

Key figures at Regional level

New arrivals<sup>1</sup>: January 2023 vs. January 2022

Estimation of Persons of concern in Mixed Movement in the region as of 31 January: 1,119

In January 2023, some 1,100 refugees and migrants were estimated to have transited through the Western Balkans as part of mixed movements, (29% more than January last year). Given the nature of movement of these persons, including as a result of pushbacks and/or reverse flow, UNHCR uses data on arrivals to estimate how many persons are a part of mixed movements (MMs) in a given time period.

Asylum statistics in the Western Balkans in 2023

Intentions to seek asylum: 2,137    New asylum applications: 92    Application vs. Intention**** 4%

To explore asylum data, please visit Western Balkans Asylum Dashboard

<sup>1</sup> 'New arrivals' in the Western Balkans does not include Ukrainians as of 24 February 2022. For more information on Ukraine Refugee Situation, please visit the Operational data portal

* Includes Serbia and Kosovo (S/RES/1244 [1999]).
 ** for North Macedonia, data on arrivals are not official government data, they are UNHCR estimation based on different sources and do not imply official endorsement by UNHCR.
 *** Data on arrivals in Serbia is provided by Serbian Commissariat for Refugees and Migrations and Asylum Authorities
 **** 4 countries are having an asylum policy with a procedure including Intention before the application to asylum (Albania, Bosnia and Herzegovina, Montenegro, and Serbia).

Includes Serbia and Kosovo (S/RES/1244 [1999]). The boundaries and names shown, and the designations used on this map do not imply official endorsement or acceptance by the United Nations.

Note: Data presented in this dashboard is collected by UNHCR in the Western Balkans, including data collected by UNHCR Public Information focal points, data collected through Border Protection Monitoring (BPM), as well as monthly arrival and asylum statistics provided by authorities in each country. This data should not be considered final and may change as per the latest updates made available by the authorities. Persons in Mixed Movements (MMs) are considered 'new arrivals' as a part of irregular flow. Data on irregular arrivals and transit of persons through the countries in the Western Balkans may contain double counting of the same persons. It is, therefore, advised not to use the sum of these figures.

Persons of concern present at the end of January in each country:

5,649

Some 5,600 persons were present in the Western Balkans as of end January 2023, including 158 unaccompanied and separated children (UASC). Of these, 65% were present in Serbia, followed by Bosnia and Herzegovina (23%), Kosovo & Montenegro (four per cent each), Albania (three per cent and North Macedonia (one per cent). This also include estimated number of persons present outside government-run centres.

Persons of concern present in the Western Balkans countries are accommodated in government-run centres; IOM-run centres, asylum-seekers and persons granted international protection in asylum centres and persons on the move in transit centres.

Persons of concern present at the end of reporting period by month:

Most common nationalities of Persons of concern present at the end of January in the Western Balkans region

Number of unaccompanied or separated children present at end of the reporting period:

158

* Security Council Resolution 1244 (1999)