

3RP partners' priority regarding the Shelter Sector continues to be the provision of adequate, affordable and sustainable housing options for refugees living in host communities. For refugees in camps, 3RP partners focus on rehabilitation efforts to improve the infrastructure of the camp and upgrade shelters in order to contribute to sustainable living. During 2017, 12,444 households in camps have received assistance for shelter and shelter upgrades, while outside of camps 17,552 households received assistance for shelter and shelter upgrades.
