Gender Mainstreaming Pilot

11 July 2023

Inter-Sector Working Group Jordan

Coordination mechanism

Inter-Sector Gender Advisory Team (ISGAT) at the Inter-Sector Working Group (ISWG)

Scope

The ISGAT is assembled to address the inter-sector needs through implementation of the ISWG reform, and during the period of July – December'23 to pilot the short-term objectives to enhance gender mainstreaming across the Refugee Response in Jordan.

In January 2024, outcome of the pilot to be evaluated by ISWG and Sector (co)Leads and based on the lessons learnt the ISGAT to be transformed accordingly.

Objectives of the pilot

i) Support sectors integrate gender mainstreaming when developing/reviewing sector work plans 2023 and support monitoring and implementation

ii) Support integrating gender mainstreaming in partners' programming including through application of the IASC gender with age marker

iii) Identify main gaps in gender mainstreaming in the Refugee Response and suggest recommendations accordingly

iv) Contribute to conducting inter-sector gender profile in preparation for 2024 planning

v) Outreach partners to encourage their meaningful representation and expertise at the ISGAT

vi) Capacity building of the Sector (co)Leads and members to facilitate implementation of the ISWG reform and the current objectives and operational needs

vii) Information sharing to the ISWG

Actors

Co-Chairs of the ISGAT:

UN Women / Senior Gender Advisor (SGA) and UNHCR

Modus operandi

- ISGAT reports to ISWG through its Co-Chairs
- The Co-Chairs and the ISGAT members adhere to principles of neutrality and impartiality
- ISGAT develops a straightforward action plan for July – December 2023 to be accepted by ISWG
- Sector (co)Leads commit to engage with the ISGAT, i.e., in consultations, information sharing, giving feedback
- Nomination of ISGAT members: ISWG call for membership
- Based on the portfolio of each nominated member, they will be allocated to certain sector(s) to provide support