Syria is not a party to the 1951 Convention and has not enacted refugee or asylum-specific legislation. UNHCR is the only agency that provides registration services and documentation for asylum-seekers and refugees under its mandate in Syria. Although the Government of Syria does not issue any specific refugee documentation, it issues residency permits in accordance with its immigration laws to refugees and asylum-seekers holding valid UNHCR-issued identity document. Refugees and asylum-seekers are supported through UNHCR's community-based programs and partner organizations, providing access to cash assistance, GBV and child protection support, MHPSS, among other services.
