Approximately 60 asylum-seekers were admitted into Hungarian asylum procedures close to Horgos I and Kalabija border-crossings every day. Some 50-100 asylum, including women and children, waited outside the two “transit zones” in the open land at any one time. They arrived from the Refugees Aid Points (RAP) in the West and from Belgrade.

UNHCR/HCIT distributed food and non-food aid, including UNHCR torchlights, blankets, and raincoats, to those waiting. MSF offered medical assistance. UNHCR is waiting for clearance from authorities to also provide access to sanitary facilities and emergency rain shelters.

WEST

The numbers of refugees in the three RAP in the West continued to fluctuate. Around 164 refugees were hosted at the end of the reporting period in Sid, Adasevci and Principovac, including several who returned there tired from having waiting in the open outside the Hungarian “transit zones”.

CRS/Divac Foundation continued to distribute hot meals at all three RAP. The UNICEF/WV/CSW child friendly space in Adasevci hosted a total of 51 children and 12 women. BCM/Sid Health Centre at Adasevci RAP and WAHA treated over 60 patients.

Approximately 70 refugees remained hosted at the Principovac RAP. They reported deteriorating hygienic conditions, leading to foul odours and an infestation by mice and head lice.
