MYANMAR EMERGENCY OVERVIEW MAP

Number of people displaced in South East since Feb 2021 and remain displaced

AS OF 06 DEC 2021

WEEKLY HIGHLIGHTS

In the reporting period, clashes and fighting continued across South-East Myanmar causing new displacement, particularly in Kayah State, with the overall number of people reported to be displaced in the South-East reaching 173,800 as of 6 December.

In the first week of December, the security situation continued to deteriorate in Kayah State with the increased presence of security forces and daily clashes reported particularly in Demoso Township. Over 850 people were displaced to Hpruso Township from within the township, as well as from Demoso and Loikaw townships, with secondary displacement accounting for over 60% of the reported displacement figure. This brings the total number of people currently displaced in Kayah State to 85,000 as of 6 December.

Increased returns were reported in Tanintharyi Region by media sources, with some 3,500 internally displaced persons reported to have returned to their villages of origin.[3]

Due to the deterioration of the security situation in Kayin State and the intensification of clashes reported between security forces and the ethnic armed organizations (EAOs) in Hpapun area, displacement figures are likely to be higher and include some secondary and temporary displacements.[4]
