Lutheran World Federation (LWF)

Mission

Department for World Service (DWS) is the internationally recognized humanitarian relief and development agency of the Lutheran World Federation (LWF). LWF/DWS provides emergency humanitarian aid and assists in rehabilitation and development work in over 30 countries worldwide, with programs in Africa, Asia, Latin America/Caribbean, and Europe. Department for World Service reaches out to marginalized and vulnerable poor people whose livelihoods are threatened by the effects of natural and human-made disaster, with special regard to internally displaced persons (IDPs) and refugees. LWF/DWS extends its services without discriminating on the basis of religion, ethnicity, race, sex, caste, nationality or political conviction. LWF is a founding member of the ACT Alliance (Action by Churches Together).

In 2014, LWF has appealed for a total of USD 4,839,093

Additional Sector Information

As of 2014 LWF has acted as an implementing partner for UN agencies such as OCHA. The agency has various MOUs and other working agreements multi- and bi-laterally.

While LWF actively participates in the annual RRP process, the agency also has a separate appeal process through ACT and implements programming in sectors not listed above, for example Food Security.

Geographic Focus

In 2014, interventions will continue in both the camp and host community setting. Zaatari Camp will be the location of camp programming.

Multi-sectoral programming for urban and peri-urban refugees in Jordan's host communities is also on-going. The agency will particularly target Mafraq, Zarqa and Irbid governorates, with some programming in Amman.
