UNHCR's Chief of Mission completed a one-week mission in Benghazi, made jointly with the WFP Country Director. During the week, the mission was able to visit Al Haleis Tawerghan internally displaced persons' (IDP) settlement, the biggest in east, where they met with IDPs and the camp's management. There was also an opportunity to attend LibAid's distribution of CRIs and hygiene kits to 20 families (137 individuals) of Murzuq IDPs hosted in Benghazi (with 486 families/2,785 individuals reached in this distribution campaign). On the same day, WFP distributed food baskets. At the IDP settlement in Ejdabia the party witnessed shelter rehabilitation implemented by UNHCR-Norwegian Refugee Council (NRC). To the north of Benghazi city, at Sidi Khalifa, a visit was made to the UNHCR-UNICEF BluePrint school, to meet the school manager, the teachers and students. Throughout the week, the mission was able to meet with several mayors and municipal representatives, as well as with other Libyan officials, where they discussed overall needs, as well as IDP and refugee/migration issues. On 19 June, the CoM visited Ganfouda detention centre, the main detention centre in the north-east, meeting both the centre's management and the detainees.
