Demographics

Similar to last year, over one-third of arrivals in 2017 are children. Of those, 7 out of 10 are below the age of 12. Additionally, 12% of all children are unaccompanied or separated mainly from Syria and Afghanistan. Some 35% of arrivals are men between 18 and 39 years old. Only 4% of arrivals are 50 years old or older.

Demographics (continued)

The majority of new arrivals in 2017 are from Syria (11,552), Iraq (5,328) and Afghanistan (3,136), thus following the trend of arrivals of the last two years. Typically, these three nationalities arrive in family groups.

Entry points

In 2017, similar to 2016, the majority of asylum-seekers and migrants in Greece arrive on Lesbos (11,570), Chios (6,294) and Samos (4,840). Dodecanese islands mainly receive family groups from Syria and Iraq. In November, asylum-seekers and migrants arrived on 7 islands. Lesbos receives the highest numbers of people from Syria and Afghanistan over the overall number of sea arrivals in Greece in 2017.
