Closure of the Emirati-Jordanian Camp

18 May - 23 June 2025

UNHCR
United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees
Haut Commissariat des Nations Unies pour les réfugiés

EJC Closure

The closure of the EJC has led to significant initiatives aimed at supporting refugees and asylum seekers.
The report highlights three key movements: the relocation to Azraq Camp organized by UNHCR, the facilitated return to Syria by Armada, and the return coordinated by UNHCR. These initiatives ensure that individuals receive essential services and support during their transition.

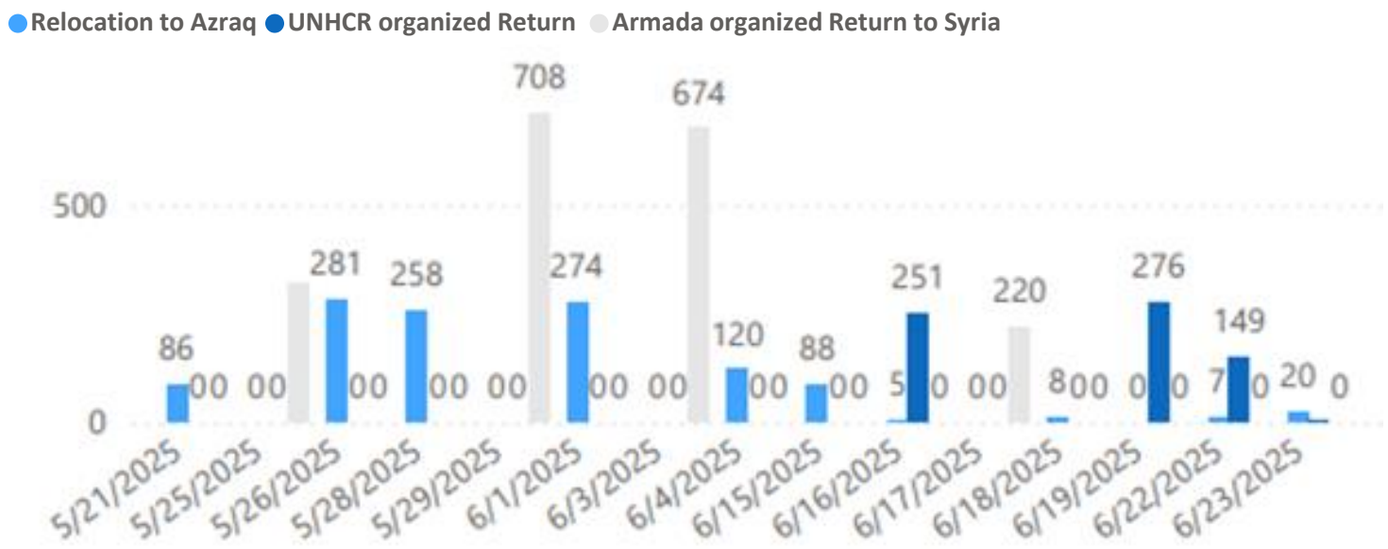
1147
Relocation to Azraq Camp

4932
Return to Syria

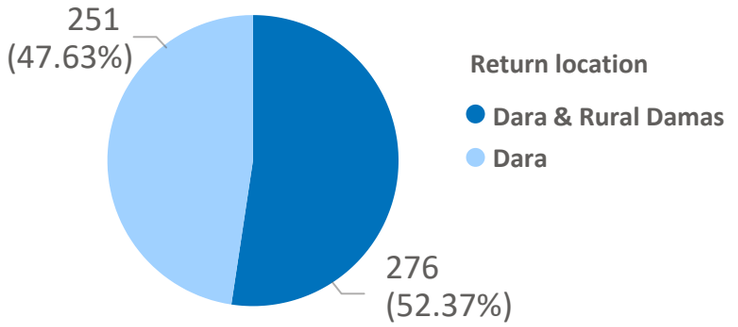
2331
Spontaneous Return

individuals who have returned to Syria on their own, without any facilitation from our organization. These returns have been self-initiated and carried out independently by the individuals involved.

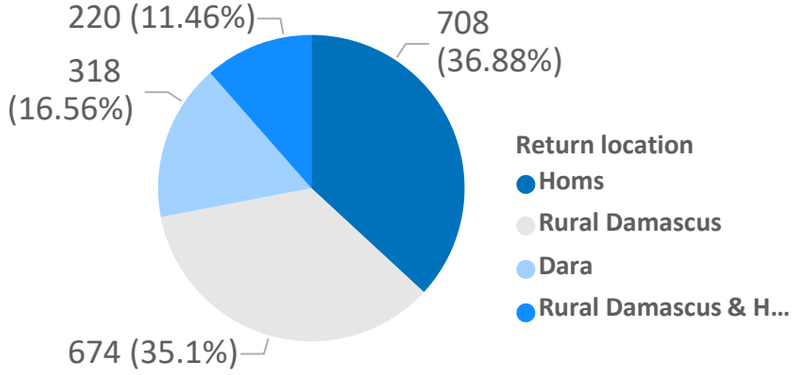
Decreased Population Distribution by Date



UNHCR organized Return to Syria



Armada organized Return to Syria



UNHCR
United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees
Haut Commissariat des Nations Unies pour les réfugiés

Relocation from EJC to Azraq camp

1147 Individuals

353 Registration Group

25 Elderly

491 Children

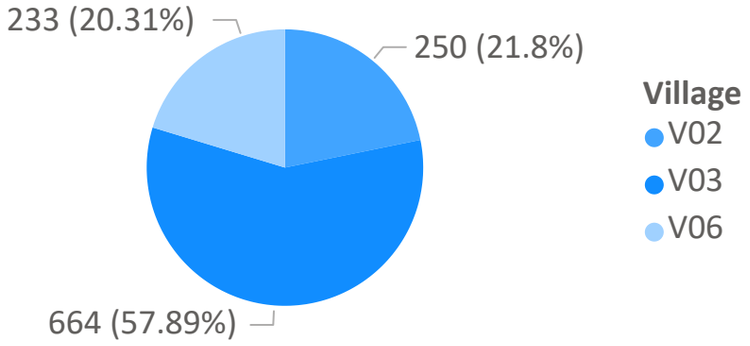
27 Bus

109 Truck

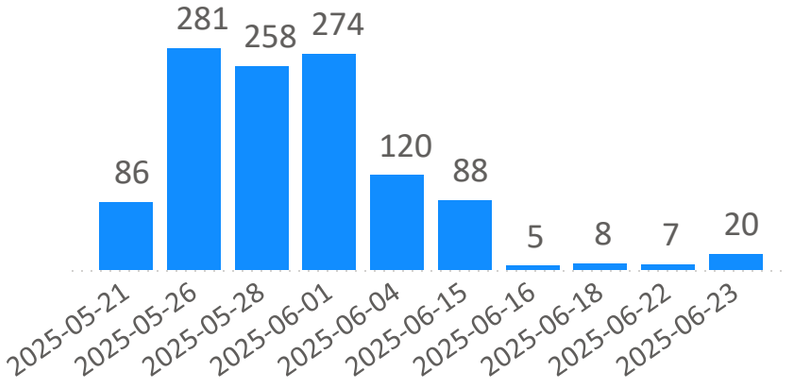
279 Shelters

- One family may have more than one shelter.
- up to 5 Singles may allocate in one shelter

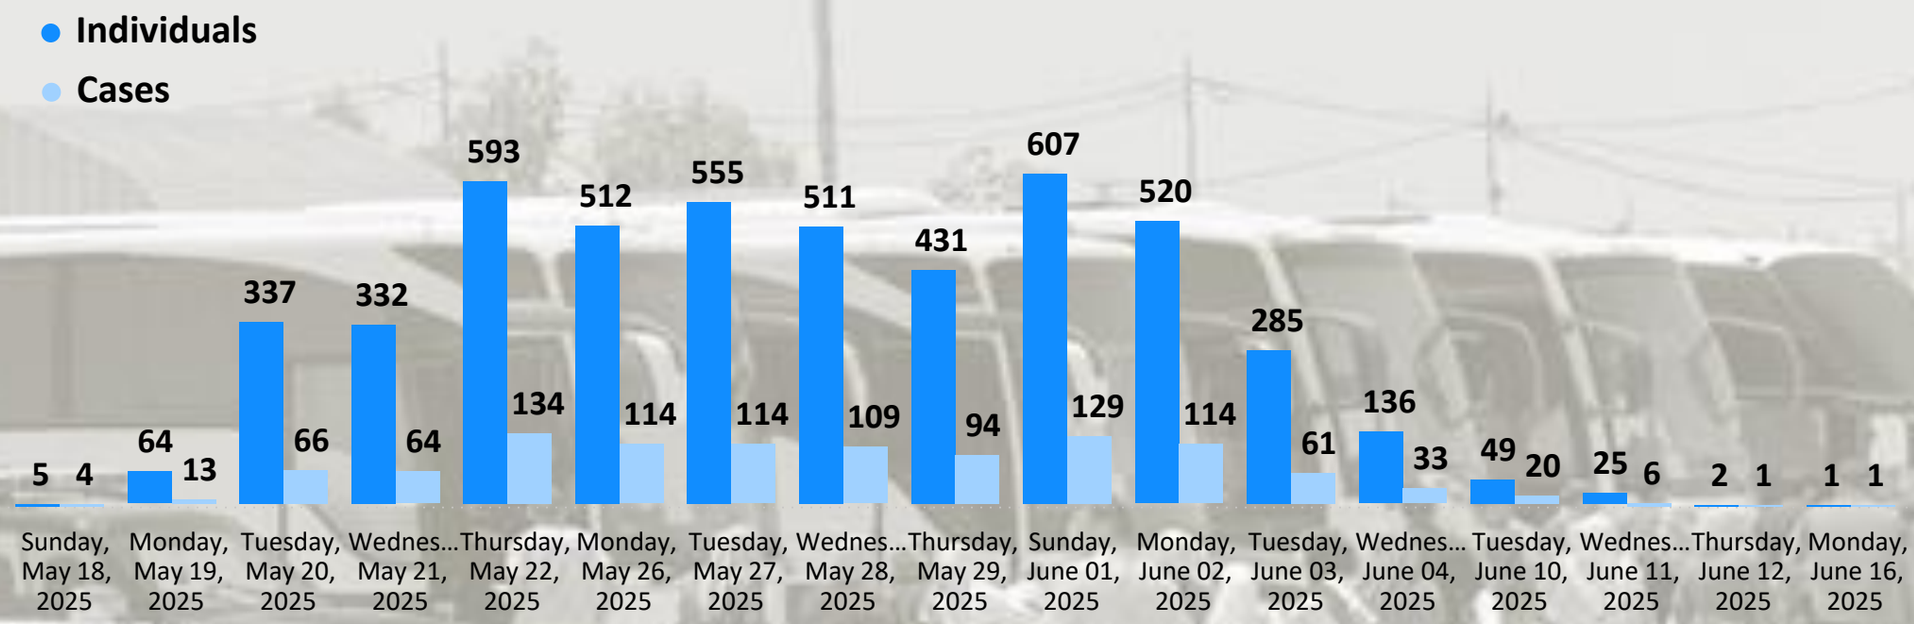
Relocated Population Distribution by Village



Relocated Population Distribution by Date



8 convoys have successfully arrived from EJC to Azraq Camp

UNHCR
United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees
Haut Commissariat des Nations Unies pour les réfugiés


Return Counseling & Clearance