Progress against Targets: Sector Priority Indicators

Key achievements

- In the third quarter of 2017, more than 59,097,984 US$ were provided through Cash Based Interventions (CBI) to around 180,841 vulnerable individuals under refugee pillar. Around $164,641 US$ were provided to 10,632 extremely vulnerable Jordanian under resilience pillar.
- Around 84 percent of the camp population received life saving Basic Needs support in camps that includes new arrival kits and replenishment replacement kits.
- During the reporting period, funding for two projects was given for basic needs (see Progress Report above) under refugee component. A third project funded for basic needs is linked to seasonal assistance (winterization support) and is expected to start in October 2017. So Far 67 percent of the required funds for the winterization intervention in urban is confirmed based on partners feedback.
- 80 percent of the funding required for the resilience pillar was successfully received in the third quarter thus supporting the provision of Basic Needs support to the most vulnerable Jordanians.
- 17 organizations out of 19 organizations who appealed under the Basic Needs sector were successful in securing funds . Thus improving the sector ability to cover the basic needs of the extremely vulnerable refugees (see progress report).

Challenges faced during the reporting period

- Only 64 percent of the funding requested for basic needs sector was received under refugee pillar (not including winterization intervention).

Gaps and key priorities foreseen in the next quarter

◇ Gaps

- Due to limited funding, the basic needs sector covered only 55 percent of the planned target with cash based intervention.
- 16 percent of the camp population were not covered with the life saving Basic Needs support in camps that includes new arrival kits and replenishment replacement kits.
- Based on feedback received from the winterization task force partners a funding gap of 33 percent is expected. Advocacy with donors is required to ensure partners ability to respond properly to the harsh winter conditions.

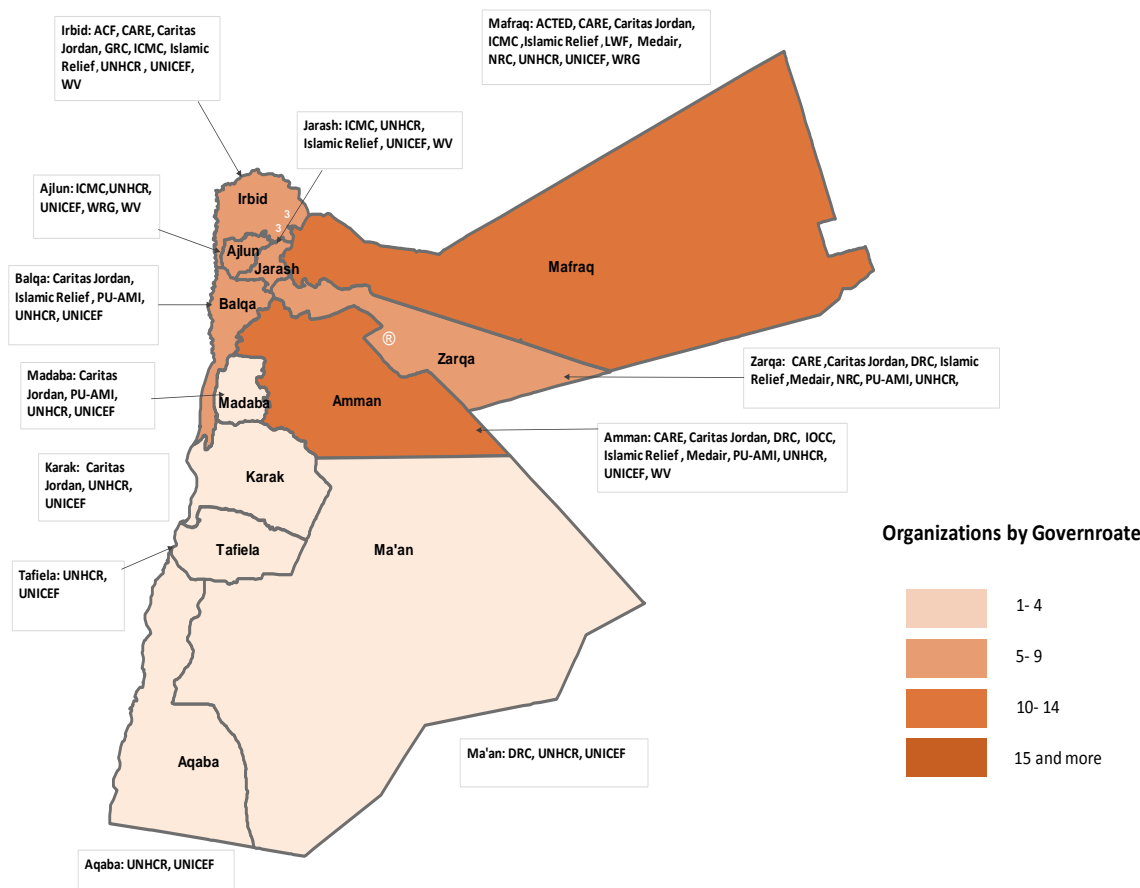

◇ Key Priorities:

- Basic Needs sector will advocate to secure the required budget needed to continue implementation of cash based intervention activities in the urban context. Consideration should be taken to ensure proper funding for the winterization project to avoid funding gaps.
