

CASH ASSISTANCE FOR REFUGEES IN MOLDOVA

16 September 2022

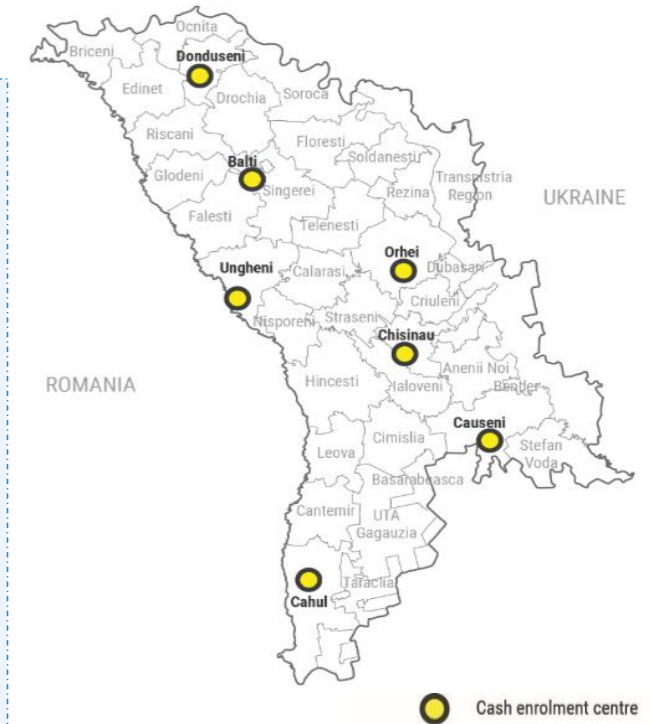

In humanitarian emergencies cash is the quickest and most dignified way to provide displaced families with emergency support. It offers choice in meeting needs and boosts local economies.

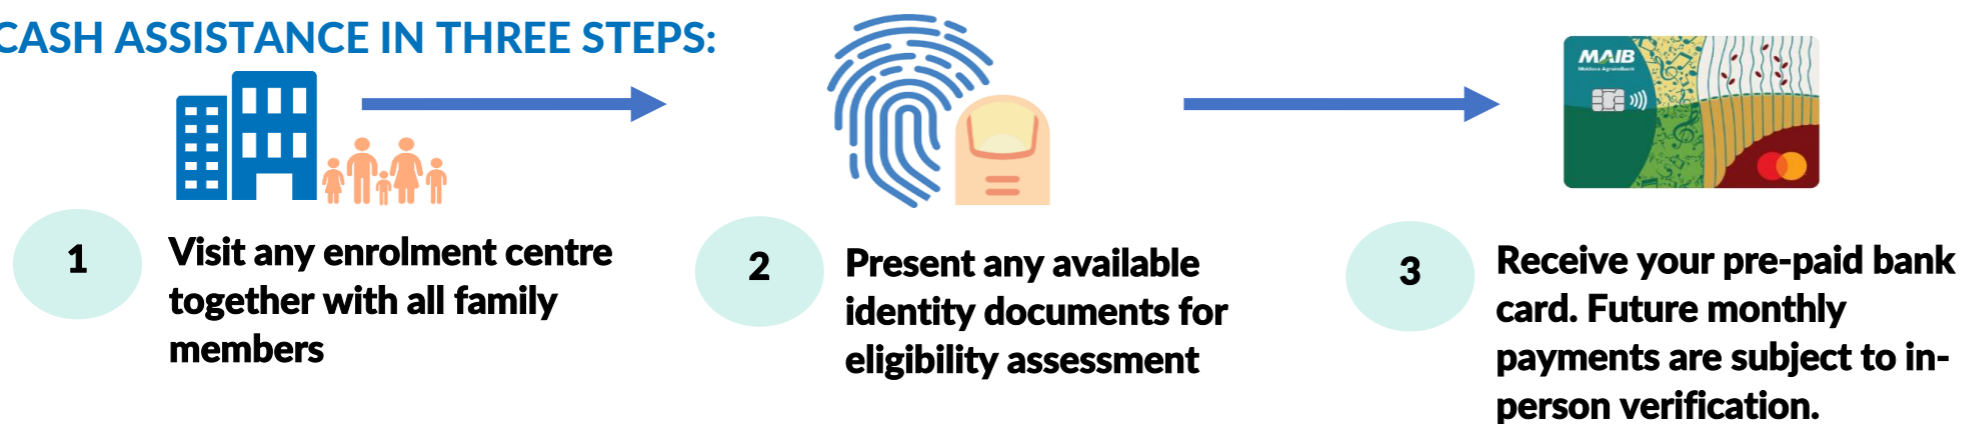

Staff from UNHCR and its partner Caritas Moldova, enter the details of a woman from Ukraine into the database after which a pre-paid card has been issued, allowing her to withdraw cash from ATM machines in Moldova. March 2022. ©UNHCR/Maxime Fossat

*The figure is subject to retroactive changes based on financial reconciliations

CASH ASSISTANCE IN THREE STEPS:

ELIGIBILITY ASSESMENT:

Ukrainian nationals or citizens of other countries who were residing in Ukraine and fled on/after 24 February with the following characteristics: (1) Households with one or more dependents; (2) Households headed by a single parent; (3) Households headed by a child (below 18); (4) Households with an unaccompanied or separated child; (5) Households headed by elderly; (6) Households with one or more persons with specific needs, including: persons with a disability, pregnant women, persons with a serious medical conditions, women at risk, persons with legal and physical protection needs, LGBTI.

7 Cash Enrolment Centres:

- Chisinau: 1, Ghiocelilor street
  - Donduseni: 130, Stefan cel Mare street
  - Causeni: 3A, Stefan cel Mare street
  - Cahul: 15/06, Republicii street
  - **Ungheni: 16, Vasile Alecsandri street
  - Orhei: 10, Mihai Eminescu street
  - Balti: 47, Mihai Viteazul street
- **Community Service Centre

- In each centre there is a protection desk to provide support and information.
- Protection desks are staffed by NGO Law Centre of Advocates
- Four mobile teams to reach more beneficiaries