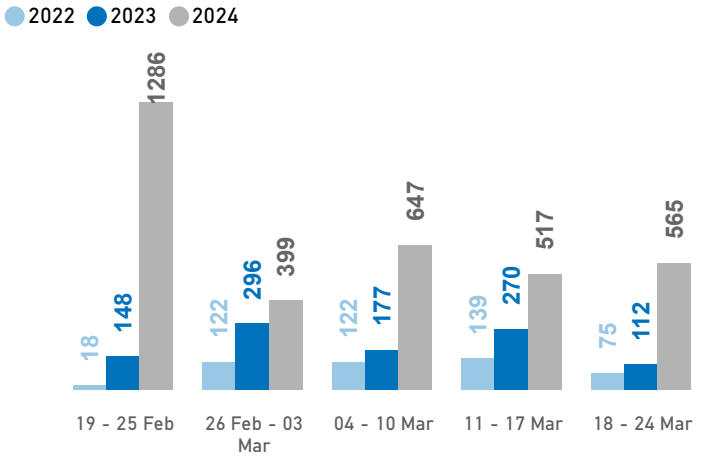
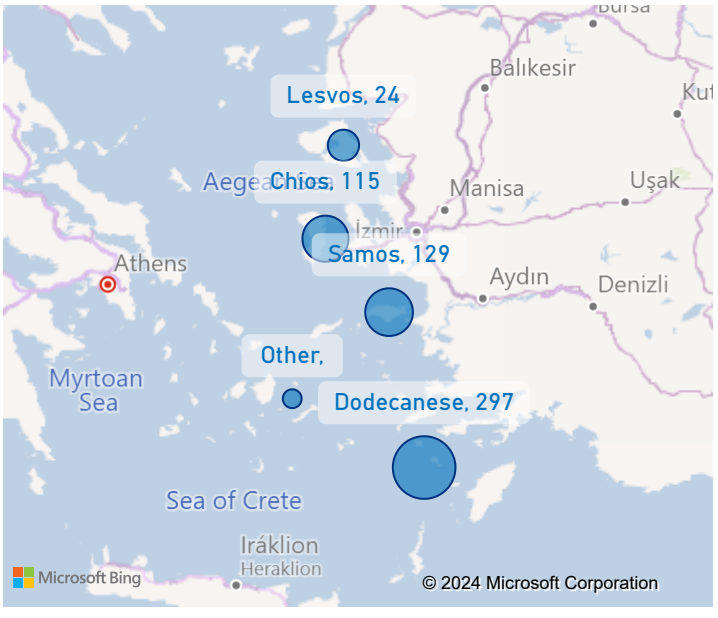
Aegean Islands Weekly Snapshot

Sea arrivals

This week, the Aegean islands saw 565 arrivals, an increase from last week's 517.
The average of the daily arrivals on the Aegean islands for this week is 81.



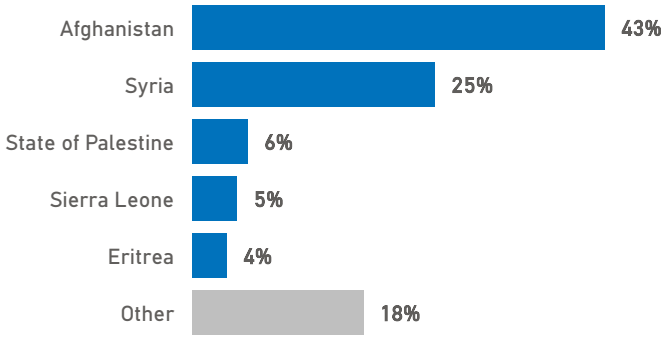
Entry Points

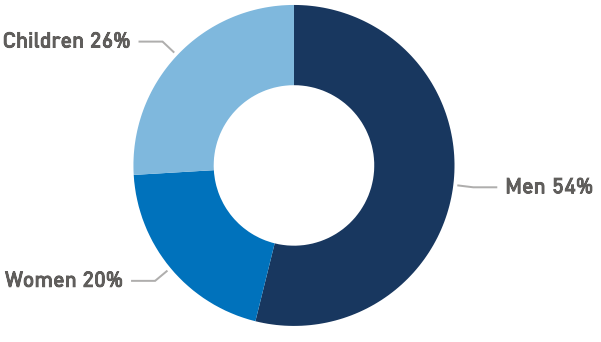


Population in the CCACs

Currently, 9,707 refugees and migrants reside in the Closed Controlled Access Center(s).

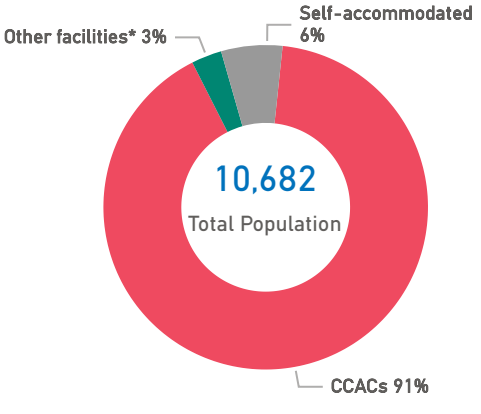
Most of them are from Afghanistan (43%), Syria (25%) and State of Palestine (6%). Men account for 54% of the population, women for 20% and children for 26%.





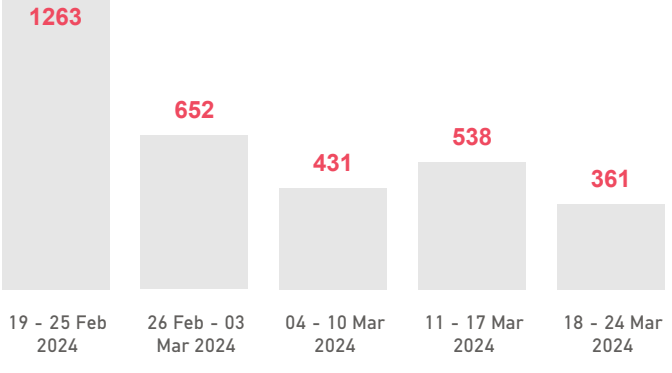
Population on the Islands

There are 10,682 refugees and migrants on the Aegean islands. Out of this total, 9,707 reside at the CCACs and 323 are hosted in other facilities. UNHCR estimates that there are also 652 self-accommodated in the islands.



Departures

This week, 361 refugees and migrants departed from the Aegean islands to the mainland.



Published on 29/03/2024

more information: UNHCR Operational Portal - Greece

Other facilities include shelters for unaccompanied children, detention facilities, etc.

Refugees and migrants includes asylum-seekers, beneficiaries of international protection and people out of the asylum procedure.

Departures to the mainland mainly include: i) transfers in the context of IOM Assisted Voluntary Return and Reintegration programme, ii) transfers of unaccompanied children to State-run facilities, iii) organized transfers supported by the government, including controlled facilities for temporary accommodation of asylum-seekers in the mainland/sites, and iv) those who depart on their own means.

Data Sources: Population data - Partial Data from the Government and other sources; Arrivals/Departures - Hellenic Police, Hellenic Coastguard

Figures are subject to future adjustment based on consolidated figures provided by the authorities. Percentages may not add up to 100 due to rounding and slightly differ between the text and graphs.

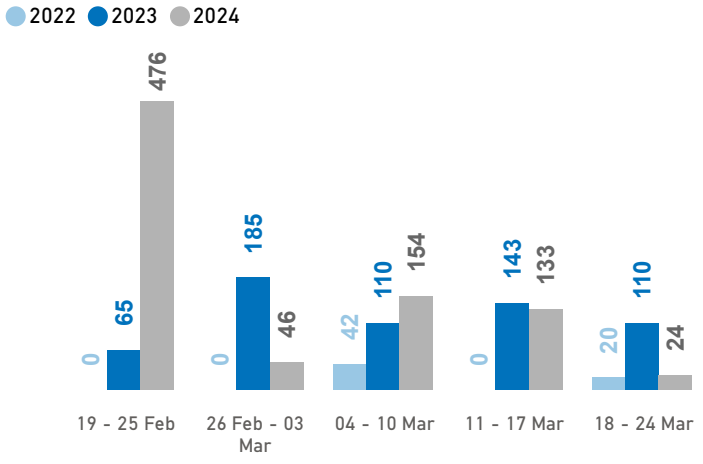
The boundaries, the names shown and the designations used on the map do not imply official endorsement or acceptance by the United Nations.

Lesvos Weekly Snapshot

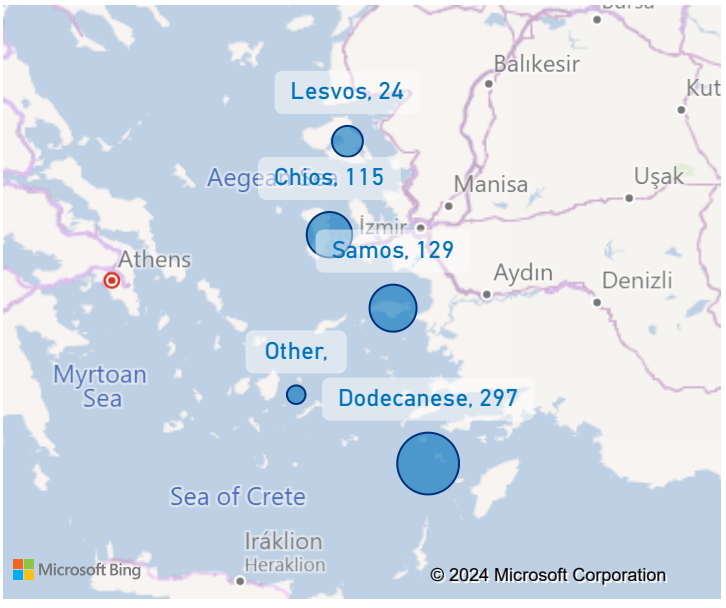
Sea arrivals

This week, Lesvos saw 24 arrivals, a decrease from last week's 133.

The average of the daily arrivals on Lesvos for this week is 3.



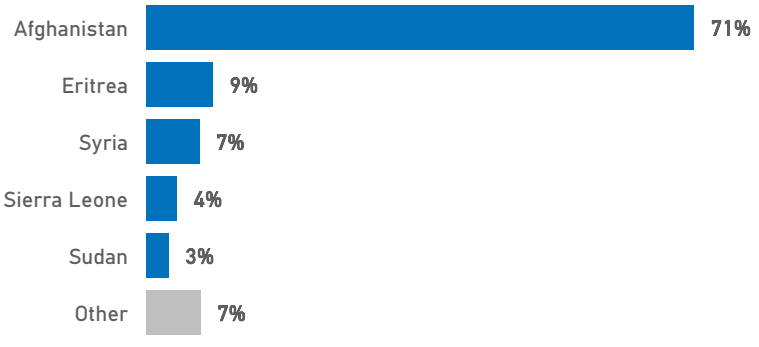
Entry Points

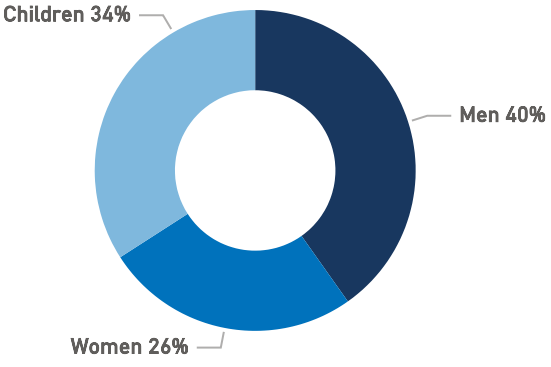


Population in the CCAC

Currently, 3,263 refugees and migrants reside in the Closed Controlled Access Center.

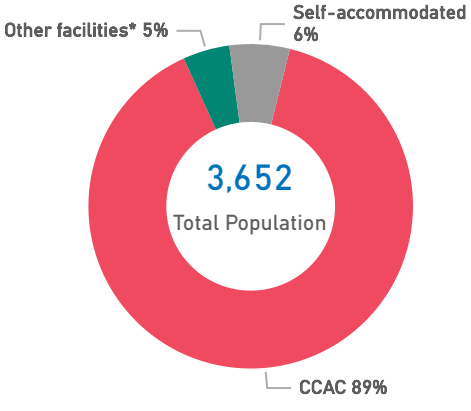
Most of them are from Afghanistan (71%), Eritrea (9%) and Syria (7%). Men account for 40% of the population, women for 26% and children for 34%.





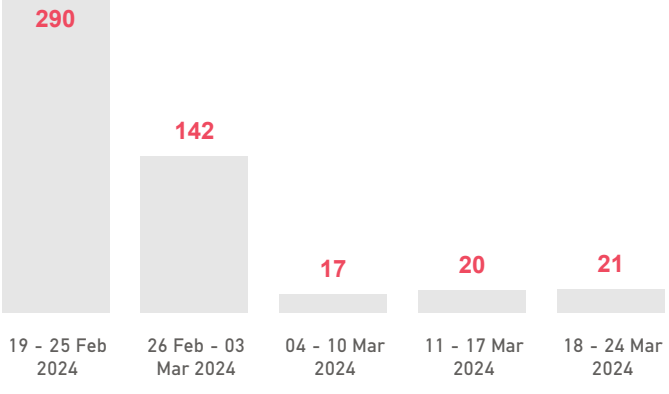
Population on the Island

There are 3,652 refugees and migrants on Lesvos. Out of this total, 3,263 reside at the CCAC and 170 are hosted in other facilities. UNHCR identified 219 self-accommodated refugees in the island up to this date.



Departures

This week, 21 refugees and migrants departed from Lesvos to the mainland.



Published on 29/03/2024

more information: UNHCR Operational Portal - Greece

Other facilities include shelters for unaccompanied children, detention facilities, etc.

Refugees and migrants includes asylum-seekers, beneficiaries of international protection and people out of the asylum procedure.

Departures to the mainland mainly include: i) transfers in the context of IOM Assisted Voluntary Return and Reintegration programme, ii) transfers of unaccompanied children to State-run facilities, iii) organized transfers supported by the government, including controlled facilities for temporary accommodation of asylum-seekers in the mainland/sites, and iv) those who depart on their own means.

Data Sources: Population data - Partial Data from the Government and other sources; Arrivals/Departures - Hellenic Police, Hellenic Coastguard

Figures are subject to future adjustment based on consolidated figures provided by the authorities. Percentages may not add up to 100 due to rounding and slightly differ between the text and graphs.

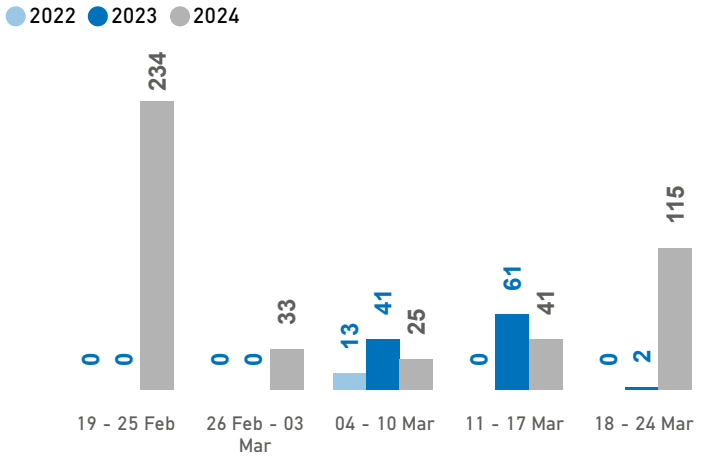
The boundaries, the names shown and the designations used on the map do not imply official endorsement or acceptance by the United Nations.

Chios Island Weekly Snapshot

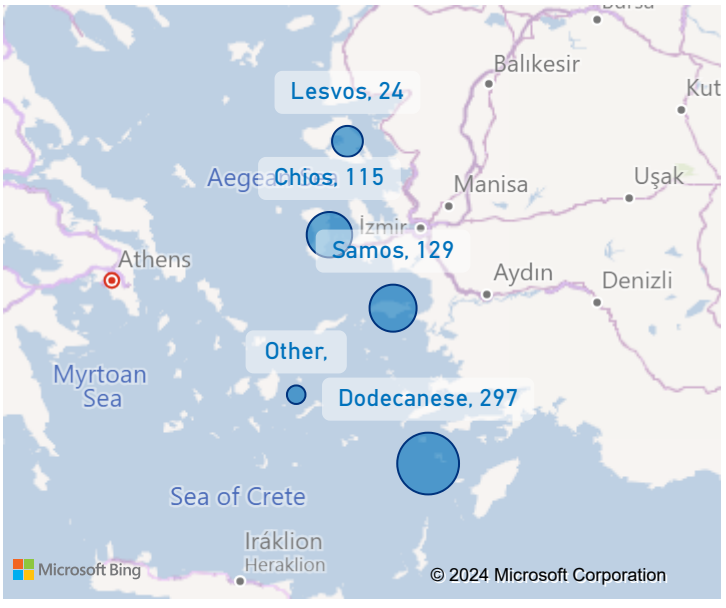
Sea arrivals

This week, Chios island saw 115 arrivals, an increase from last week's 41.

The average of the daily arrivals on Chios island for this week is 16.



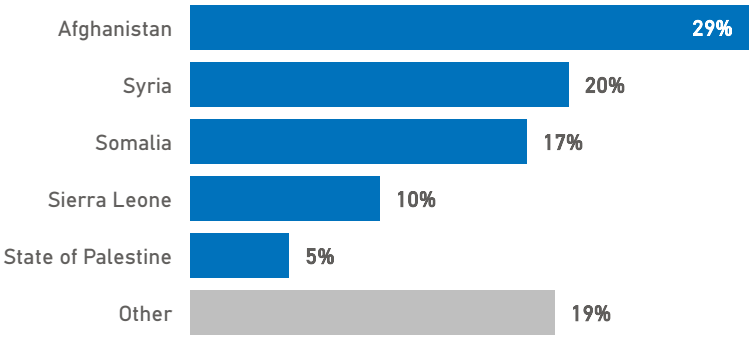
Entry Points

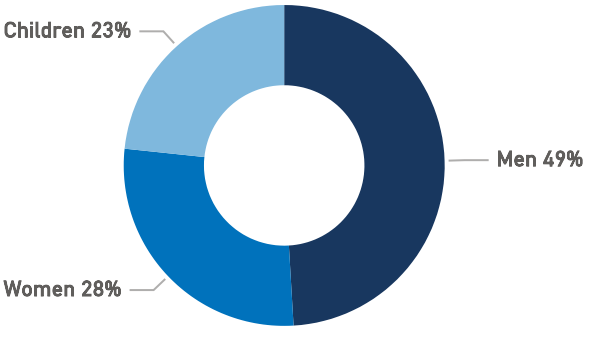


Population in the CCAC

Currently, 1,104 refugees and migrants reside in the Closed Controlled Access Center.

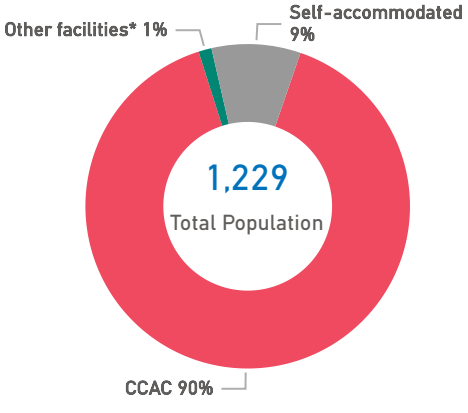
Most of them are from Afghanistan (29%), Syria (20%) and Somalia (17%). Men account for 49% of the population, women for 28% and children for 23%.





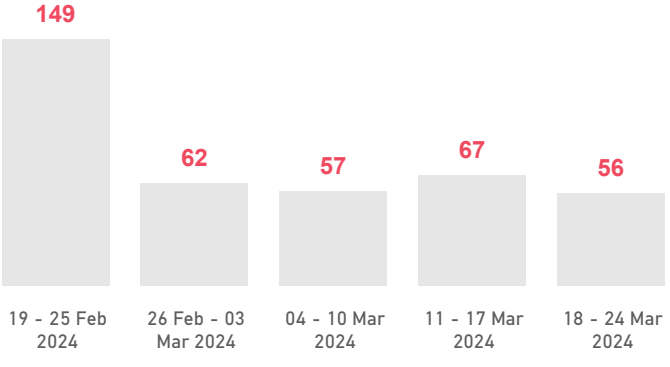
Population on the Island

There are 1,229 refugees and migrants on Chios island. Out of this total, 1,104 reside at the CCAC and 16 are hosted in other facilities. UNHCR estimates that there are also 109 self-accommodated in the island.



Departures

This week, 56 refugees and migrants departed from Chios island to the mainland



Published on 29/03/2024

more information: UNHCR Operational Portal - Greece

Other facilities include shelters for unaccompanied children, detention facilities, etc.

Refugees and migrants includes asylum-seekers, beneficiaries of international protection and people out of the asylum procedure.

Departures to the mainland mainly include: i) transfers in the context of IOM Assisted Voluntary Return and Reintegration programme, ii) transfers of unaccompanied children to State-run facilities, iii) organized transfers supported by the government, including controlled facilities for temporary accommodation of asylum-seekers in the mainland/sites, and iv) those who depart on their own means.

Data Sources: Population data - Partial Data from the Government and other sources; Arrivals/Departures - Hellenic Police, Hellenic Coastguard

Figures are subject to future adjustment based on consolidated figures provided by the authorities. Percentages may not add up to 100 due to rounding and slightly differ between the text and graphs.

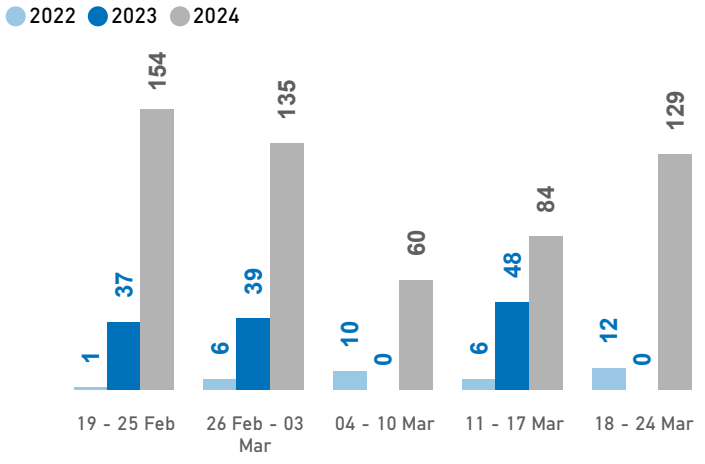
The boundaries, the names shown and the designations used on the map do not imply official endorsement or acceptance by the United Nations.

Samos Island Weekly Snapshot

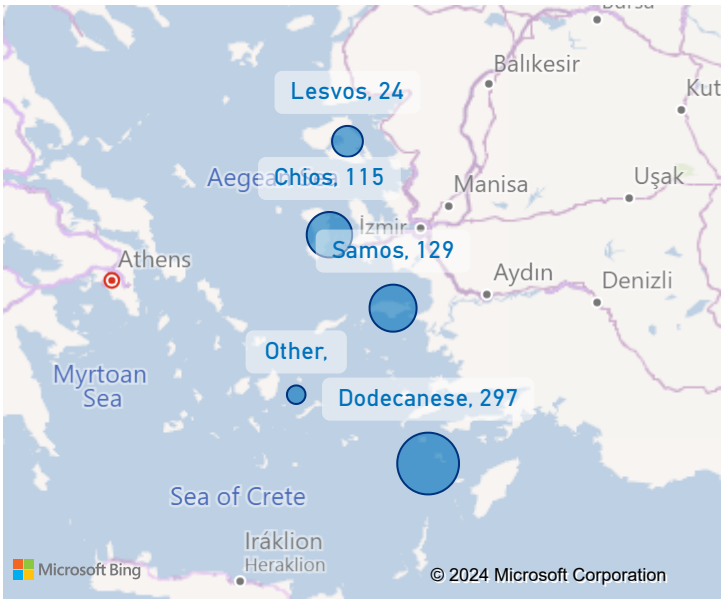
Sea arrivals

This week, Samos island saw 129 arrivals, an increase from last week's 84.

The average of the daily arrivals on Samos island for this week is 18.



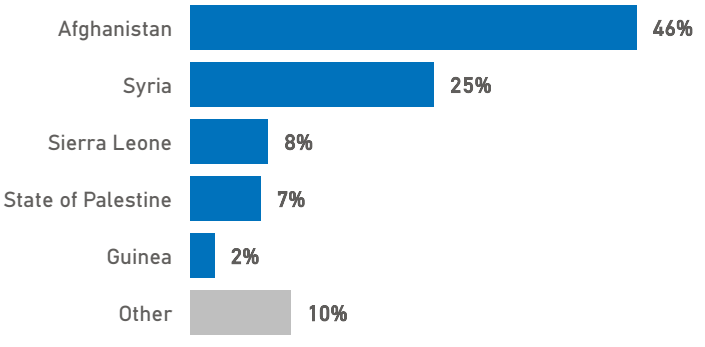
Entry Points

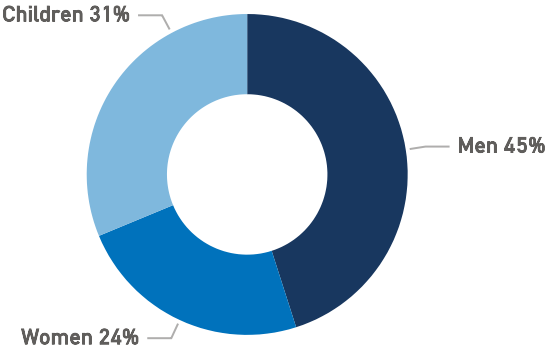


Population in the CCAC

Currently, 2,620 refugees and migrants reside in the Closed Controlled Access Center.

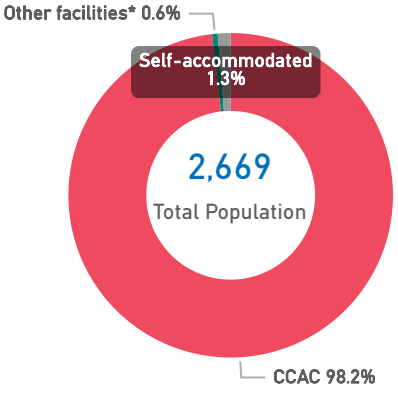
Most of the registered population are from Afghanistan (46%), Syria (25%) and Sierra Leone (8%). Men account for 45% of the population, women for 24% and children for 31%.





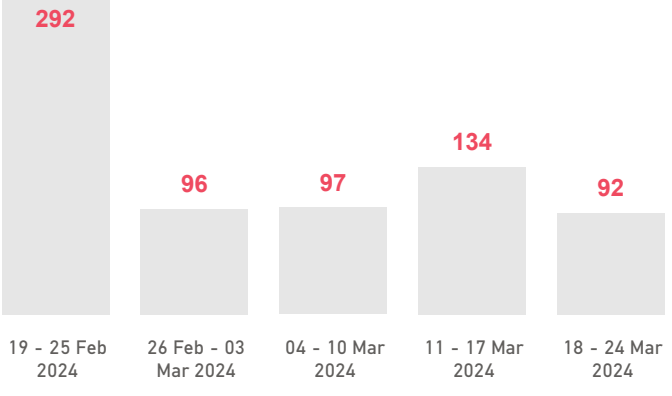
Population on the Island

There are 2,669 refugees and migrants on Samos island. Out of this total, the 2,620 reside at the CCAC and 15 are hosted in other facilities. UNHCR estimates that there are also 34 self-accommodated in the island.



Departures

This week, 92 refugees and migrants departed from Samos island to the mainland.



Published on 29/03/2024

more information: UNHCR Operational Portal - Greece

Other facilities include shelters for unaccompanied children, detention facilities, etc.

Refugees and migrants includes asylum-seekers, beneficiaries of international protection and people out of the asylum procedure.

Departures to the mainland mainly include: i) transfers in the context of IOM Assisted Voluntary Return and Reintegration programme, ii) transfers of unaccompanied children to State-run facilities, iii) organized transfers supported by the government, including controlled facilities for temporary accommodation of asylum-seekers in the mainland/sites, and iv) those who depart on their own means.

Data Sources: Population data - Partial Data from the Government and other sources; Arrivals/Departures - Hellenic Police, Hellenic Coastguard

Figures are subject to future adjustment based on consolidated figures provided by the authorities. Percentages may not add up to 100 due to rounding and slightly differ between the text and graphs.

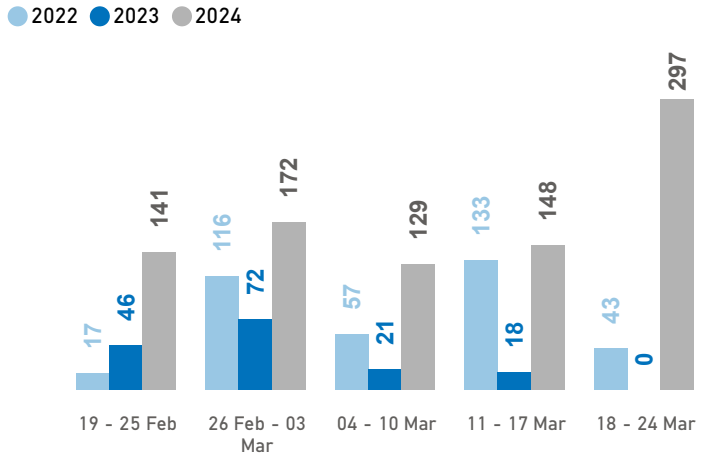
The boundaries, the names shown and the designations used on the map do not imply official endorsement or acceptance by the United Nations.

Dodecanese Islands Weekly Snapshot

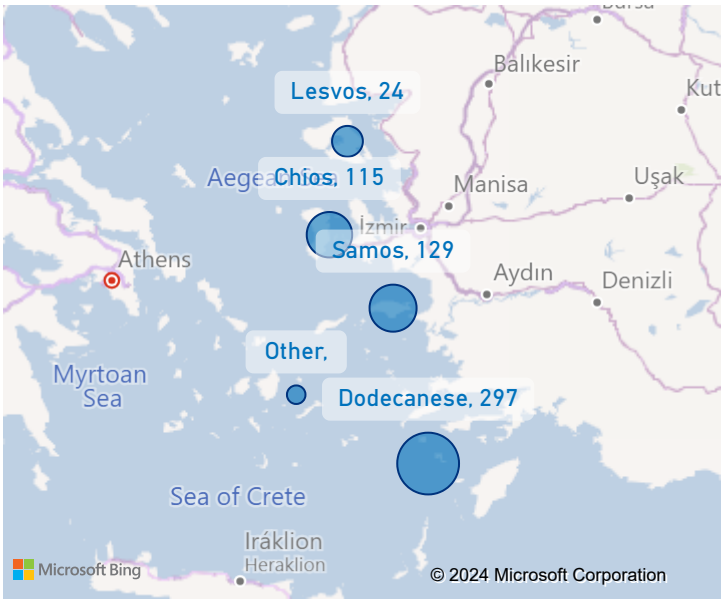
Sea arrivals

This week, the Dodecanese islands saw 297 arrivals, an increase from last week's 148.

The average of the daily arrivals on the Dodecanese islands for this week is 42.



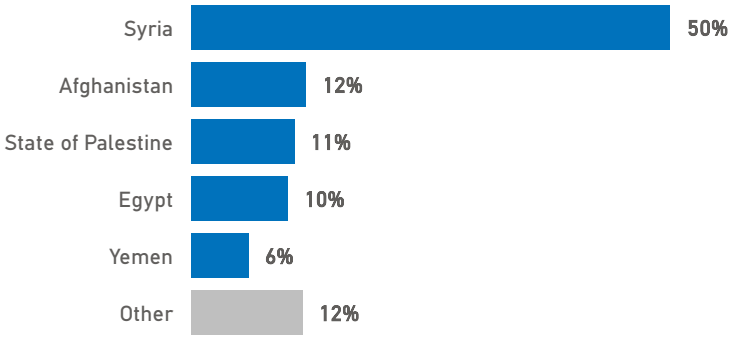
Entry Points

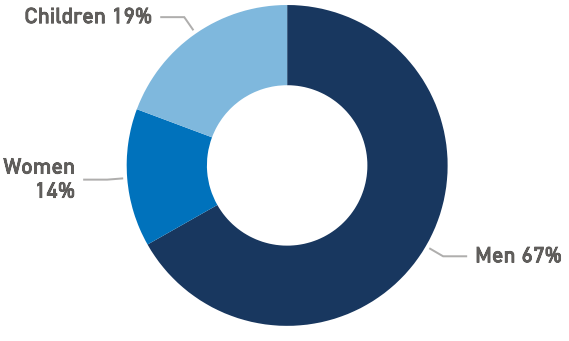


Population in Kos CCAC and Leros CCAC

Currently, 2,720 refugees and migrants reside in Kos CCAC and Leros CCAC.

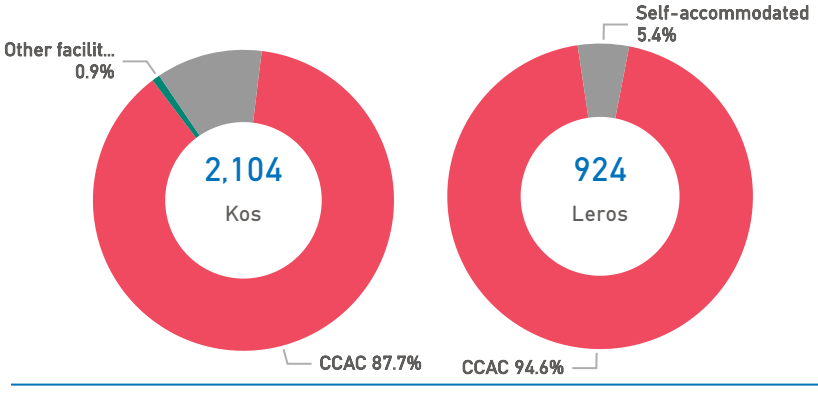
Most of them are from Syria (50%), Afghanistan (12%) and State of Palestine (11%). Men account for 67% of the population, women for 14% and children for 19%.





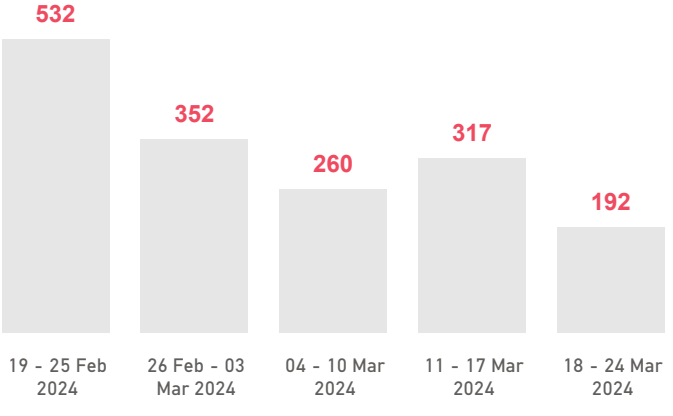
Population on the Dodecanese Islands

There are 3,028 refugees and migrants on the Dodecanese islands. Out of this total, 1,846 reside at the CCAC in Kos, and 874 at the CCAC Leros. In Kos, an estimated 240 people are self-accommodated and an additional 18 are hosted in other facilities, while in Leros, an estimated 50 people are self-accommodated, with an additional 0 being hosted in other facilities.



Departures

This week, 192 refugees and migrants departed from the Dodecanese islands to the mainland.



Published on 29/03/2024

more information: UNHCR Operational Portal - Greece

Other facilities include shelters for unaccompanied children, detention facilities, etc.

Refugees and migrants includes asylum-seekers, beneficiaries of international protection and people out of the asylum procedure.

Departures to the mainland mainly include: i) transfers in the context of IOM Assisted Voluntary Return and Reintegration programme, ii) transfers of unaccompanied children to State-run facilities, iii) organized transfers supported by the government, including controlled facilities for temporary accommodation of asylum-seekers in the mainland/sites, and iv) those who depart on their own means.

Data Sources: Population data - Partial Data from the Government and other sources; Arrivals/Departures - Hellenic Police, Hellenic Coastguard

Figures are subject to future adjustment based on consolidated figures provided by the authorities. Percentages may not add up to 100 due to rounding and slightly differ between the text and graphs.

The boundaries, the names shown and the designations used on the map do not imply official endorsement or acceptance by the United Nations.