OVERVIEW

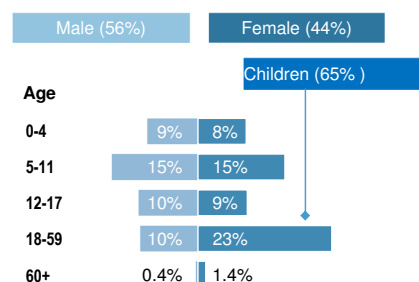

Pugnido is the oldest refugee camp in the Gambella Region of Western Ethiopia. Pugnido hosts South Sudan refugees who arrived in different waves – since 1993, in 2012 and following post-December 2013 conflicts in the country of origin.

Refugee population in Pugnido 1

A total of 68,176 persons of concern

Figures were frozen 31 August 2018 due to the roll-out of a new registration system aiming to enhance refugee data

RECENT DEVELOPMENTS

The camp is at care and maintenance phase. The majority of refugees are in a protracted refugee situation whereas there are refugees who arrived post 2013 SSD conflict. The last time refugees were received was late 2014 and early 2015. The comprehensive Level 3 registration was launched on 06 September 2018. In December, UNHCR, ARRA, and partners have completed the Comprehensive Level 3 Registration and Biometric Identity Management System (BIMS) exercise. Registration of latecomers is ongoing as part of the “Continuous Registration”. A total of 39,142 individuals in 8,383 households were verified so far as of 30 April against an initial target population of 68,176.
