Daily Situation Report on the Situation Pertaining to Syria

August 1, 2012

There are no new numbers announced by the Turkish Government. Officially as of August 1, 2012 the total camp population is 44,038 with the arrival of 525 persons and return of 532 persons on July 30-31, 2012.

1. Highlights:

- ❖ From May 24 to August 1, 2012 there has been an increase of 81 % in the total number of Syrians currently receiving temporary protection from the Turkish Government.
 - ❖ Regional Representative of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs reported that the trend of new arrivals remained to be the same as 400-600 persons per day.
 - ❖ There is an increasing trend in the number of people from Idlib and surrounding villages who would like to return voluntarily. During voluntary repatriation interviews, many of the applicants explained the reason of their return as no more security risk was perceived in their place of origin. Some people informed that they would like to return to go back and take care of their property because they were afraid of losing of their property.
 - ❖ Some of the returnees are even from Aleppo and stated that they would like to return to Aleppo because they heard that there was no fight in their place of origin.
 - ❖ The Camp Management of Yayladağı YIBO (all Turkomans) informed UNHCR staff in the field that they had opened two pre-school classes and two vocational classes will be opened in the camp during this week.
 - ❖ All the new arrivals are referred to the camp in Ceylanpınar. Reportedly 70-75 % of the new arrivals are from Aleppo and surrounding villages.

Total number of registered persons from December 16, 2011 to July 31, 2012 is reflected below.
