

Greece

February 2023

Sea and land arrivals doubled in 2022, compared to 2021. By the end of the year, more than 86,600 refugees and asylum-seekers were in Greece, with refugees from Ukraine representing 25 per cent.

UNHCR works with the Government, NGOs and businesses to advance refugee integration. Through these efforts, at least 214 refugees found work in 2022. Pilot projects, job fairs and a job-matching platform promise more opportunities for refugees in Greece in 2023.

In 2022, UNHCR continued to receive reports of human rights violations in the context of border management, and urged the authorities to conduct thorough investigations on all reported incidents.

UKRAINE REFUGEE SITUATION RESPONSE

As of 28 February, 21,741 refugees from Ukraine were registered for temporary protection in Greece.

Coordination: The Government of Greece coordinates the response to refugees from Ukraine with the support of UN agencies, NGOs, local authorities, civil society organizations, volunteers, and the private sector.

Needs: Long-term accommodation, employment, accessing healthcare and education are among the top concerns of Ukrainian refugees in Greece.

Evidence-based advice: UNHCR led an inter-agency assessment of the needs of Ukrainian refugees to help inform the Government and organizations on how to address them. This exercise has produced a dynamic monitoring tool.

Support to the most vulnerable: UNHCR scaled up its support to protect children, prevent gender-based violence and trafficking and communicate with refugee communities.

1,980

unaccompanied children received help thanks to the national tracing mechanism established by Greece with the support of UNHCR. Of these, 1,125 were placed in safe care arrangements.

1,184

requests for assistance reached UNHCR's protection helpline, mostly for legal advice, information about asylum procedures and accommodation.

AN OPEN CHANNEL OF COMMUNICATION FOR REFUGEES

UNHCR's Protection Helpdesk provides support to asylum-seekers and refugees, by assisting individuals, groups and refugee communities throughout Greece. The team deploys different channels of communication to reach out and help as many refugees as possible. In addition to responding to phone calls and emails, they capitalize on technology and social media, and also meet refugee communities in person to offer information and support in the languages that refugees speak, such as Arabic, Farsi, Sorani, Russian, Ukrainian, Greek, English and French. ## Key Priorities

- Institutional strengthening: UNHCR pilots good practices, deploys staff and provides training and advice to help the State strengthen systems and expertise on asylum, reception and durable solutions.
- Advocacy: UNHCR raises with the authorities and key actors critical matters that affect the rights of refugees and asylum-seekers, including access to territory and asylum procedures, so as to trigger legal and policy change.
- Protection: With staff at seven field locations and through a dedicated helpline, UNHCR monitors the situation of asylum-seekers and refugees, provides support with information sessions and makes interventions and referrals to services where they can get expert help.
- Legal aid: UNHCR offers personalized legal aid through specialised partners to help asylum-seekers and refugees obtain equal access to their rights.
- Integration: Engaging with refugee communities, UNHCR identifies skills and experience, maps intentions and needs and works with the public and private sector to create livelihood opportunities.
- Persons with specific needs: To those most at risk, such as unaccompanied children, those living with chronic illnesses or survivors of sexual violence, UNHCR provides psychosocial support, emergency shelter and/or foster care. UNHCR also links refugees with disabilities to the national social protection system and job offers.
- Community empowerment and self-reliance: UNHCR mobilizes refugees to create support networks, from addressing mental health issues to training youth to help their peers.
- Relocation: UNHCR supports the relocation of unaccompanied children and other vulnerable groups from Greece to other European States.

MONTHLY SEA ARRIVALS IN GREECE

Working with Partners

- UNHCR works with State and EU institutions, municipalities, UN agencies, international and local NGOs, refugees and local communities.
- External engagement: UNHCR strives to raise awareness among the host population, foster understanding or solidarity with refugees, and cultivates partnerships with the private sector to mobilize wider support.

Statelessness

- Greece has acceded to the 1954 Statelessness Convention but has yet to accede to the 1961 Convention on the Reduction of Statelessness.
- UNHCR offers advice to Greece to establish a statelessness determination procedure, deploys staff and offers expertise to collect and review data and implement legislation on acquiring Greek citizenship. In cooperation with the municipality of Athens, UNHCR also provides classes to those who wish to sit the Greek citizenship exams.
