An asylum-seeker applies for the cash-assistance programme with a UNHCR staff member at the Vathy Reception and Identification centre on the island of Samos. UNHCR provides cash-assistance to restore dignity, increase empowerment and allow people the choice of how to cover their basic needs, as part of the EU-funded ESTIA programme.

Overview

In October, 84,846 eligible refugees and asylum-seekers (43,126 families) received cash assistance in Greece, in 123 locations.

UNHCR provides cash assistance in Greece, as part of the ESTIA programme, funded by the European Commission. Cash assistance restores dignity and empowers asylum-seekers and refugees who can now choose how to cover their basic needs. It also contributes directly to the economy of the host community through the purchase of services and goods. UNHCR in Greece works with the Greece Cash Alliance partners the International Federation of Red Cross and Red Crescent Societies (IFRC) and Catholic Relief Services (CRS).
