Urban Refugee Population in Addis Ababa
November 2022

72,433 Individuals
44,876 Households

Type of population
- Eritreans self-relocated from Tigray: 43,055 (60%)
- Eritreans in Addis Ababa not self-relocated: 23,612 (32%)
- Other nationalities: 5,766 (8%)
Total: 72,433

Country of origin
Refugees living in Addis Ababa come from 28 different countries
- Eritrea: 66,667 (92%)
- Yemen: 2,430 (3%)
- Somalia: 930
- Syrian Arab Rep.: 668
- South Sudan: 655
- Congo DRC: 482
- Sudan: 160
- Burundi: 72
- Djibouti: 55
- Others*: 109

Demography
- Children (0-17 years): 36%
- Adults (18-59 years): 64%
- Elderly (60+): 1%

Household representatives
- Female: 57%
- Male: 43%

Urban population trends | Jan 2021 - July 2022
- Total urban refugee population: 72,433
- Eritrean refugees: 43,055
- Other nationalities: 5,766

The refugee population in Addis Ababa has doubled since January 2021, mainly due to self-relocation movements of Eritrean refugees from Tigray region.

Persons with specific needs
- Women at risk: 1,624
- Single parent: 3,102
- Child at risk: 1,285
- Unaccompanied or separated child: 1,294
- Serious medical condition: 835
- Persons with disability: 258

Update date: 19 December 2022
Sources: Refugees Returnees Service (RRS), UNHCR proGres
Feedback: ETHADIM@unhcr.org
Design: Information Management unit Addis Ababa
Further documents and information are available on UNHCR data-portal Ethiopia page, please click on the following link: https://data.unhcr.org/en/country/eth