

Cash Assistance Update

Islam, a ten-year-old refugee from Syria, helps her father with the groceries at the local super market while holding her one-year old sister Rawan. The family of nine fled Syria in 2017 and are now settled in an apartment in Tripoli, Peloponnese, where Islam and her siblings are attending school. UNHCR provides cash-assistance to restore dignity, increase empowerment and allow people the choice of how to cover their basic needs, as part of the EU-funded ESTIA programme.

Overview

In January, 93,976 eligible refugees and asylum-seekers (47,075 families) received cash assistance in Greece, in 119 locations.

UNHCR provides cash assistance in Greece, as part of the ESTIA programme, funded by the European Commission. Cash assistance restores dignity and empowers asylum-seekers and refugees who can now choose how to cover their basic needs. It also contributes directly to the economy of the host community through the purchase of services and goods. UNHCR in Greece works with the Greece Cash Alliance partners the International Federation of Red Cross and Red Crescent Societies (IFRC) and Catholic Relief Services (CRS).
