Key findings

Nine Advice and Legal Aid Centres (ALAC) are operational in the main refugee-hosting areas of four provinces and provide free legal support to persons of concern (PoCs). Eight of these centres are run by a partner SHARP in Khyber Pakhtunkhwa (KP), Sindh, Punjab and Islamabad Capital Territory (ICT) while one run by SEHER in Balochistan through partnership agreements.

In May 2019, UNHCR and its partners provided legal assistance to a total of 2,405 persons of concern. During the month, UNHCR and its partners intervened at police stations for 135 arrested/detained PoCs and secured release of all. In majority of the cases, UNHCR and its partners managed to obtain the release of the arrested PoCs before the official lodging of charges against them by law enforcement agencies which resulted in their release from detention within 24 hours. Additionally, ALAC partners provided court representations to 43 PoCs charged under the Foreigners Act and other preventive laws subsequently resulting in their release by the orders of the courts.

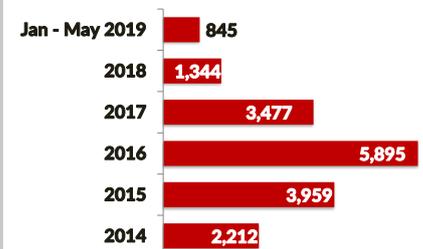

ALAC teams and the Ministry of SAFRON continue to take proactive steps to mitigate the risk of detention, including enhanced advocacy, pre-emptively intervening at police stations to prevent arrests and enhancing the response capacity of partners. UNHCR has developed and disseminated additional awareness raising materials on legal assistance programs available for PoCs (ALAC posters, brochures & use of social media).

When compared with May 2018 (85 Ind), a significant increase of (111%) in arrest and detention has been observed in the reporting month (179 Ind) majority of which occurred in the province of KP (80 Ind). UNHCR will continue to advocate for extension and renewal of Proof of Registration (PoR) cards beyond 30 June 2019, as well as timely issuance of the official notification for further dissemination among refugee communities, UNHCR's partners and law enforcement agencies.

Access to legal assistance and legal remedies

Advice and Legal Aid Centre (ALAC) activities in 2019 include the following:

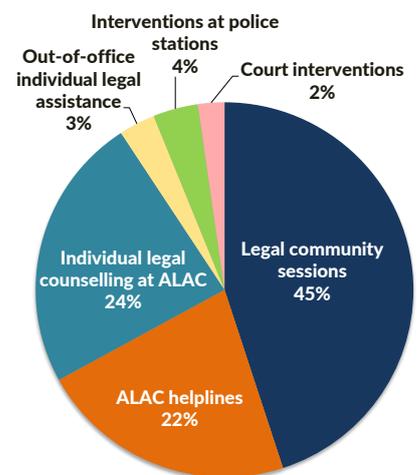

a) provision of legal intervention at police stations upon arrest/detention; b) court representation in the cases of arrest/detention and other issues regarding civil/family/tenancy matters etc.; c) individually facilitated counseling (legal advice) at ALACs and through helplines; d) out-of-court legal assistance; e) legal sessions in the form of legal camps, shura meetings and facilitated group discussions; and f) coordination with and training of law enforcement authorities including border officials and the judiciary.

In May, partner's staff provided individual legal counselling to 562 PoCs who visited the Advice and Legal Aid Centres as well as legal advice to a total of 620 PoCs through ALAC helplines. Birth registration, police harassment, information on repatriation, PoR card modifications and asylum applications were the issues of greatest concern observed during the reporting period. Out-of-court legal assistance was provided to 105 PoCs, mostly related to police harassment, PoR card verifications, rental agreements and affidavits.

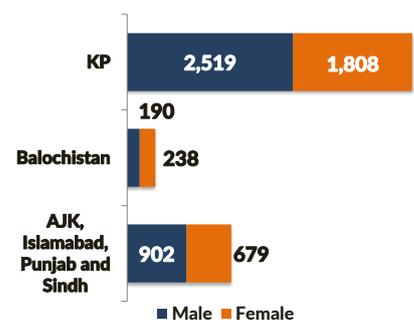

UNHCR and ALAC staff also organized a total of 48 legal camps and shura meetings, reaching 896 participants (51% of whom were women) in the reporting month. 54% of the legal sessions were held in refugee villages and the remaining sessions in urban areas of Pakistan. Through these legal sessions, refugees shared various issues affecting their communities. UNHCR partner staff informed refugees of available free legal aid and UNHCR helpline services.

In a bid to enhance the capacity of border officials on international protection and UNHCR's mandate, UNHCR Sub Office Peshawar organized a one day capacity building workshop at Torkham border. The session was attended by 20 border and immigration officials, political administrators, IOM staff and anti-polio workers.

ALAC legal assistance activities

Legal group participation

UNHCR continues to deploy border monitors at the two official Pak Afghan border crossings – Torkham (KP) and Chaman (Balochistan) – in order to identify potential protection issues during border movements.

Refugee-police liaison committees have been established in the districts of Mardan, Sawabi, Buner and Malakand in Khyber Pakhtunkhwa after successful implementation in the districts of Charsadda, Peshawar and Nowshera to enable refugees directly approaching police.

There are 31 ALAC lawyers countrywide who provide the legal aid/assistance described above (18 in KP, 2 in Balochistan, 5 in Punjab/AJK, 3 in Sindh and 3 in Islamabad).

UNHCR is expanding its legal assistance network through the identification of pro bono lawyers in addition to the existing ALAC legal aid program.
