

SERBIA MONTHLY UPDATE

The number of observed arrivals somewhat decreased counting 1,649 (from 2,703 in October): 74% arrived from North Macedonia, 16% from Albania (through Kosovo¹), 5% from Montenegro and smaller numbers from Bosnia and Herzegovina (BiH), Bulgaria, Hungary, etc.; three persons arrived by air from Turkey. 66% originated from Afghanistan, 17% from Syria, 4% from Pakistan, etc.; 82% were adult males, 3% women and 15% children, including 162 UASC (comp. to 279 in October). In Jan-Nov 2020, 24,180 new refugees and migrants have been observed to have arrived in Serbia.

Eight new cases of Covid-19 amongst the refugees/migrants were reported in November, luckily without casualties, bringing the total number of cases recorded since March to 17. With additional amounts of PPE and disinfectants, also bed linen, procured for and delivered to SCRM and Vranje hospital.

Ninety-seven intentions to seek asylum were registered in November (compared to 173 in October) and seven persons applied for asylum (20 in October). The Asylum Office (AO) adjudicated on 14 asylum applications by granting refugee status to one person and subsidiary protection to three (represented by UNHCR project lawyers), and by rejecting applications of another 10 persons. By end-November, AO has granted international protection in Serbia to 34 persons (16 have been granted asylum and 18 subsidiary protection) in 2020.

Serbian public was touched by the story of K.M. - Syrian man accommodated in Sombor Reception/Transit Centre (RTC), who initiated a money collection amongst Arabic-speaking residents of this RTC for Serbian children who suffer from rare illnesses which require expensive treatments abroad. Like a domino effect, this initiative spread amongst all residents of Sombor, Kikinda and Obrenovac RTCs and Krnjača and Tutin Asylum Centres (AC), with the positive media carrying the story under the title „Migrants collecting money for treatment of children from Serbia“.

Partner Belgrade Centre for Human Rights (BCHR) published their periodic report on Right to Asylum in the Republic of Serbia for July-September 2020.

The number of persons pushed back from neighbouring countries in November – counting 3,467– again, like in October, by far exceeds the number of monthly arrivals.

The number of residents in Asylum or Reception/Transit Centres, again increased by 10% to 6,938 at the end of the month. They comprised 3,217 citizens of Afghanistan, 1,526 of Syria, 382 of Pakistan, 322 of Bangladesh, 291 of Morocco and 1,200 from 48 other countries. 5,984 are adult men, 272 adult women and 682 children, including 259 UASC. With increased movement towards the EU borders, especially Romania and Hungary, avoidance of Covid-prevention isolation measures in centres and fear of another lockdown, the number of foreigners observed staying rough again increased by 48% to 2,200 in the middle of the month. A total of 8,609 new refugees and migrants were counted to be present in the country at end-November.

In order to decrease the number of refugees/migrants staying outside of government centres and to decrease the pressure on overflowing centres in the north and the west, the authorities engaged in three coordinated police actions which resulted in 1,650 persons transported and accommodated in the centres with more vacancies in the south(-east) of the country.

According to available information, 151 refugee and migrant children were attending 28 schools in Serbia, of which 130 were attending primary (65% of all children of primary school age), 16 are attending secondary schools (5% of all children of secondary school age - over 14s) and five are attending pre-school); 85% were attending classes online and 15% in person.
