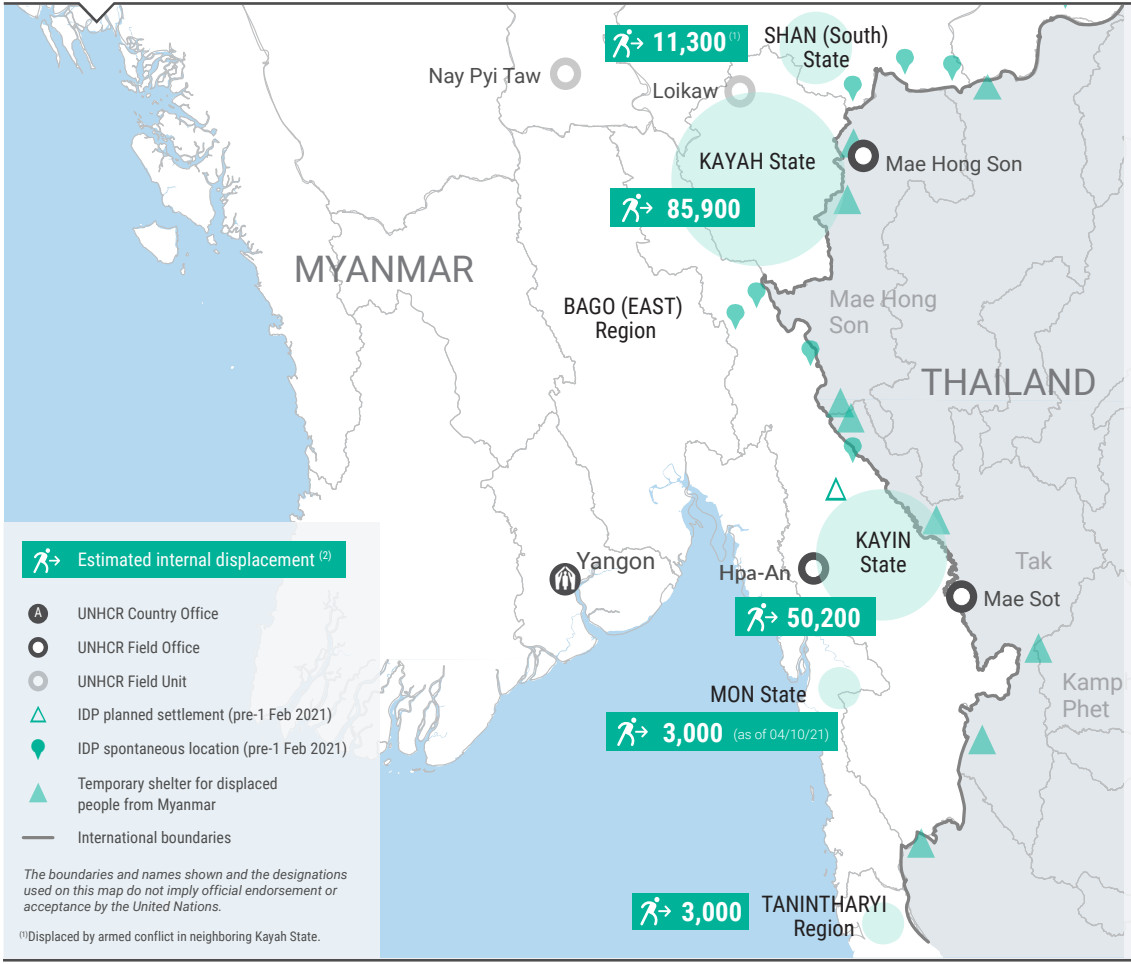
MYANMAR EMERGENCY OVERVIEW MAP

Number of people displaced in South East since Feb 2021 and remain displaced

AS OF 18 OCT 2021



153,400

people are estimated to be displaced by conflict in South East Myanmar (as of 18 Oct 2021).

Recent armed clashes in Hpruso Township, Kayah State resulted in 1,600 new IDPs displaced from seven locations.

In neighboring Shan State (South), a decrease in the number of IDPs was observed due to higher return figures as compared to the previous week following an improvement in the security situation.

In Tanintharyi Region, about 2,000 people in Thayetchaung Township were displaced due to armed clashes in the first two weeks of October.
