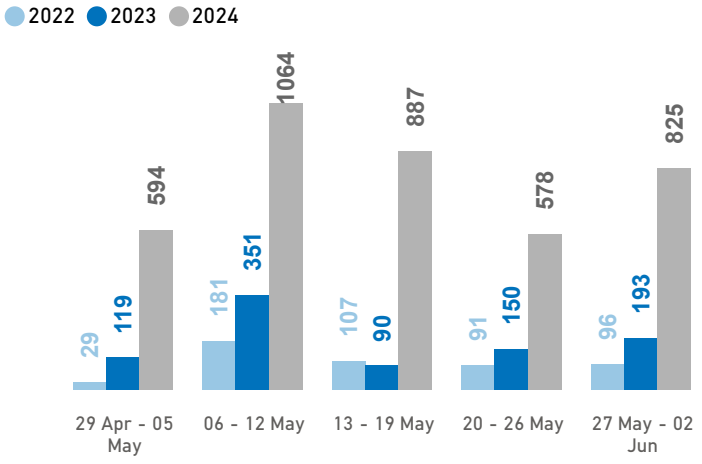
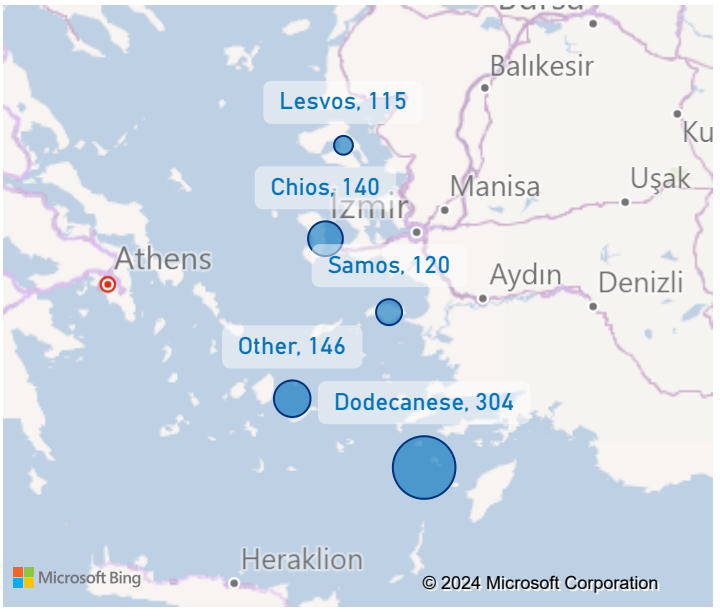
Aegean Islands Weekly Snapshot

Sea arrivals

This week, the Aegean islands saw 825 arrivals, an increase from last week's 578.
The average of the daily arrivals on the Aegean islands for this week is 118.



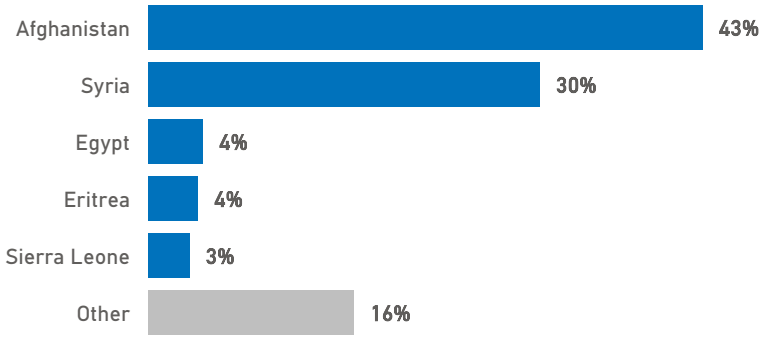
Entry Points

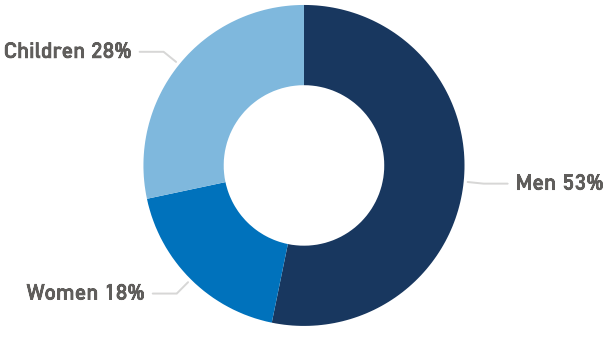


Population in the CCACs

Currently, 6,898 refugees and migrants reside in the Closed Controlled Access Center(s).

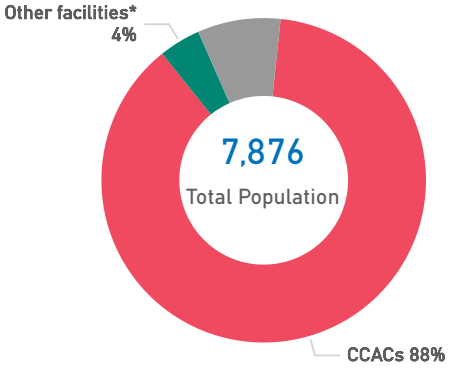
Most of them are from Afghanistan (43%), Syria (30%) and Egypt (4%). Men account for 53% of the population, women for 18% and children for 28%.





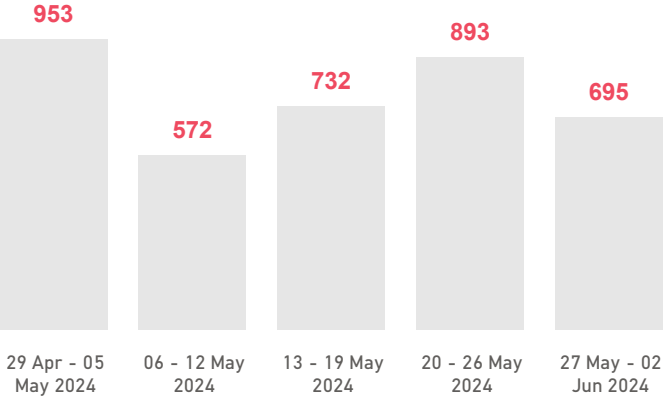
Population on the Islands

There are 7,876 refugees and migrants on the Aegean islands. Out of this total, 6,898 reside at the CCACs and 326 are hosted in other facilities. UNHCR estimates that there are also 652 self-accommodated in the islands.



Departures

This week, 695 refugees and migrants departed from the Aegean islands to the mainland.



Published on 05/06/2024

more information: UNHCR Operational Portal - Greece

Other facilities include shelters for unaccompanied children, detention facilities, etc.

Refugees and migrants includes asylum-seekers, beneficiaries of international protection and people out of the asylum procedure.

Departures to the mainland mainly include: i) transfers in the context of IOM Assisted Voluntary Return and Reintegration programme, ii) transfers of unaccompanied children to State-run facilities, iii) organized transfers supported by the government, including controlled facilities for temporary accommodation of asylum-seekers in the mainland/sites, and iv) those who depart on their own means.

Data Sources: Population data - Partial Data from the Government and other sources; Arrivals/Departures - Hellenic Police, Hellenic Coastguard

Figures are subject to future adjustment based on consolidated figures provided by the authorities. Percentages may not add up to 100 due to rounding and slightly differ between the text and graphs.

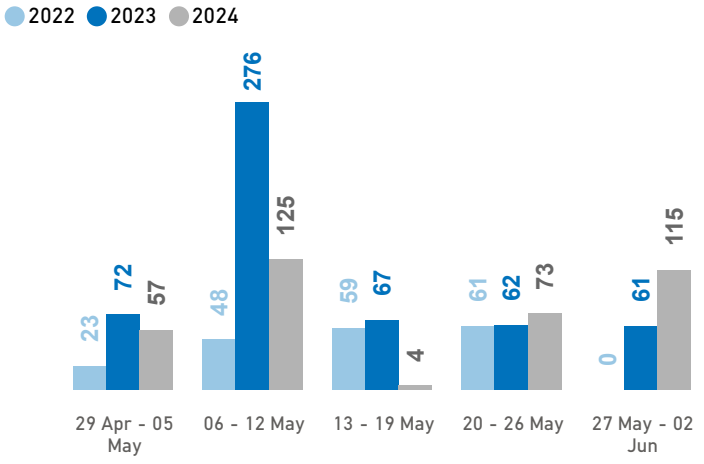
The boundaries, the names shown and the designations used on the map do not imply official endorsement or acceptance by the United Nations.

Lesvos Weekly Snapshot

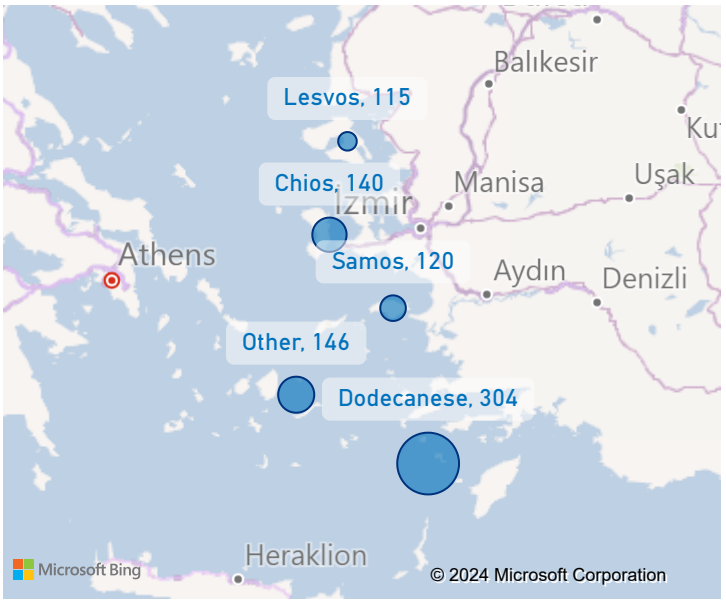
Sea arrivals

This week, Lesvos saw 115 arrivals, an increase from last week's 73.

The average of the daily arrivals on Lesvos for this week is 16.



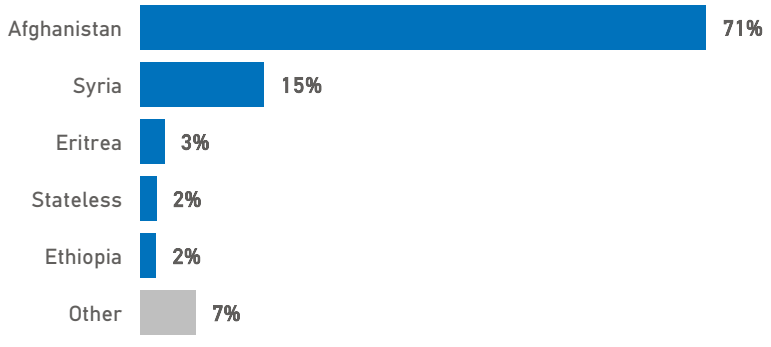
Entry Points

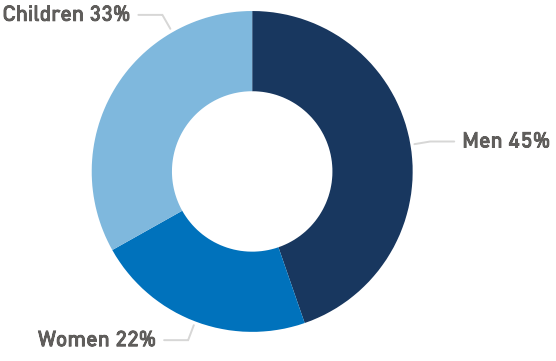


Population in the CCAC

Currently, 1,748 refugees and migrants reside in the Closed Controlled Access Center.

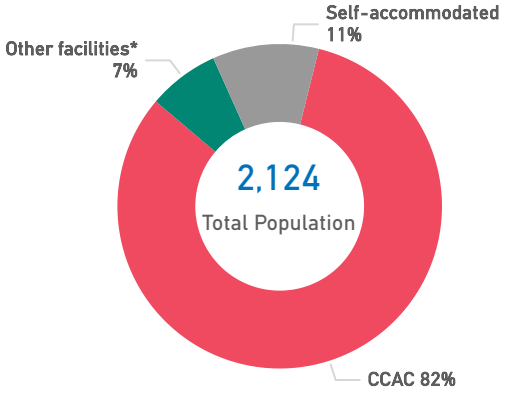
Most of them are from Afghanistan (71%), Syria (15%) and Eritrea (3%). Men account for 45% of the population, women for 22% and children for 33%.





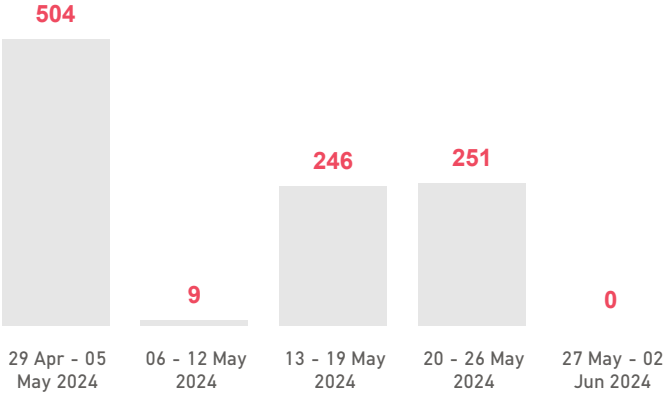
Population on the Island

There are 2,124 refugees and migrants on Lesvos. Out of this total, 1,748 reside at the CCAC and 151 are hosted in other facilities. UNHCR identified 225 self-accommodated refugees in the island up to this date.



Departures

This week, 0 refugees and migrants departed from Lesvos to the mainland.



Published on 05/06/2024

more information: UNHCR Operational Portal - Greece

Other facilities include shelters for unaccompanied children, detention facilities, etc.

Refugees and migrants includes asylum-seekers, beneficiaries of international protection and people out of the asylum procedure.

Departures to the mainland mainly include: i) transfers in the context of IOM Assisted Voluntary Return and Reintegration programme, ii) transfers of unaccompanied children to State-run facilities, iii) organized transfers supported by the government, including controlled facilities for temporary accommodation of asylum-seekers in the mainland/sites, and iv) those who depart on their own means.

Data Sources: Population data - Partial Data from the Government and other sources; Arrivals/Departures - Hellenic Police, Hellenic Coastguard

Figures are subject to future adjustment based on consolidated figures provided by the authorities. Percentages may not add up to 100 due to rounding and slightly differ between the text and graphs.

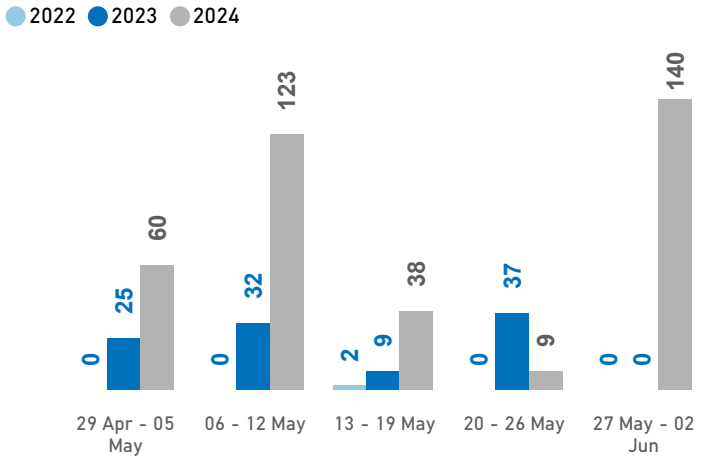
The boundaries, the names shown and the designations used on the map do not imply official endorsement or acceptance by the United Nations.

Chios Island Weekly Snapshot

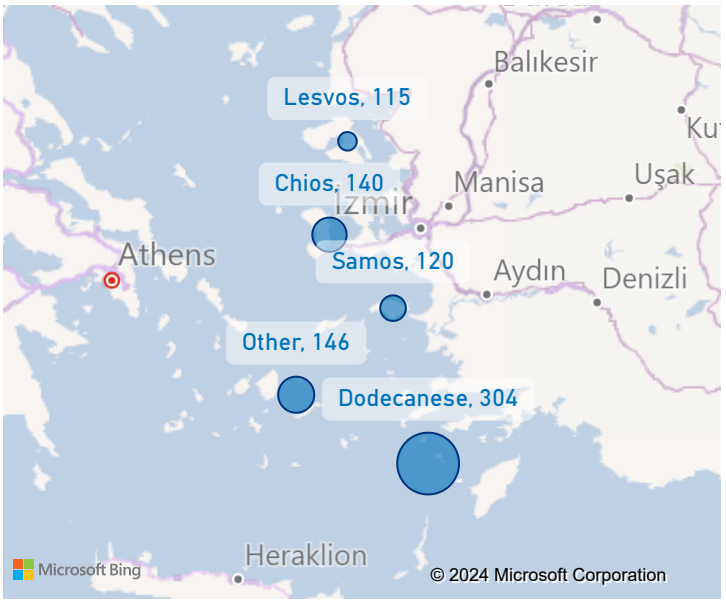
Sea arrivals

This week, Chios island saw 140 arrivals, an increase from last week's 9.

The average of the daily arrivals on Chios island for this week is 20.



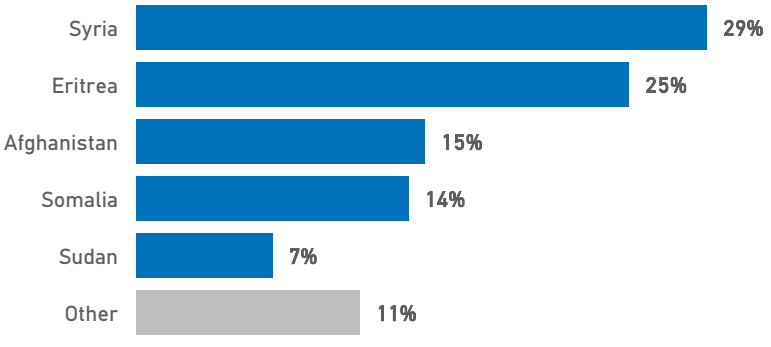
Entry Points

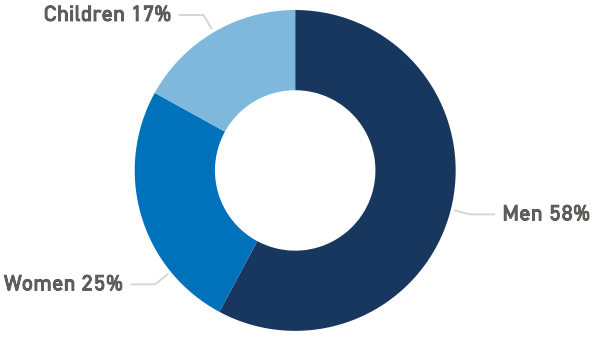


Population in the CCAC

Currently, 618 refugees and migrants reside in the Closed Controlled Access Center.

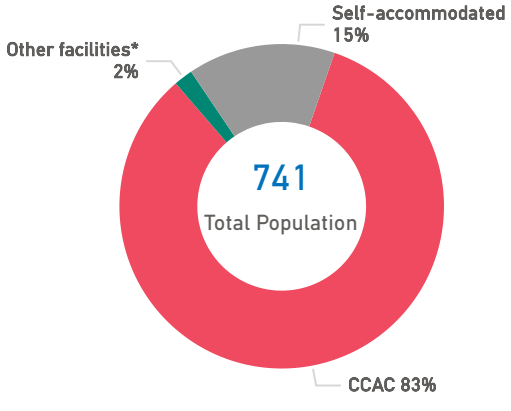
Most of them are from Syria (29%), Eritrea (25%) and Afghanistan (15%). Men account for 58% of the population, women for 25% and children for 17%.





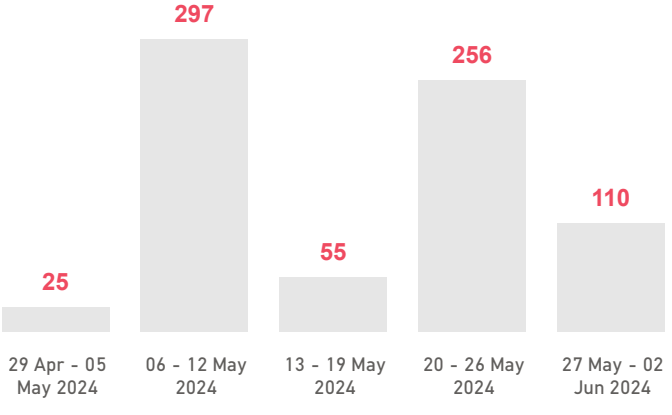
Population on the Island

There are 741 refugees and migrants on Chios island. Out of this total, 618 reside at the CCAC and 14 are hosted in other facilities. UNHCR estimates that there are also 109 self-accommodated in the island.



Departures

This week, 110 refugees and migrants departed from Chios island to the mainland



Published on 05/06/2024

more information: UNHCR Operational Portal - Greece

Other facilities include shelters for unaccompanied children, detention facilities, etc.

Refugees and migrants includes asylum-seekers, beneficiaries of international protection and people out of the asylum procedure.

Departures to the mainland mainly include: i) transfers in the context of IOM Assisted Voluntary Return and Reintegration programme, ii) transfers of unaccompanied children to State-run facilities, iii) organized transfers supported by the government, including controlled facilities for temporary accommodation of asylum-seekers in the mainland/sites, and iv) those who depart on their own means.

Data Sources: Population data - Partial Data from the Government and other sources; Arrivals/Departures - Hellenic Police, Hellenic Coastguard

Figures are subject to future adjustment based on consolidated figures provided by the authorities. Percentages may not add up to 100 due to rounding and slightly differ between the text and graphs.

The boundaries, the names shown and the designations used on the map do not imply official endorsement or acceptance by the United Nations.

UNHCR The UN Refugee Agency Greece

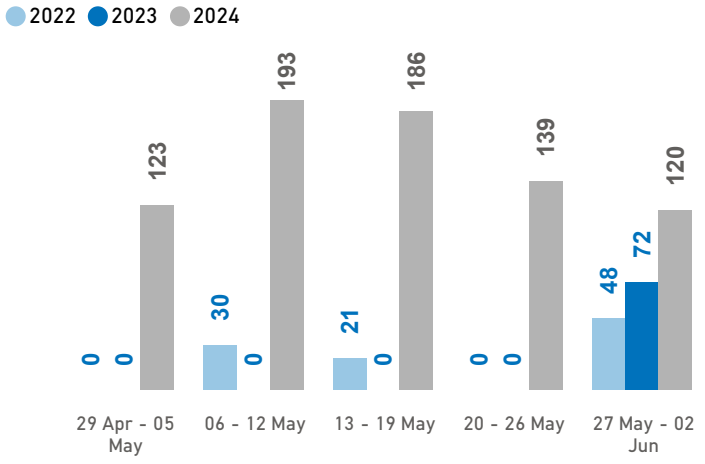
27 May - 02 Jun 2024

Samos Island Weekly Snapshot

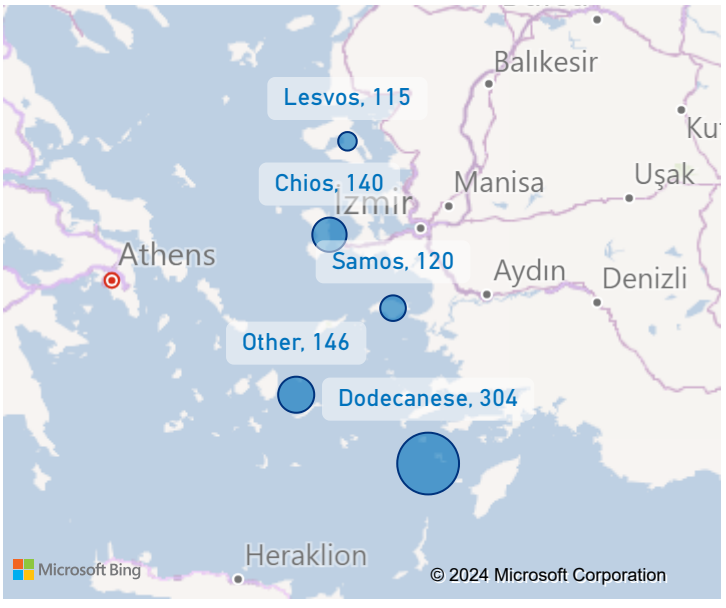
Sea arrivals

This week, Samos island saw 120 arrivals, a decrease from last week's 139.

The average of the daily arrivals on Samos island for this week is 17.



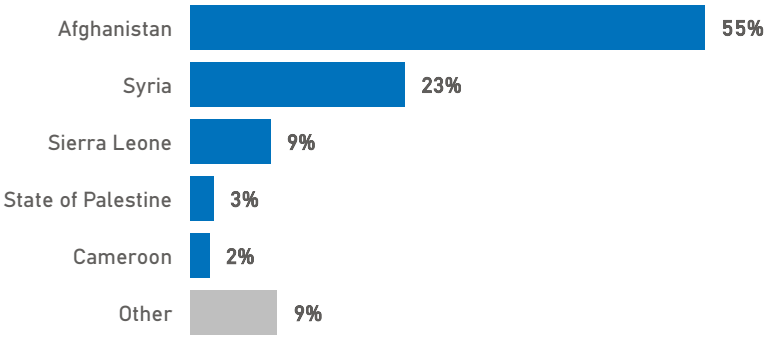
Entry Points

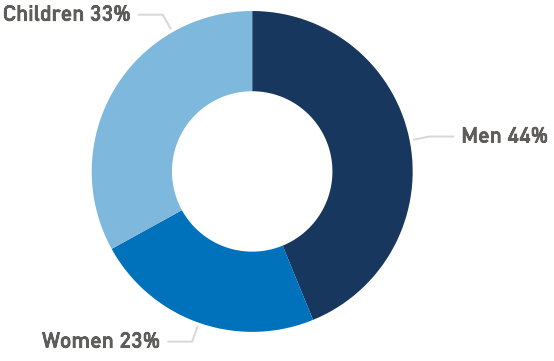


Population in the CCAC

Currently, 2,167 refugees and migrants reside in the Closed Controlled Access Center.

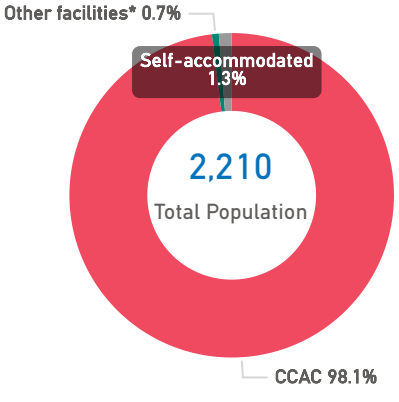
Most of the registered population are from Afghanistan (55%), Syria (23%) and Sierra Leone (9%). Men account for 44% of the population, women for 23% and children for 33%.





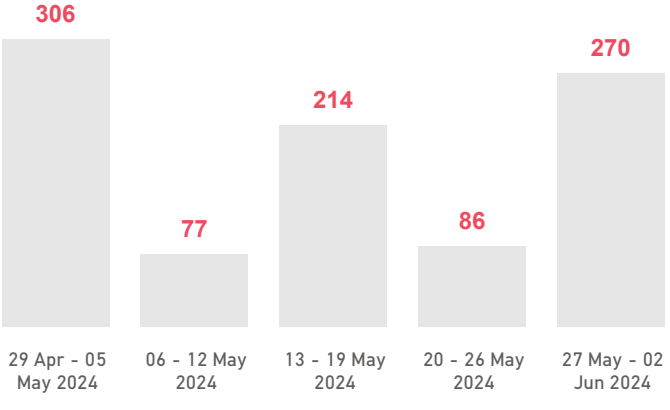
Population on the Island

There are 2,210 refugees and migrants on Samos island. Out of this total, the 2,167 reside at the CCAC and 15 are hosted in other facilities. UNHCR estimates that there are also 28 self-accommodated in the island.



Departures

This week, 270 refugees and migrants departed from Samos island to the mainland.



Published on 05/06/2024

more information: UNHCR Operational Portal - Greece

Other facilities include shelters for unaccompanied children, detention facilities, etc.

Refugees and migrants includes asylum-seekers, beneficiaries of international protection and people out of the asylum procedure.

Departures to the mainland mainly include: i) transfers in the context of IOM Assisted Voluntary Return and Reintegration programme, ii) transfers of unaccompanied children to State-run facilities, iii) organized transfers supported by the government, including controlled facilities for temporary accommodation of asylum-seekers in the mainland/sites, and iv) those who depart on their own means.

Data Sources: Population data - Partial Data from the Government and other sources; Arrivals/Departures - Hellenic Police, Hellenic Coastguard

Figures are subject to future adjustment based on consolidated figures provided by the authorities. Percentages may not add up to 100 due to rounding and slightly differ between the text and graphs.

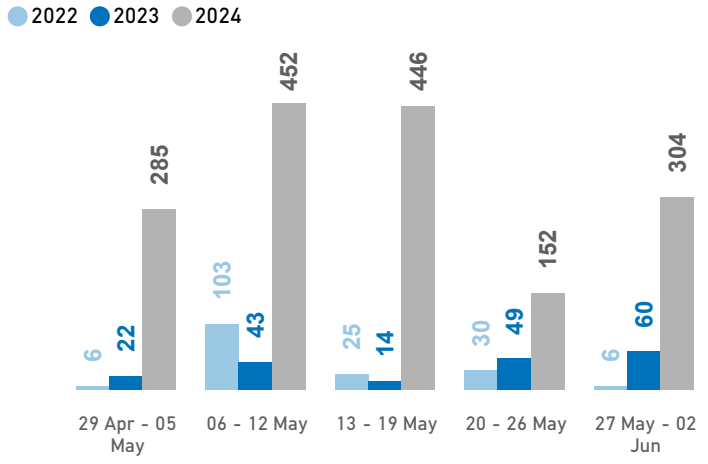
The boundaries, the names shown and the designations used on the map do not imply official endorsement or acceptance by the United Nations.

Dodecanese Islands Weekly Snapshot

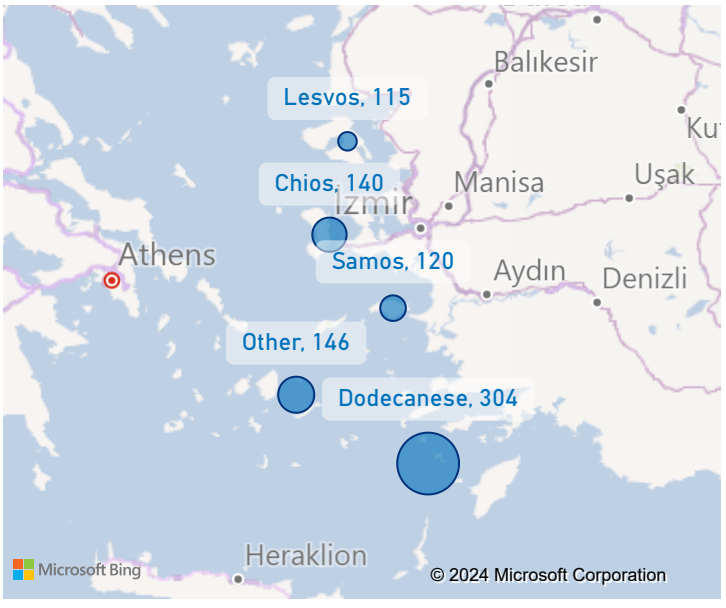
Sea arrivals

This week, the Dodecanese islands saw 304 arrivals, an increase from last week's 152.

The average of the daily arrivals on the Dodecanese islands for this week is 43.



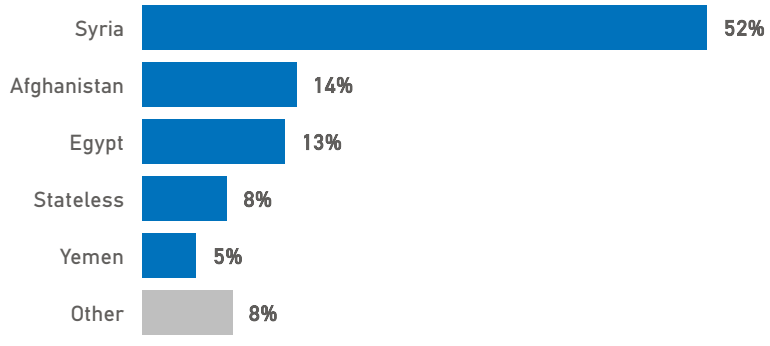
Entry Points

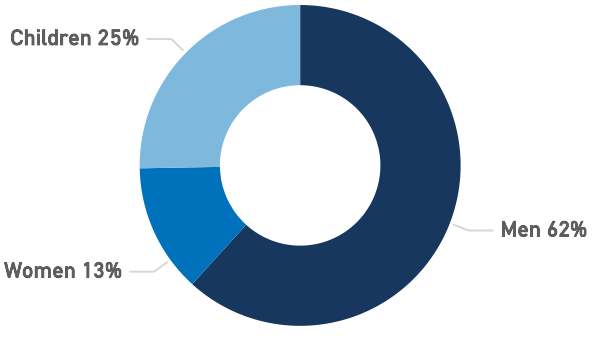


Population in Kos CCAC and Leros CCAC

Currently, 2,365 refugees and migrants reside in Kos CCAC and Leros CCAC.

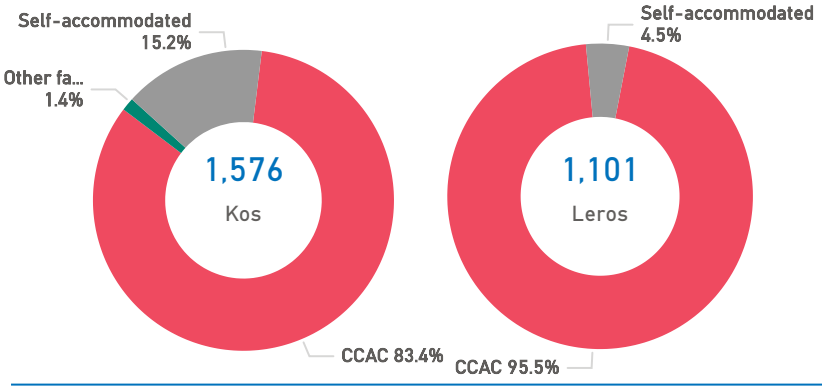
Most of them are from Syria (52%), Afghanistan (14%) and Egypt (13%). Men account for 62% of the population, women for 13% and children for 25%.





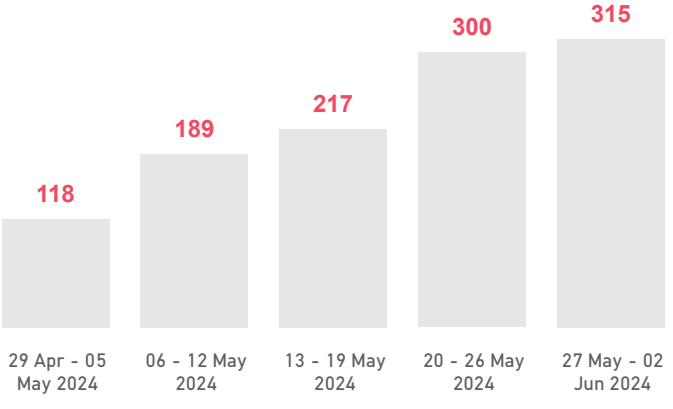
Population on the Dodecanese Islands

There are 2,677 refugees and migrants on the Dodecanese islands. Out of this total, 1,314 reside at the CCAC in Kos, and 1,051 at the CCAC Leros. In Kos, an estimated 240 people are self-accommodated and an additional 22 are hosted in other facilities, while in Leros, an estimated 50 people are self-accommodated, with an additional 0 being hosted in other facilities.



Departures

This week, 315 refugees and migrants departed from the Dodecanese islands to the mainland.



Published on 05/06/2024

more information: UNHCR Operational Portal - Greece

Other facilities include shelters for unaccompanied children, detention facilities, etc.

Refugees and migrants includes asylum-seekers, beneficiaries of international protection and people out of the asylum procedure.

Departures to the mainland mainly include: i) transfers in the context of IOM Assisted Voluntary Return and Reintegration programme, ii) transfers of unaccompanied children to State-run facilities, iii) organized transfers supported by the government, including controlled facilities for temporary accommodation of asylum-seekers in the mainland/sites, and iv) those who depart on their own means.

Data Sources: Population data - Partial Data from the Government and other sources; Arrivals/Departures - Hellenic Police, Hellenic Coastguard

Figures are subject to future adjustment based on consolidated figures provided by the authorities. Percentages may not add up to 100 due to rounding and slightly differ between the text and graphs.

The boundaries, the names shown and the designations used on the map do not imply official endorsement or acceptance by the United Nations.