Updates on the Existing GoT Cash Support Schemes

According to the recent statements of MoI Minister Soylu:

- So far, 1,508,108 households have applied for cash support as slightly damaged, moderately damaged, heavily damaged, demolished or urgently demolished.
  - Payments of 10,000 TL were made to 1,376,947 households.
- 356,602 households have applied for the relocation support (15,000 TL) and 232,894 households received this support.
- Until now, 512,000 citizens applied for the rent support and their assessments are currently underway.
  - ✓ As per the recent statements of Minister Kurum, the rent support is 5,000 TL for house owners; for renters,
  - 3,500 TL in İstanbul,
  - 3,000 TL in Ankara, Bursa, Antalya & İzmir,
  - 2,500 TL in other metropolitan cities,
  - 2,000 TL in the remaining provinces.
- According to information provided on https://aydes.gov.tr/vatandasBasvuruSSS , relocation and rent support can be applied for moderately damaged shelters as well.
- Also, within the Scope of Law No. 7269 on Right Ownership and Debt Process (https://aydes.gov.tr/ - "Bunlari biliyor muydunuz?")
  - AFAD will provide a loan of 27,000 TL for moderately damaged accommodations and 18,000 TL for moderately damaged barns for purposes of strengthening and retrofitting buildings. Beneficiaries will have to repay this loan with no payment for the first 2 years and in equal installments over 10 years without interest.

Updates on the Existing GoT Cash Support Schemes

Non-EQ / On-going SP Cash Schemes

- According to the recent statements of Minister Yanık since late January, after the new regulation in the civil servant salary coefficient for January, monthly supports listed below had been increased for:
  - The elderly → 1,997 TL,
  - PWDs with 40-69% disability → 1,594 TL and with 70% and over → 2,392 TL,
  - Home Care Assistance → 4,336 TL,
  - SED → 3,038 TL (mentioned in late Jan.)
- MoFSS had updated the family support aid amount to 850 TL-1250 TL in the past months.
  - No statement has been made yet as to how much the Family Support Program payments will be in 2023.
  - The amounts of this aid were calculated according to the per capita monthly income. In this context, the payment amounts according to the monthly income per person in the household.

    - Those with 450 TL or less → 1,250 TL

    - Over 450 TL – 911 TL or less → 1.100 TL

    - Over 911 TL – 1,372 TL or less → 950 TL

    - Over 1,372 TL - Less than 1,833 TL → 850 TL

Updates on the Existing GoT Cash Support Schemes

Non-EQ / On-going SP Cash Schemes

- Individuals who have lost their jobs and become unemployed during the earthquake will be able to receive unemployment benefits if they have at least 600 days in the last 3 years:
  - Those with 600-899 days may get unemployment benefits 6 months,
  - 900-1,079 → 8 months,
  - 1,080 and over → 10 months.
- The lowest and the highest unemployment benefits are 3,012 TL and 6,025 TL respectively.
- The last payments were made on the Feb. 15th, March and April payments will be made on the Mar. 21st and the April 19th.
- Short-Term Working Allowance has been put into place to prevent laying off workers during this period. → provides income support for insured workers in the cases of interruption to usual work activities for specific periods in the context of general economic, sectoral, regional crises including force majeure
  - Necessary legislative amendment preparations have been completed to provide Cash Wage Support to those who do not meet the conditions for the Short-Term Working Allowance.
  - The earthquake victims in the affected provinces will receive their salaries from the state as their workplaces are also closed. In addition, cash wage support will be provided to earthquake victims who will be counted on unpaid leave. The legal salary period, which is 3 months, can be extended with Presidential decrees.
