

WFP continues to support Syrian populations in the country under the PRRO 200987. WFP supports up to 88,200 vulnerable refugees from Syria through the two main components of relief and livelihood/resilience-building with various activities, including: general food distribution, nutrition support to PLW, vocational trainings, capacity enhancement and access to schemes for small business start-up grants for selected refugees and host communities.

September distribution took place from 16 to 20 September, targeting 75,232 beneficiaries (72,605 Syrian refugees and 2,627 Palestinian refugees from Syria). Redemption period for September cycle ends on 7 October 2017.

In September 2017, WFP food voucher value remains at EGP 400, which is now equivalent to approx. USD 22 given the current UN exchange rate.
