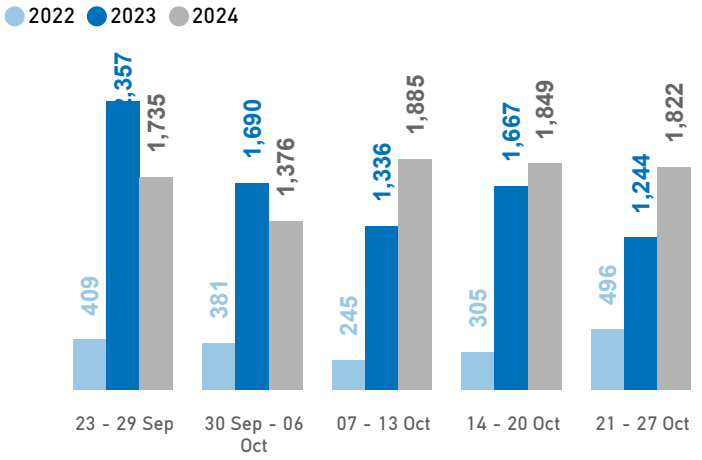
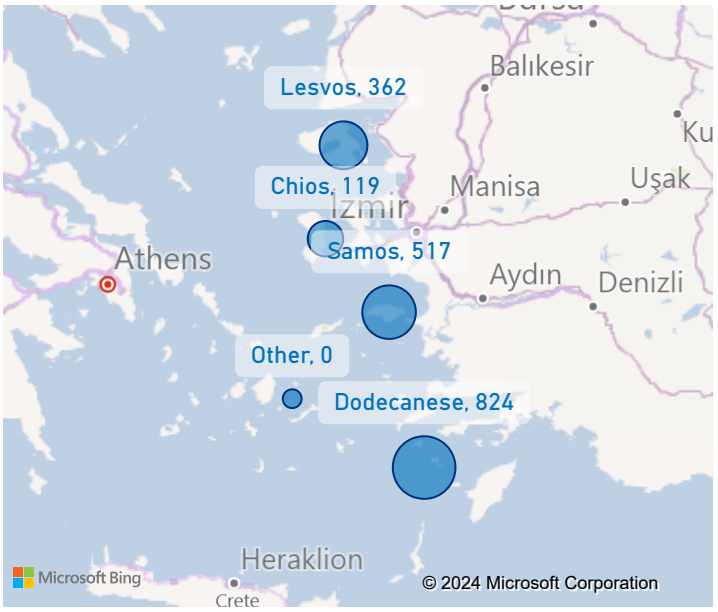
Aegean Islands Weekly Snapshot

Sea arrivals

This week, the Aegean islands saw 1,822 arrivals, a decrease from last week's 1,849.
The average of the daily arrivals on the Aegean islands for this week is 260.



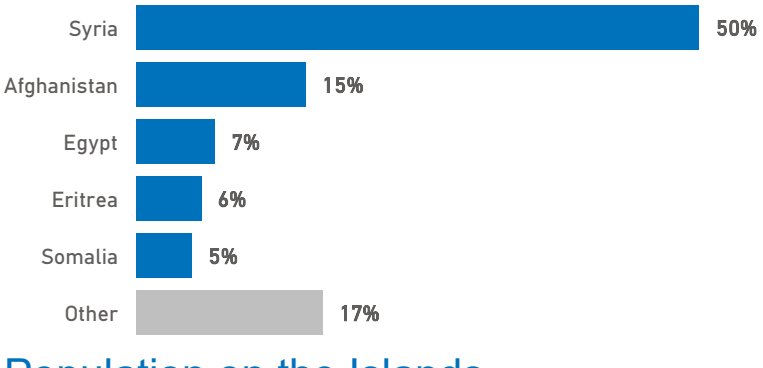
Entry Points

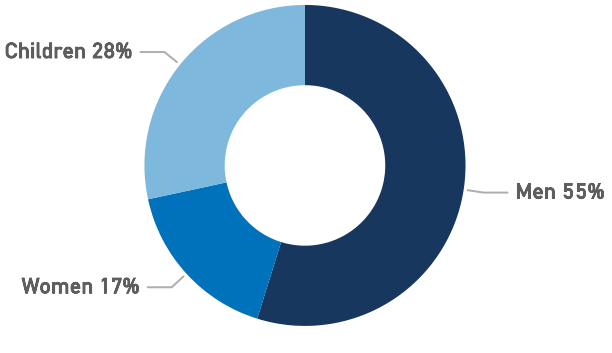


Population in the CCACs

Currently, 10,703 refugees and migrants reside in the Closed Controlled Access Center(s).

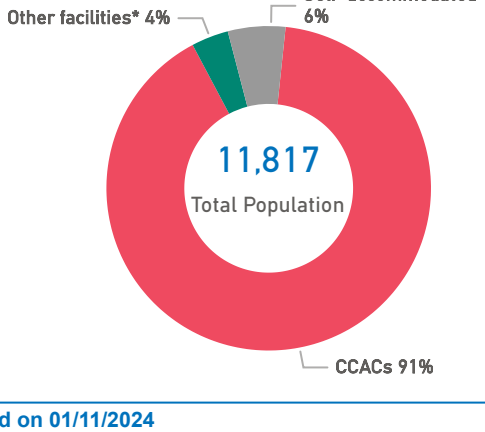
Most of them are from Syria (50%), Afghanistan (15%) and Egypt (7%). Men account for 55% of the population, women for 17% and children for 28%.





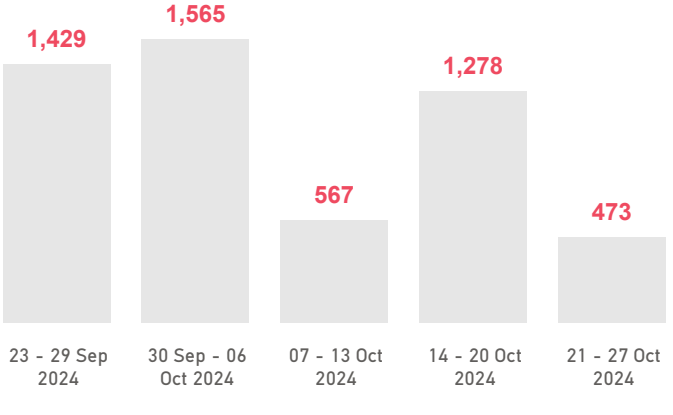
Population on the Islands

There are 11,817 refugees and migrants on the Aegean islands. Out of this total, 10,703 reside at the CCACs and 437 are hosted in other facilities. UNHCR estimates that there are also 677 self-accommodated in the islands.



Departures

This week, 473 refugees and migrants departed from the Aegean islands to the mainland.



Published on 01/11/2024

more information: [UNHCR Operational Portal - Greece]

Other facilities include shelters for unaccompanied children, detention facilities, etc.

Refugees and migrants includes asylum-seekers, beneficiaries of international protection and people out of the asylum procedure.

Departures to the mainland mainly include: i) transfers in the context of IOM Assisted Voluntary Return and Reintegration programme, ii) transfers of unaccompanied children to State-run facilities, iii) organized transfers supported by the government, including controlled facilities for temporary accommodation of asylum-seekers in the mainland/sites, and iv) those who depart on their own means.

Data Sources: Population data - Partial Data from the Government and other sources; Arrivals/Departures - Hellenic Police, Hellenic Coastguard

Figures are subject to future adjustment based on consolidated figures provided by the authorities. Percentages may not add up to 100 due to rounding and slightly differ between the text and graphs.

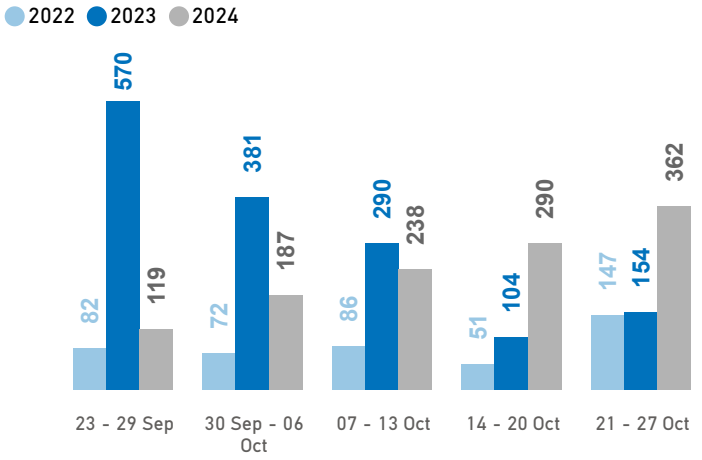
The boundaries, the names shown and the designations used on the map do not imply official endorsement or acceptance by the United Nations.

Lesvos Weekly Snapshot

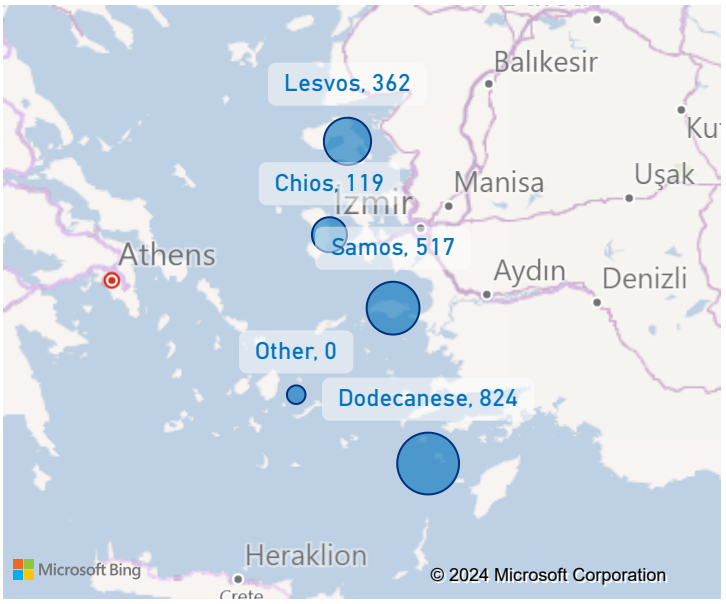
Sea arrivals

This week, Lesvos saw 362 arrivals, an increase from last week's 290.

The average of the daily arrivals on Lesvos for this week is 52.



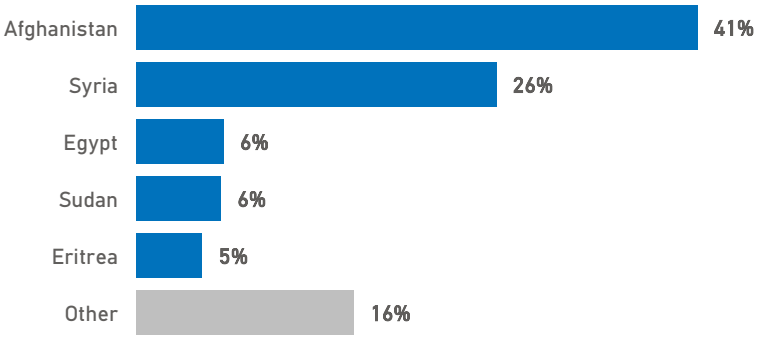
Entry Points

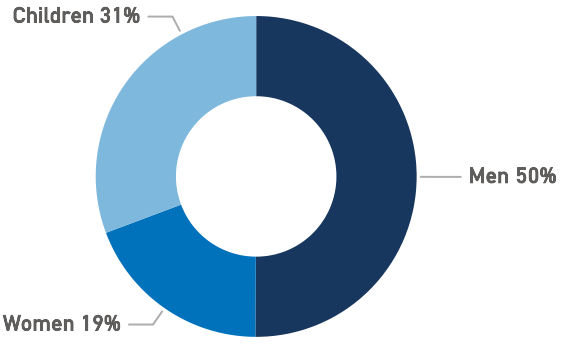


Population in the CCAC

Currently, 1,626 refugees and migrants reside in the Closed Controlled Access Center.

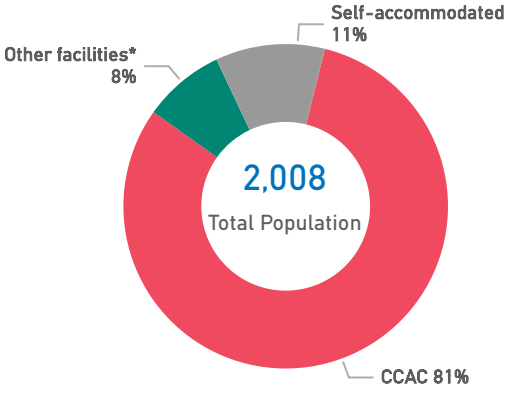
Most of them are from Afghanistan (41%), Syria (26%) and Egypt (6%). Men account for 50% of the population, women for 19% and children for 31%.





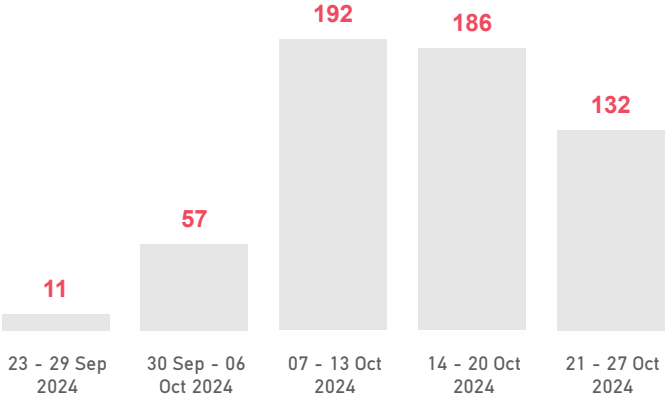
Population on the Island

There are 2,008 refugees and migrants on Lesvos. Out of this total, 1,626 reside at the CCAC and 163 are hosted in other facilities. UNHCR identified 219 self-accommodated refugees in the island up to this date.



Departures

This week, 132 refugees and migrants departed from Lesvos to the mainland.



Published on 01/11/2024

more information: [UNHCR Operational Portal - Greece]

Other facilities include shelters for unaccompanied children, detention facilities, etc.

Refugees and migrants includes asylum-seekers, beneficiaries of international protection and people out of the asylum procedure.

Departures to the mainland mainly include: i) transfers in the context of IOM Assisted Voluntary Return and Reintegration programme, ii) transfers of unaccompanied children to State-run facilities, iii) organized transfers supported by the government, including controlled facilities for temporary accommodation of asylum-seekers in the mainland/sites, and iv) those who depart on their own means.

Data Sources: Population data - Partial Data from the Government and other sources; Arrivals/Departures - Hellenic Police, Hellenic Coastguard

Figures are subject to future adjustment based on consolidated figures provided by the authorities. Percentages may not add up to 100 due to rounding and slightly differ between the text and graphs.

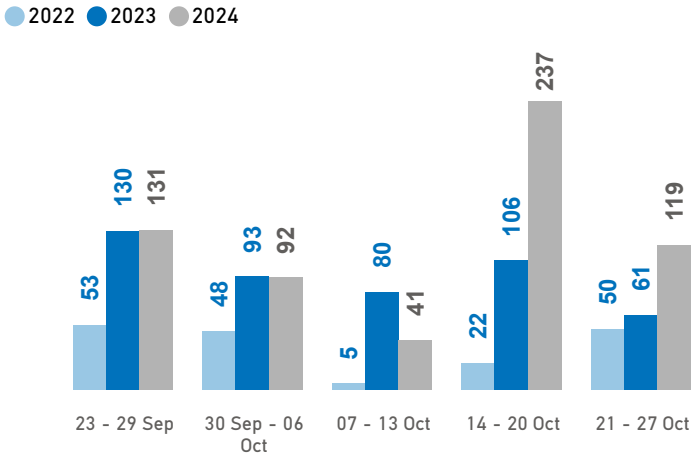
The boundaries, the names shown and the designations used on the map do not imply official endorsement or acceptance by the United Nations.

Chios Island Weekly Snapshot

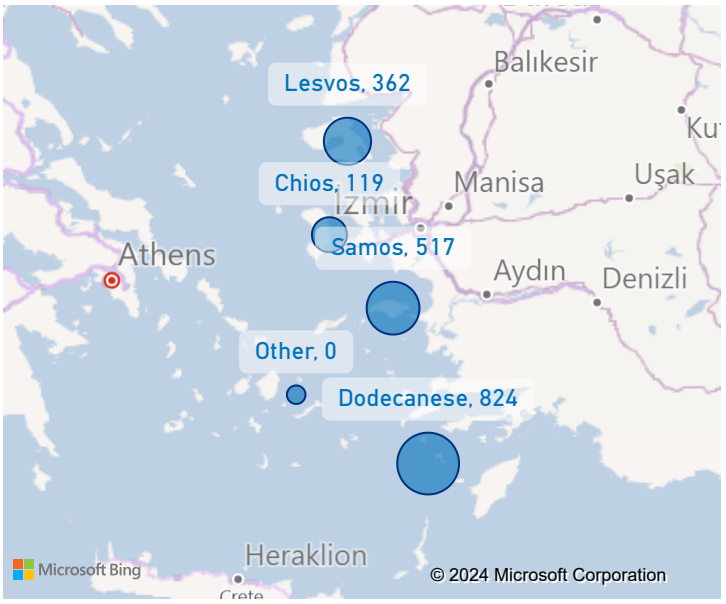
Sea arrivals

This week, Chios island saw 119 arrivals, a decrease from last week's 237.

The average of the daily arrivals on Chios island for this week is 17.



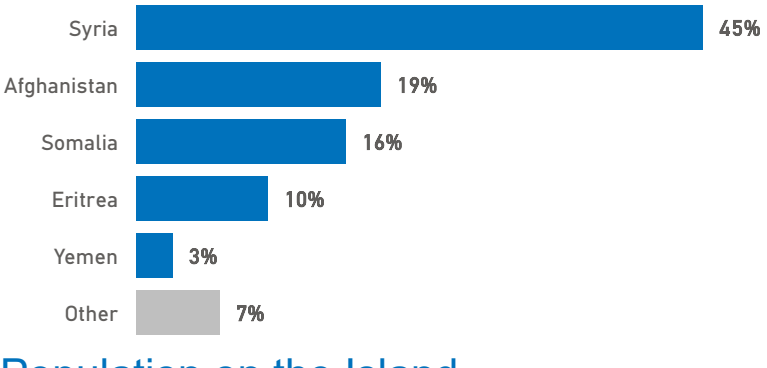
Entry Points

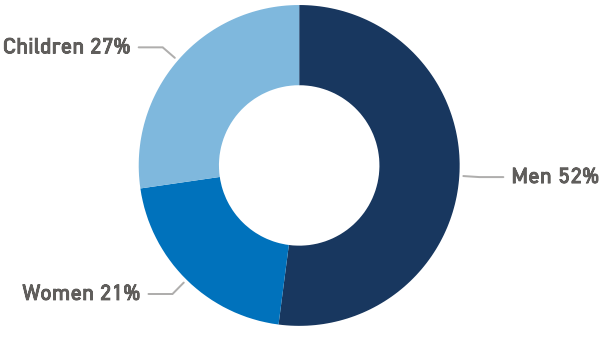


Population in the CCAC

Currently, 933 refugees and migrants reside in the Closed Controlled Access Center.

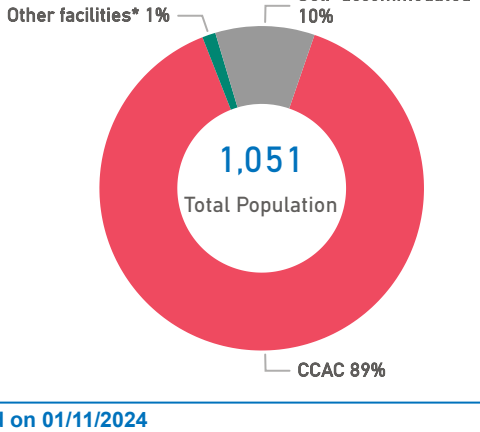
Most of them are from Syria (45%), Afghanistan (19%) and Somalia (16%). Men account for 52% of the population, women for 21% and children for 27%.





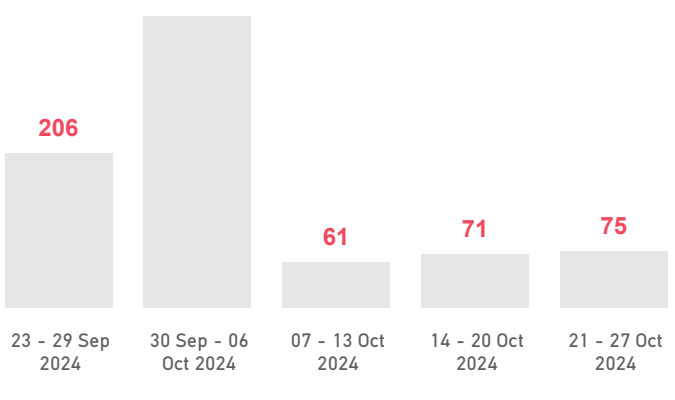
Population on the Island

There are 1,051 refugees and migrants on Chios island. Out of this total, 933 reside at the CCAC and 14 are hosted in other facilities. UNHCR estimates that there are also 104 self-accommodated in the island.



Departures

This week, 75 refugees and migrants departed from Chios island to the mainland



Published on 01/11/2024

more information: [UNHCR Operational Portal - Greece]

Other facilities include shelters for unaccompanied children, detention facilities, etc.

Refugees and migrants includes asylum-seekers, beneficiaries of international protection and people out of the asylum procedure.

Departures to the mainland mainly include: i) transfers in the context of IOM Assisted Voluntary Return and Reintegration programme, ii) transfers of unaccompanied children to State-run facilities, iii) organized transfers supported by the government, including controlled facilities for temporary accommodation of asylum-seekers in the mainland/sites, and iv) those who depart on their own means.

Data Sources: Population data - Partial Data from the Government and other sources; Arrivals/Departures - Hellenic Police, Hellenic Coastguard

Figures are subject to future adjustment based on consolidated figures provided by the authorities. Percentages may not add up to 100 due to rounding and slightly differ between the text and graphs.

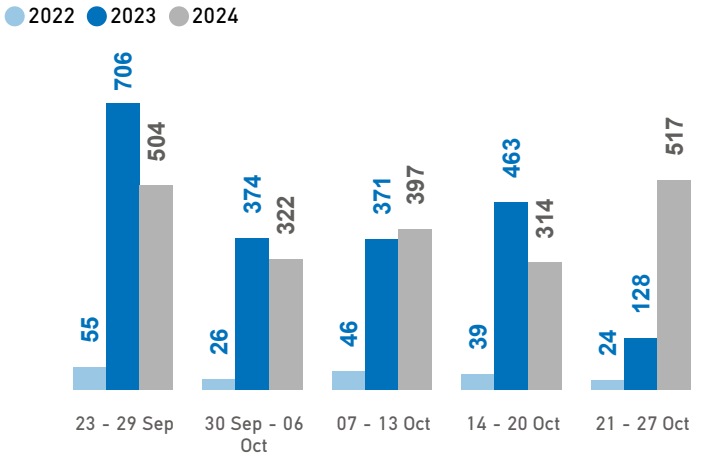
The boundaries, the names shown and the designations used on the map do not imply official endorsement or acceptance by the United Nations.

Samos Island Weekly Snapshot

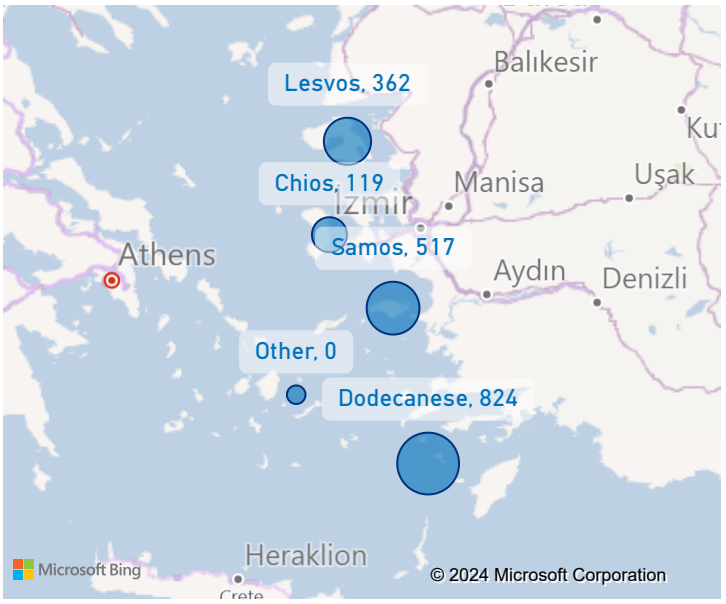
Sea arrivals

This week, Samos island saw 517 arrivals, an increase from last week's 314.

The average of the daily arrivals on Samos island for this week is 74.



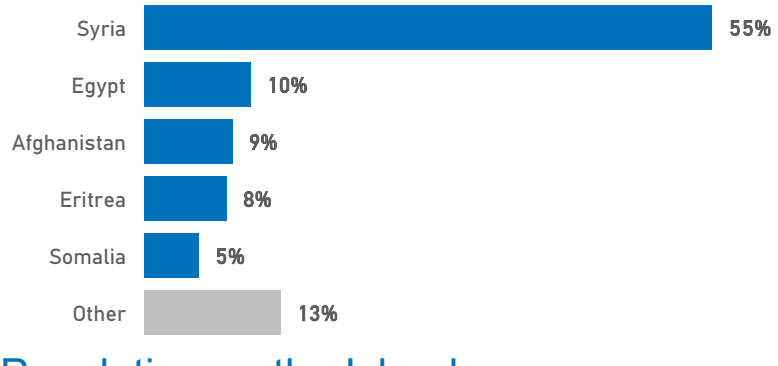
Entry Points

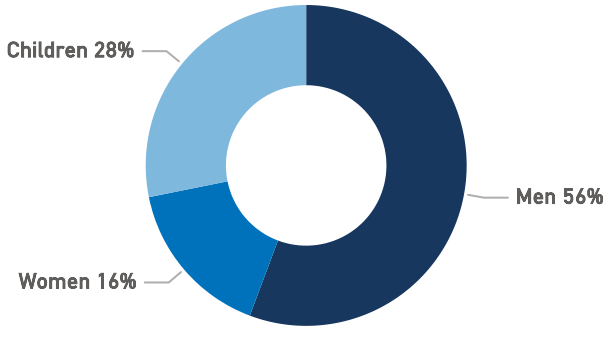


Population in the CCAC

Currently, 4,129 refugees and migrants reside in the Closed Controlled Access Center.

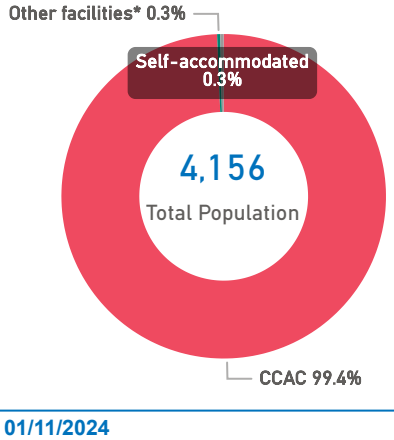
Most of the registered population are from Syria (55%), Egypt (10%) and Afghanistan (9%). Men account for 56% of the population, women for 16% and children for 28%.





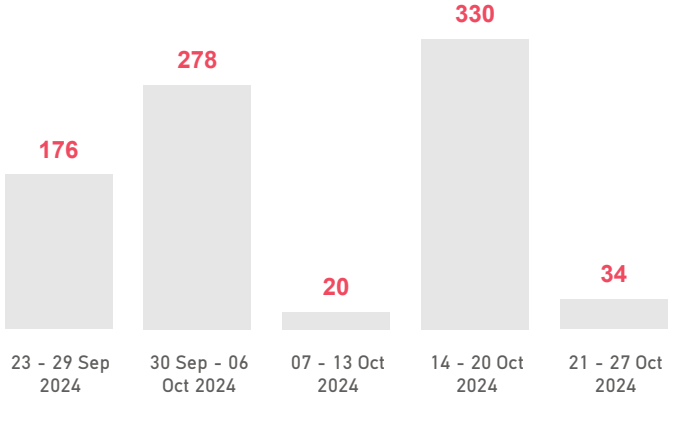
Population on the Island

There are 4,156 refugees and migrants on Samos island. Out of this total, the 4,129 reside at the CCAC and 13 are hosted in other facilities. UNHCR estimates that there are also 14 self-accommodated in the island.



Departures

This week, 34 refugees and migrants departed from Samos island to the mainland.



Published on 01/11/2024

more information: [UNHCR Operational Portal - Greece]

Other facilities include shelters for unaccompanied children, detention facilities, etc.

Refugees and migrants includes asylum-seekers, beneficiaries of international protection and people out of the asylum procedure.

Departures to the mainland mainly include: i) transfers in the context of IOM Assisted Voluntary Return and Reintegration programme, ii) transfers of unaccompanied children to State-run facilities, iii) organized transfers supported by the government, including controlled facilities for temporary accommodation of asylum-seekers in the mainland/sites, and iv) those who depart on their own means.

Data Sources: Population data - Partial Data from the Government and other sources; Arrivals/Departures - Hellenic Police, Hellenic Coastguard

Figures are subject to future adjustment based on consolidated figures provided by the authorities. Percentages may not add up to 100 due to rounding and slightly differ between the text and graphs.

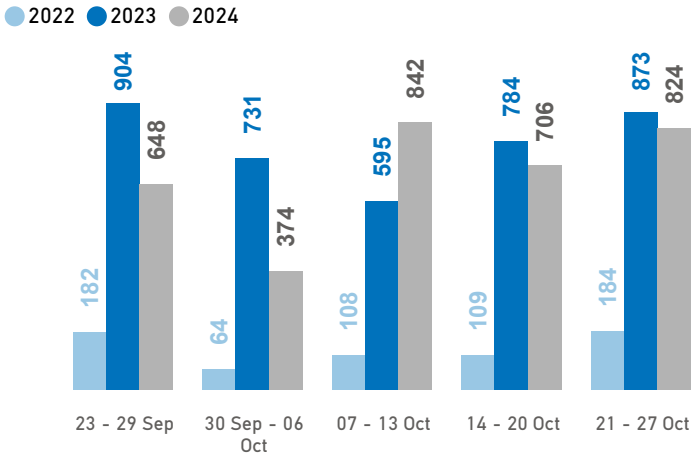
The boundaries, the names shown and the designations used on the map do not imply official endorsement or acceptance by the United Nations.

Dodecanese Islands Weekly Snapshot

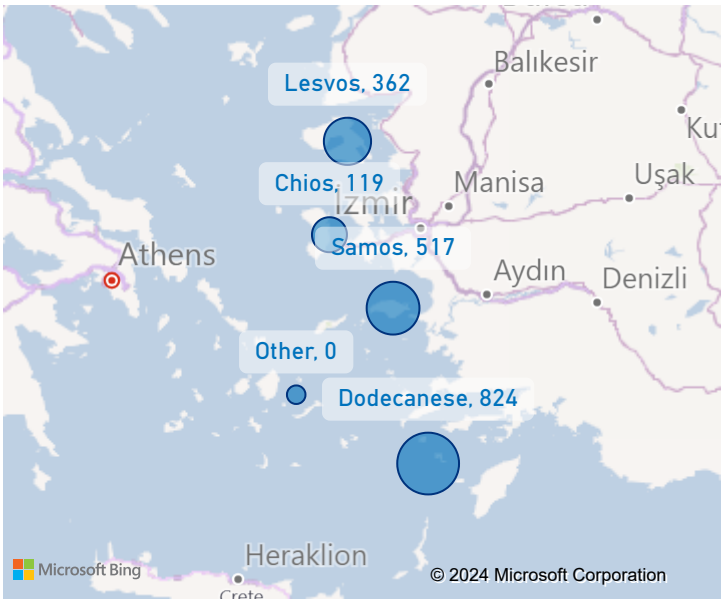
Sea arrivals

This week, the Dodecanese islands saw 824 arrivals, an increase from last week's 706.

The average of the daily arrivals on the Dodecanese islands for this week is 118.



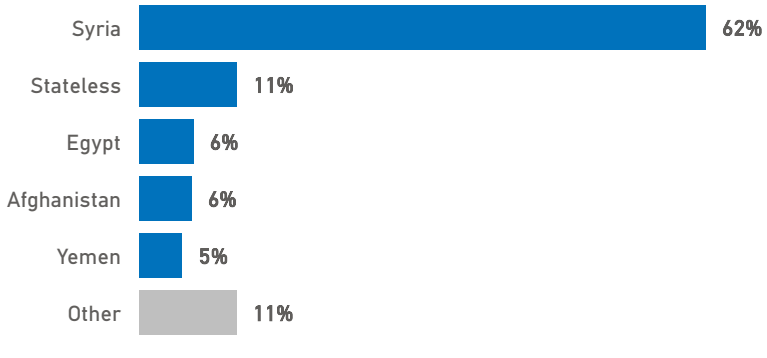
Entry Points

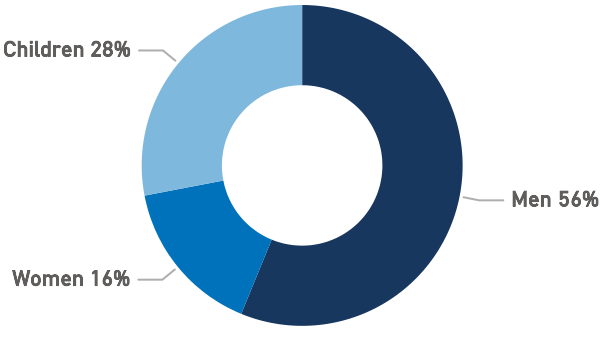


Population in Kos CCAC and Leros CCAC

Currently, 4,015 refugees and migrants reside in Kos CCAC and Leros CCAC.

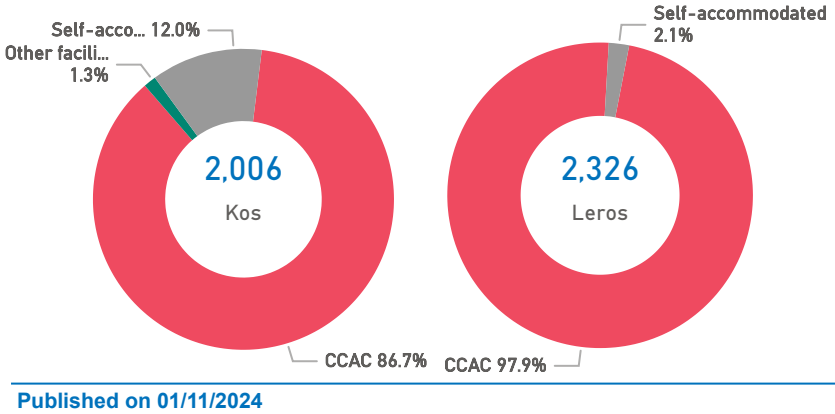
Most of them are from Syria (62%), Stateless (11%) and Egypt (6%). Men account for 56% of the population, women for 16% and children for 28%.





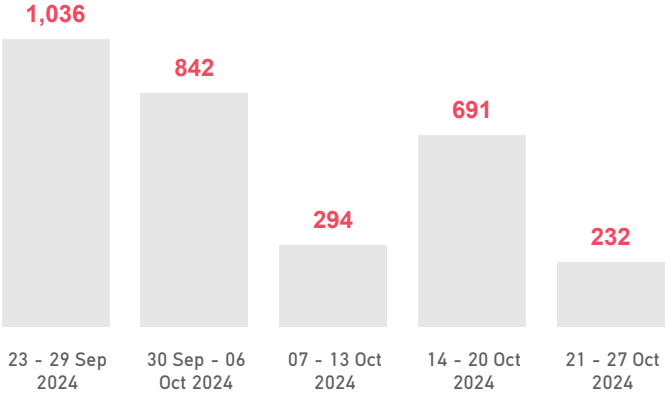
Population on the Dodecanese Islands

There are 4,332 refugees and migrants on the Dodecanese islands. Out of this total, 1,739 reside at the CCAC in Kos, and 2,276 at the CCAC Leros. In Kos, an estimated 240 people are self-accommodated and an additional 27 are hosted in other facilities, while in Leros, an estimated 50 people are self-accommodated, with an additional 0 being hosted in other facilities.



Departures

This week, 232 refugees and migrants departed from the Dodecanese islands to the mainland.



Published on 01/11/2024

more information: [UNHCR Operational Portal - Greece]

*Other facilities include shelters for unaccompanied children, detention facilities, etc.

Refugees and migrants includes asylum-seekers, beneficiaries of international protection and people out of the asylum procedure.

Departures to the mainland mainly include: i) transfers in the context of IOM Assisted Voluntary Return and Reintegration programme, ii) transfers of unaccompanied children to State-run facilities, iii) organized transfers supported by the government, including controlled facilities for temporary accommodation of asylum-seekers in the mainland/sites, and iv) those who depart on their own means.

Data Sources: Population data - Partial Data from the Government and other sources; Arrivals/Departures - Hellenic Police, Hellenic Coastguard

Figures are subject to future adjustment based on consolidated figures provided by the authorities. Percentages may not add up to 100 due to rounding and slightly differ between the text and graphs.

The boundaries, the names shown and the designations used on the map do not imply official endorsement or acceptance by the United Nations.