Regional Refugee Response for the Ukraine Situation

Funding Opportunities for Civil Society Organizations in Moldova

Last Update: October 27, 2025

This compilation is part of the Refugee Coordination Forum's effort to support local organizations in Moldova to access funding opportunities in line with localization efforts. We have collected information from various sources online and compiled it here for the convenience of local CSOs. However, it is important to note that the RCF is not responsible for these opportunities, nor does it take part in any decision related to them, nor can it recommend organizations for them. If you have any other funding opportunities to contribute or want to share feedback, please write to us (mdachrcf@unhcr.org).

Title of the Call: Wellcome Discovery Awards

Deadline: 25-Nov-2025 (final application deadline at 15:00 BST)

Funding Source: Wellcome Trust

Eligibility of Entities to Apply:

- Lead applicants must be established researchers with international standing, innovation leadership, and a proven ability to manage and mentor teams
- Must dedicate at least 20% of their research time to the awarded program
- At application time, a permanent, open-ended or long-term rolling contract (or a guaranteed equivalent) is required, not contingent upon receiving this award; if less than 3 years remain on the contract, a confirmed future position and supporting letter are necessary
- Co-applicants are accepted, and may be at any career stage and location—except mainland China—provided they each contribute ≥20% of their research time and their host organization commits to space and salary support if needed
- Collaborators can be involved too—they support the project but are not paid via the grant
- Applicant organizations must be not-for-profit institutions (e.g., universities, research institutes, healthcare orgs, charities, social enterprises) located in the UK, Republic of Ireland, or low-/middle-income countries (excluding India and mainland China)
- Ineligible if:
  - You are already the lead applicant on two pending Discovery Award applications
  - Your project involves transferring funds into mainland China

Thematic Focus:

- Open to any discipline (STEM, humanities, social sciences, clinical, public health, etc.), as long as the research aims to improve human life, health, and wellbeing, with potential for significant conceptual or methodological breakthroughs

Funding Details:

- Applications should request the resources necessary for an ambitious research program; typical Discovery Awards average around £3.5 million, while proposals exceeding £5 million face extra scrutiny
- Duration: Up to 8 years (average is ~7 years), with flexibility for shorter terms (discipline-dependent) or longer timelines for part-time arrangements
- The grant covers:
  - Staff, including research assistants, specialists (data, clinical, fieldwork), managers, and support personnel (with disability allowances where needed)
  - PhD fees for one pre-doctoral research assistant (home fees, or international fees for LMIC students)
  - Materials, consumables, equipment, access charges, travel (capped annually: ~£2,000 for lead applicants/co-applicants, £1,000 for staff), public engagement, outsourcing, and overheads in specific cases
  - Inflation allowances included (according to a set scale)

- Lead applicant's salary is not covered by Wellcome if based in UK or Republic of Ireland—but those in LMICs can request salary contribution under certain conditions

For more details: Visit Wellcome.

Title of the Call: Small Research Grants on Education Program

Deadline: 15-Dec-2025

Funding Source: The Spencer Foundation

Eligibility of Entities to Apply:

- Principal Investigators (PIs) and Co-PIs must hold an earned doctorate in an academic discipline or professional field, or have equivalent, appropriate experience in education research
- Graduate students may participate on the research team, but cannot serve as PI or Co-PI
- The PI must be affiliated with a non-profit organization or public/governmental institution (university, research facility, school district, etc.), or other non-profit organizations outside the U.S. with equivalent non-profit status
- Applications are accepted from both U.S. and international applicants. All proposals must be submitted in English. Budget must be proposed in U.S. Dollars
- Projects must be strictly research (not program evaluations, professional development, curriculum design, scholarships, capital projects, or software development)

Thematic Focus:

- Research projects in education broadly conceived—no specific topic, discipline, method, design, or location required. That is, the program is "field-initiated," meaning applicants propose what they think is important

Funding Details:

- Maximum Grant Request: USD 50,000
- Project Duration: 1 to 5 years
- Budgets may not include indirect cost charges, per Spencer Foundation policy
- Eligible investigators may request additional supplemental funds for course release (i.e. to free up time for research) under certain conditions

For more details: Visit The Spencer Foundation.
