In addition, there are 947,236 people displaced internally in the context of disasters and climate change. The displacement occurred in the following countries:

- Malawi (659,278)
- The Democratic Republic of the Congo (204,755)
- Mozambique (41,668)
- Zimbabwe (41,535)

As a result of persecution, conflict, violence, human rights violations, or events seriously disturbing public order.

Forcibly displaced people & returnees

1,006,917

Refugees, asylum-seekers, other of concern & returnees (12% of the overall forcibly displaced people and returnees population)

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>REF</th>
<th>ASY</th>
<th>OOC</th>
<th>RET</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>778,249</td>
<td>198,503</td>
<td>29,611</td>
<td>554</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Forcibly displaced people and returnees population

7,308,462

Conflict-induced IDPs and returned IDPs (88% of the overall forcibly displaced people and returnees population)

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>IDPs RET</th>
<th>IDPs CFI</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>359,655</td>
<td>6,948,807</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

| Conflict-induced IDPs percentage | 95% |

Source: Key figures

- UNHCR
- As of 31 May 2023

Key Figures:

- 8,315,379 Forcibly displaced people & returnees
- 1,006,917 Refugees, asylum-seekers, other of concern & returnees (12% of the overall forcibly displaced people and returnees population)
- 7,308,462 Conflict-induced IDPs and returned IDPs (88% of the overall forcibly displaced people and returnees population)

Note: The boundaries and names shown and the designations used on this map do not imply official endorsement or acceptance by the United Nations.