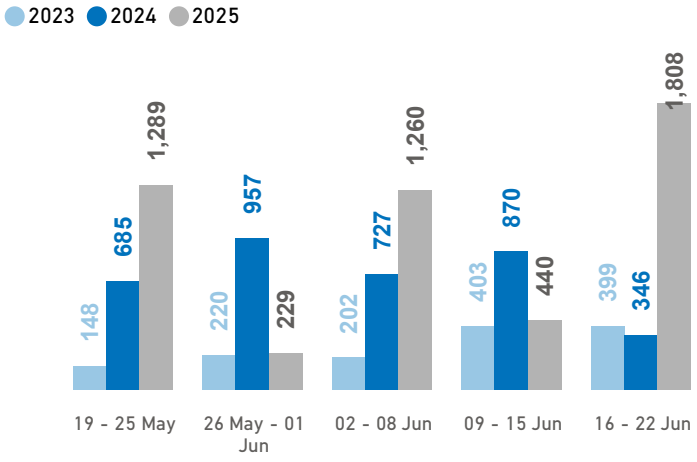
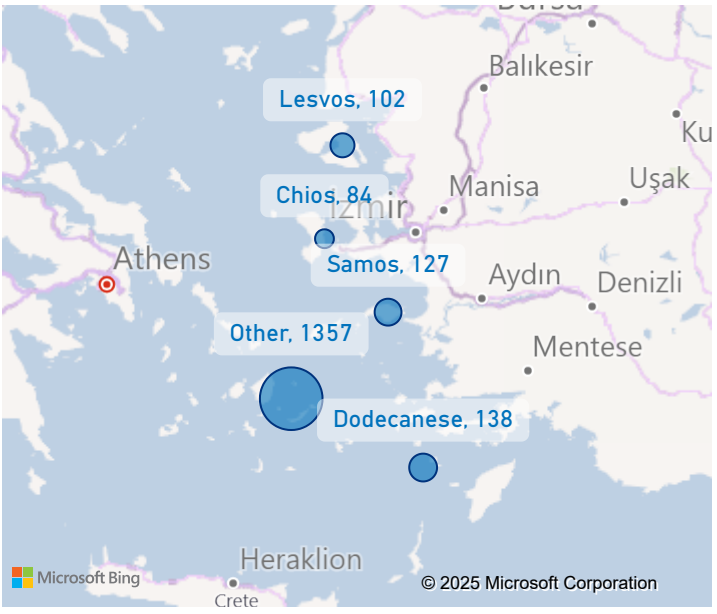
Aegean Islands Weekly Snapshot

Sea arrivals

This week, the Aegean islands saw 1,808 arrivals, an increase from last week's 440.
The average of the daily arrivals on the Aegean islands for this week is 258.



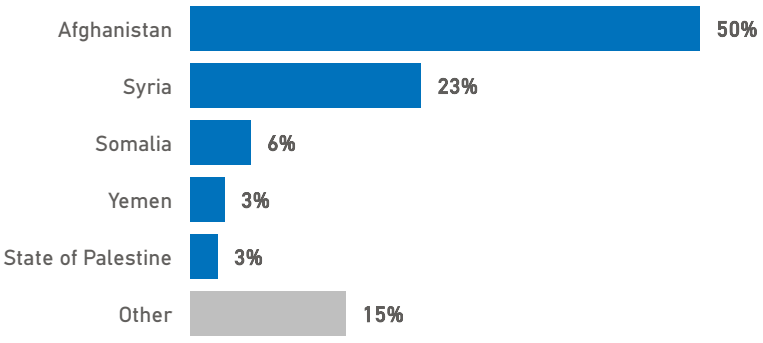
Entry Points

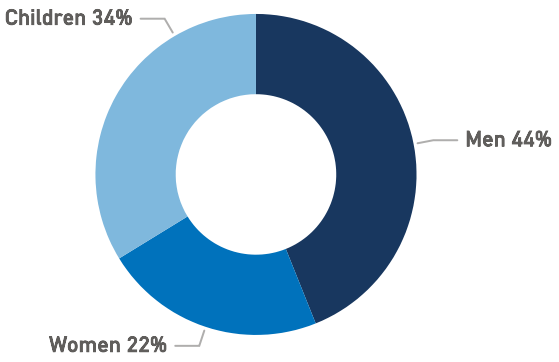


Population in the CCACs

Currently, 6,200 refugees and migrants reside in the Closed Controlled Access Center(s).

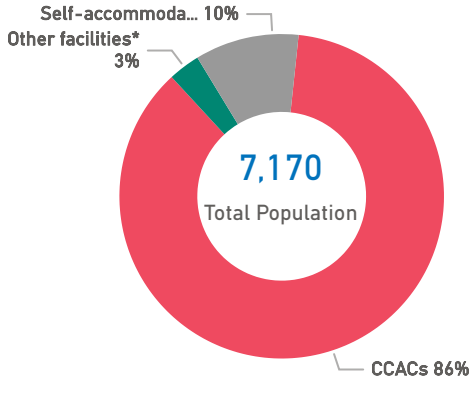
Most of them are from Afghanistan (50%), Syria (23%) and Somalia (6%). Men account for 44% of the population, women for 22% and children for 34%.





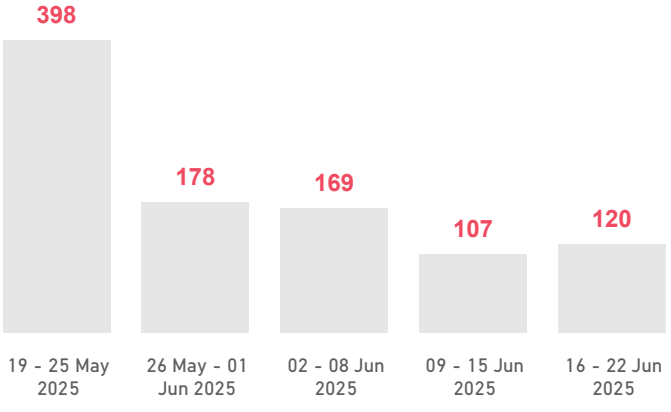
Population on the Islands

There are 7,170 refugees and migrants on the Aegean islands. Out of this total, 6,200 reside at the CCACs and 227 are hosted in other facilities. UNHCR estimates that there are also 743 self-accommodated in the islands.



Departures

This week, 120 refugees and migrants departed from the Aegean islands to the mainland.



Published on 09/07/2025

more information: [UNHCR Operational Portal - Greece]

*Other facilities include shelters for unaccompanied children, detention facilities, etc.

Refugees and migrants includes asylum-seekers, beneficiaries of international protection and people out of the asylum procedure.

Departures to the mainland mainly include: i) transfers in the context of IOM Assisted Voluntary Return and Reintegration programme, ii) transfers of unaccompanied children to State-run facilities, iii) organized transfers supported by the government, including controlled facilities for temporary accommodation of asylum-seekers in the mainland/sites, and iv) those who depart on their own means.

Data Sources: Population data - Partial Data from the Government and other sources; Arrivals/Departures - Hellenic Police, Hellenic Coastguard

Figures are subject to future adjustment based on consolidated figures provided by the authorities. Percentages may not add up to 100 due to rounding and slightly differ between the text and graphs.

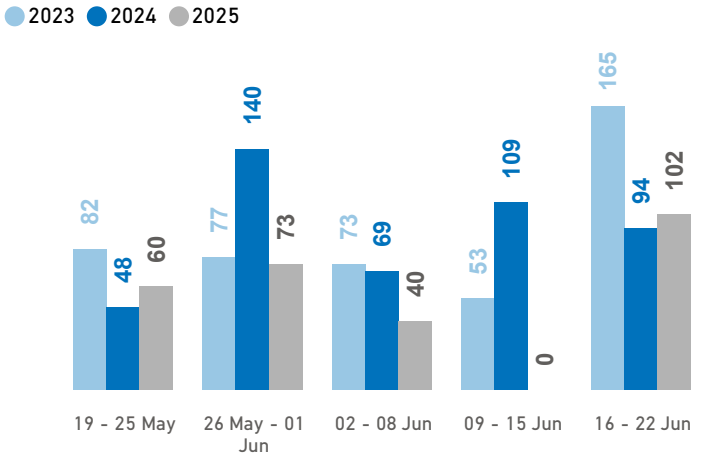
The boundaries, the names shown and the designations used on the map do not imply official endorsement or acceptance by the United Nations.

Lesvos Weekly Snapshot

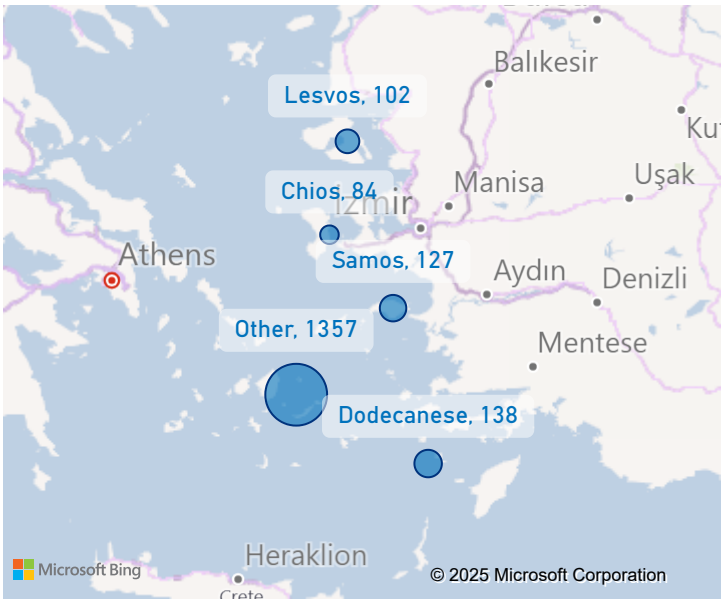
Sea arrivals

This week, Lesvos saw 102 arrivals, an increase from last week's 0.

The average of the daily arrivals on Lesvos for this week is 15.



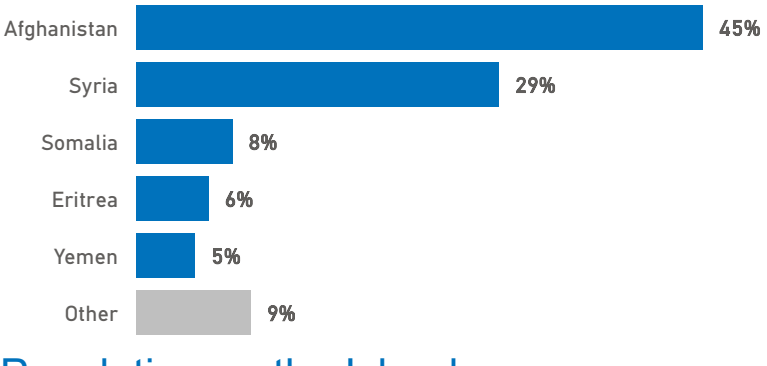
Entry Points

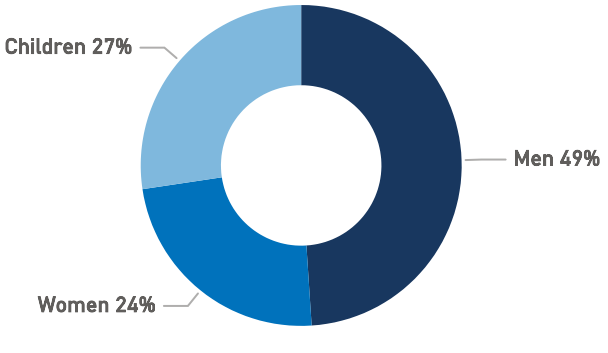


Population in the CCAC

Currently, 1,101 refugees and migrants reside in the Closed Controlled Access Center.

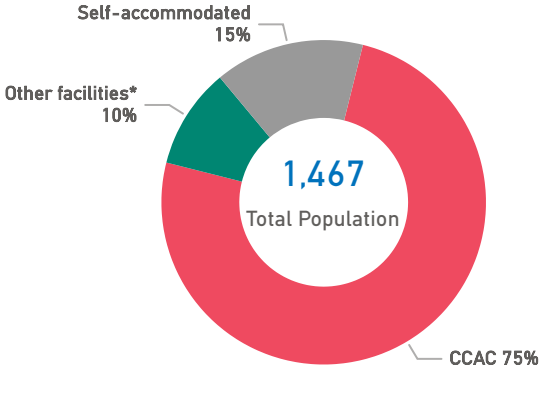
Most of them are from Afghanistan (45%), Syria (29%) and Somalia (8%). Men account for 49% of the population, women for 24% and children for 27%.





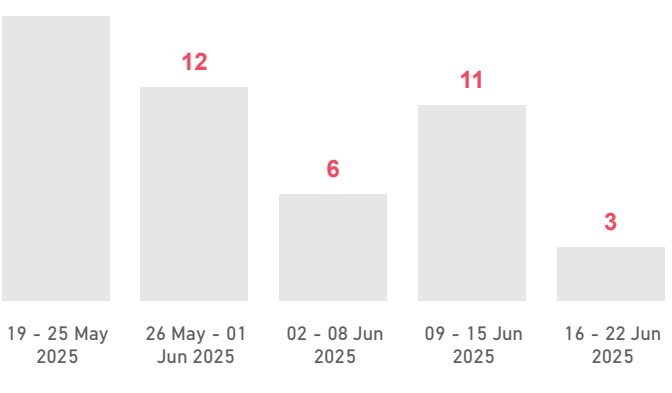
Population on the Island

There are 1,467 refugees and migrants on Lesvos. Out of this total, 1,101 reside at the CCAC and 147 are hosted in other facilities. UNHCR identified 219 self-accommodated refugees in the island up to this date.



Departures

This week, 3 refugees and migrants departed from Lesvos to the mainland.



Published on 09/07/2025

more information: [UNHCR Operational Portal - Greece]

*Other facilities include shelters for unaccompanied children, detention facilities, etc.

Refugees and migrants includes asylum-seekers, beneficiaries of international protection and people out of the asylum procedure.

Departures to the mainland mainly include: i) transfers in the context of IOM Assisted Voluntary Return and Reintegration programme, ii) transfers of unaccompanied children to State-run facilities, iii) organized transfers supported by the government, including controlled facilities for temporary accommodation of asylum-seekers in the mainland/sites, and iv) those who depart on their own means.

Data Sources: Population data - Partial Data from the Government and other sources; Arrivals/Departures - Hellenic Police, Hellenic Coastguard

Figures are subject to future adjustment based on consolidated figures provided by the authorities. Percentages may not add up to 100 due to rounding and slightly differ between the text and graphs.

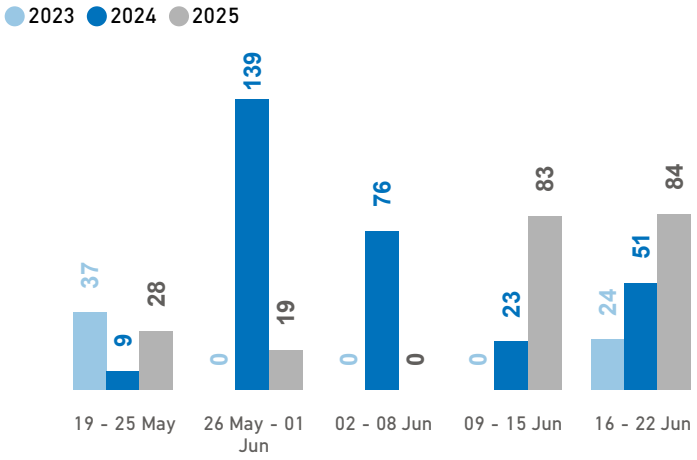
The boundaries, the names shown and the designations used on the map do not imply official endorsement or acceptance by the United Nations.

Chios Island Weekly Snapshot

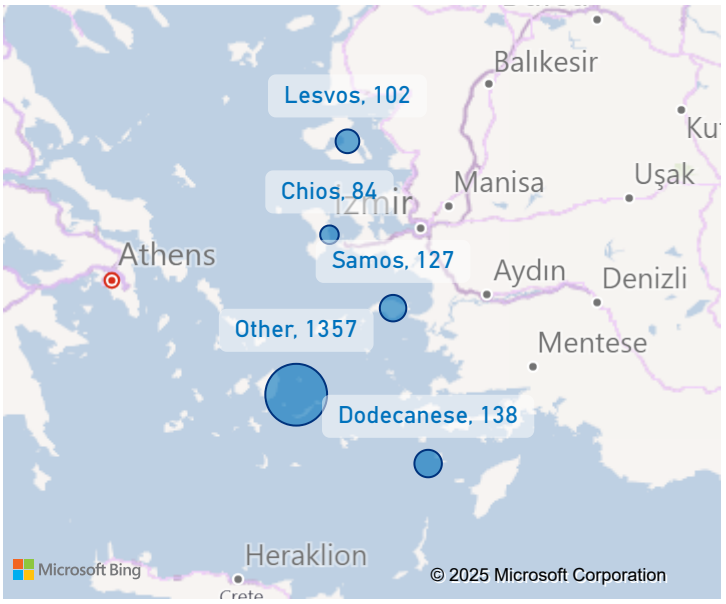
Sea arrivals

This week, Chios island saw 84 arrivals, an increase from last week's 83.

The average of the daily arrivals on Chios island for this week is 12.



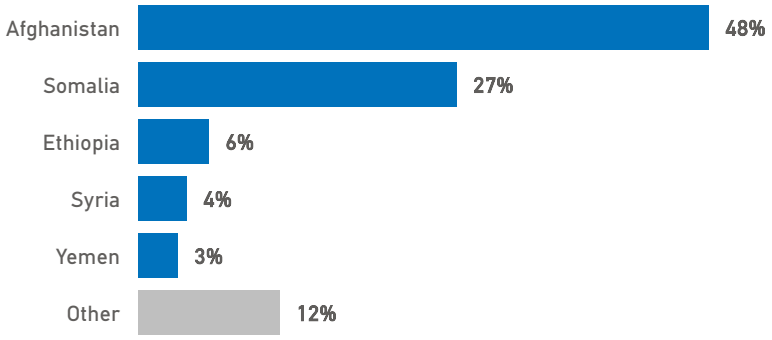
Entry Points

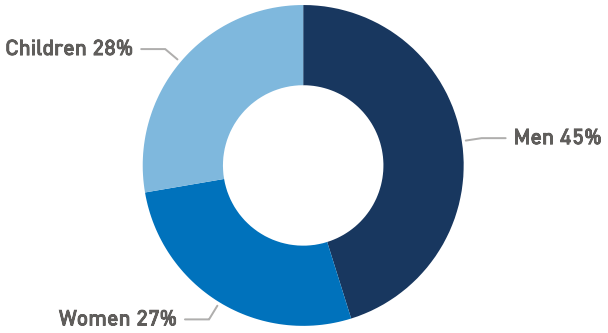


Population in the CCAC

Currently, 610 refugees and migrants reside in the Closed Controlled Access Center.

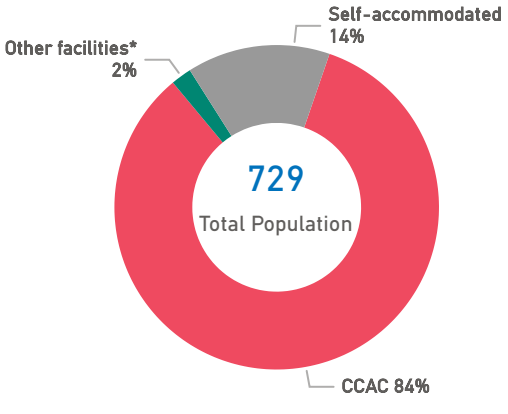
Most of them are from Afghanistan (48%), Somalia (27%) and Ethiopia (6%). Men account for 45% of the population, women for 27% and children for 28%.





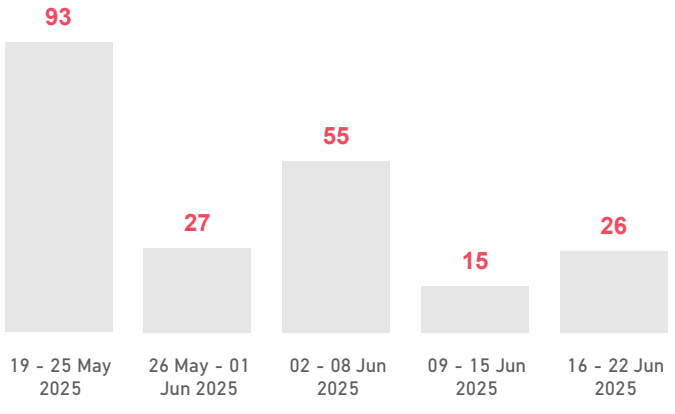
Population on the Island

There are 729 refugees and migrants on Chios island. Out of this total, 610 reside at the CCAC and 15 are hosted in other facilities. UNHCR estimates that there are also 104 self-accommodated in the island.



Departures

This week, 26 refugees and migrants departed from Chios island to the mainland



Published on 09/07/2025

more information: [UNHCR Operational Portal - Greece]

Other facilities include shelters for unaccompanied children, detention facilities, etc.

Refugees and migrants includes asylum-seekers, beneficiaries of international protection and people out of the asylum procedure.

Departures to the mainland mainly include: i) transfers in the context of IOM Assisted Voluntary Return and Reintegration programme, ii) transfers of unaccompanied children to State-run facilities, iii) organized transfers supported by the government, including controlled facilities for temporary accommodation of asylum-seekers in the mainland/sites, and iv) those who depart on their own means.

Data Sources: Population data - Partial Data from the Government and other sources; Arrivals/Departures - Hellenic Police, Hellenic Coastguard

Figures are subject to future adjustment based on consolidated figures provided by the authorities. Percentages may not add up to 100 due to rounding and slightly differ between the text and graphs.

The boundaries, the names shown and the designations used on the map do not imply official endorsement or acceptance by the United Nations.

Samos* Weekly Snapshot

*(including Ikaria, Agathonisi and Fournoi islands)

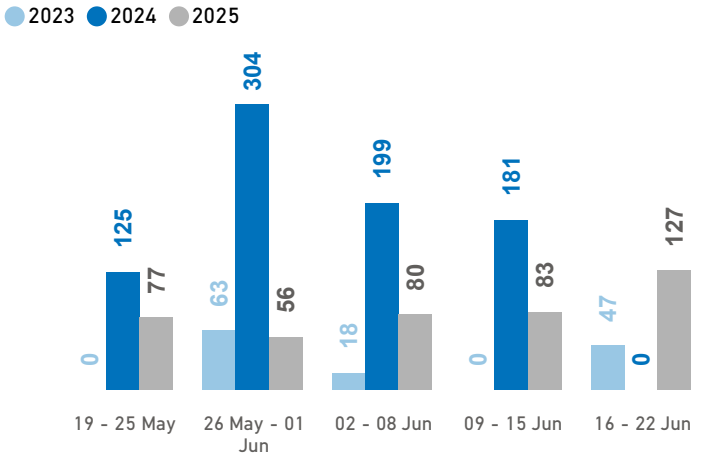
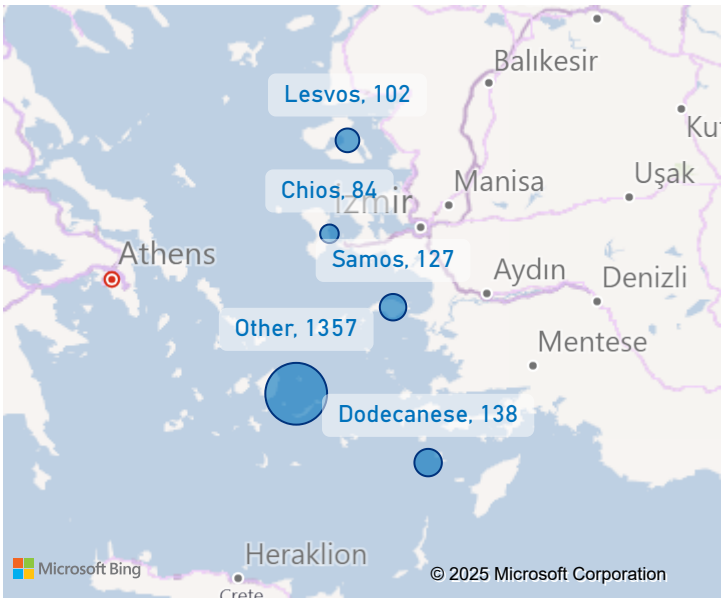
Sea arrivals

This week, Samos and neighbouring islands (Ikaria, Agathonisi and Fournoi) saw 127 arrivals, an increase from last week's 83.

The average of the daily arrivals on Samos and neighbouring islands for this week is 18.



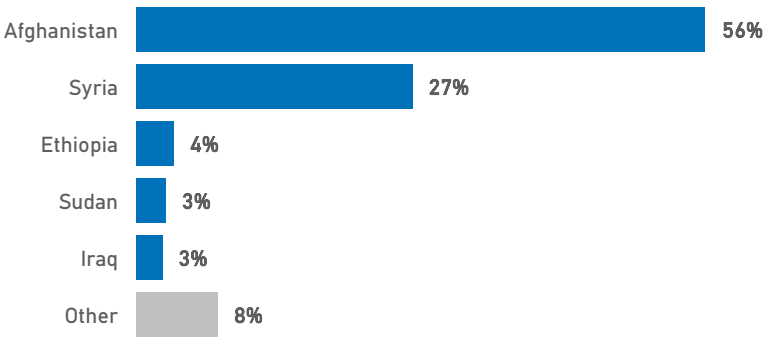
Entry Points

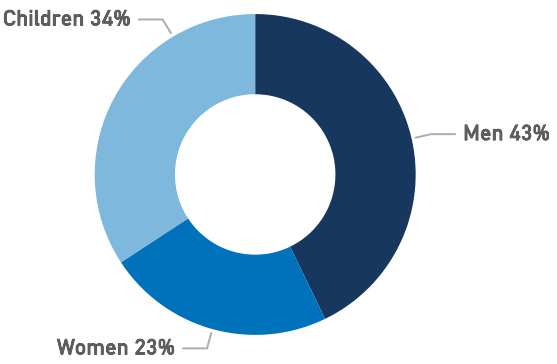


Population in the CCAC

Currently, 2,516 refugees and migrants reside in the Closed Controlled Access Center.

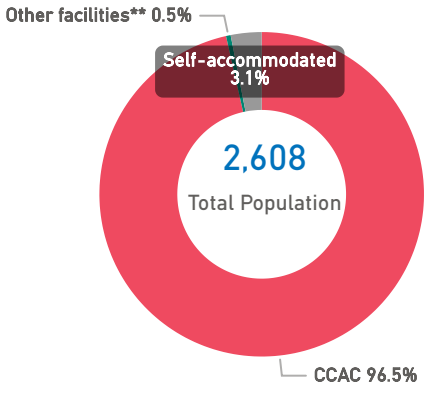
Most of the registered population are from Afghanistan (56%), Syria (27%) and Ethiopia (4%). Men account for 43% of the population, women for 23% and children for 34%.





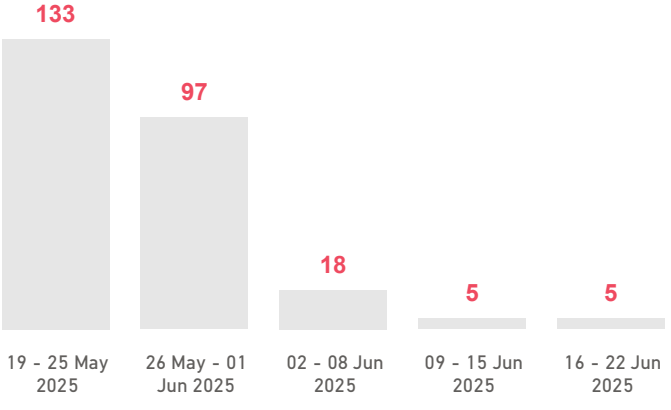
Population on Samos Island

There are 2,608 refugees and migrants on Samos island. Out of this total, the 2,516 reside at the CCAC and 12 are hosted in other facilities. UNHCR estimates that there are also 80 self-accommodated in the island.



Departures

This week, 5 refugees and migrants departed from Samos island to the mainland.



Published on 09/07/2025

more information: [UNHCR Operational Portal - Greece]

Other facilities include shelters for unaccompanied children, detention facilities, etc.

Refugees and migrants includes asylum-seekers, beneficiaries of international protection and people out of the asylum procedure.

Departures to the mainland mainly include: i) transfers in the context of IOM Assisted Voluntary Return and Reintegration programme, ii) transfers of unaccompanied children to State-run facilities, iii) organized transfers supported by the government, including controlled facilities for temporary accommodation of asylum-seekers in the mainland/sites, and iv) those who depart on their own means.

Data Sources: Population data - Partial Data from the Government and other sources; Arrivals/Departures - Hellenic Police, Hellenic Coastguard

Figures are subject to future adjustment based on consolidated figures provided by the authorities. Percentages may not add up to 100 due to rounding and slightly differ between the text and graphs.

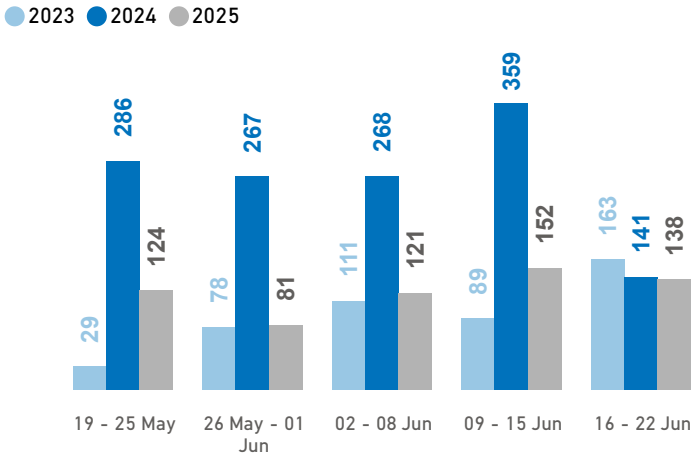
The boundaries, the names shown and the designations used on the map do not imply official endorsement or acceptance by the United Nations.

Dodecanese Islands Weekly Snapshot

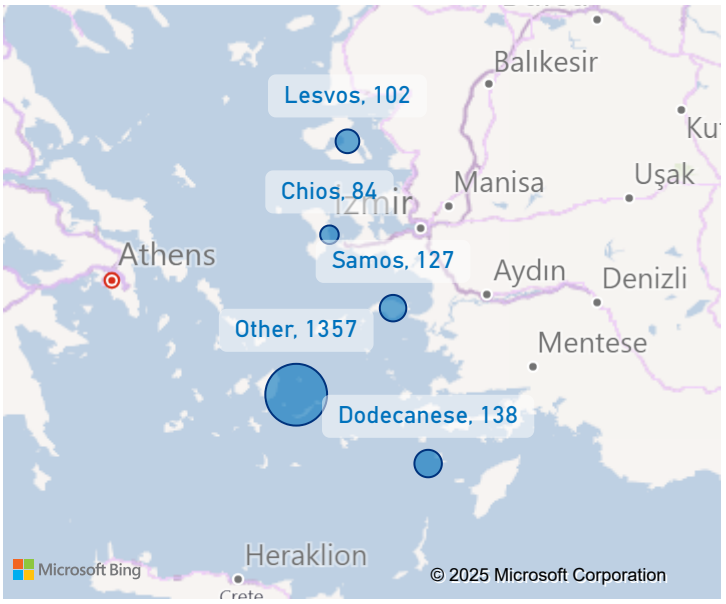
Sea arrivals

This week, the Dodecanese islands saw 138 arrivals, a decrease from last week's 152.

The average of the daily arrivals on the Dodecanese islands for this week is 20.



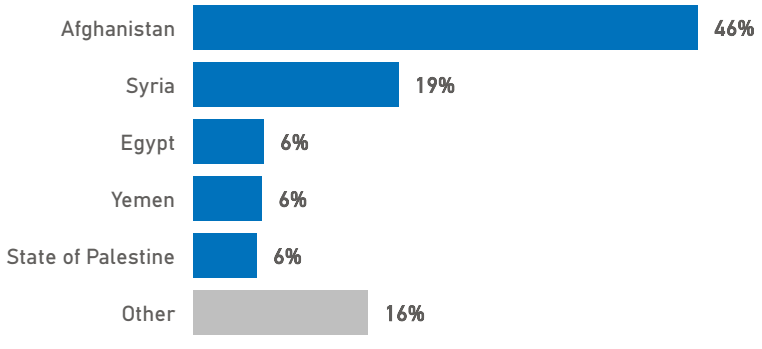
Entry Points

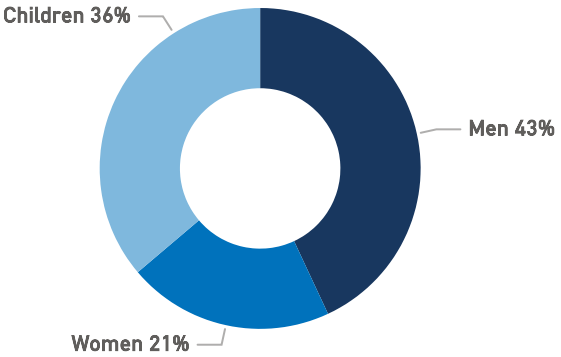


Population in Kos CCAC and Leros CCAC

Currently, 1,973 refugees and migrants reside in Kos CCAC and Leros CCAC.

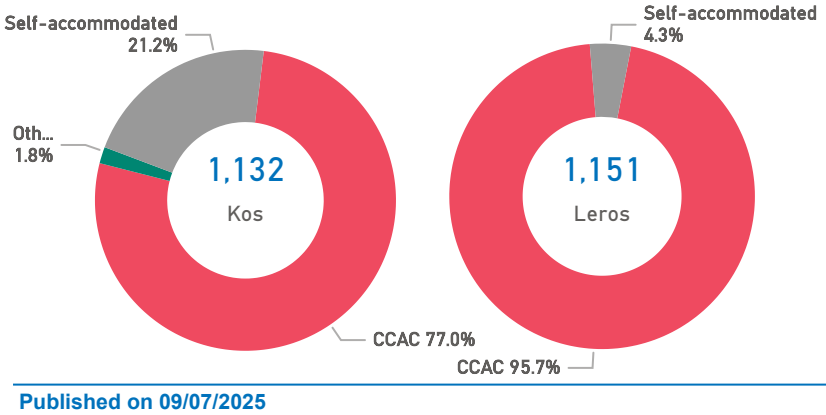
Most of them are from Afghanistan (46%), Syria (19%) and Egypt (6%). Men account for 43% of the population, women for 21% and children for 36%.





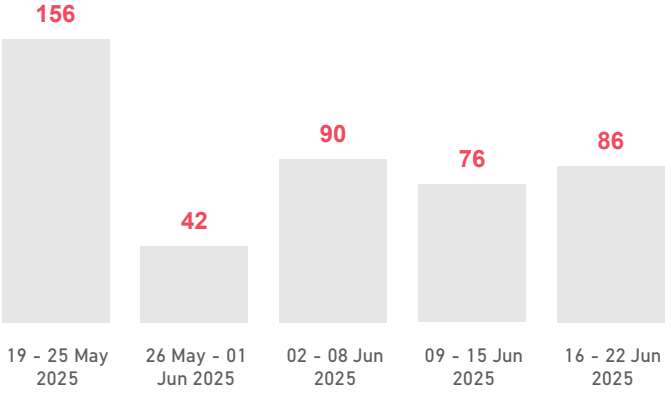
Population on the Dodecanese Islands

There are 2,283 refugees and migrants on the Dodecanese islands. Out of this total, 872 reside at the CCAC in Kos, and 1,101 at the CCAC Leros. In Kos, an estimated 240 people are self-accommodated and an additional 20 are hosted in other facilities, while in Leros, an estimated 50 people are self-accommodated, with an additional 0 being hosted in other facilities.



Departures

This week, 86 refugees and migrants departed from the Dodecanese islands to the mainland.



Published on 09/07/2025

more information: [UNHCR Operational Portal - Greece]

*Other facilities include shelters for unaccompanied children, detention facilities, etc.

Refugees and migrants includes asylum-seekers, beneficiaries of international protection and people out of the asylum procedure.

Departures to the mainland mainly include: i) transfers in the context of IOM Assisted Voluntary Return and Reintegration programme, ii) transfers of unaccompanied children to State-run facilities, iii) organized transfers supported by the government, including controlled facilities for temporary accommodation of asylum-seekers in the mainland/sites, and iv) those who depart on their own means.

Data Sources: Population data - Partial Data from the Government and other sources; Arrivals/Departures - Hellenic Police, Hellenic Coastguard

Figures are subject to future adjustment based on consolidated figures provided by the authorities. Percentages may not add up to 100 due to rounding and slightly differ between the text and graphs.

The boundaries, the names shown and the designations used on the map do not imply official endorsement or acceptance by the United Nations.