EEIRH-

- Safe spaces for women have been set up at Blue dot centres: 3,346 people were reached with information about WSS and expressed interest to use its service.

- 1,118 persons received individual services (information on SRH and GBV, health services, psychosocial services, and distribution of winterized hygiene and dignity kits associated with information on PSEA).

- 818 persons participated in group activities.

- 4 trainings on SRH and GBV for the WGSS staff were organized and conducted in the WGSS sites in Baia Mare, Brasov, Bucharest and Targu-Mures.

Upcoming activities: Empowerment through Self Defense training of around 50 Ukrainian refugee women and their teenagers on Feb 24-25 in Tg Mures by myself and Tatiana Kolot, Ukrainian refugee from Odessa, stationed in Sibiu, active in collaboration with the Association for Liberty and Gender Equality (A.L.E.G.). It will be a very emotional encounter, as we will mark one year since the war began. EEIRH is planning a similar training in March for another 50 participants.

IMA
