According to the latest available figures from the Turkish Presidency of Migration Management (PMM), there are more than 5.2 million foreign nationals present in Turkish territory, 3.7 million of whom are seeking international protection. Most are Syrians (3,763,864 individuals) who are granted temporary protection status. In addition, international protection applicants from countries including Afghanistan, the Islamic Republic of Iran and Iraq constitute another group of foreign nationals. According to PMM, there were 29,256 international protection applicants present in Türkiye in 2021, published annually. Moreover, according to UNHCR, there are close to 330,000 international protection status holders and asylum-seekers. The number of foreign nationals has increased by 86,301 in comparison to May 2021 (3.7 million foreign nationals).

In addition, there are 1,423,635 foreign nationals present in Türkiye holding residency permits, including humanitarian residency holders. Compared to May 2021, this is an increase of 304,309 individuals. The exact number of humanitarian residency holders is unknown, but it is estimated that there are more than several thousand humanitarian residency permit holders.

Syrians under Temporary Protection

Türkiye’s temporary protection regime grants the 3,763,864* Syrian nationals the right to legally stay in Türkiye as well as obtain some level of access to basic services. The vast majority - 3,713,571* individuals - live outside of formal camps, known as temporary accommodation centers, thus primarily residing across the Turkish border provinces of Hatay, Adana and Kilis. As such, only 50,293* Syrians live in formal camps, the majority of which are located close to the Syrian border. The number of temporary accommodation centers in May 2022 (7 centers) are the same as May 2021 hosting migrants in Türkiye. However, 5,679 fewer Syrians currently reside in the centers compared to previous year.

Residence Permit Holders

Foreigners who seek stay in Türkiye beyond the duration of a visa or visa exemption -i.e. longer than 90 days, must obtain a residence permit. According to PMM, there are 1,423,635* residence permit holders in Türkiye with various categories of the residence permit, including "other". The latter category includes humanitarian residence permit holders, and while the exact number is unknown, it is believed that the vast majority of foreign nationals in this category are Iraqis.

 UNHCR ended registration process in Türkiye on 10 September 2018. The registration process will continue with the procedure carried out by the Turkish authorities (UNHCR). The number of international protection holders is not publicly available as of the date above.
The Turkish Coast Guard (TCG) recorded 4,680* irregular migrants and no fatalities in May 2022. Comparing to May 2021, there is an increase of 3,818 apprehended individuals, when 862 irregular migrants were recorded. These figures only include those apprehended and rescued by the TCG, while the actual number of migrants and refugees departing Türkiye by sea may be higher. Apprehensions at the so-called ‘hotspots’ on the Aegean Sea are shown in the map (left).

Upon identification of the apprehended persons, the latter are referred to removal centers by the Turkish Gendarmerie or are issued a deportation letter, unless they claim asylum. However, apprehended individuals have the right to claim asylum after being referred to a removal center or issued deportation letters. The top ten nationalities of apprehended/rescued migrants are Syrian, Yemeni, Afghan, Liberian, Egyptian, Congolese, Palestinian, Eritrean, Iraqi and Bengali.

Resettlement of Syrians from Türkiye

The 18 March 2016 EU-Türkiye Statement aims to replace disorganized and irregular migratory flows by facilitating organized and safe pathways to European countries. Specifically, the statement stipulates that for every Syrian returned to Türkiye from the Greek islands, another Syrian will be resettled directly to Europe from Türkiye. According to PMM data released on 2 June 2022, there are 33,792 persons that have been resettled under this instrument, with primary resettlement destinations being Germany, France, the Netherlands and Sweden.
