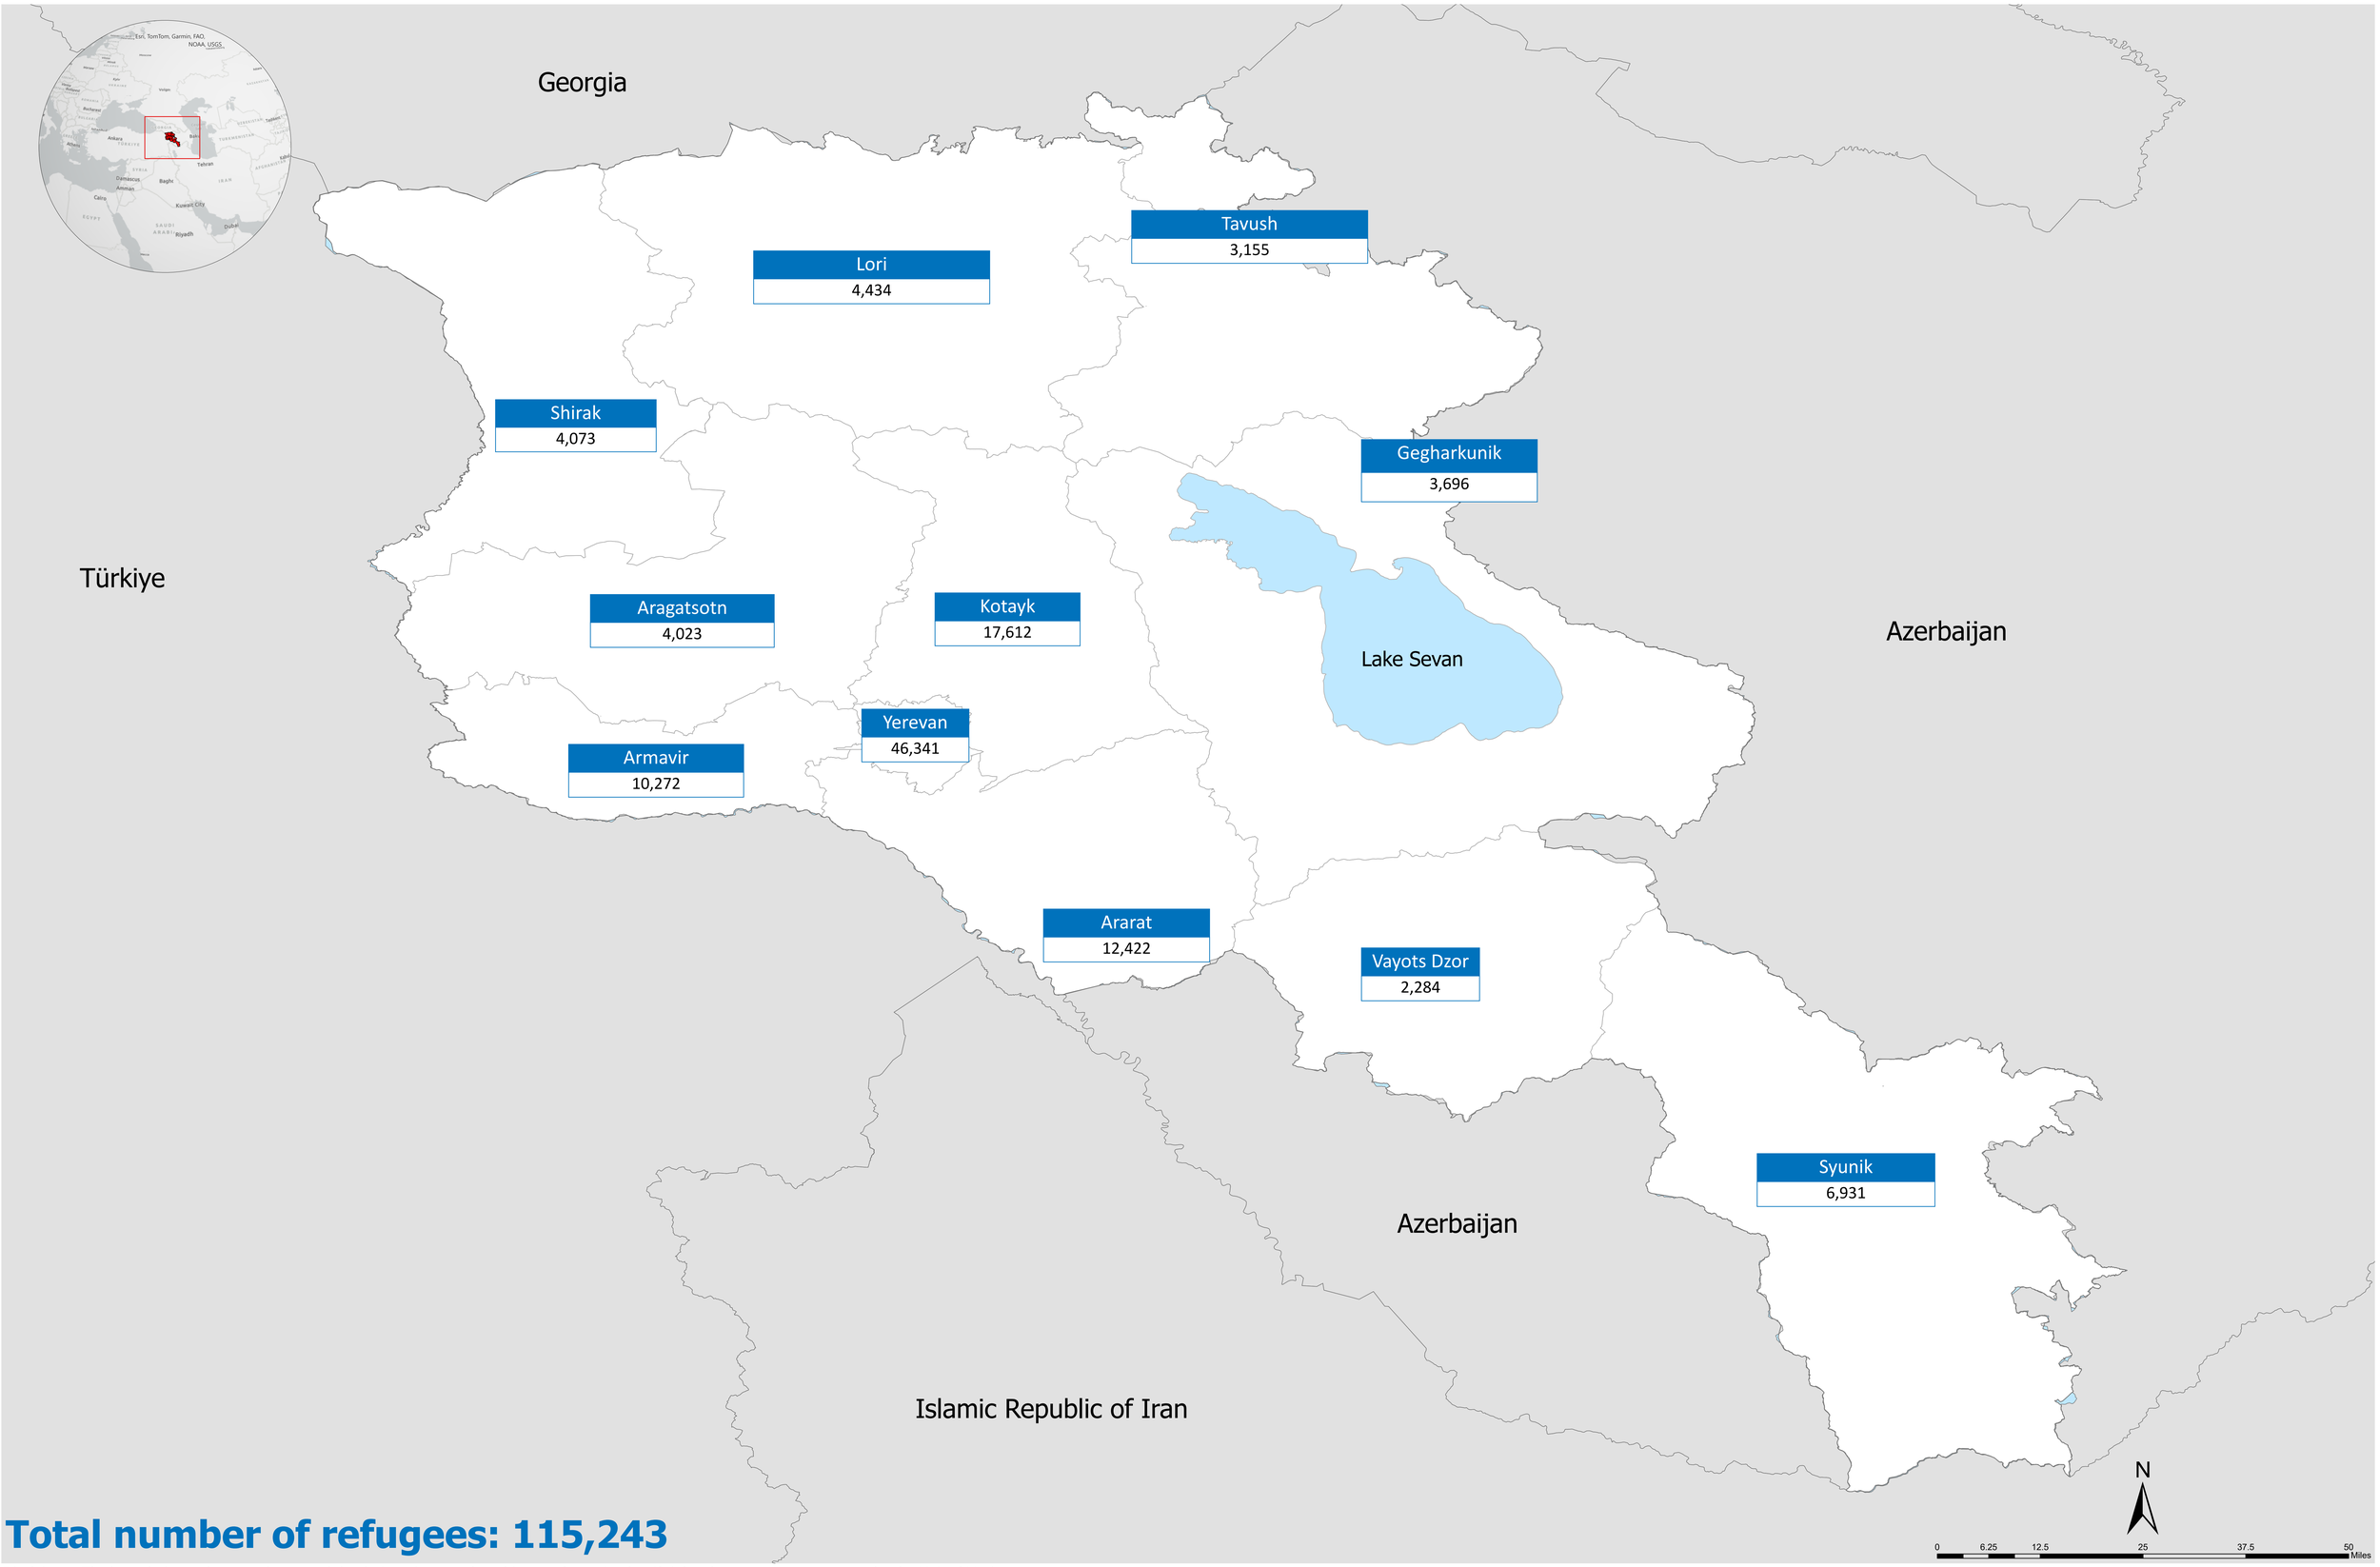
ARMENIA EMERGENCY

Overview of Refugee Population at Community Level

(as of March 2024)



Total number of refugees: 115,243

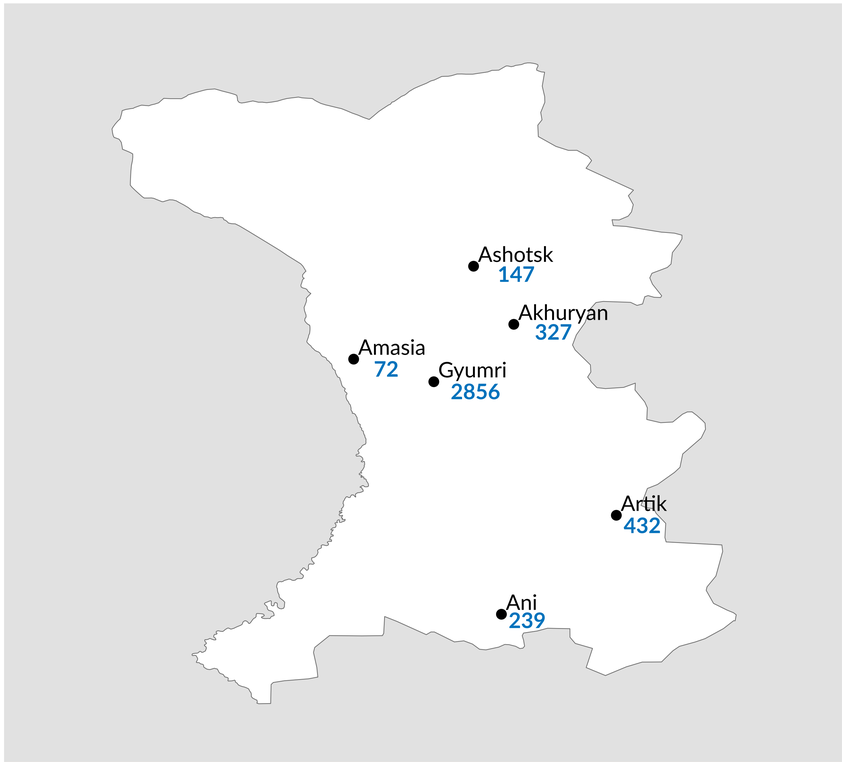
Disclaimer : The boundaries and names shown and the designations used on this map do not imply official endorsement or acceptance by the United Nations.

Source: Migration and Citizenship Service of the Ministry of Internal Affairs of the Republic of Armenia, Registration database of refugees who have arrived in Armenia since September 2023, as of 27 March 2024.

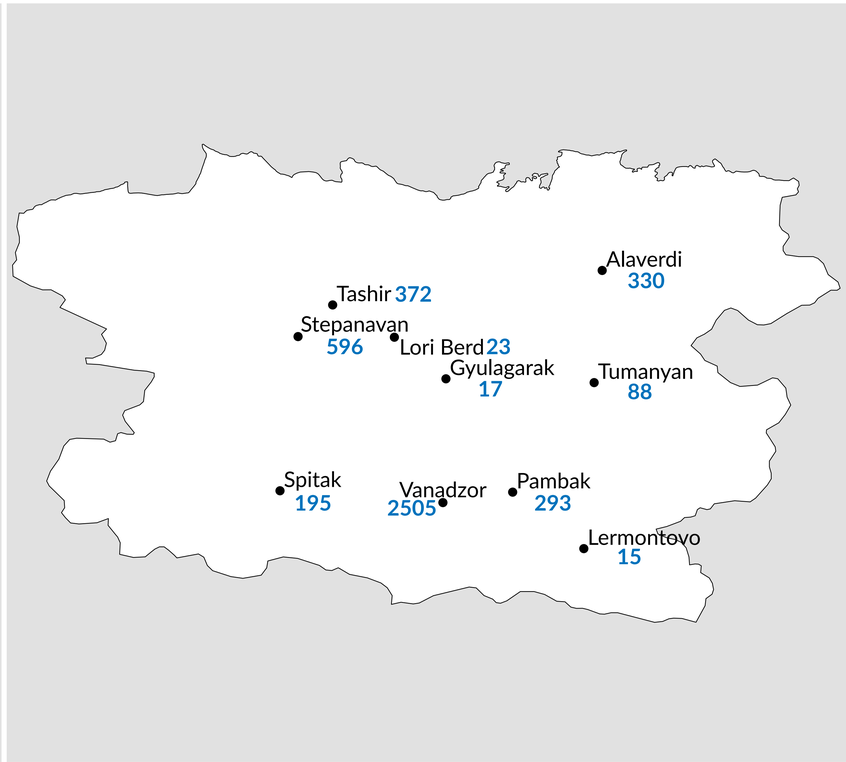
ARMENIA EMERGENCY

Overview of Refugee Population at Community Level

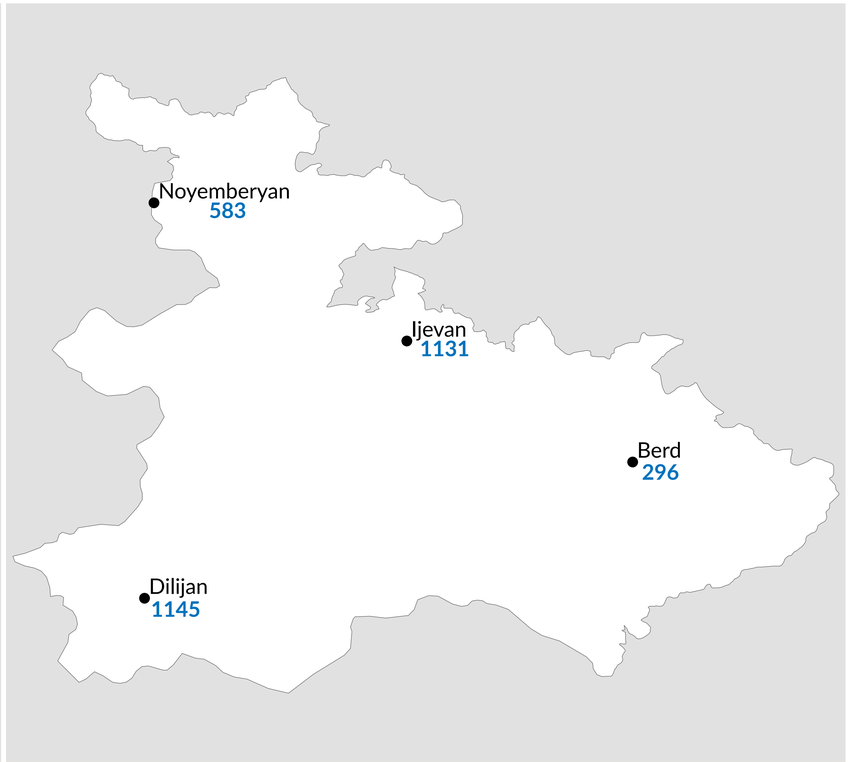
(as of March 2024)



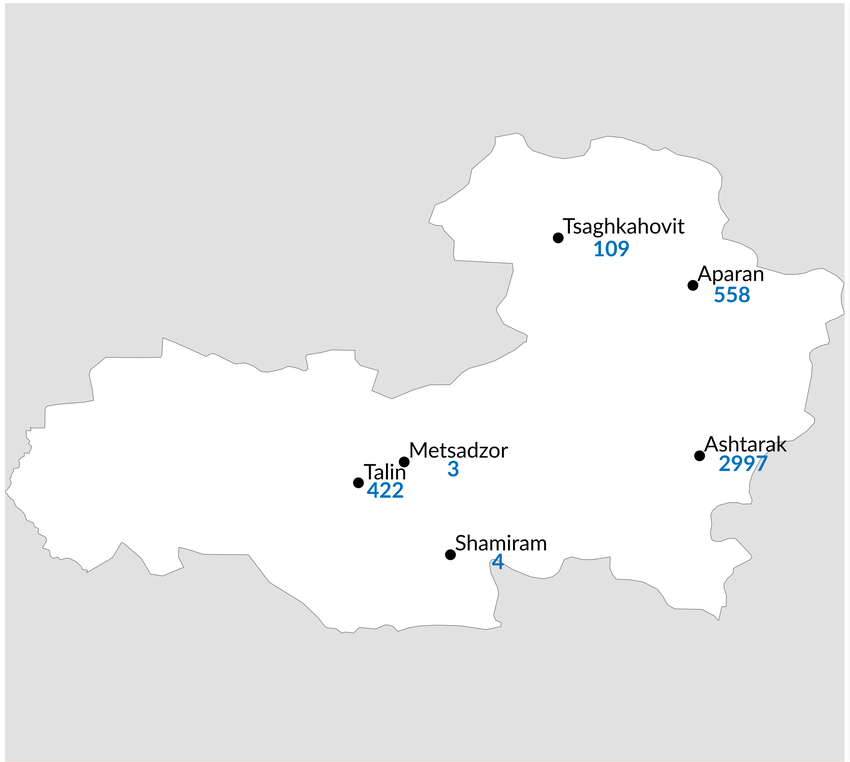
Shirak (4,073 individuals)



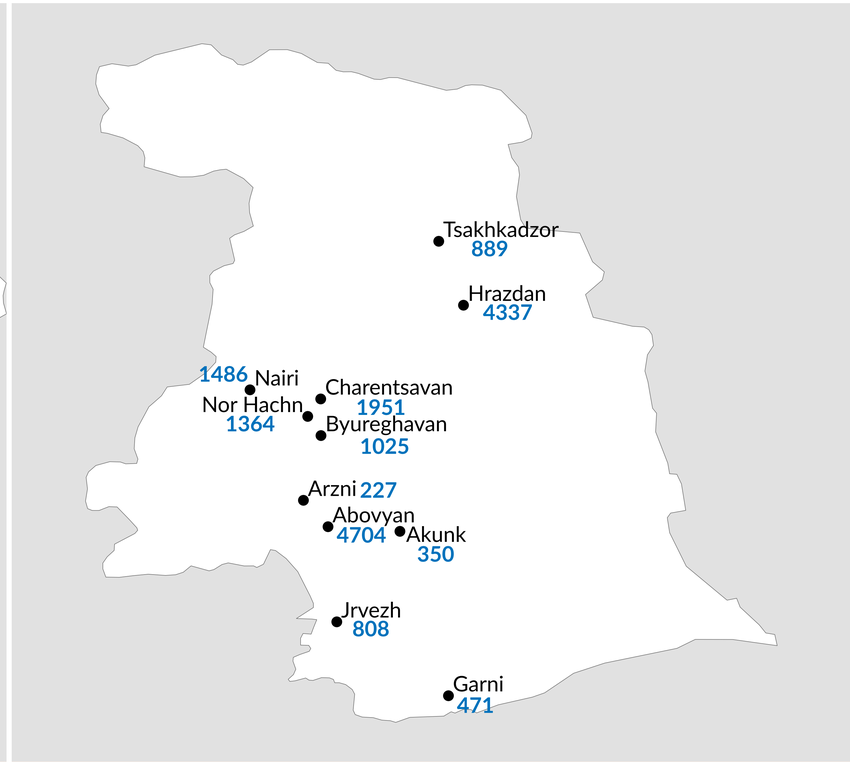
Lori (4,434 individuals)



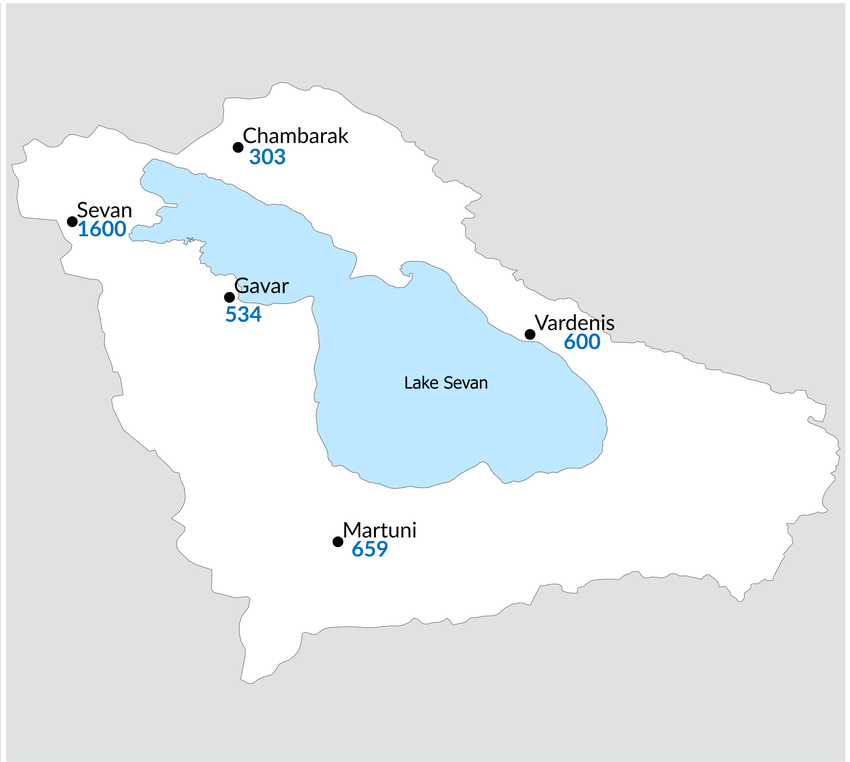
Tavush (3,155 individuals)



Aragatsotn (4,023 individuals)



Kotayk (17,612 individuals)



Gegharkunik (3,696 individuals)

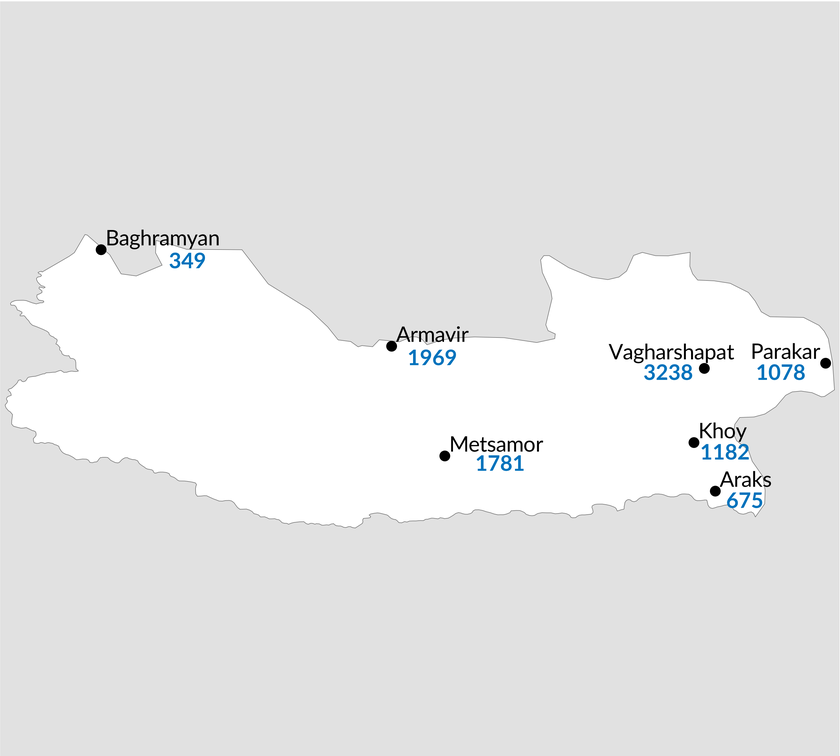
Disclaimer : The boundaries and names shown and the designations used on this map do not imply official endorsement or acceptance by the United Nations.

Source: Migration and Citizenship Service of the Ministry of Internal Affairs of the Republic of Armenia, Registration database of refugees who have arrived in Armenia since September 2023, as of 27 March 2024.

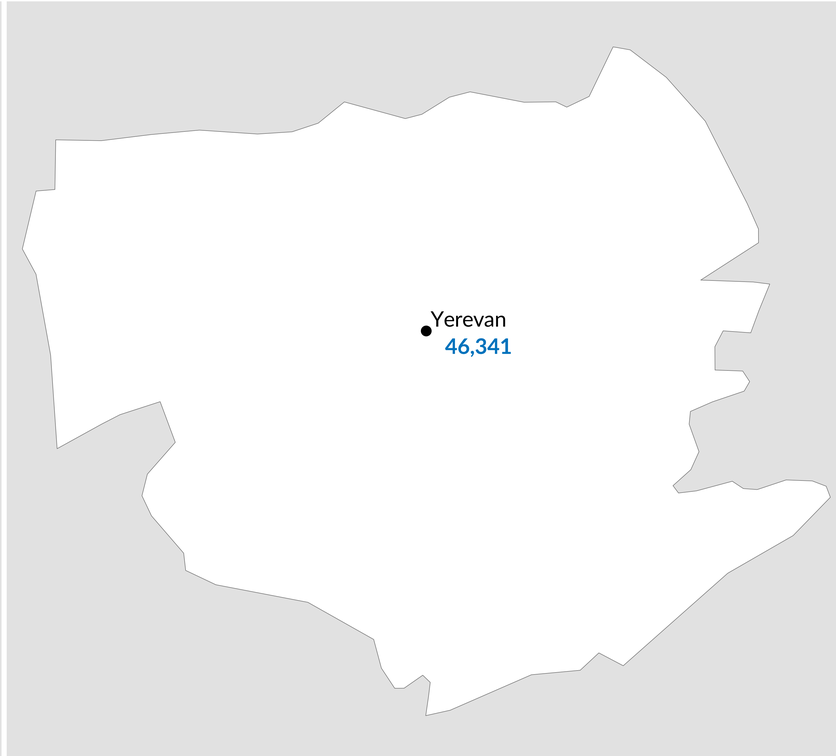
ARMENIA EMERGENCY

Overview of Refugee Population at Community Level

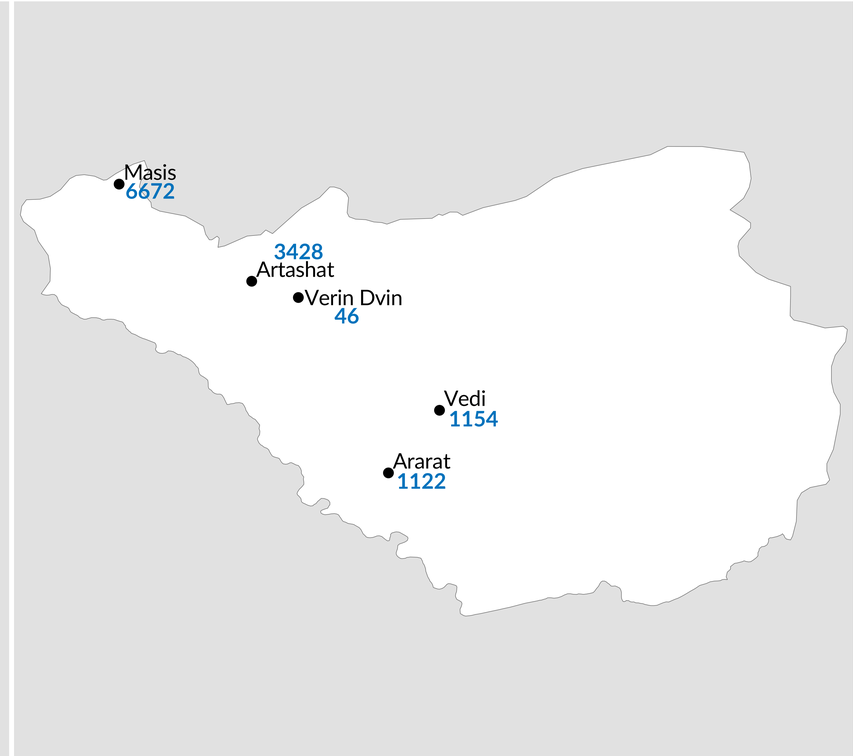
(as of March 2024)



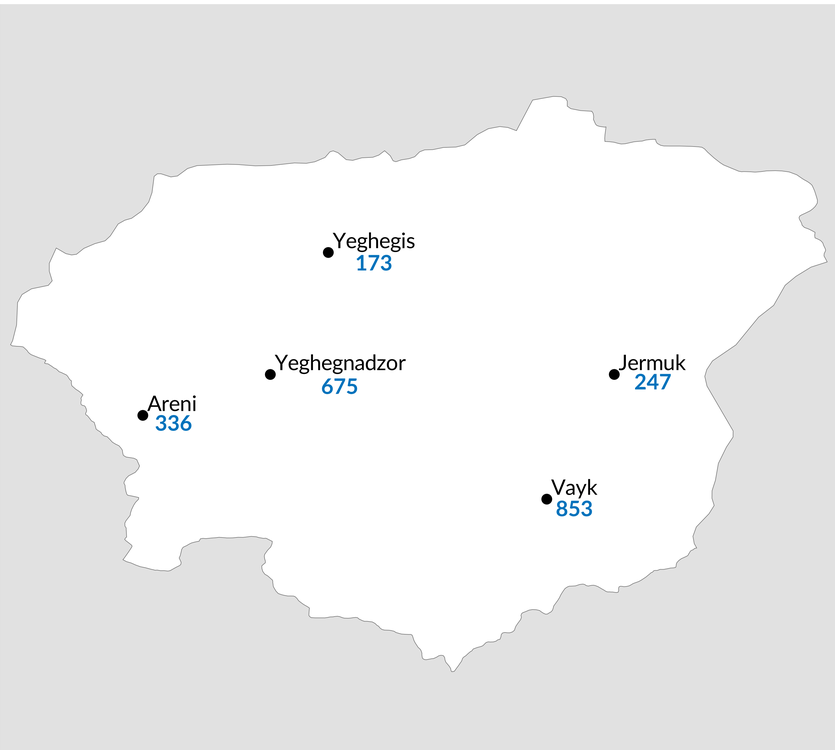
Armavir (10,272 individuals)



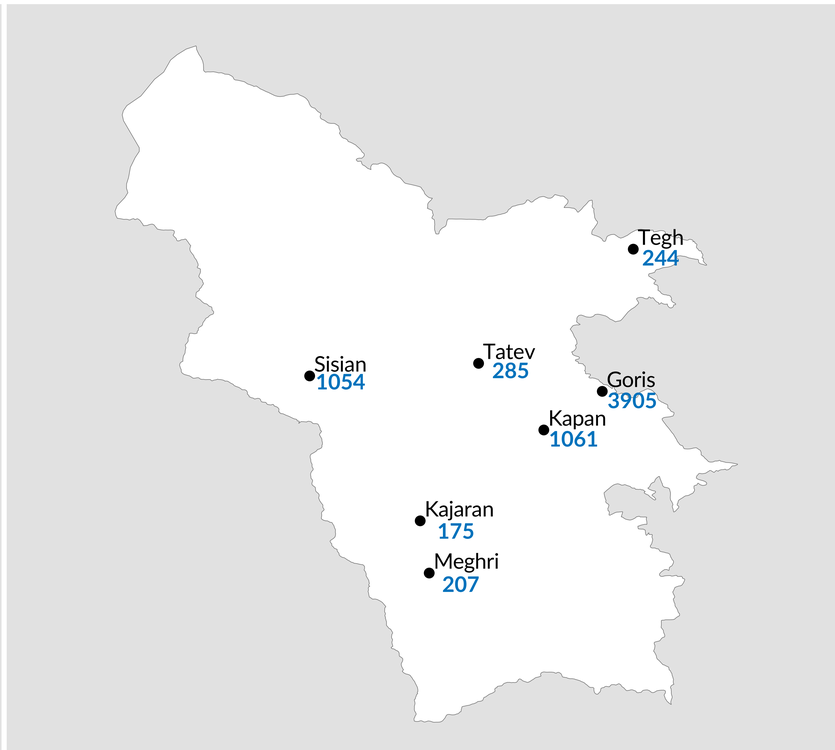
Yerevan (46,341 individuals)



Ararat (12,422 individuals)



Vayots Dzor (2,284 individuals)



Syunik (6,931 individuals)

UNHCR Armenia is grateful for the generous contributions from our government donors, as well as the contributions from private individuals and the private sector.

Disclaimer : The boundaries and names shown and the designations used on this map do not imply official endorsement or acceptance by the United Nations.

Source: Migration and Citizenship Service of the Ministry of Internal Affairs of the Republic of Armenia, Registration database of refugees who have arrived in Armenia since September 2023, as of 27 March 2024.