Agenda	Introductions Matters arising last meeting Presentation General discussion
Main Topic
	Presentation of findings from the first phase of multi-country documentation of barriers to accessing SRH and GBV services for refugees fleeing the war in Ukraine by Irina Mateescu (Independent Midwives Association), Andrada Cilibiu (FILIA Center), Ioana Popa (Equal Advice) and Adriana Lamačková (Center for Reproductive Rights). A recording of the presentation is available on the shared drive.
	Update: Safe spaces for women providing gender sensitive SRH and GBV services have now been set up by EEIRH in conjunction with UNFPA. They each have employed Ukrainian/Russian speakers who have worked as professionals in SRH/GBV in Ukraine. Details of where the spaces are located and contact for co-ordinators can be found under resources.
	Update: EEIRH announced trainings on clinical management of rape (CMR) in the 10 sexual violence centres run by ANES in the next few months. These trainings are in partnership with WHO and UNFPA.
	IMA reported on an initiative for free HPV vaccinations of boys aged 11-18 years (for refugees from Ukraine and those living in Romania) to commence over January during cervical cancer prevention month. The aim was to raise awareness and advocacy about the importance of immunising boys as well as girls.

	UNHCR GBV coordinator commented on the overlap between SRH and GBV working groups and encouraged members to add any trainings or activities to the GBV calendar accessed here: GBV sub-WG training Calendar 2023.docx (sharepoint.com)
