6	Education strategy outline presented by Sonia Khoury: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • A letter has been sent from the MEHE to the Prime Minister office asking the cabinet what is the ceiling that the MEHE can cover. • We will have a higher number of Lebanese in the public schools this year to the fact that some private schools closed, mainly in Tripoli, and some families cannot afford the private schools anymore due to the economic situation. • Priority is given to Lebanese students as per the law • Registration ends in September 23, but will be extended to October 10th. Children students will be accepted in the first shift till the end of October • The schools will accommodate the numbers that they can in the morning shifts and the remaining students will be moved to second shift. The deadline of registration in second shift has not been decided yet. • Before deciding on opening a second shift children who were not able to enrol in the first shift, will be advised to enrol in a neighbouring school, and when all neighbouring school have no more capacity, a second shift will be opened • Concerning the payment of committee of parents, and as per the law, the student should pay it to 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Sharing the ceiling of Syrian students that will be taken in charge by the government (fees and books) with the EWG 	MEHE	ASAP
		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • MEHE will inform the regional directors that they can prepare

9	Steering Committee ToRs: the ToRs were prepared and sent to all EWG partners	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Feedback on the ToRs (do they correspond to the needs, what is missing, etc.) to be sent to Kirsten before the next EWG If an NGOs is not funded by UNICEF and UNHCR and is not listed in the steering committee participants, they should contact UNHCR 	ALL EWG partners Any partner	Before next EWG Before next EWG
10	Contingency plan: document prepared by the steering committee about what the participating organization can do today if 30000 new children are sitting on the border	If there is an NGO who is ready to go or that has additional emergency supplies, they should contact Kirsten	Any partner	ASAP
11	Passing rate of Syrian students	If any NGO is willing to work on analysing the results of the Syrian children who were enrolled in public schools, this will be discussed in the next EWG	Any partner	ASAP
