- On 29 May 2014, AFAD - the Disaster and Emergency Management Agency of Government of Turkey - announced that the total number of Syrians registered and assisted in 22 camps located in 10 provinces was 220,579. AFAD reported that during the period of 29-30 May 2014, a total of 296 Syrians were admitted and registered in the camps and 273 Syrians voluntarily returned to Syria.

- In Karkamis camp, officials informed UNHCR that there are about 40 people (5 families) staying in a mosque in Karkamis town and another 12 persons (2 families) living in the nearby village. It is reported that the newly-arrived families living in the village have come from Aleppo.

The camp officials informed UNHCR that, due to space shortages in the camp, they cannot admit new arrivals. However, the camp officials also stated that they are in contact with other camps as well as AFAD Hq. to find space in other camps for these newly-arrived families and to transfer them to one of the other camps. In the meantime, the Karkamis camp will provide medical assistance as needed to these families through the camp's health facilities.

- Camp officials in Karkamis informed UNHCR that social workers there have conducted a camp survey, visiting all the tents/households and have identified the physically disabled people. The survey reportedly identified about 125 camp residents as having physical disabilities. The camp officials also informed UNHCR that they are working on establishing a committee composed of representatives from Kizilay, AFAD, and a representative from Ministry of Food and Agriculture to monitor the prices of products both in the camp market and outside to prevent any abusive increases in camp market prices.

- In Nizip-1 camp, officials informed UNHCR that the number of Syrians approaching the gate with the request to be admitted to the camp has changing during the week. It is reported that there are about 27 people waiting at the gate of the camp. During the past week about 14 individuals have been referred to the camp by local authorities and were admitted to the waiting area of the camp until they can be accommodated in an available tent.

- In Adiyaman, more than 120 Syrians requested to be admitted to the camp. However like in
