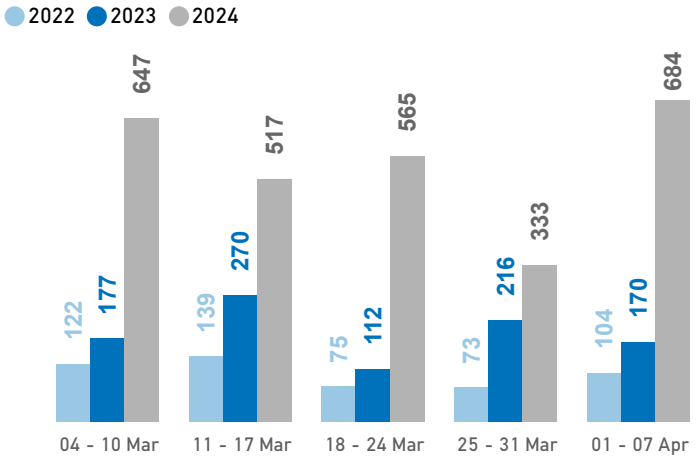
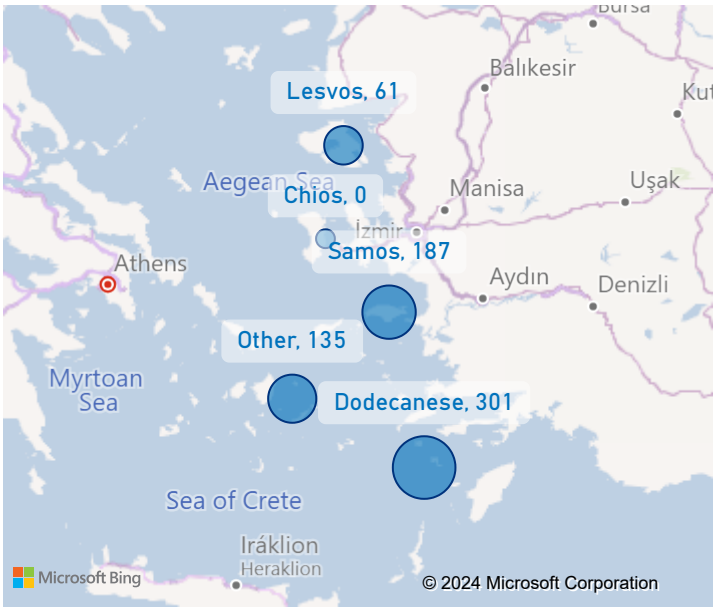
Aegean Islands Weekly Snapshot

Sea arrivals

This week, the Aegean islands saw 684 arrivals, an increase from last week's 333.
The average of the daily arrivals on the Aegean islands for this week is 98.



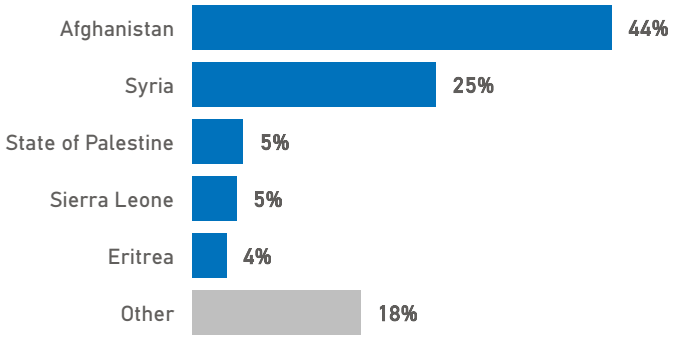
Entry Points

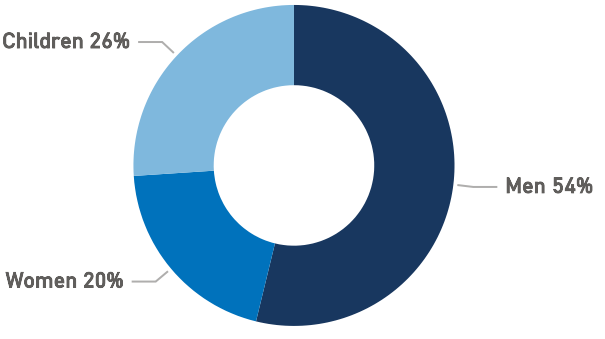


Population in the CCACs

Currently, 9,311 refugees and migrants reside in the Closed Controlled Access Center(s).

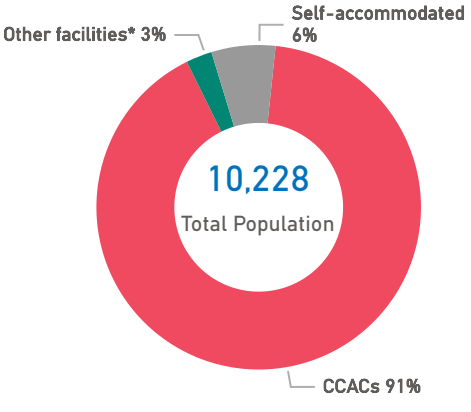
Most of them are from Afghanistan (44%), Syria (25%) and State of Palestine (5%). Men account for 54% of the population, women for 20% and children for 26%.





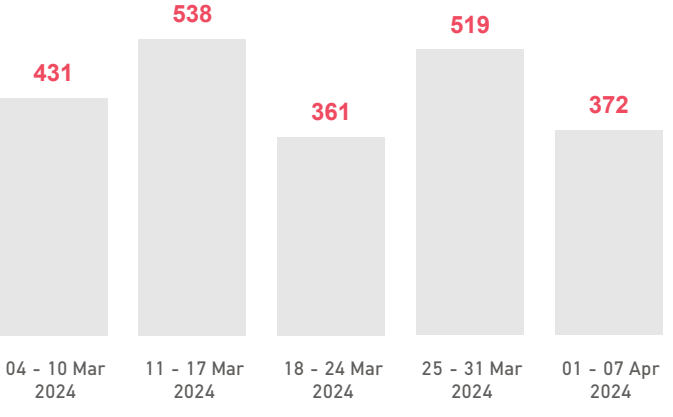
Population on the Islands

There are 10,228 refugees and migrants on the Aegean islands. Out of this total, 9,311 reside at the CCACs and 265 are hosted in other facilities. UNHCR estimates that there are also 652 self-accommodated in the islands.



Departures

This week, 372 refugees and migrants departed from the Aegean islands to the mainland.



Published on 09/04/2024

more information: UNHCR Operational Portal - Greece

Other facilities include shelters for unaccompanied children, detention facilities, etc.

Refugees and migrants includes asylum-seekers, beneficiaries of international protection and people out of the asylum procedure.

Departures to the mainland mainly include: i) transfers in the context of IOM Assisted Voluntary Return and Reintegration programme, ii) transfers of unaccompanied children to State-run facilities, iii) organized transfers supported by the government, including controlled facilities for temporary accommodation of asylum-seekers in the mainland/sites, and iv) those who depart on their own means.

Data Sources: Population data - Partial Data from the Government and other sources; Arrivals/Departures - Hellenic Police, Hellenic Coastguard

Figures are subject to future adjustment based on consolidated figures provided by the authorities. Percentages may not add up to 100 due to rounding and slightly differ between the text and graphs.

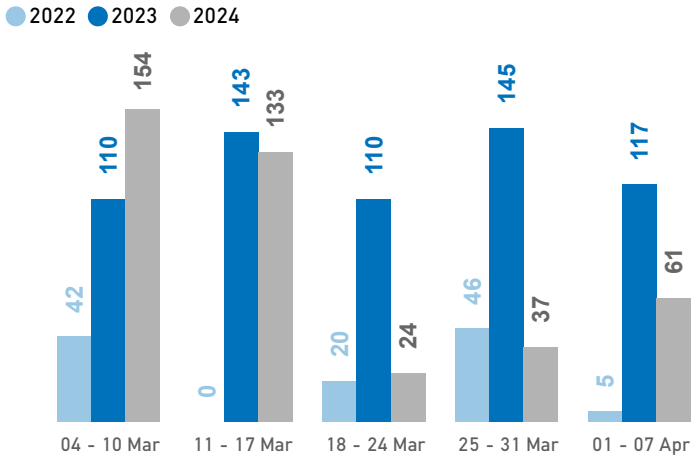
The boundaries, the names shown and the designations used on the map do not imply official endorsement or acceptance by the United Nations.

Lesvos Weekly Snapshot

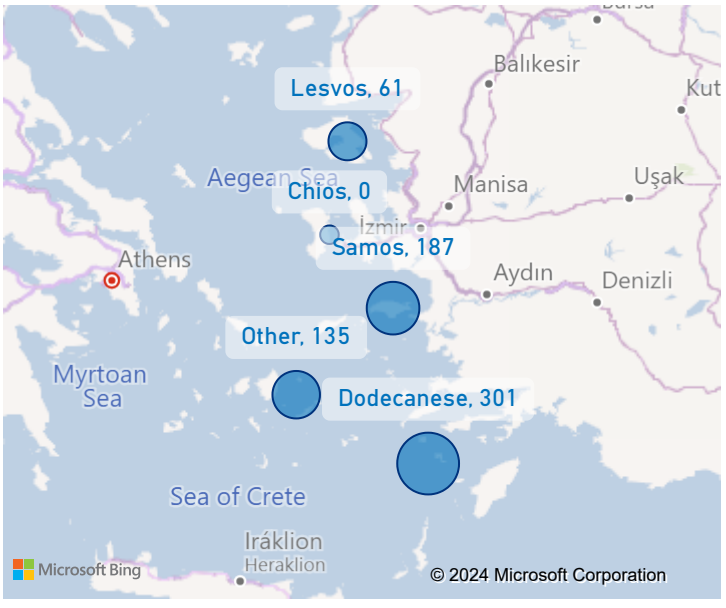
Sea arrivals

This week, Lesvos saw 61 arrivals, an increase from last week's 37.

The average of the daily arrivals on Lesvos for this week is 9.



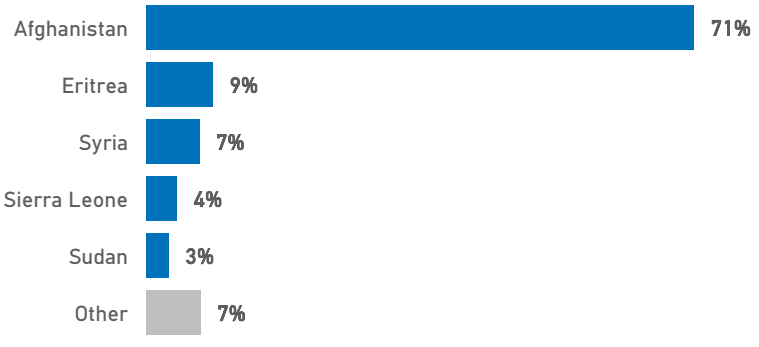
Entry Points

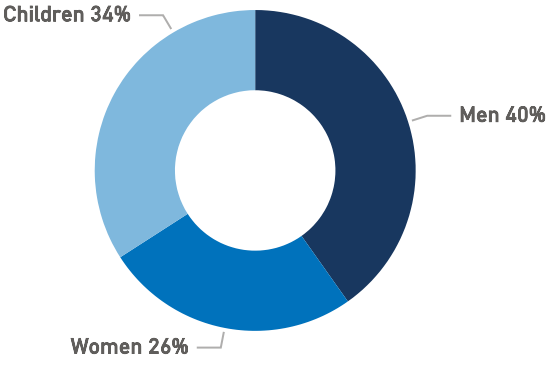


Population in the CCAC

Currently, 2,964 refugees and migrants reside in the Closed Controlled Access Center.

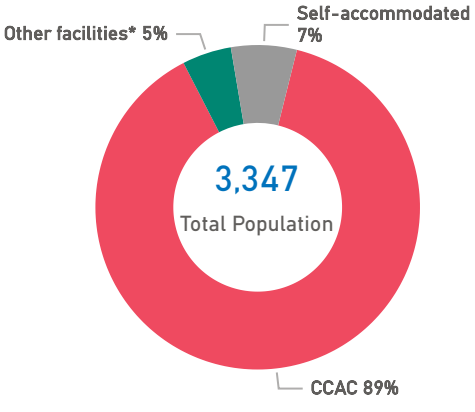
Most of them are from Afghanistan (71%), Eritrea (9%) and Syria (7%). Men account for 40% of the population, women for 26% and children for 34%.





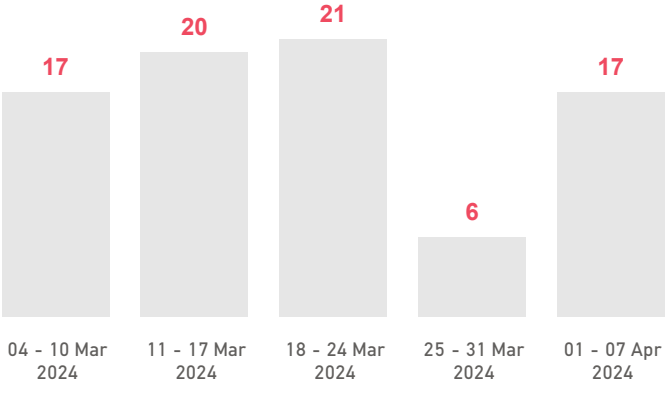
Population on the Island

There are 3,347 refugees and migrants on Lesvos. Out of this total, 2,964 reside at the CCAC and 164 are hosted in other facilities. UNHCR identified 219 self-accommodated refugees in the island up to this date.



Departures

This week, 17 refugees and migrants departed from Lesvos to the mainland.



Published on 09/04/2024

more information: UNHCR Operational Portal - Greece

Other facilities include shelters for unaccompanied children, detention facilities, etc.

Refugees and migrants includes asylum-seekers, beneficiaries of international protection and people out of the asylum procedure.

Departures to the mainland mainly include: i) transfers in the context of IOM Assisted Voluntary Return and Reintegration programme, ii) transfers of unaccompanied children to State-run facilities, iii) organized transfers supported by the government, including controlled facilities for temporary accommodation of asylum-seekers in the mainland/sites, and iv) those who depart on their own means.

Data Sources: Population data - Partial Data from the Government and other sources; Arrivals/Departures - Hellenic Police, Hellenic Coastguard

Figures are subject to future adjustment based on consolidated figures provided by the authorities. Percentages may not add up to 100 due to rounding and slightly differ between the text and graphs.

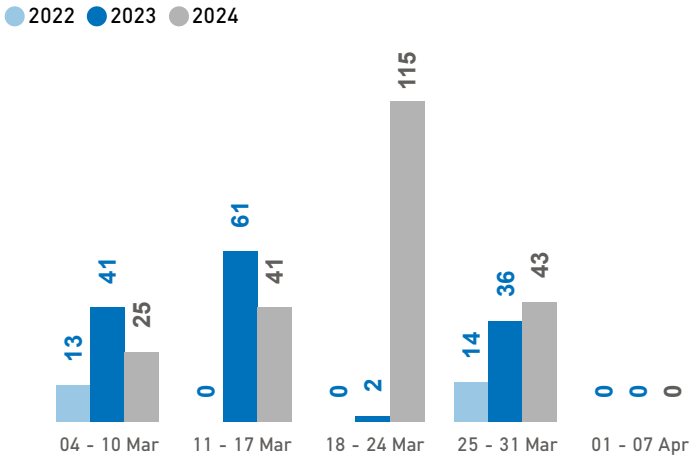
The boundaries, the names shown and the designations used on the map do not imply official endorsement or acceptance by the United Nations.

Chios Island Weekly Snapshot

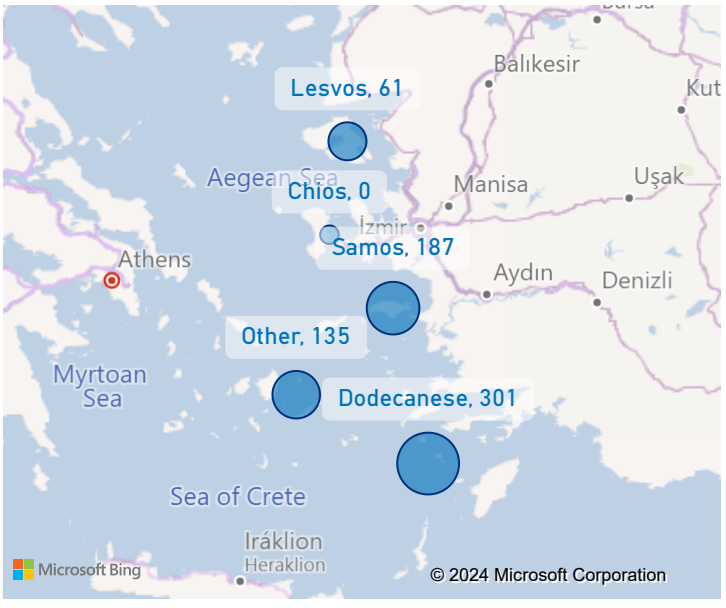
Sea arrivals

This week, Chios island saw 0 arrivals, a decrease from last week's 43.

The average of the daily arrivals on Chios island for this week is 0.



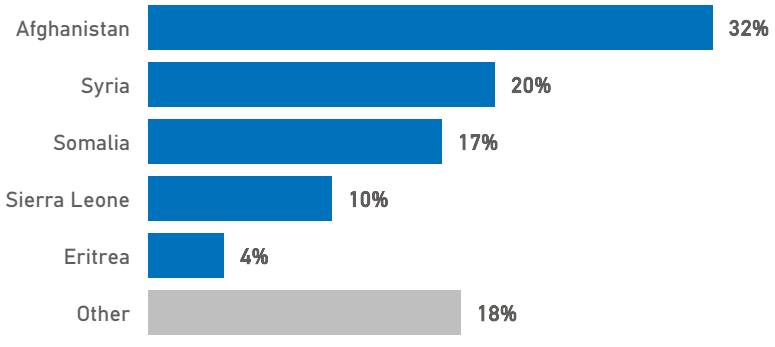
Entry Points

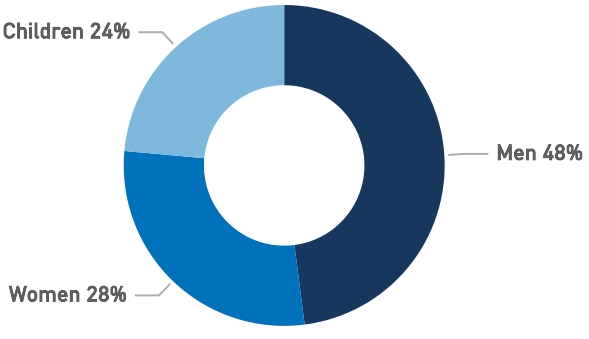


Population in the CCAC

Currently, 1,039 refugees and migrants reside in the Closed Controlled Access Center.

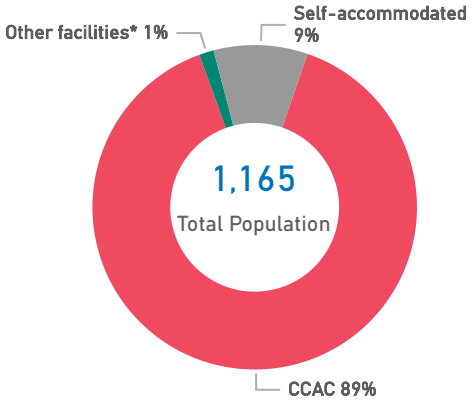
Most of them are from Afghanistan (32%), Syria (20%) and Somalia (17%). Men account for 48% of the population, women for 28% and children for 24%.





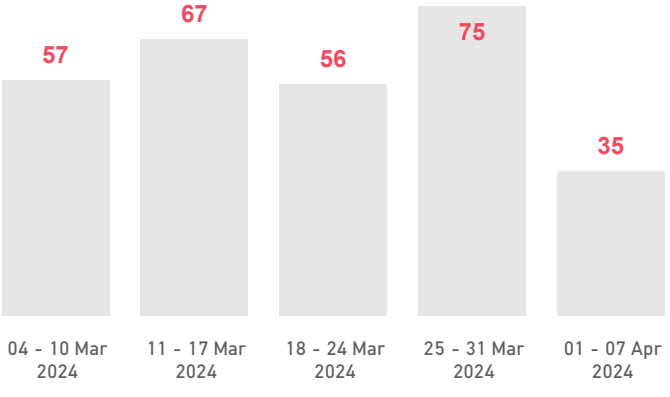
Population on the Island

There are 1,165 refugees and migrants on Chios island. Out of this total, 1,039 reside at the CCAC and 17 are hosted in other facilities. UNHCR estimates that there are also 109 self-accommodated in the island.



Departures

This week, 35 refugees and migrants departed from Chios island to the mainland



Published on 09/04/2024

more information: UNHCR Operational Portal - Greece

Other facilities include shelters for unaccompanied children, detention facilities, etc.

Refugees and migrants includes asylum-seekers, beneficiaries of international protection and people out of the asylum procedure.

Departures to the mainland mainly include: i) transfers in the context of IOM Assisted Voluntary Return and Reintegration programme, ii) transfers of unaccompanied children to State-run facilities, iii) organized transfers supported by the government, including controlled facilities for temporary accommodation of asylum-seekers in the mainland/sites, and iv) those who depart on their own means.

Data Sources: Population data - Partial Data from the Government and other sources; Arrivals/Departures - Hellenic Police, Hellenic Coastguard

Figures are subject to future adjustment based on consolidated figures provided by the authorities. Percentages may not add up to 100 due to rounding and slightly differ between the text and graphs.

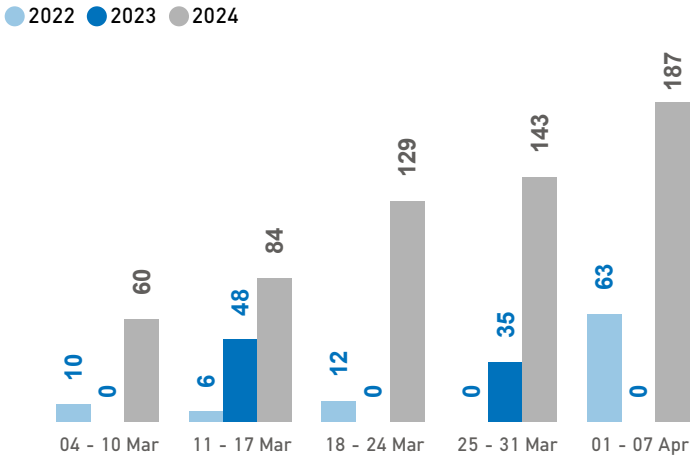
The boundaries, the names shown and the designations used on the map do not imply official endorsement or acceptance by the United Nations.

Samos Island Weekly Snapshot

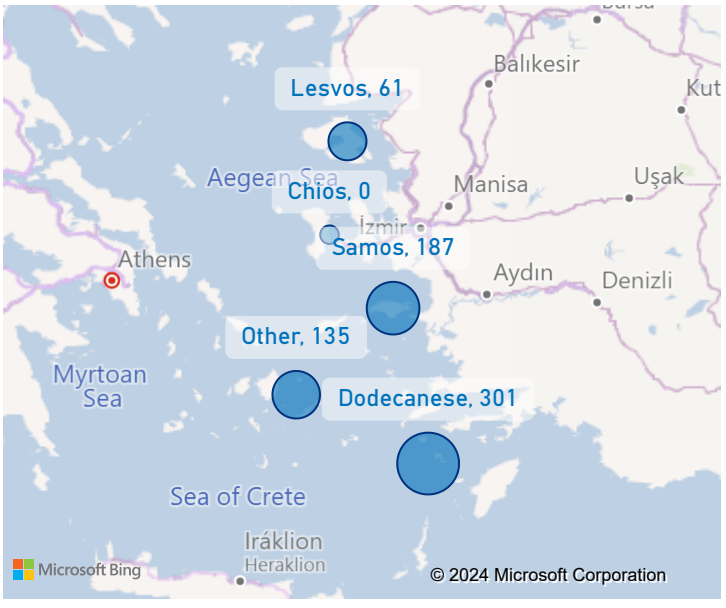
Sea arrivals

This week, Samos island saw 187 arrivals, an increase from last week's 143.

The average of the daily arrivals on Samos island for this week is 27.



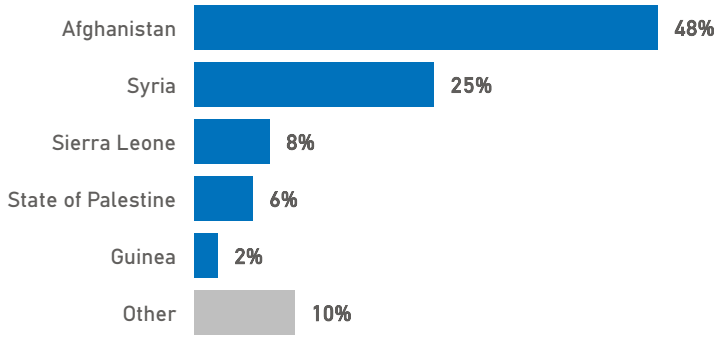
Entry Points

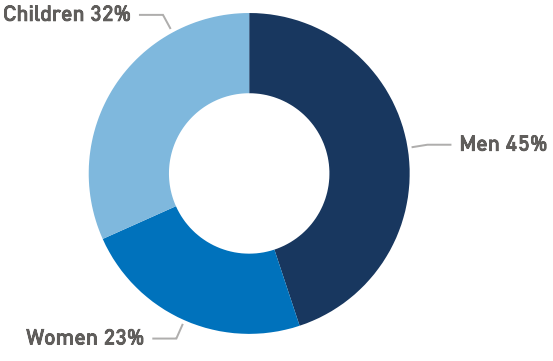


Population in the CCAC

Currently, 2,564 refugees and migrants reside in the Closed Controlled Access Center.

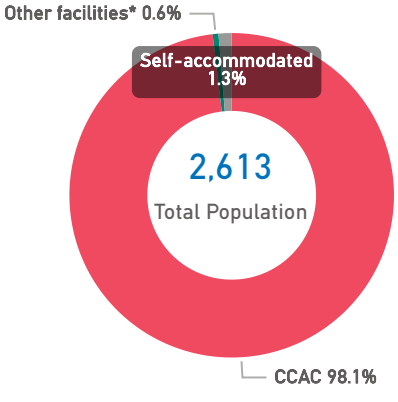
Most of the registered population are from Afghanistan (48%), Syria (25%) and Sierra Leone (8%). Men account for 45% of the population, women for 23% and children for 32%.





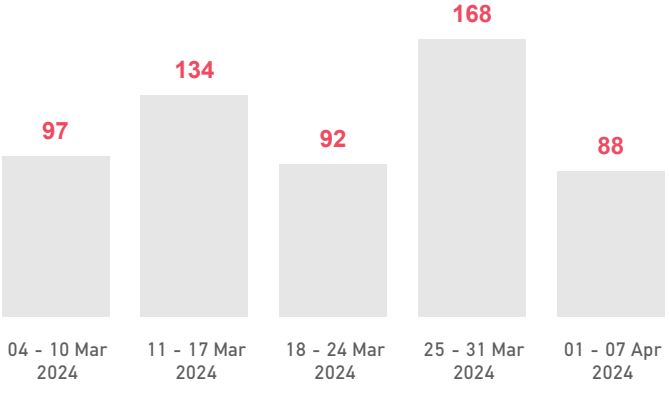
Population on the Island

There are 2,613 refugees and migrants on Samos island. Out of this total, the 2,564 reside at the CCAC and 15 are hosted in other facilities. UNHCR estimates that there are also 34 self-accommodated in the island.



Departures

This week, 88 refugees and migrants departed from Samos island to the mainland.



Published on 09/04/2024

more information: UNHCR Operational Portal - Greece

Other facilities include shelters for unaccompanied children, detention facilities, etc.

Refugees and migrants includes asylum-seekers, beneficiaries of international protection and people out of the asylum procedure.

Departures to the mainland mainly include: i) transfers in the context of IOM Assisted Voluntary Return and Reintegration programme, ii) transfers of unaccompanied children to State-run facilities, iii) organized transfers supported by the government, including controlled facilities for temporary accommodation of asylum-seekers in the mainland/sites, and iv) those who depart on their own means.

Data Sources: Population data - Partial Data from the Government and other sources; Arrivals/Departures - Hellenic Police, Hellenic Coastguard

Figures are subject to future adjustment based on consolidated figures provided by the authorities. Percentages may not add up to 100 due to rounding and slightly differ between the text and graphs.

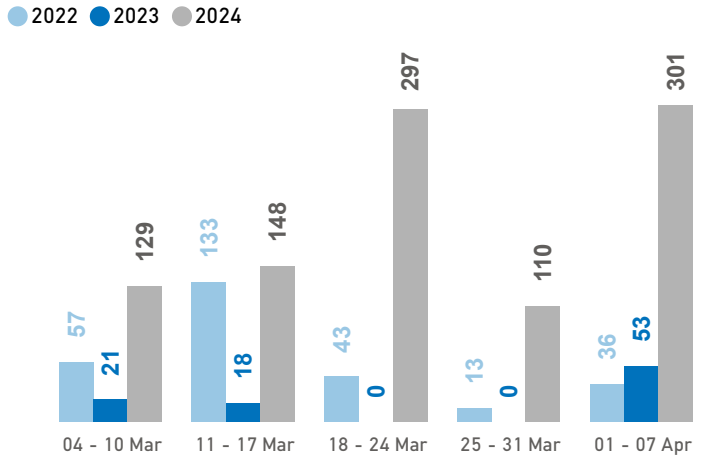
The boundaries, the names shown and the designations used on the map do not imply official endorsement or acceptance by the United Nations.

Dodecanese Islands Weekly Snapshot

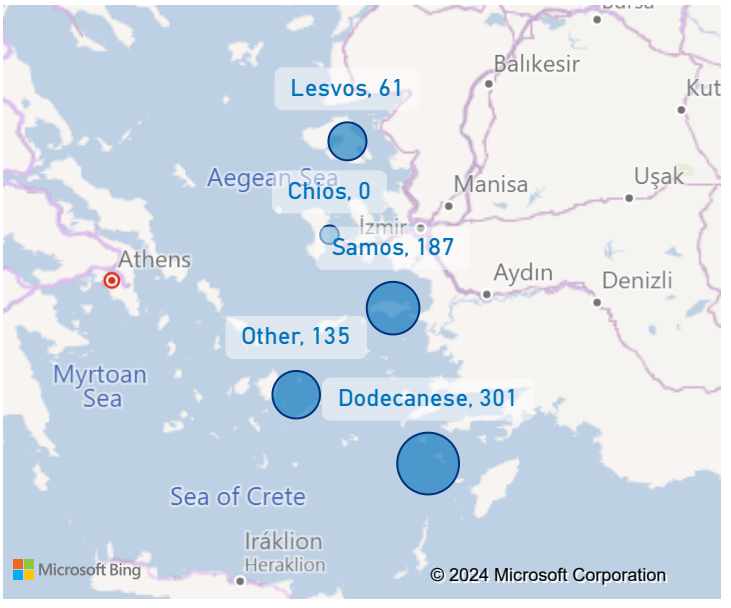
Sea arrivals

This week, the Dodecanese islands saw 301 arrivals, an increase from last week's 110.

The average of the daily arrivals on the Dodecanese islands for this week is 43.



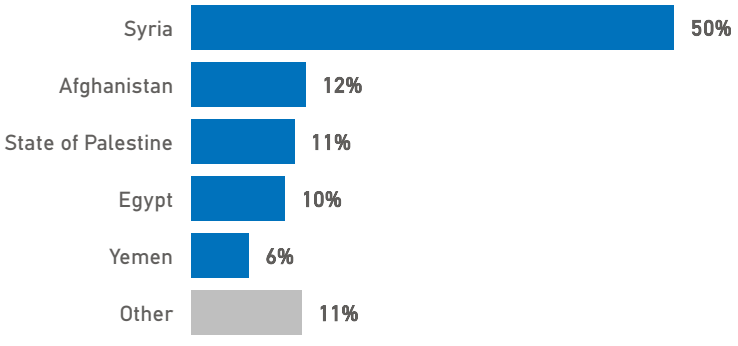
Entry Points

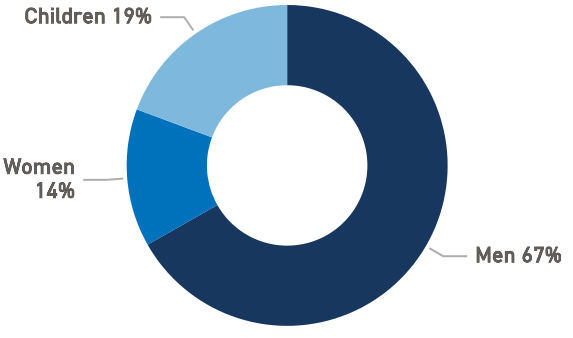


Population in Kos CCAC and Leros CCAC

Currently, 2,744 refugees and migrants reside in Kos CCAC and Leros CCAC.

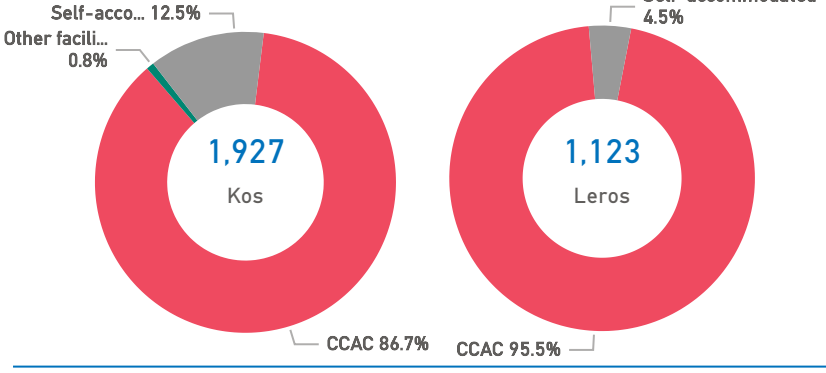
Most of them are from Syria (50%), Afghanistan (12%) and State of Palestine (11%). Men account for 67% of the population, women for 14% and children for 19%.





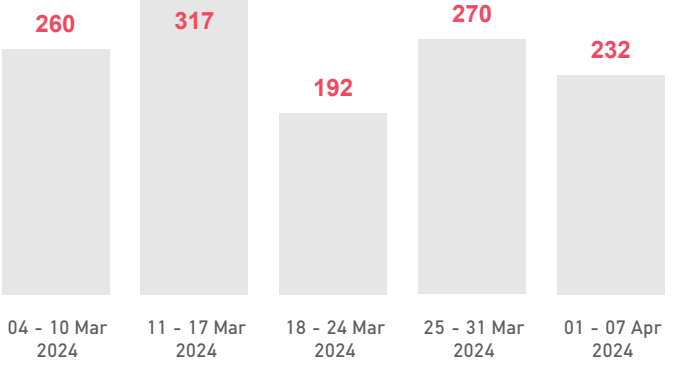
Population on the Dodecanese Islands

There are 3,050 refugees and migrants on the Dodecanese islands. Out of this total, 1,671 reside at the CCAC in Kos, and 1,073 at the CCAC Leros. In Kos, an estimated 240 people are self-accommodated and an additional 16 are hosted in other facilities, while in Leros, an estimated 50 people are self-accommodated, with an additional 0 being hosted in other facilities.



Departures

This week, 232 refugees and migrants departed from the Dodecanese islands to the mainland.



Published on 09/04/2024

more information: UNHCR Operational Portal - Greece

Other facilities include shelters for unaccompanied children, detention facilities, etc.

Refugees and migrants includes asylum-seekers, beneficiaries of international protection and people out of the asylum procedure.

Departures to the mainland mainly include: i) transfers in the context of IOM Assisted Voluntary Return and Reintegration programme, ii) transfers of unaccompanied children to State-run facilities, iii) organized transfers supported by the government, including controlled facilities for temporary accommodation of asylum-seekers in the mainland/sites, and iv) those who depart on their own means.

Data Sources: Population data - Partial Data from the Government and other sources; Arrivals/Departures - Hellenic Police, Hellenic Coastguard

Figures are subject to future adjustment based on consolidated figures provided by the authorities. Percentages may not add up to 100 due to rounding and slightly differ between the text and graphs.

The boundaries, the names shown and the designations used on the map do not imply official endorsement or acceptance by the United Nations.