

UNHCR Registered*

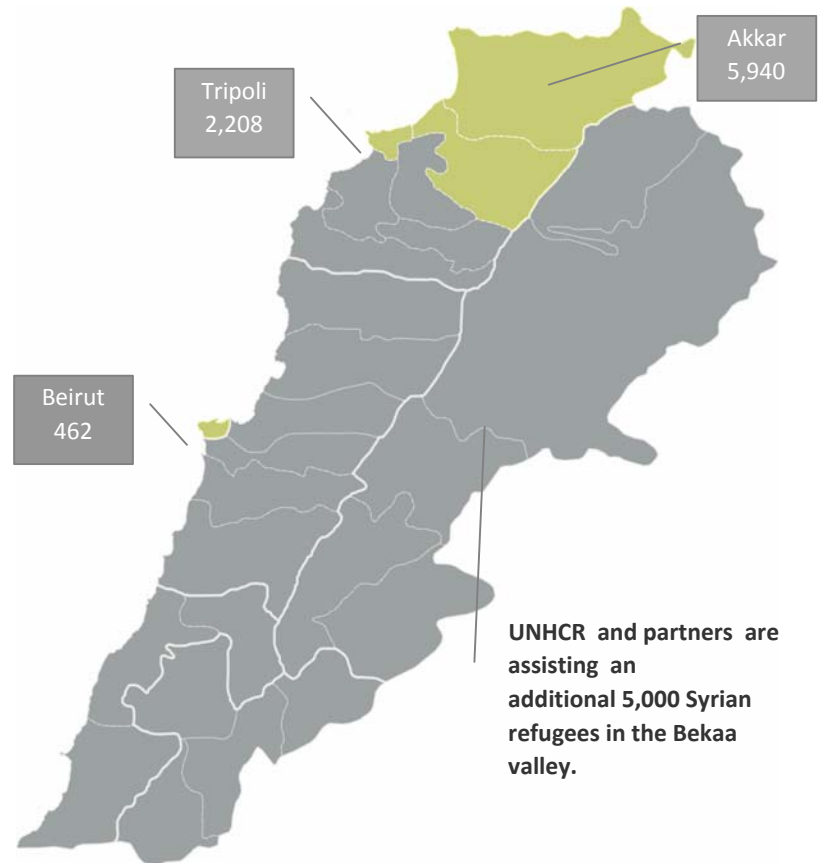

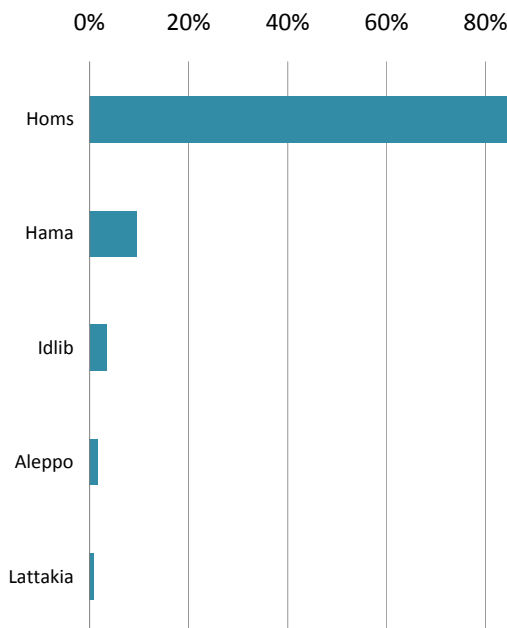

* Includes Syrians registered with UNHCR Beirut after March 2011

Age and Gender Breakdown

Place of origin

UNHCR and partners are assisting an additional 5,000 Syrian refugees in the Bekaa valley.

UNHCR and partners provide assistance to over 16,000 Syrians who arrived since March 2011. The number of displaced Syrians currently registered with UNHCR and the High Relief Commission (HRC) in north Lebanon is 8,610 persons. Listings from various actors and assessments conducted by UNHCR teams place the number of Syrian displaced in the Bekaa valley at approximately 5,000 persons. In addition to providing assistance, efforts to verify these numbers and locations are undertaken on a daily basis.