Edgar Woynowski – Displacement Tracking Matrix on TCNs

- The Displacement Tracking Matrix is a system to track and monitor the displacement and population mobility. It is designed to regularly and systematically capture, process and disseminate information to provide a better understanding of the movements and evolving needs of displaced populations, whether on site or en route.
- To date at least 103,428 non-Ukrainian and non-Polish nationals of 182 different nationalities were evacuated to Poland from Ukraine (155,594 total TCN arrivals reported). Of those evacuated, 13% of TCNs were EU nationals, while the remaining 87% were nationals from other countries.
- Five top nationalities among TCNs leaving Ukraine are: Uzbeks, Russians, Indians, Belarussian and Americans.
- Three quarters of the evacuations of TCNs occurred before 10 March (75%), while just 25 per cent of all were reported after 10 March.
- Main needs of TCNs which were identified by the survey are: information support, documentation and legal services, accommodation, employment and transport support.
