

CENTRAL AFRICAN REPUBLIC: SITUATION IN NUMBERS

recent fightings in Bangui- 26/30 September 2015

UNHCR
The UN
Refugee Agency

SEPTEMBER

Body of a Muslim man found near a mosque in PK5

26

Clashes between communities in 3rd and 5th districts. The only Muslim community radio in Bangui and a church in the 5th district were ransacked

Armed combats between armed groups in the 3rd and 1st districts.

27

10 international organizations had offices and residences looted. Several houses and public buildings set on fire. Curfew declared

Protest next to the Presidential Palace, several casualties and wounded. Barricades blocking all axis of the city. Mosque in 2d district vandalized.

28

No access to airport. All flights from and to CAR cancelled. In Bambari, more than 10 people wounded after clashes in the city.

Airport runway occupied by demonstrators, then cleared. Petrol stations closed

29

Some NGOs evacuated their staff to DRC, via the river. Around 765 Central Africans have fled to DRC on 28 and 29 Sept.

Heavy shootings in the 8th district. Clashes between internal forces and MINUSCA. People continue to flee

30

No humanitarian access to provide emergency assistance to the wounded and to the most vulnerable people. President Samba-Panza returned from NY where she was attending UNGA.

421,000
IDPs since 2013

1 out 5
Central Africans is displaced today (internally or externally)

Over 42,500
people newly displaced in Bangui (as 30 September)

1 out 2
Central Africans is in need of humanitarian assistance

At least 40
people died during the latest outbreak of violence

Over 250
wounded during the latest violence

470,000
Central African refugees in neighboring countries

Source: CCCM Cluster, Protection Cluster, UNHCR Bangui, Central African Republic

For more information contact: Kouassi Lazare Etien, UNHCR Representative, etien@unhcr.org; Dalia Al Achi, PI Officer, alachi@unhcr.org; Ndeye Marie Cisse, Associate reporting Officer, cisse@unhcr.org