The boundaries and names shown and the designations used on this map do not imply official endorsement or acceptance by the United Nations.

KEY FIGURES

- Total IDPs in Southern Africa: 6,711,404
- Conflict Induced IDPs: 6,326,834
- Natural Disaster IDPs: 384,570

Republic of the Congo: 159,830
- Conflict Induced IDPs: 134,430
- Natural Disaster IDPs: 25,400

Democratic Republic of the Congo: 5,609,090
- Conflict Induced IDPs: 5,407,840
- Natural Disaster IDPs: 201,250

Zimbabwe: 41,535
- Conflict Induced IDPs: 41,535

Mozambique: 900,949
- Conflict Induced IDPs: 784,564
- Natural Disaster IDPs: 116,385

Lesotho: 25,400
- Natural Disaster IDPs: 25,400

South Africa: 6,326,834
- Natural Disaster IDPs: 384,570

Other countries and territories mentioned include Angola, Zambia, Mozambique, Madagascar, Seychelles, Comoros, Namibia, Democratic Republic of the Congo, Mauritius, and Madagascar. The map illustrates the distribution of IDPs (Internally Displaced Persons) due to natural disasters and conflict in Southern Africa.