Highlights

- On 15 December 2013, AFAD - the Disaster and Emergency Management Agency of Government of Turkey - announced that the total number of Syrians registered and assisted in 21 camps and one transit center in 10 provinces was 206,080 including 141 Syrians receiving medical treatment in hospitals. AFAD reported that during the weekend (13-15 Dec 2013) 3,810 Syrians were admitted and registered in the camps and 1,900 Syrians have voluntarily returned to Syria.
- According to the information from AFAD, since the beginning of the crisis, the total number of Syrians who had been accommodated in the camps reached over 424,000 persons while more than 216,000 of them reportedly voluntarily returned to Syria. Reportedly during the period of Jan to 15 Dec 2013, the number of Syrians in the camps increased by about 40%.
- In Kilis the local police conducting the registration of the non-camp Syrians informed that they suspended the registration for a few days as the registration center is being moved to another location in the city center. The police informed that they are issuing ID cards to the registered refugees.
- On 15 Dec. 2013, local authorities in Viransehir camp informed that the camp's population is over 4,000 in the first week of the camp's opening. About half of the residents accommodated in Viransehir camp were transferred from the Kilis transit center. Local officials in the Kilis transit center estimate that there are still more than 2,000 persons in the center.
- Local officials in the camps in Ceylanpinar and Midyat, informed that they are in need of heaters. UNHCR is in the process of an urgent delivery of some 3,000 heaters to Ceylanpinar camp and 600 to Mardin Midyat camp. In Mardin the camp officials stated that because of the harsh winter conditions and heavy snow, they are planning to accommodate up to vulnerable 200 families from urban areas to the camp.
- On 15 Dec. 2013, AFAD reported that about 2,572 Syrians were newly admitted in 24 hours (Saturday to Sunday) from the border areas. Local officials in Kilis informed that on Saturday over 1,000 Syrians were admitted from IDP camps in Bab Al Salame (SAR) as the transfer has been suspended on Friday because of a dispute between the opposition groups.
