Highlights

- On 08 July 2013, AFAD - the Disaster and Emergency Management Agency of Government of Turkey - announced that the total number of Syrians registered and accommodated in 20 camps in 10 provinces was 200,030. The total number includes 504 Syrians receiving medical treatment in hospitals. AFAD reported that during the last 24hrs (7-8 July), 386 new arrivals were admitted and accommodated in the camps while some 399 Syrians voluntarily returned to Syria.
- While the authorities started to transfer the Syrians in the makeshift camp in Kilis park to Mardin-Midyat, UNHCR Team witnessed that some teenagers were staying in another park. The group informed UNHCR that there are approximately 100 teenagers are living in this separate park. The local police informed UNHCR Team that there are also some 20 families living in a mosque in Kilis. Local authorities informed UNHCR that around 700 people have been transferred from the Kilis Musalla Park to the Mardin-Midyat camp, and about 140 voluntarily returned to Syria through the assistance from local police. The local police assume that there might be more people who either returned to Syria spontaneously or moved elsewhere, while some might have also found accommodation with their relatives and friends.
- Camp officials of Islahiye informed UNHCR Field Team that the number of Syrians living in the mosque next to the camp is increasing everyday and already some 300 people are living in the mosque. Reportedly these Syrians have requested to be admitted to Islahiye camp, however, due to shortage of space they are not admitted. UNHCR Field Team will visit the Sub-Governor to inform him of the Kilis Park example, which may also be a good practice to handle the group.
- In Islahiye Camp, officials informed UNHCR Field Team that they are continuing to renew the old tents and some 482 tents will soon be replaced with UNHCR donated tents. Camp officials also confirmed to UNHCR Field Team that 1,800 kitchen cabinets donated by UNHCR have arrived to the camp and will be distributed to the Syrian families.
