Emergency response update

Protection concerns and response

- On 27 October, SARC legal team conducted legal awareness sessions and counselling for 144 IDP families hosted in three collective shelters in Hassakeh. 46 cases were identified for further legal support to obtain their individual and civil documentation.
- As of 27 October, a total of 1,214 IDP families/5,500 individuals in 37 collective shelters in Hassakeh (23), Maabada (5), Malkieh (3), Tal Hamis (2), Tal Tamer (3) and Raqqa (1) have been reached with different protection activities such as psychological first aid, psycho-social support, recreational activities for children, fast-tracking for assistance and other support for persons with special needs, legal interventions, etc.
- In addition, protection assessments in five collective shelters are ongoing. The main concerns identified so far include lack of privacy, lack of showers, food for infants, and the need for dignity kits.
- In Mahmoudli camp, camp administration handed over personal documents for 50 IDP families; 5 families later left the camp for Deir-ez-Zor and Raqqa governorates. Camp administration along with support from UNHCR partners are working to return personal documents for 300 families.
- In Areesha, sorting and organizing of personal documents to the former Mabrouka population is being finalized. Camp administration announced that IDP return trips will resume on Wednesday for both Areesha and Mabrouka populations. So far 100 IDP families from Mabrouka registered to return to Deir-ez-Zor; registration will continue tomorrow. UNHCR is following up on personal documentation in the Archive Room support its return to families.

NFI and shelter response

- As of 28 October UNHCR has reached an estimated 95,000 individuals with NFIs and winter items to the newly displaced people in the collective shelters and host communities as well as the camp population.
- UNHCR winter distributions have already reached nearly 43,000 people in Al Hol, Areesha, Ein Issa before it closed, Roj and Mahmoudli camps – or nearly half of the camp population in NES.
- UNHCR NFI distributions are ongoing in 112 urban areas and collective shelters to IDPs and host community in Hassakeh, Mabada and Qamishli. To date, an estimated 51,953 individuals have received UNHCR NFI assistance. It is estimated that UNHCR has reached 47 per cent of those recorded to be displaced across 112 locations of Hassakeh, Malikeyeh, and Qamishli sub-districts.
- UNHCR has completed basic shelter repairs in 15 shelters benefitting over 2,600 individuals; and work is planned for another seven communal shelters with 1,200 individuals. However, a lack of privacy is becoming a serious concern in the collective shelters.
