

NDUTA CAMP PROFILE

Population figures and trends

13,055 total individuals hosted in the camp

Post May 2015

Pre influx

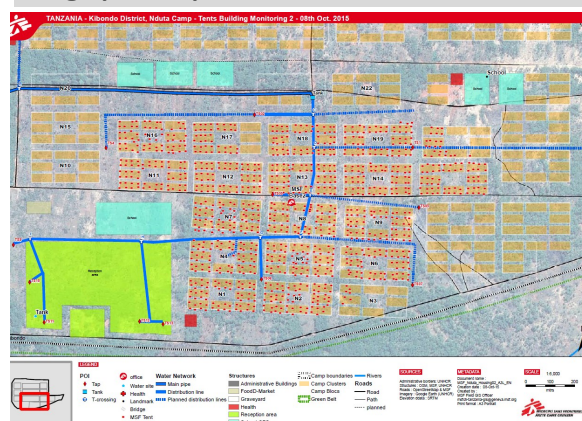

108,004 refugees from Burundi

2,865 refugees from Burundi

Demography of total Population in Nyarugusu and Nduta camps

Male (49.9%)	Age	(50.1%) Female
9.9%	0 - 4	9.7%
11.4%	5 - 11	11.3%
8.3%	12 - 17	8.2%
19.4%	18 - 59	19.7%
0.9%	60 +	1.2%

Geographic snapshot

Location	Kibondo region—Tanzania
Internal subdivision	Each zone divided into Blocks
Authority	Ministry of Home Affairs (MHA) - Government of United Rep. of Tanzania

Services provided in Nduta Camp

PROTECTION

- Registration
- Protection monitoring
- Tracing and family reunification
- Transportation from way-stations
- Individual counseling
- SGBV response and prevention
- Child protection case mgmt
- Communication with Communities through Key Messages

- HIV-AIDS treatment and prevention activities

NUTRITION

- Supplementary feeding (blanket)
- Screening on malnutrition
- Treatment of malnutrition

WASH

- Hygiene Promotion
- Construction of sanitation facilities

FOOD

- Wet feeding to new arrivals
- General food distribution

NFI /CRI distribution

- Distribution of standard Core Relief Items and Non food items

CAMP COORDINATION

- Coordination of all activities

HEALTH

- Primary health care
- Emergency secondary health care
- Cholera/Malaria prevention and response

13,055

Today's camp population in Nduta of both caseload relocated from Nyarugusu and daily arrivals from border points

7,126

Number of new arrivals who have received Core Relief Items [CRIs/NFIs] out of 5,973 new refugees in Nduta to date.

5,929

Number of refugees relocated from Nyarugusu to Nduta to date