Governance

The Ministry of Interior (MOI) is responsible for administration in nine camps. Ban Don Yang Camp Commander is the Deputy District Officer of Sangklaburi District. A refugee Camp Committee is directly involved in camp governance, and received support from the Karen Refugee Committee.

A Thai Ranger is stationed near the camp to monitor security. Territory Defense Volunteers, known as Or Sors, are employed and trained by the MOI to provide internal camp security.

Background

Ban Don Yang camp was established in 1997 when a group of Myanmar nationals who had fled Myanmar and sought refuge in Thai villages was transferred into the camp. The camp also continued to receive a smaller number of individuals who fled an armed conflict in many occasions in the past.

The majority of the camp residents are Karen Christians. Most have a rural, agricultural background and originate from the Tanintharyi Region of Myanmar.

Location

Ban Don Yang camp is in Sangklaburi District, Kanchanaburi Province, less than 1 km. from the Thai-Myanmar border and 31 km. from Sangklaburi town. It has a surface area of 23.7 acres (0.1 sq.km.)

Access to Asylum

Thailand is not a signatory to the 1951 Refugee Convention and its 1967 Protocol and does not have legislation regulating the status of refugees. In accordance with MOI regulations, admission to the camps and access to asylum in Thailand is the responsibility of the Provincial Admission Boards (PAB).

With UNHCR support in 2012, RTG started conducting a "Fast Track" procedure that provides access to the PAB to the unregistered camp residents in the nine temporary shelters if they are immediate family members of those who were already resettled and/or of the registered camp residents who are in process of resettlement. There have also been submissions for persons with protection and medical concerns. This is not a general registration PAB exercise and the conditions are strict.
