

160
Interviews representing 255
Individuals

1,5
Average family size

Country of origin

1 out of 5

Persons with specific vulnerabilities*

36%

Single head household

15%

of children are unaccompanied (11%) or separated (4%)

Reasons

43% Caregivers send their children to family or friends

14% Parents are deceased

*Chronic illness, disability, pregnant and lactating women, etc

16%

did not enter regularly

Reasons

42% had no documents

30% feared being deported, detained or security incidents

Documents held by respondent

84% held a valid identity card

5% a valid passport

29%

change residence within country of origin in the last year.

86%

family size changed due to displacement

69%

walking

31%

by bus

Information source used

36% Facebook

28% Talk to other connational

27% TV

16% None

16% Whatsapp

51%

undertake risky activities along the route*

*Begging, collecting food left-overs, send children to work

44% Yes, in another country

26% No

25% Dont Know

6% Yes, in Guatemala

Intentions to apply for asylum

90%

plan to go to a third country.

United States

76%

Mexico

23%

Other

1%

35

Incidents reported in country of origin

29%

of families suffered or witnessed an incident

31% Intimidation or threats

20% Physical violence

11% Murder

9% Torture

9% Rape