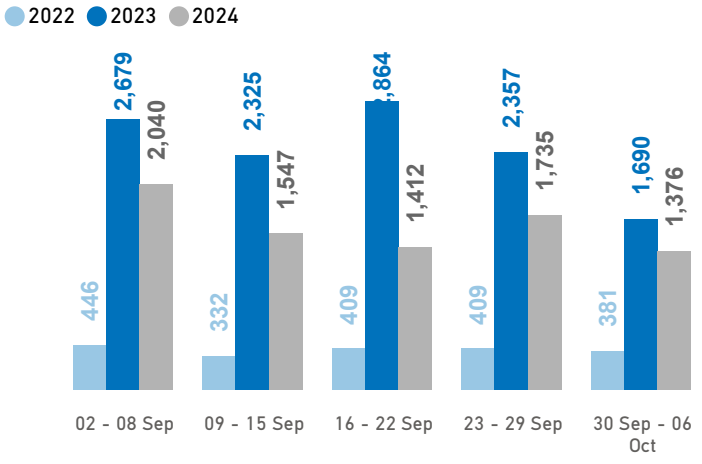
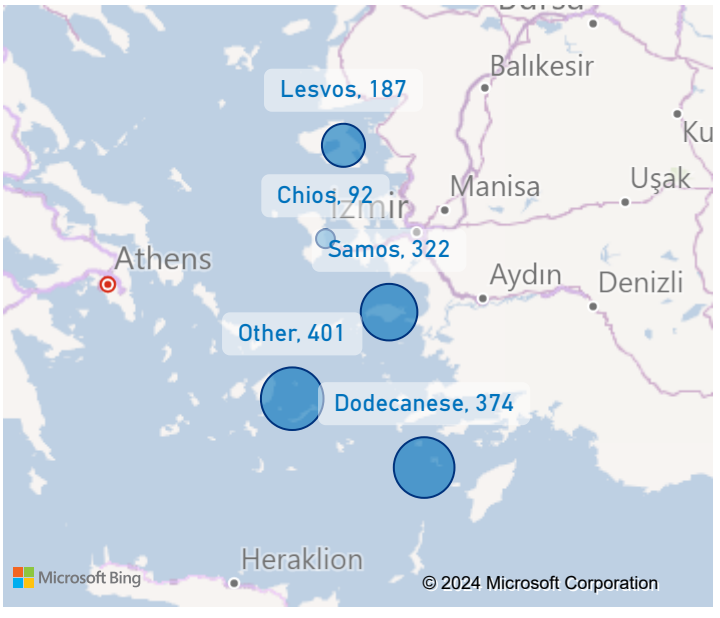
Aegean Islands Weekly Snapshot

Sea arrivals

This week, the Aegean islands saw 1,376 arrivals, a decrease from last week's 1,735.
The average of the daily arrivals on the Aegean islands for this week is 197.



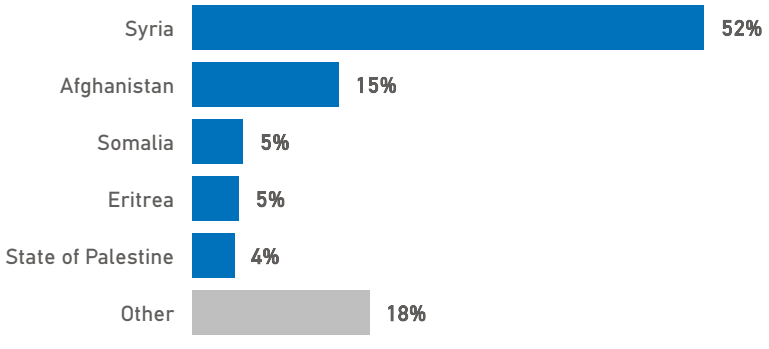
Entry Points

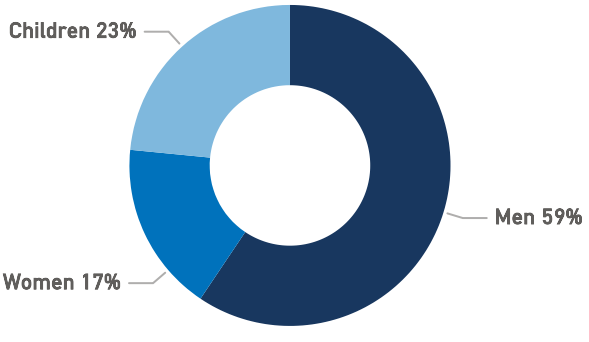


Population in the CCACs

Currently, 8,958 refugees and migrants reside in the Closed Controlled Access Center(s).

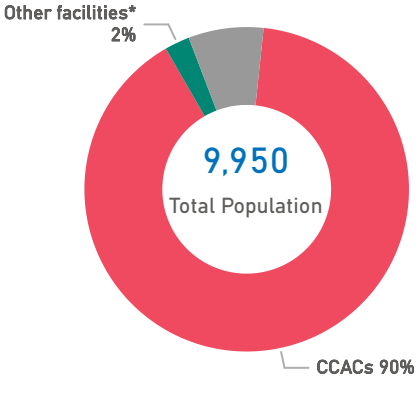
Most of them are from Syria (52%), Afghanistan (15%) and Somalia (5%). Men account for 59% of the population, women for 17% and children for 23%.





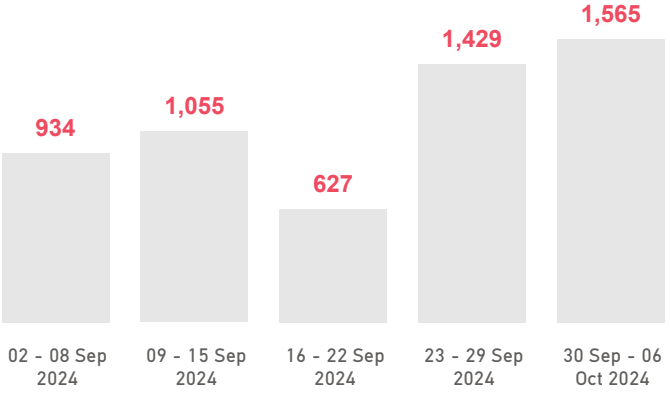
Population on the Islands

There are 9,950 refugees and migrants on the Aegean islands. Out of this total, 8,958 reside at the CCACs and 248 are hosted in other facilities.
UNHCR estimates that there are also 744 self-accommodated in the islands.



Departures

This week, 1565 refugees and migrants departed from the Aegean islands to the mainland.



Published on 10/10/2024

more information: UNHCR Operational Portal - Greece

Other facilities include shelters for unaccompanied children, detention facilities, etc.

Refugees and migrants includes asylum-seekers, beneficiaries of international protection and people out of the asylum procedure.

Departures to the mainland mainly include: i) transfers in the context of IOM Assisted Voluntary Return and Reintegration programme, ii) transfers of unaccompanied children to State-run facilities, iii) organized transfers supported by the government, including controlled facilities for temporary accommodation of asylum-seekers in the mainland/sites, and iv) those who depart on their own means.

Data Sources: Population data - Partial Data from the Government and other sources; Arrivals/Departures - Hellenic Police, Hellenic Coastguard

Figures are subject to future adjustment based on consolidated figures provided by the authorities. Percentages may not add up to 100 due to rounding and slightly differ between the text and graphs.

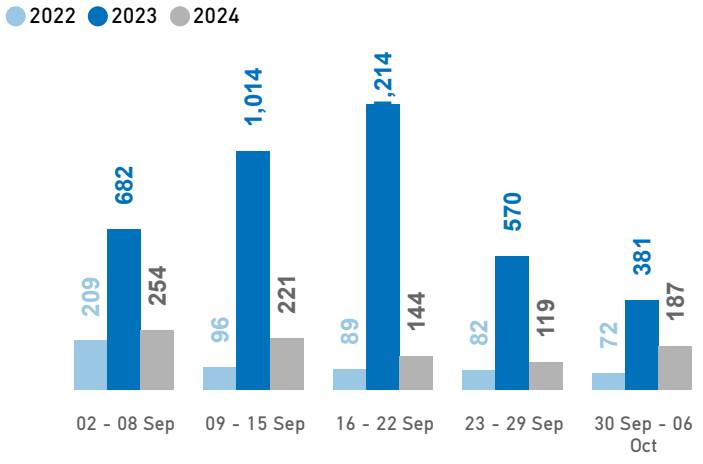
The boundaries, the names shown and the designations used on the map do not imply official endorsement or acceptance by the United Nations.

Lesvos Weekly Snapshot

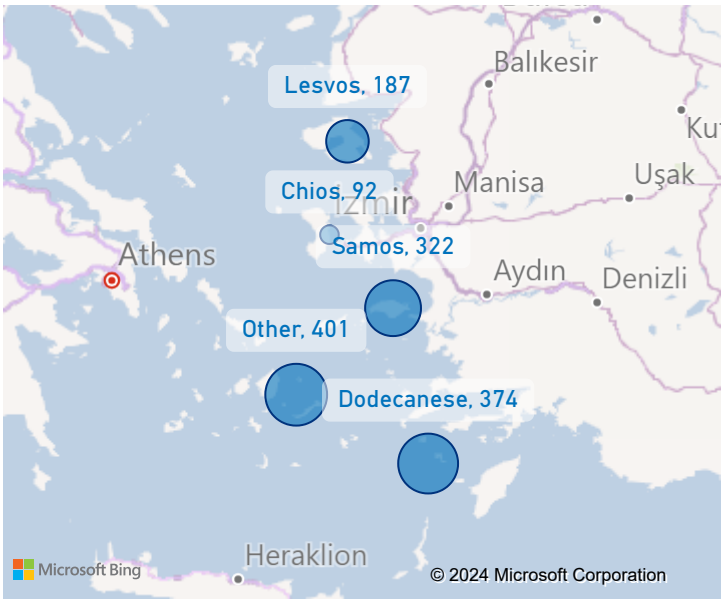
Sea arrivals

This week, Lesvos saw 187 arrivals, an increase from last week's 119.

The average of the daily arrivals on Lesvos for this week is 27.



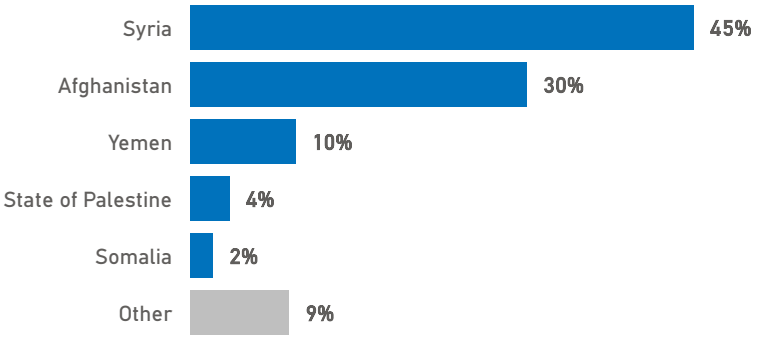
Entry Points

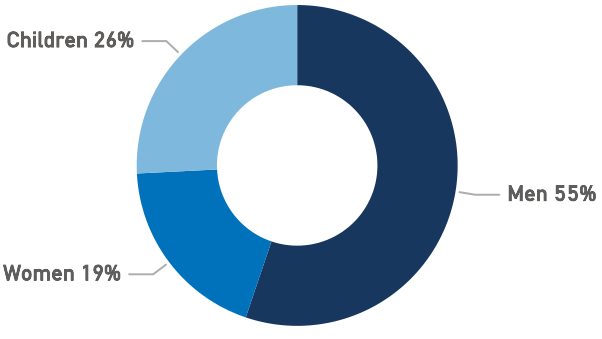


Population in the CCAC

Currently, 1,324 refugees and migrants reside in the Closed Controlled Access Center.

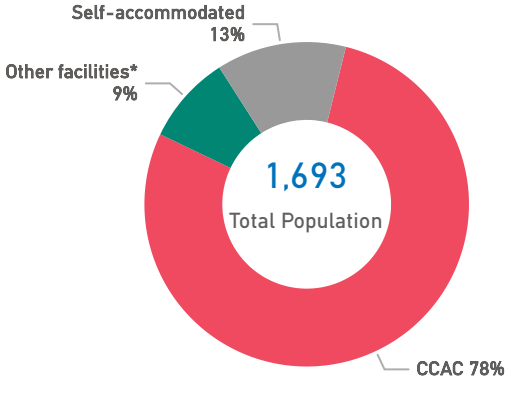
Most of them are from Syria (45%), Afghanistan (30%) and Yemen (10%). Men account for 55% of the population, women for 19% and children for 26%.





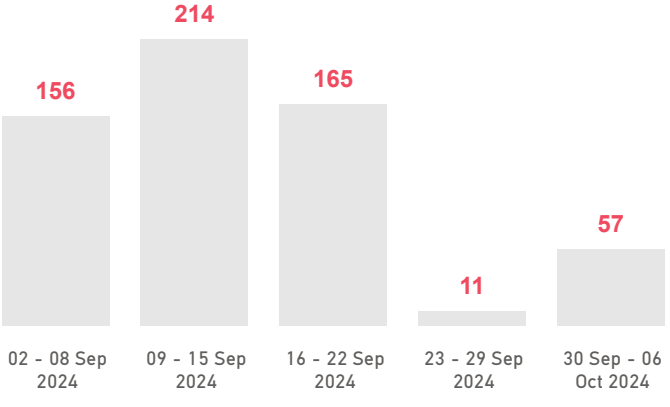
Population on the Island

There are 1,693 refugees and migrants on Lesvos. Out of this total, 1,324 reside at the CCAC and 150 are hosted in other facilities. UNHCR identified 219 self-accommodated refugees in the island up to this date.



Departures

This week, 57 refugees and migrants departed from Lesvos to the mainland.



Published on 10/10/2024

more information: UNHCR Operational Portal - Greece

Other facilities include shelters for unaccompanied children, detention facilities, etc.

Refugees and migrants includes asylum-seekers, beneficiaries of international protection and people out of the asylum procedure.

Departures to the mainland mainly include: i) transfers in the context of IOM Assisted Voluntary Return and Reintegration programme, ii) transfers of unaccompanied children to State-run facilities, iii) organized transfers supported by the government, including controlled facilities for temporary accommodation of asylum-seekers in the mainland/sites, and iv) those who depart on their own means.

Data Sources: Population data - Partial Data from the Government and other sources; Arrivals/Departures - Hellenic Police, Hellenic Coastguard

Figures are subject to future adjustment based on consolidated figures provided by the authorities. Percentages may not add up to 100 due to rounding and slightly differ between the text and graphs.

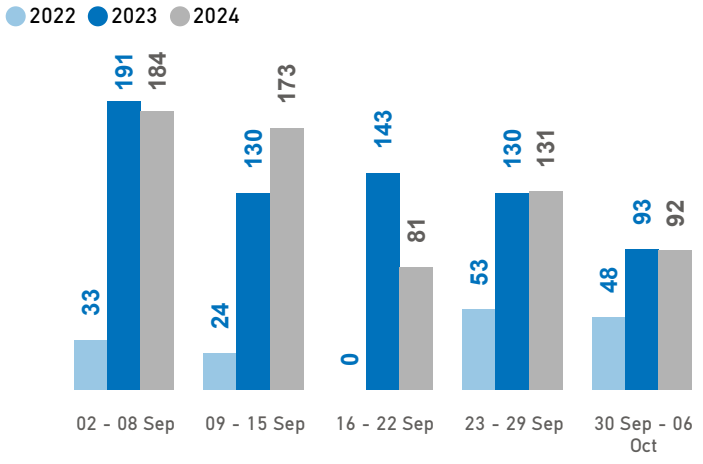
The boundaries, the names shown and the designations used on the map do not imply official endorsement or acceptance by the United Nations.

Chios Island Weekly Snapshot

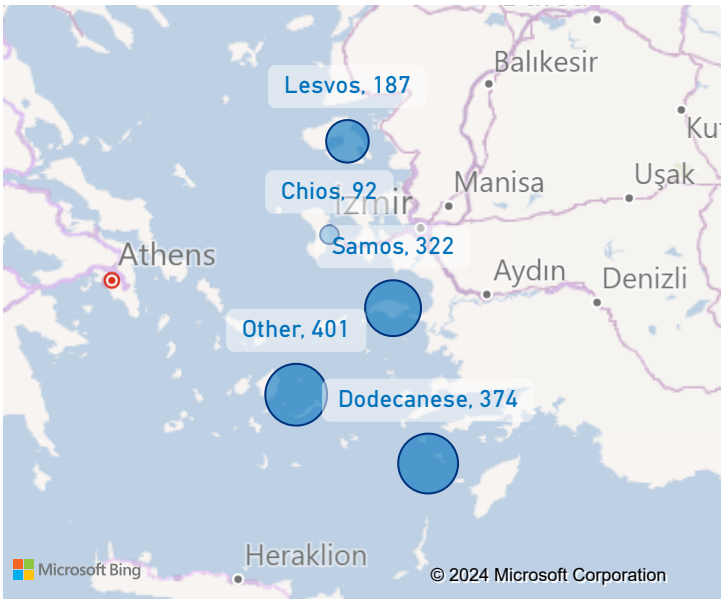
Sea arrivals

This week, Chios island saw 92 arrivals, a decrease from last week's 131.

The average of the daily arrivals on Chios island for this week is 13.



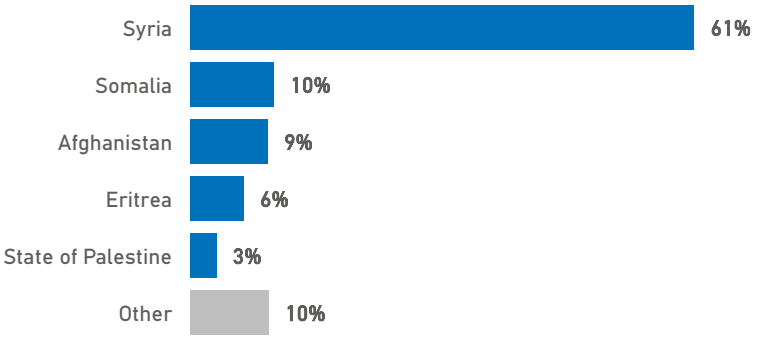
Entry Points

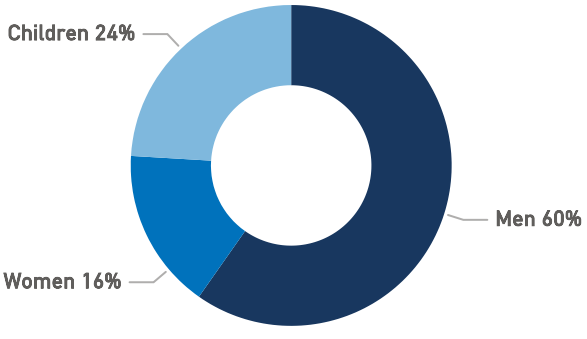


Population in the CCAC

Currently, 825 refugees and migrants reside in the Closed Controlled Access Center.

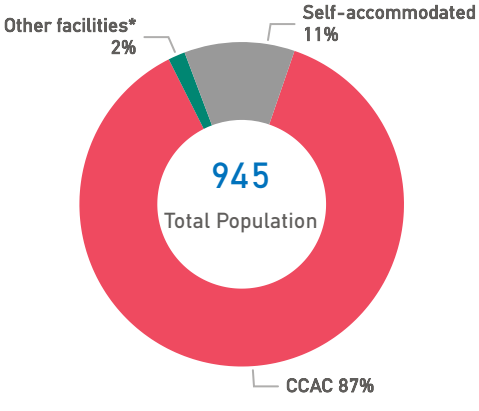
Most of them are from Syria (61%), Somalia (10%) and Afghanistan (9%). Men account for 60% of the population, women for 16% and children for 24%.





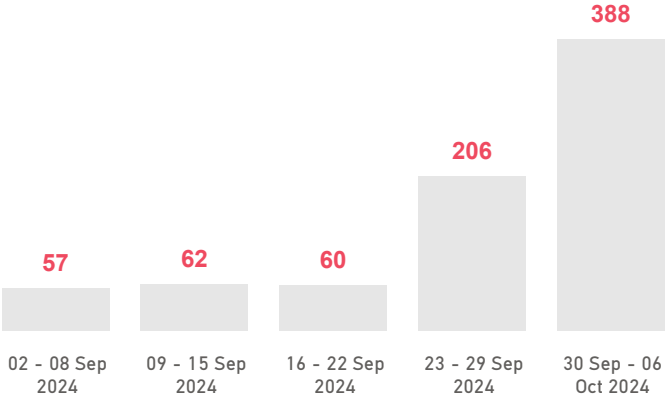
Population on the Island

There are 945 refugees and migrants on Chios island. Out of this total, 825 reside at the CCAC and 16 are hosted in other facilities. UNHCR estimates that there are also 104 self-accommodated in the island.



Departures

This week, 388 refugees and migrants departed from Chios island to the mainland



Published on 10/10/2024

more information: UNHCR Operational Portal - Greece

Other facilities include shelters for unaccompanied children, detention facilities, etc.

Refugees and migrants includes asylum-seekers, beneficiaries of international protection and people out of the asylum procedure.

Departures to the mainland mainly include: i) transfers in the context of IOM Assisted Voluntary Return and Reintegration programme, ii) transfers of unaccompanied children to State-run facilities, iii) organized transfers supported by the government, including controlled facilities for temporary accommodation of asylum-seekers in the mainland/sites, and iv) those who depart on their own means.

Data Sources: Population data - Partial Data from the Government and other sources; Arrivals/Departures - Hellenic Police, Hellenic Coastguard

Figures are subject to future adjustment based on consolidated figures provided by the authorities. Percentages may not add up to 100 due to rounding and slightly differ between the text and graphs.

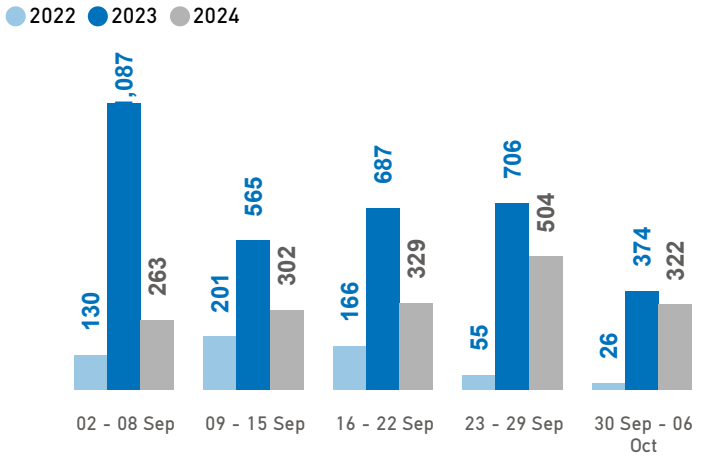
The boundaries, the names shown and the designations used on the map do not imply official endorsement or acceptance by the United Nations.

Samos Island Weekly Snapshot

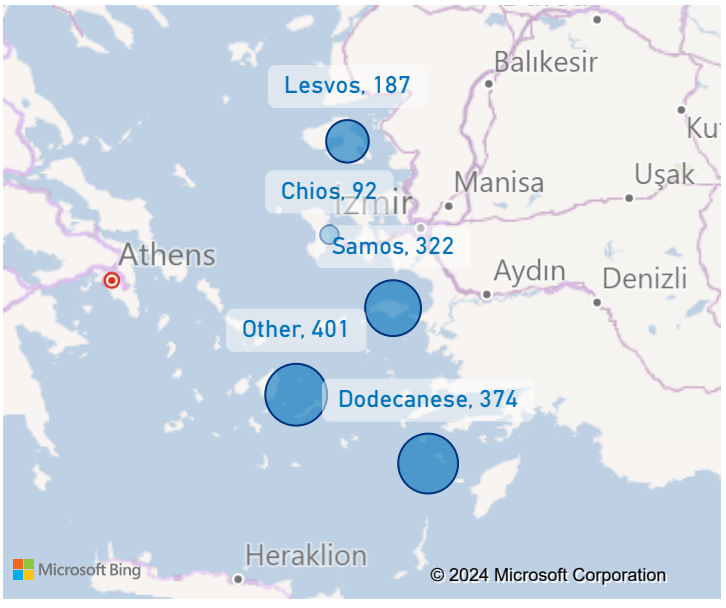
Sea arrivals

This week, Samos island saw 322 arrivals, a decrease from last week's 504.

The average of the daily arrivals on Samos island for this week is 46.



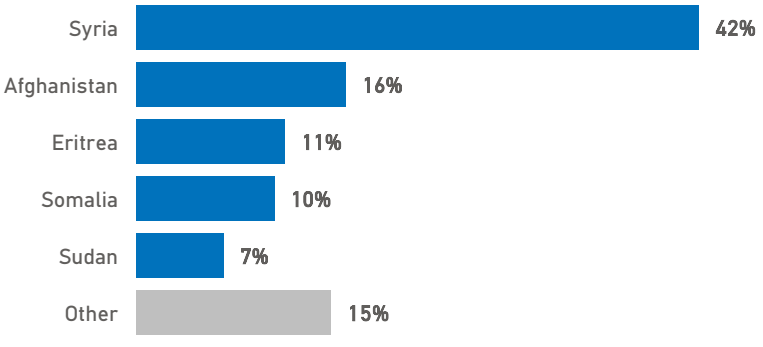
Entry Points

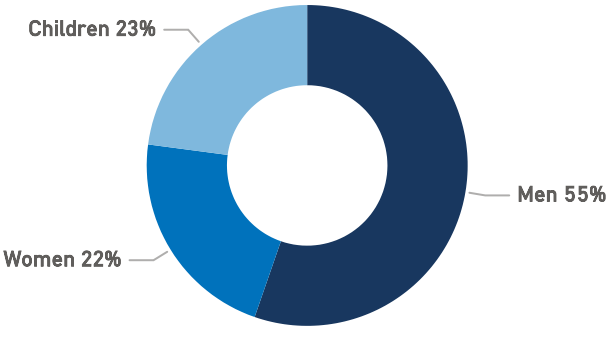


Population in the CCAC

Currently, 3,306 refugees and migrants reside in the Closed Controlled Access Center.

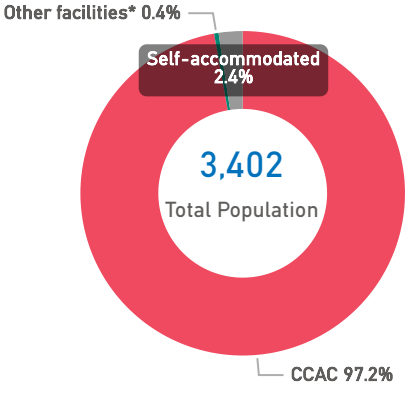
Most of the registered population are from Syria (42%), Afghanistan (16%) and Eritrea (11%). Men account for 55% of the population, women for 22% and children for 23%.





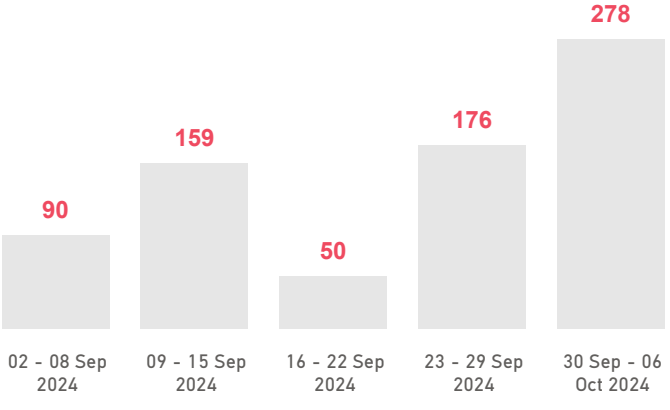
Population on the Island

There are 3,402 refugees and migrants on Samos island. Out of this total, the 3,306 reside at the CCAC and 15 are hosted in other facilities. UNHCR estimates that there are also 81 self-accommodated in the island.



Departures

This week, 278 refugees and migrants departed from Samos island to the mainland.



Published on 10/10/2024

more information: UNHCR Operational Portal - Greece

Other facilities include shelters for unaccompanied children, detention facilities, etc.

Refugees and migrants includes asylum-seekers, beneficiaries of international protection and people out of the asylum procedure.

Departures to the mainland mainly include: i) transfers in the context of IOM Assisted Voluntary Return and Reintegration programme, ii) transfers of unaccompanied children to State-run facilities, iii) organized transfers supported by the government, including controlled facilities for temporary accommodation of asylum-seekers in the mainland/sites, and iv) those who depart on their own means.

Data Sources: Population data - Partial Data from the Government and other sources; Arrivals/Departures - Hellenic Police, Hellenic Coastguard

Figures are subject to future adjustment based on consolidated figures provided by the authorities. Percentages may not add up to 100 due to rounding and slightly differ between the text and graphs.

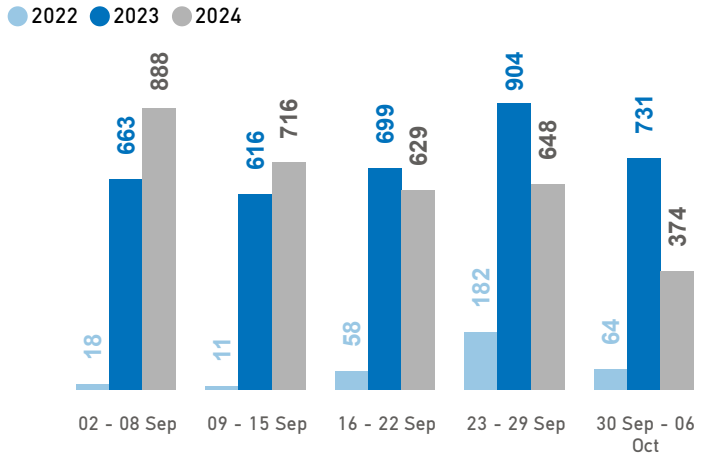
The boundaries, the names shown and the designations used on the map do not imply official endorsement or acceptance by the United Nations.

Dodecanese Islands Weekly Snapshot

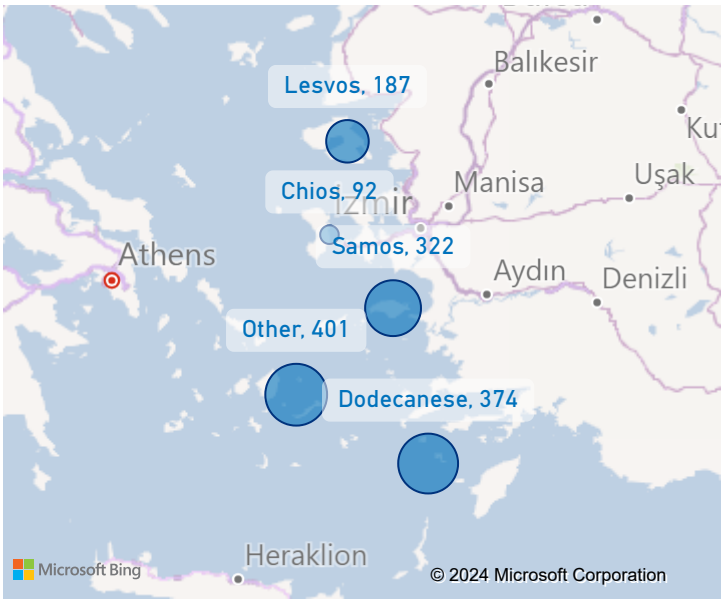
Sea arrivals

This week, the Dodecanese islands saw 374 arrivals, a decrease from last week's 648.

The average of the daily arrivals on the Dodecanese islands for this week is 53.



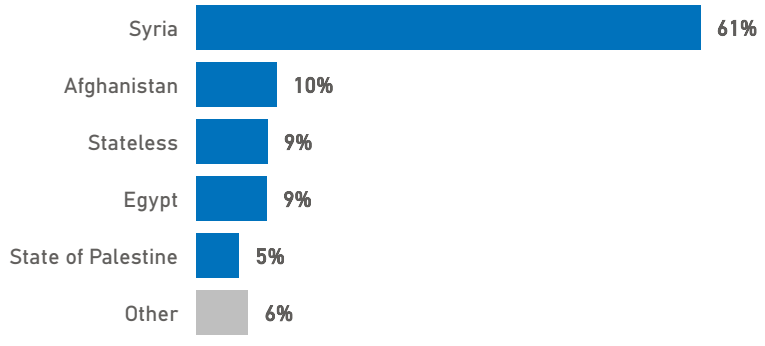
Entry Points

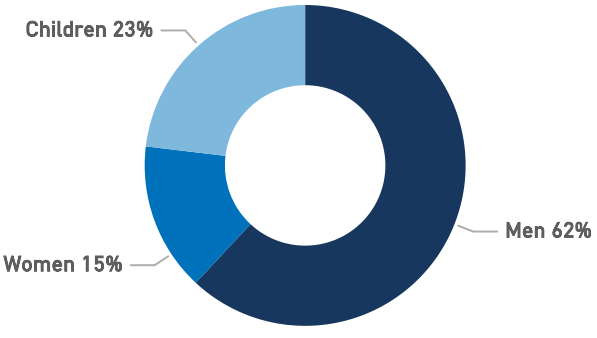


Population in Kos CCAC and Leros CCAC

Currently, 3,503 refugees and migrants reside in Kos CCAC and Leros CCAC.

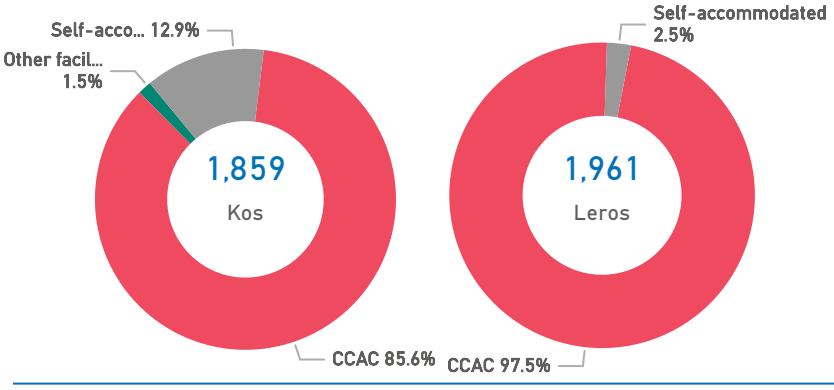
Most of them are from Syria (61%), Afghanistan (10%) and Stateless (9%). Men account for 62% of the population, women for 15% and children for 23%.





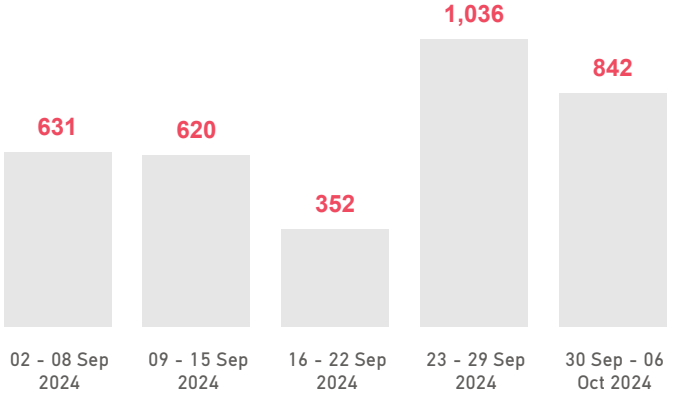
Population on the Dodecanese Islands

There are 3,820 refugees and migrants on the Dodecanese islands. Out of this total, 1,592 reside at the CCAC in Kos, and 1,911 at the CCAC Leros. In Kos, an estimated 240 people are self-accommodated and an additional 27 are hosted in other facilities, while in Leros, an estimated 50 people are self-accommodated, with an additional 0 being hosted in other facilities.



Departures

This week, 842 refugees and migrants departed from the Dodecanese islands to the mainland.



Published on 10/10/2024

more information: UNHCR Operational Portal - Greece

Other facilities include shelters for unaccompanied children, detention facilities, etc.

Refugees and migrants includes asylum-seekers, beneficiaries of international protection and people out of the asylum procedure.

Departures to the mainland mainly include: i) transfers in the context of IOM Assisted Voluntary Return and Reintegration programme, ii) transfers of unaccompanied children to State-run facilities, iii) organized transfers supported by the government, including controlled facilities for temporary accommodation of asylum-seekers in the mainland/sites, and iv) those who depart on their own means.

Data Sources: Population data - Partial Data from the Government and other sources; Arrivals/Departures - Hellenic Police, Hellenic Coastguard

Figures are subject to future adjustment based on consolidated figures provided by the authorities. Percentages may not add up to 100 due to rounding and slightly differ between the text and graphs.

The boundaries, the names shown and the designations used on the map do not imply official endorsement or acceptance by the United Nations.