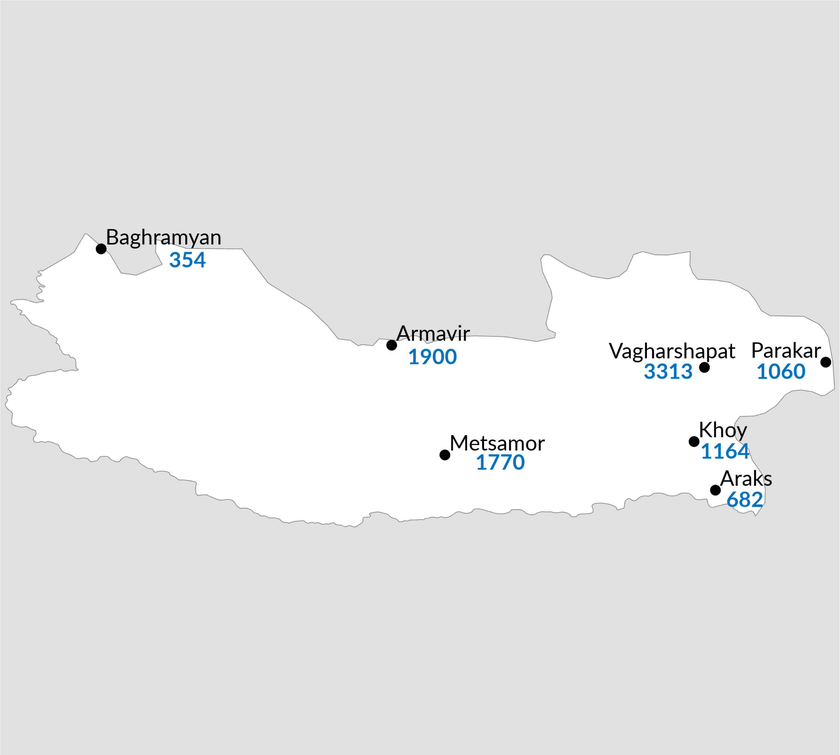
Disclaimer : The boundaries and names shown and the designations used on this map do not imply official endorsement or acceptance by the United Nations.

Source: Migration and Citizenship Service of the Ministry of Internal Affairs of the Republic of Armenia, Registration database of refugees who have arrived in Armenia since September 2023, as of 07 February 2024.

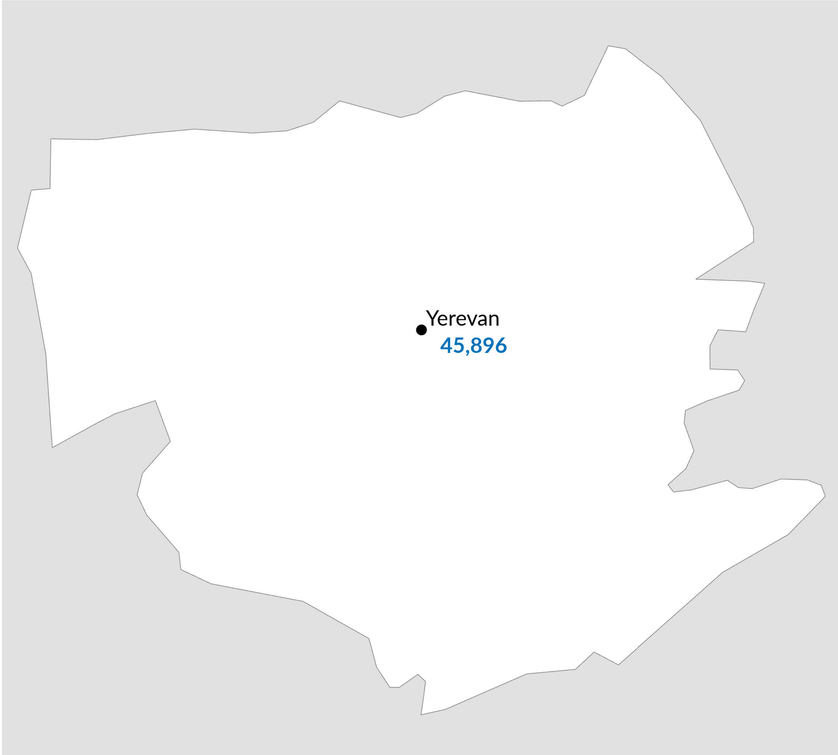
ARMENIA EMERGENCY

Overview of Refugee Population at Community Level

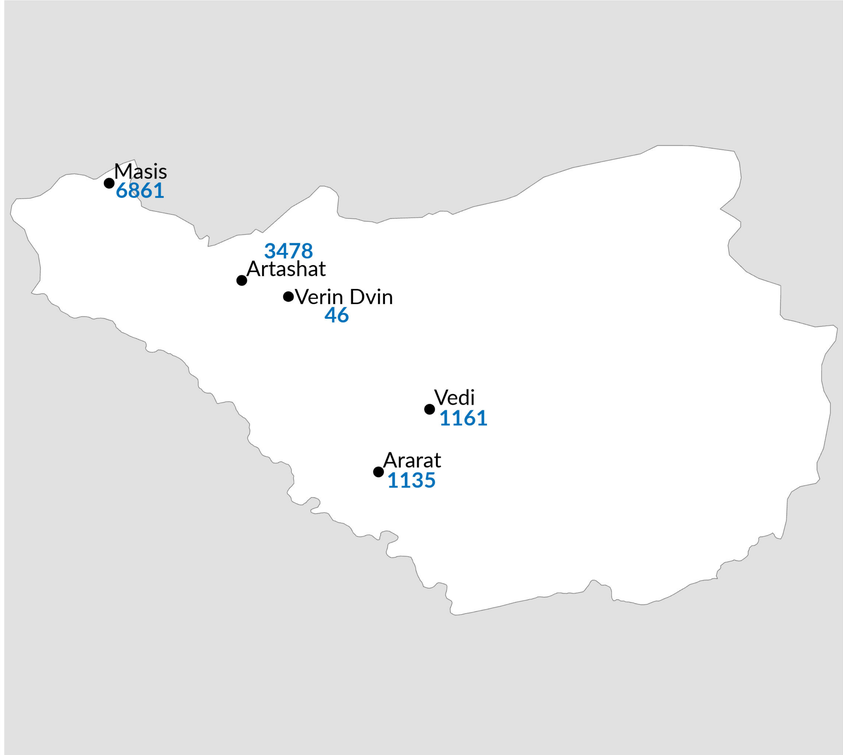
(as of February 2024)



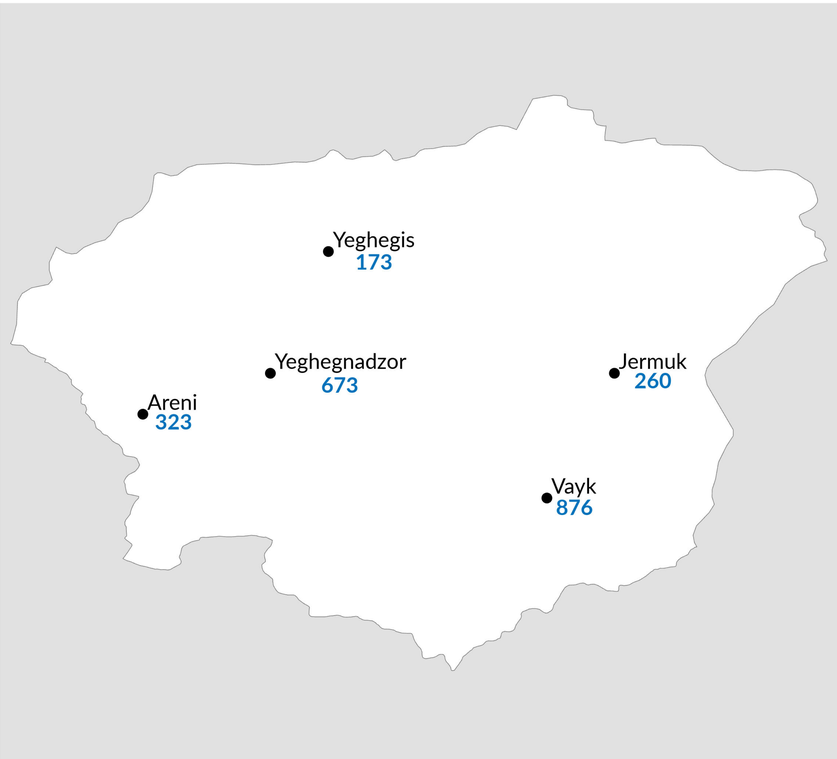
Armavir (10,243 individuals)



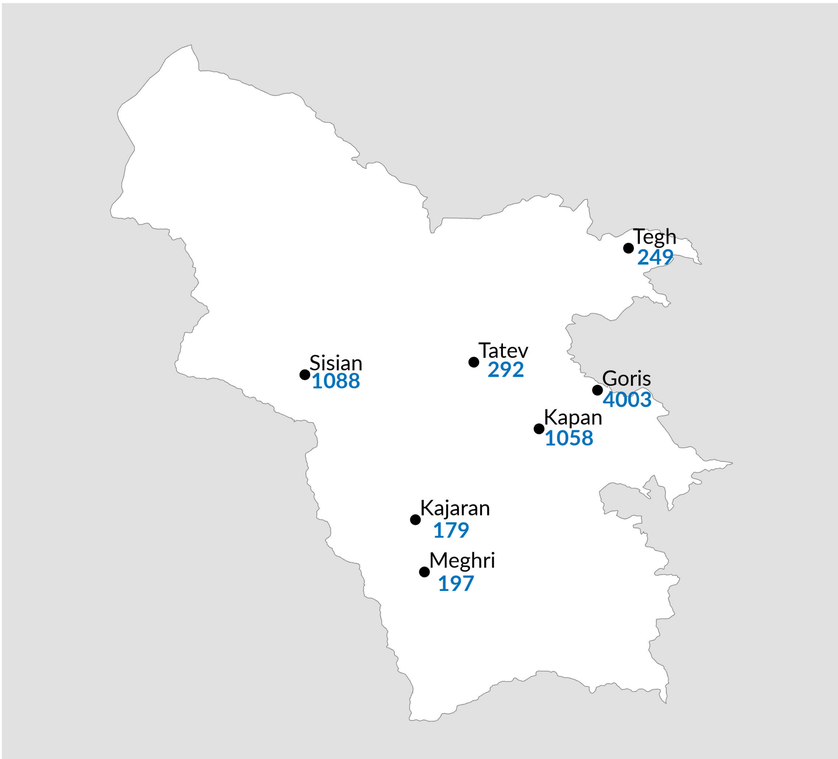
Yerevan (45,896 individuals)



Ararat (12,681 individuals)



Vayots Dzor (2,305 individuals)



Syunik (7,066 individuals)

UNHCR Armenia is grateful for the generous contributions from our government donors, as well as the contributions from private individuals and the private sector.

Disclaimer : The boundaries and names shown and the designations used on this map do not imply official endorsement or acceptance by the United Nations.

Source: Migration and Citizenship Service of the Ministry of Internal Affairs of the Republic of Armenia, Registration database of refugees who have arrived in Armenia since September 2023, as of 07 February 2024.